Dorothy Tupling Weds Salem Man

One of July's most charming brides was Miss Dorothy May Tupling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tupling of Portland, whose marriage to Charles R. Barber of Salem, son of Mrs. Oscar Barber of Abilene, Texas., took place Saturday night at Westminster Presbyterian church. The church was decorated for the wedding with white gladioluses, snapdragons and roses against a background of palms and lighted candles.

Preceding Miss Tupling down the bridal aisle were her sister-in-law, Mrs. William Lloyd Tupling of Boise, Ida., as matron of honor, and her sister, Margery, as maid of honor. Both attendants wore dresses of blue marquisette embroidered with bouquets of pastel flowers and carried sheaves of pastel-toned water lilies.

The dark-haired bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white marquisette embroidered with full-blown roses and tiny buds. It was made in princess style with a train. Her two-tiered finger-tip length veil was caught to her hair with three large white roses and she carried a cluster of the same roses.

James Stone of Salem was best man for Mr. Barber and ushers were Harold M. Currie, C. W. Fletcher, William Lloyd Tupling of Boise and C. Gordon Tupling.

The wedding reception was held in the garden at the home of the bride's parents. Presiding at the supper table were Mrs. James Matchet and Mrs. E. H. Wright of Seattle; Mrs. C. T. Richardson of Hillsboro; Mrs. Herman C. Netzel, Mrs. James A. Llyle and Mrs. Henry J. Casey.

Leonard Ranton was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white Ninon sheer with bishop sleeves, sweetheart neckline border with seed pearls and a full skirt with a train. Her tulle veil, lace-edged, fell from a seed pearl halo and she carried a colonial bouquet of Humboldtii bouvardia and Rapture roses.

The bride's sister, Mrs. William H. Bradford of Salem, as matron of honor wore blue marganza similar in style to the bride's dress and carried blue delphiniums, pink bouvardia and sweet peas with the same flowers in her hair. The bridesmaid, Miss Marjorie Thorne was in pink marganza with similar flowers.

Best man was Otto Wilson, Jr., of Salem. Ushers were William Toney, John Kelly and Mainard Saxton.

The ceremony took place on July 3 at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial park in Glendale, Cal. Rev. J.
