Negro Missionary Presents Concert

Rev. J. Basil Matthews, O.S.B., first colored missionary ordained Benedictine in the United States, and a troupe of singers will present a program of negro spirituals and folk songs at St. Joseph's hall, the evening of Wednesday, July 2. The concert is being sponsored by the Salem council, Knights of Columbus. The singers are known as the "Caribbean Knights of Calypso," featuring a native artist who appears as Sir Lancelot, tenor. The program is presented in five episodes with five supporting artists. Between vocal selections, Father Basil explains the folk lore significance to the audience. Assisting Grand Knight Henry Kropp in making arrangements for the concert are Joe Roshenflusch, John Nathman, Ed Majek, Ed Heenan, and Pierce A. Carmichael. Proceeds from the performance will be utilized in assisting Trinidad missions.
