

Forest Fires Claim First Linn Victim

Albany—Richard Jones, 25, was the first victim of forest fires in Linn county when he died Saturday following head injuries suffered when struck by a burning snag. He was taken to the Lebanon hospital at 8:30 o'clock and died shortly after noon.

Kenneth Berg, Jones' companion, was also injured on the shoulder, but it was thought his condition was not serious.

The McDowell creek blaze was well in hand throughout the night and today. Only a strong wind can create more damage. The big Crabtree creek burn was reported practically extinct.

Tax Collections Reported

Albany—Linn county tax receipts collected by the sheriff's office totaled $767,404.65 during the first six months of this year, according to the report of Amy Ross, deputy sheriff in charge of tax collections.

The report shows that this far delinquent interest and taxes totaling $66,420.44 have been collected and turned over to the treasurer. The 1941 roll collections totaling $71,846.89 leaving $335,186.59 yet to be collected or turned over. Total income brings the county's revenue from tax sources to within $139,628.83 of the total roll, which is $907,053.48.

The semi-annual report of County Clerk R. M. Russell reveals that Linn county has spent $204,591.19 on roads, that unexpended road fund balance totals $125,072.42.

The summary of County Treasurer Grover C. Nance's report shows a total of $891,429.63 in cash received from all sources by his office during the last half year, which added to a $328,719.63 balance brings to $1,220,149.26 the total of income accounted for. This is in excess of the total amount of budgeted county expenses by $137,115.88.

Civilian Defense Council Organized

Dallas—Initial steps in organizing Polk county for civilian defense were taken at a meeting held in the Court House Friday night when L. E. Finney, mayor of Dallas, was elected county chairman and Guy Nugent, mayor of West Salem, was elected vice-chairman. Bill Blackley, Dallas, was named as coordinator.

According to the chairman, civilian defense will be named in the immediate future in order to ensure the speedy completion of the county defense council and plan the entire organization on an actively functioning basis. State defense coordinator, Jerrold Owen, and Irl S. McSherry of Salem were in attendance and spoke briefly.

Mrs. Davis Returns Is Given Welcome

Hazel Green—Local residents enjoyed a short visit recently with Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, house guest at the home of Mrs. Minnie Dunnigan. Mrs. Davis resided in this community for 25 years prior to the disposal of the family home to the Ole Nyseth family. For the past year Mrs. Davis made her home at Pullman, Wash., where her son Sanford is a junior at Washington State college where he is taking a veterinary course. For the summer he is employed in Portland at the Dog and Cat hospital. Mrs. Davis has spent several weeks with her son, Homer, at his Jefferson home and is leaving this week for Coquille where she will be the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater. Later in the summer enroute home she will visit with her two daughters, Mrs. Jack Boyd (Louise) of Milwaukie and Mrs. Chester Ireland (Helen) of Portland.

Mrs. Davis will spend the coming winter in Pullman. For her pleasure while here Mrs. Dunnigan entertained with a dinner with guests present including the honor guest, Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wampler and daughter Marion Lou and the hostess, Mrs. Dunnigan.

Mrs. Dunnigan is anticipating the arrival of her grandson, George Dunnigan of Milwaukee, who will be her house guest for an indefinite period.

Church Women Meet At Ray Residence

Independence—An enjoyable afternoon was spent by the WSCS at the home of Mrs. T. W. Ray Thursday afternoon. The devotion was led by Mrs. George De Witt, and the lesson, "Investing Our Heritage," was given by Mrs. A. G. Byers.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Present were Mrs. Elmer Barnhart, Mrs. A. G. Byers, Mrs. Lee O'Kelley, Mrs. George DeWitt, Mrs. Ed Kelley, Mrs. Charles Smiley, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. George DeForest, Mrs. Newhall, Mrs. C. G. Irvine, Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, Mrs. Percy Dickinson, Mrs. Arthur Black, Mrs. Carrie Smiley and Carlene Schofield.

Jury Call Changed

Dallas—A last minute change in circuit court proceedings took place Saturday when Judge Arlie G. Walker instructed Carl S. Graves, county clerk, to notify the jury which had been ordered to report Monday morning to be on hand Thursday at 9:30 o'clock instead of Monday. The case on the docket is that of LaChance vs. Lentz.

