

SOCIETY CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Robt. L. Gemmell, Phone 3573

Jane Bishop Will Wed In East

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Thomas Bishop of Portland announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to James Francis Reville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Reville of New York City.

Miss Bishop, who has been living in New York since 1937, was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1936 and from Katherine Gibbs school in New York. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Salem, where she has visited often.

Mr. Reville was graduated from Fordham Preparatory school in New York and from Notre Dame university in South Bend, Ind. He is now on the faculty of Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., and is associated with the architectural firm of A. Hamilton Wilson in Washington.

The wedding is planned for August 30 at St. Boniface Catholic church in New York.

A guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee last week-end was Mrs. Woodmansee's uncle from Honolulu, Hilman Lalson. Dr. and Mrs. Woodmansee spent several days last week at their cottage at Neskevin. Their guests at Neskevin were Mr. and Mrs. Karl Heinlein and son, Billy.

Golden Wedding Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Johnson celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday at their country home near Silverton.

The Johnsons were married at Canby in 1891 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Avery. The bride's uncle, William Knight, officiated at the service. Eight guests who were present at the wedding also were guests at the party Sunday.

Nine children were born to the Johnsons, seven of whom were present yesterday. One daughter, Alta Krueger, was unable to be present. Two of their five grandchildren were among the guests.

Dinner was served on large tables placed in the garden. Many gifts were presented to the guests of honor.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William E. Johnson, Mrs. Martha E. Knight, Miss V. Josephine Knight, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Clark, Mrs. Bertha Lee, Mr. and Mrs. John Eld and Elizabeth Eld, all of Canby; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bradt and Miss Martha Bradt of Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. William Birtchett, Evelyn, Earl and Arnold Birtchett of Monitor; Mrs. Inez Adams and C. W. Birtchett of Marquam; Milton A. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gardner; Mrs. E. Avery, Douglas E. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Clair E. Johnson, Hon. and Mrs. Miller B. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Johnson, George V. Mahstrom, all of Salem; William E. Johnson, Jr., of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Johnson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Matheny and Jerry Matheny of Chico, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Renter of Los Angeles, Miss Alma Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Libby, Miss Althea Libby, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Torvend, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Johnson, Keith and Janice Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Torvend, all of Silverton.

2986
SIZES
2-8

Style No. 2986 is designed for sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 4 requires 1 1/2 yards of 35-inch fabric for skirt; 3/4 yard for blouse. (For sizes 10, 12, 14 and 16 years, order Pattern No. 2990).

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15¢) (cash is preferred) for PATTERN. Write plainly YOUR NAME, ADDRESS AND STYLE NUMBER. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE YOU WISH. Address: PATTERN DEPARTMENT, Capital Journal, 516 Mission Street, San Francisco, Calif.

Attractive San Franciscan visiting in the capital is Miss Barbara Timsley, who is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee at their home in South High street. Miss Timsley has been spending some time at Neskevin. — Jeston-Miller.

Country Place Party Scene

Senator and Mrs. Ronald Jones were hosts at an informal affair at their attractive country home Saturday night honoring a former Salem couple, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Macdonald of Portland.

Swimming and badminton were enjoyed preceding a beautifully arranged buffet supper.

Honoring the Macdonalds were Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Bolse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Young and the hosts, Senator and Mrs. Jones.

Local friends will be interested to know that a former Salem Heights girl, Mrs. Lincoln Wetherbee (Ruth Anderson), of Chicago, is being congratulated upon the arrival of a daughter, who has been named Marlene Marie.

Upon graduation from Starrett High School for Girls and from Wilson Junior college, Miss Anderson won high honors in art work. She also was awarded several first prizes in Chicago athletic contests, was winner of title of "Miss South-east Chicago" in a beauty contest and, in the same series, was first runner-up for title of "Miss Chicago."

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Anderson, former Salem residents, and a niece of H. M. Bibby.

Joan Beakey Hostess Tonight

Miss Joan Beakey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beakey, will entertain with a gay splash party and supper this evening in compliment to her cousin, Miss Barbara Jean Arnold. Guests will swim at Lealie pool and later will enjoy a weiner roast at the Beakey home.

Mrs. Floyd Arnold and Miss Barbara Jean, who have been here for the last three weeks as guests at the Beakey home, will leave Wednesday for their home at Coulee Dam, Wash.

Girl Tells Troth In Chicago

Announcement was made last week-end of the engagement of Miss Ina Bennett, formerly of Salem and now of Chicago, and James Purvis of Minneapolis.

Miss Bennett, a talented young pianist, is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Bennett of Glasgow, Montana. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Purvis of Havre, Mont.

The bride-elect was graduated from Willamette university and is a member of Beta Chi sorority and Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary. During her junior year she was chosen a member of Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary. She has been studying with Rudolph Reuter at the American Conservatory of Music.

The prospective bridegroom attended the University of Montana and is now studying at the University of Minnesota School of Dentistry.

Mrs. James G. A. Hutcheson and her children of Vancouver, B. C., are spending several days with Mrs. Hutcheson's mother, Mrs. George Rodgers.

The group returned yesterday from a stay at Agate Beach inn.

Nebraska auxiliary will meet July 23 for a 12:30 o'clock no-host luncheon at the home of Mrs. Zena Sharpnack, 180 Evergreen.