State Camp Meeting Starts at Woodburn

Woodburn—Activities at the Church of God state camp meeting got well under way Sunday with the auditorium, which seats from 800 to 1000 many standing. Speakers were Dr. Charles Ewing Brown and A. F. Gray at the two general services. Meals were served at the cafeteria to 150 people, many campers cooked their own meals and a number took meals up town.

Although many have not yet registered and more people are arriving daily, the register Sunday showed visitors and campers from the states of Washington, Idaho, In-

Green Oregon Unit Organized

Lebanon—A Keep Oregon Green committee of representatives from Lebanon clubs was formed here Saturday for the purpose of building up local interest and membership in Governor Sprague's drive to protect Oregon forests.

Eugene McNulty, field representative, who organized the local group, announced that Lebanon and Albany are being used as experimental cities in the campaign, and if the local committee plan works here, it will be adopted in other cities in Oregon.

The Lebanon Keep Oregon Green committee is as follows: Ken May, chairman, representing Lions club; Mrs. Oliver Gunderson, Mrs. F. G. Bowersox and Mrs. J. C. May, representing the Garden club; Ray Gleason, representing the American Legion, and Robert Hayden, publicity.

Silverton

Mrs. Orebek Enjoys Eastern Visit; Lebanon Resident Reported Ill

Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs drove to Albany Friday evening to be with their daughter, Mrs. James E. Jenks (Dorothy Hubbs) who recently submitted to major surgery at the Albany General hospital.

Mrs. Ingeborg Orebek, mother of Elmer Johnson, has written that she is greatly enjoying her stay with relatives in Arcadia and Osseo, Wis., where she had attended the wedding of a nephew and is at the homes of a brother and sister whom she had not seen for more than 22 years.

Everett Dixon is employed at the Lockheed aircraft at Burbank, Calif., and Mrs. Dixon plans to leave this week to be with her husband following a brief visit with relatives at Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McKinney (Dora Morris) of Compton, Calif., left Saturday for Salem and Silverton where they will be with McKinney's parents in Salem and with Mrs. McKinney's mother, Mrs. Maud Morris, here, for their fortnight's vacation.

E. K. Burton, city manager, has leased a home in Cowing addition and plans for the arrival of Mrs. Burton from Marshfield during the coming month.

A. C. Barber returned from a trip to Marshfield and coast resorts and is ill at his home in West Main street.

John Thurman and two of his sisters, Mrs. Kate Porter and Mrs. Charles Watson, were called to Lebanon, Saturday, to be with another sister, Mrs. Eliza Whitlock, formerly of Silverton, who is very ill. Mrs. Porter returned Thursday from Willott springs where she and a sister, Mrs. Susie Remington of Whitton had been guests for twelve days of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Thurman of Clatskanie.

Auburn

Wisconsin Specialist Makes First Trip to Oregon; Advertisers Attend Camp Meeting

Among prominent out of state visitors in the community was Dr. W. A. Hazleton from Hayward, Wis. He is a specialist in the treatment of cancer, and has been very successful, using the "Koch cancer treatment" in many cases. He is also a naturopath. He and the late Charles Cady were long and close friends. This is his first visit to the capital.

Several members of the Seventh Day Adventist faith have motored to Gladstone Park to attend the annual camp meeting of the church being held there for two weeks.

Hay makers who batters have been busy through the heat, but have not been able to make usual speed, having suffered more than in any haying season remembered.

Mrs. Sappingfield III Pratum—Mrs. Ethel Rice and her granddaughter from Portland are at the home of Mrs. Rice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sappingfield. Mrs. Rice is caring for her mother who is ill.

COOL, AIR-CONDITIONED
LIBERTY
CAROLE LOMBARD MONTGOMERY

"Mr. and Mrs. Smith"
Plus 2nd Hit
"CONVICTED WOMAN"
with Rochelle Hudson

15c
Continuous Daily from 1:00 P.M.

Grange Voices Protest When Beer Proposed

Silverton Hills—An interesting meeting of the Silverton Hills Grange was held Friday night at the hall. Maurice Benson in charge as master and Mrs. Helen Knauf, lecturer.

A petition to the county authorities was signed by many residents of the community protesting the establishing a beer parlor within a distance of 30' feet from the hall. T. T. Leonard, proprietor of the Winlock Handy factory was tendered a vote of thanks for furnishing broom handles for the pounding of materials in the making of the mattresses for the project underway for ten days.

During the lecture hour a patriotic tableau, composed by Mrs. Knauf, was staged by the juveniles with Lyle Murray as the boy, Jean Murray as the fairy and as butterflies were Mary Ann Murray, Dona Knauf and Frances Benton.

The tableau enacted the fairy assisting the boy place the stars on the background material of the American flag, assembled by the butterflies. The selection was well received.

Readings were given by Mrs. Victor Howard, Marjory Rohrachio and Harold Rowan. A gift was given by Mrs. Emma Coberly, John Maulding, Alfred Lee, Victor Howard and Frank Porter.

A safety driving contest quiz was conducted by Mrs. George Benson with the entire group participating.

In charge of the refreshment hour with additional numbers of women assisting were Sarah Maulding, Edith Beugli and Grace Mulkey.

The Grange will continue their meetings through the summer months.

Hungarian Still In This Country

Silverton—The speaker at today noon's Rotary luncheon at Toney's Eat Shop was Julius Fausz, who came to the United States a year ago as a delegate from the 82nd Hungarian district to the International convention in Havana.

Since that time, due to travel conditions, Fausz has been unable to return to his country. His talk had to do with past and present conditions in Hungary and the influence of Rotary there.

The president has asked for a meeting of his directors and the aims and objects committee, tonight at Coolidge & McClaine bank, including Glenn Briedwell, S. Parry Rose, Lowell Brown, Earl J. Adams, Dr. C. R. Wilson, John W. Jordan, Ralph Larson, H. W. Adams, Tom Anderson, Alvin Legard and H. J. Grills.

Gasoline Blast Wrecks Light Car

Kelzer—A spectacular fire occurred here Sunday afternoon about 3 o'clock when the gas tank on a Model A 1929 Ford car, traveling east in the road west of the schoolhouse, near the Arthur Holden place, exploded and caught fire, sending the flames high into the air.

George Perber, the owner, was the only passenger and escaped unhurt. Neighbors tried to put out the fire but were unsuccessful. Fortunately it was not near enough to the houses to set fire to them.

Late Vacations At Labish Center

Labish Center—With the peak of the busy season past many residents are availing themselves by taking vacation trips to the beaches and outstate places of interest. Mr. and Mrs. William Hornshuch returned recently from a tour through southern Oregon and northern California including stopovers at Crescent City, Cal., the Oregon Caves and Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Starker, who have been house guests at the home of Starker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Starker, have left for their home in Washington, D. C. Enroute via the southern route the Starkers plan on stopovers in California and southern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rasmussen and daughter Arlene left the past week for North Dakota where they will spend six weeks vacation visiting with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rutherford (Erma Hornshuch) of Portland were recent week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hornshuch parents of the latter. Their marriage was an event early last month.

Tommy Girard, Rodney and Perry Jones were invited from Independence to attend a dancing party given by Miss Dorothy Ann Hobson at Valseiz.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dickinson, Harvey Dickinson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert White are vacationing until Tuesday at the Harvey Dickinson cottage at Delake.

Senator Jones Talks To Woodburn Rotary

Woodburn—Senator Ronald E. Jones of Brooks was the guest speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Woodburn Rotary club, held Thursday noon at the Woodburn hotel. His topic was "Unemployment Insurance as Related to Social Security," and he handled the subject in a manner which made it clear to his listeners. He was introduced by Lyman H. Shorey. Visiting Rotarians were Thukham Gilbert and R. L. Elstrom of Salem, S. Parry Rose of Silverton and Art Relling of Hillsboro, first president of the Woodburn club. Captain Elburn T. Sims was also a guest.

Mrs. Ashbaugh Honor Guest on Birthday

Brooks—Mrs. Dollie Ramp entertained with a lawn party Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Mary Ashbaugh on her birthday. The evening was spent with "800" and Chinese checkers. Refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Mary Ashbaugh, the honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gille, Mrs. Roy Reed, Mrs. Harry Singletary, Mrs. William Cottle, Mrs. Alice Streeter, Mrs. Harry Bosch, Mrs. John Dunlavy and the hostess Mrs. Dollie Ramp.

HOME OWNED
HOLLYWOOD 15c
Today-Tue-Wed. 2 FEATURES

"Boyer-Sullivan"
"Back Street"
AND SECOND FEATURE

"IT'S UNUSUAL... BUT NICE"
MARGIE
with MOSHA AUST

15c
Also News and Comedy

"Men of Boys' Town"
Time: 2:30-5:45-9:30
—2ND HIT—

Ralph Bellamy Margaret Lindsay
"ELLERY QUEEN, MASTER DETECTIVE"
Time: 1:00-4:15-7:30-10:45
—ADDED—

Mickey Mouse Cartoon

Independence

Season Brings Many Visitors and Also Excuse for Vacation Trips

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harwood were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ayers of Seattle, Hal Flora of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. A. Cleveland of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Thomas visited relatives in Jefferson recently. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mattison spent the weekend at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde DeSart, Ruth and Gerald from Silverton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Dyke.

Tom Smith, I.G.A. grocery store manager, spent last week in Astoria visiting relatives.

Cyril Reynolds left Saturday for Los Angeles for a week's stay.

Mrs. Lucy Smith from Portland, mother of Glen C. Smith, postmaster, was a visitor at the Smith home last week.

P. F. G. Hewett returned last week from a two weeks' visit at Wapato, Wash., with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Labberton.

C. M. Baker has recently been added to the office staff of the Berthum-Meeker Feed & Seed company of Rickraill.

Mrs. B. D. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hubbard and family from San Francisco are visiting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hubbard having arrived the first of last week.

Mrs. Hugh Rogers and son Elton and daughter Gladys and Miss Anna Beatty returned recently from an 8000-mile trip through the eastern states.

Mrs. Theron Hoover and daughter JoAnn visited last week at Marshfield with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Whorton and sister, Mrs. Guy Bagley.

Miss Vivian Soden, daughter of Sam Soden from Pendleton, spent a few days last week with her father.

Miss Theron Hoover and daughter JoAnn visited last week at Marshfield with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Whorton and sister, Mrs. Guy Bagley.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dickinson, Harvey Dickinson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert White are vacationing until Tuesday at the Harvey Dickinson cottage at Delake.

Scouts Will Picnic

Woodburn—The Woodburn Boy Scouts and their families will have a picnic Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Glen Polly home on South Brown street. Each family attending is asked to bring enough weiners and buns for its own use, plus a regular picnic lunch.

TOMORROW!

A FIVE-STAR FINAL FUN FEST!

The Bride wore Crutches
and Jane Withers
A VERY YOUNG LADY

GRAND

13th and Last Day
"MOON OVER MIAMI"

Don Ameche - Betty Grable
Carole Landis - Robt Cummings
and
"ACCENT ON LOVE"

15c and Last Day
"MOON OVER MIAMI"

Don Ameche - Betty Grable
Carole Landis - Robt Cummings
and
"ACCENT ON LOVE"

Aumsville

Tennessee People Are Visitors; Perry Family Arrives From Seaside

Mr. and Mrs. Brown Walling and daughters, Juanita and Elizabeth, and son, Carl, of Springfield, Tenn., are visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bradley. They and Mr. and Mrs. Noble Bradley spent a day at Mt. Hood.

Miss Virgie Bradley has returned from a postmaster's convention at Bend. Miss Bradley is local postmaster.

Paul Gilbert has started to harvest pole beans. It is unusually early to harvest this crop.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Weis and daughter, Gertrude, have moved to California. Mr. Weis was the former fire chief, city marshal and school janitor.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Perry and family of Seaside have moved into the house previously occupied by Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Roberts.

Misses Helen and Alice Peterson of Halkey are visiting here with their grandparents, the V. C. Petersons.

Looney Tribal Reunion Held

Silverton—The descendants of Jesse and Ruby Bond Looney, pioneers who crossed the plains in '43 and settled near Jefferson in '44 held their annual reunion and family gathering in the Silverton City park Sunday.

Officers elected were Marie Stalwer Douglas of Portland, president; Karl Stelwer, Jefferson, vice-president; Ruby Griffith, Salem, treasurer; Marguerite Looney, Jefferson, secretary, and Mrs. David H. Looney, Jefferson, as historian.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Gaines of Gates; Mrs. David Looney, Jefferson; Mrs. Zephiah Job, Mrs. Hattie Sims, Mrs. George Griffith and Sonny Owens of Salem; Mrs. Henry Oberon of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Looney of Jefferson; Miss Eleanor Looney, Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Steven and Elizabeth of Preston, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stelwer of Jefferson; Miss Marguerite Looney of Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ward of Portland.

Nemo Sewing Club Has Annual Picnic

Silverton—Members of the Nemo Sewing club of Hazel Green and Central Howell enjoyed their annual picnic in the Silverton city park Sunday. Mrs. Madeline Tuve is retiring president and Mrs. George Plante is the newly elected officer with Mrs. Ione McKibben retiring secretary and Mrs. Clarence Simmons the new one.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tuve, Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Tuve, Mr. and Mrs. Perle Woods, Mrs. Verno Leighty and Grace and Glen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rasmussen, Carol and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wampler, Mrs. Maria Milne, Everett Milne, Mrs. Nellie Tuve, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McKibben, Mr. and Mrs. George Plante and Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunagan, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hynes, Carolyn, Pat and Tommy Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kittelson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Simmons and Phillip and John Jaufman.

Rickey

Humphreys Entertain Visitors; West Pointer Home On Furlough

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Humphreys have as their guests this week Mrs. Grace Goff of San Diego, and their daughter, Mrs. Barkley Newman and grandson Robert Van Patten of Port Angeles, Wash.

Miss Anita Faye Hager, daughter of Mrs. George Hager, who has undergone an appendectomy, has been removed to her home.

Jim McKinney of West Point and his mother were guests of the M. M. Magee family. He was a former Willamette student, and was a member of the football squad. McKinney is visiting his parents in Washington while he is on his furlough.

Marion

Samuels Entertain Relatives From South; Silo Felled By Heavy Wind

Guests at the Charles Samuels home are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fessler from Maywood, Calif. Mr. Fessler is a brother of Mrs. Samuels. A party given in their honor included the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Overholser, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Max Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Ari Page, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. George Massey of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. William Hardy of Stayton, Teddy Schultz and the hosts. Cards were played during the evening with high scores going to Mrs. William Hardy and George Massey and low to Mrs. Ari Page and Charles Fessler. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

The storm last week blew down the silo on the Herman DeLangh farm and the lightning struck a fire tree on the Warren Gray farm not far from the DeLangh farm. Lightning also struck the house of Bill Pearson and did considerable damage.

The mattress-making set-up got under way last week and several mattresses are being turned out every day.

Eastern Stars Meet

Independence—The Willamette Valley Matrons' and Patrons' association of the Eastern Star met Sunday at Avery park at Corvallis.

Dallas Receives Old Aluminum

Dallas—Parked under the ugly snout of a six-inch gun, a relic of the last war, at the southwest corner of the Court House square, is a chicken wire enclosure which will be the hub of the community's drive for old aluminum in every shape or form as a contribution to national defense. The drive is being sponsored by the American Legion and by the Boy Scouts of the city. The pen was set in place Friday and contributions have already found their way "over the top" to set the drive in motion.

Evergreen Folk Hold Picnic, Name Officers

Silverton—Present and former members of the Evergreen district held their annual picnic in the Silverton city park Sunday with the following officers elected: President, Will Baller, vice-presidents, Alice Egan and Anna Gelsler; secretary, Olive Ottaway.

Lou Davenport and Lon Jennings played old time music on violins; Vera and Verda Baller sang several songs; Phyllis and Pat Grogan played and sang with Pat playing the guitar accompaniment. The audience sang "America."

Present were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Roberts, Lena Wittel, Mrs. Pete Gelsler, C. C. Wittel, Joyce Kuehn, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Finlay, Norma Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Egan, Dean and Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. John Egan of Portland; Gladys Rue Ruedel, R. H. Byr, H. V. Ruedel of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Staz, Vera Ottaway, Wynola Ottaway, Doris Baller, Mrs. Theodore Kuehn, Gloria Baller, Jimmy Colton, Vera Baller, Shirley Kaufman, Virginia Baller, Theodore Kuehn, Jimmy Kuehn, Letta B. Byr, H. D. Knigh, Miles Ottaway, Ralph Baller, Dale Larson, Robert Neal, Emma Kuehn, Marian Baller, Bob Baller, Ted Finlay, Jr., Richard Baller, David Finlay, Phil Finlay, Max Finlay, Margaret Campbell, A. Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Egan, Laura Kuehn, Lena Kuehn, Earl DeSart, Alma Vorse, Dick Jim Dick, T. Edson, Bertha Kuehn, R. D. Kuehn, Howard and Richard Kuehn, Mrs. C. A. Dunagan, Arnel Egan, Bernice Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Phyllis Grogan, Mr. and Mrs. John Dick, Leah Dick, and Mrs. L. L. Lomax, Mabel Louisa, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Terry, Mrs. Sarah Adamson, Miss Emma Adamson, Miss Minnie Mader, Mrs. Fred P. Mader, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bowen, all of Silverton.

Moser Family Has Reunion

Silverton—"Aunt" Jane Moser, 85, born in Marquam on June 4, 1856, was the oldest member of the Moser clan who were among other groups meeting for their annual gathering in the Silverton city park Sunday. Mrs. Moser has four children living, two dead, 15 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren and six great, great grandchildren. Mrs. Isabella Scott of Oregon City who will be 80 on her birthday next Thursday, July 24, was also an active member of this group. Mrs. Scott was born at Scotia Mills, the daughter of John and Mary Moser Hartman, in 1861.

Officers elected were Lawrence May of Springfield, president; Earl Moser, Portland, vice-president; Mrs. Isabella Scott, Oregon City, secretary and treasurer; Oliver Moser, Valseiz, historian.

Present were Joseph Tompkins, Salem; Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Salem; John F. Davis, Salem; James Bonner, Harvey Lincoln, Silverton; Mrs. Frances Skinner, Joan and Billy of Canby; Mrs. Isabella Scott, Oregon City; Mrs. Charles Hartman, Silverton; Mrs. Clara Moser, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence May, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moser, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Moser, Salem; Mrs. Moser, Vernon Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirk of Silverton; Rilla Cook, Roy E. Cook, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moser, Tommy, Anna and Alice Moser, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Moser, Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Stanton, Dulac, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Chadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Laney, Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Stanton, Turner; W. Tyne, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Moser, Salem; Mrs. Oliver C. Moser, Silverton; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Young, Timber; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. George Shelton, Portland; Mrs. Nellie Moser, Silverton; Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Todd and Bobby, C. A. Dunagan, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. George V. Hayes, Scotia Mills; Ruth Dunagan, Portland; Mrs. H. C. Hartman, Canby; E. Edson Hartman and Edith Johnson, Canby.

Grand Jury Action Waits Zurlinden

Woodburn—Robert K. Zurlinden, charged with assault with intent to commit a statutory crime upon Pauline Mack appeared before Judge Overton Saturday and was held to answer to the grand jury with bail fixed at $1,000 which was furnished.

Zurlinden was arrested on information furnished by Arthur R. Mack. Witnesses for the state were Pauline Mack and Arthur R. Mack and their three year old daughter, Joyce Mack. The defendant waived a statement. He was represented by Glenn Jack and the state by District Attorney Miller B. Hayden.

Other recent cases in the local court were Donald James Cummings of Albany who paid a fine of $5 and costs for driving a car with no operators' license; Earl Allen Berg of Portland, $5 and costs for passing another car without sufficient clearance and Kenneth Robert Arney of Woodburn who paid a fine of $5 and costs for driving without an operator's license.

Grand Jury Action Waits Zurlinden

Woodburn—Robert K. Zurlinden, charged with assault with intent to commit a statutory crime upon Pauline Mack appeared before Judge Overton Saturday and was held to answer to the grand jury with bail fixed at $1,000 which was furnished.

Zurlinden was arrested on information furnished by Arthur R. Mack. Witnesses for the state were Pauline Mack and Arthur R. Mack and their three year old daughter, Joyce Mack. The defendant waived a statement. He was represented by Glenn Jack and the state by District Attorney Miller B. Hayden.