Mrs. Charles Claggett spent Saturday night at Agate Beach as the guest of Mrs. John J. Roberts and her daughter, Mrs. Palmer Dawes (Mildred Roberts).

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Bue (Willett Sneed) have moved to Portland and are "at home" at the Pierce apartments in Northwest Flanders street.

Mrs. Barkley Newman, who has been a guest at the J. L. Waters home, left for Port Angeles last week-end.

Miss Spears Will Honor Bride-Elect

Miss Sybil Spears will be hostess at a smart supper party Thursday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears, in Chemeketa street for the pleasure of Miss Alice Unruh, bride-elect of Robert C. Burrell.

A miscellaneous shower will fete Miss Unruh and tables will be made up for bridge following the supper hour.

Miss Unruh, one of Salem's most popular maids and a member of Spinners, will be married the afternoon of Saturday, July 26, at 4 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Unruh. Miss Spears will be among the wedding party, having been asked by the bride-elect to light the tapers preceding the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton and their son, Stuart, have left for a trip into Canada, visiting at Lake Louise and Banff. Their daughter, Miss Barbara, will visit in Portland and in Seattle as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whiteman.

Troth Of Oregon Co-ed Announced

Miss Barbara Miller was in Eugene Friday evening to attend a dessert party given by Miss Louise Moore.

During the affair Miss Moore announced her engagement and approaching marriage to James L. McGinnis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McGinnis of Spokane, Wash. At each place was a miniature wedding ring holding a parchment scroll, on which was written the news. The wedding will be an event of early September.

Miss Moore, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Moore, was a junior at the University of Oregon this last year and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. McGinnis is an instructor in aviation in Portland. He is a graduate of Oregon State college and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He is a grandson of Dr. and Mrs. William Jasper Kerr of Portland, and has visited often in Salem at the Robert Shinn residence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. DeHut and their son, Kenneth, arrived in Salem Sunday following a two weeks' motor trip to Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

Lieut. John F. Mitchell of Ft. Lewis has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mitchell, for the past few days.

Miss Patricia and Miss Suzanne Schramm, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm, have been announced as new members of Corvallis Spinners.

The young maids, former residents of Salem, have a wire circle of friends here.

Mrs. H. G. Malson, Miss Molly Jean Malson and Mack Malson, who is here from Annapolis where he has just completed his first year, have taken the Bert Ford residence at 290 West Lefelle street for the next three weeks.

Last week-end they visited with Lieut.-Col. Malson at Ft. Lewis.

Miss Josephine Baumgartner and her father, Joseph Baumgartner, spent Sunday at Dorchester House.

Legion Auxiliary Opens Convention in Eugene

Eugene (Special)—By train, plane and car the nearly 350 delegates are arriving for the special Sunday meetings of the 21st annual department convention of the American Legion auxiliary. The department membership for the year is all time high with 6,717, and the general attendance is expected to run well beyond that of any other state meeting of puffed prints and poke bonnets and Mrs. Florence Garnett is directing arrangements for the Tuesday afternoon midnight stunt show which is of the theme of the "Days of '49."

Receiving guests and responsible for a smooth running and perfectly planned session are the convention committee, Mrs. Nole Moon, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Jewel Geiger, Mrs. Helen Lewis, Mrs. Alice George, Mrs. Ethel Kast and Mrs. Miriam Bond. Lulu Burns had no little part in the weeks of preparation for the convention in her column "Chatter," and her advertising program.

Mrs. Roy L. Cooke, Albuquerque, N. M., national vice president of the western division, is the principal guest speaker of the convention.

Election of officers is of prime interest to everyone. Unopposed in her candidacy, as far as is known, will be Mrs. J. W. "Polly" McInturf of Marshfield, a most active and popular member of the department. She is to succeed Mrs. Goode who is terminating an unusually progressive year for the auxiliary. Mrs. Mae E. Whitcomb for department secretary and Mrs. Dorothy Templar, treasurer, will probably have no opposition. No other vice president has been openly mentioned except Nota Francis, prominent in the auxiliary program of the state.

Mrs. Goode has named as chairman of the resolutions committee Mrs. Dorothy Enkin, past department president, of Dallas; chairman of credentials is Mrs. Nota Francis, president of district No. 7 of Ontario; heading rules committee is Mrs. Floye von Borstel of Grass Valley, chairman of district No. 5.

Mrs. Anne Taggesell of Portland is serving as sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. Mildred Fortner as parliamentarian.

Most active and courteous to the credit of their home town are the junior auxiliary girls directed by Cecil Deal.

Miss Denham Bride Of Mr. Ramage

Miss Mildred Denham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Denham, became the bride of Robert B. Ramage, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ramage, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at impressive rites read at First Presbyterian church, Rev. W. Irvin Williams officiating.

The altar was decorated with beautiful arrangements of mixed garden flowers in pastel shades. Prof. Frank Churchill presided at the console of the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a handsome gown of white satin, made with long sleeves, a wide band of lace at the waistline and a full skirt extending into a train. Her fingertip veil was gathered at the top and held with pink and white bouvardia. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, Humboldt bouvardia and fern.

The maid of honor, Miss Louise Ramage, wore a gown of orchid net, fashioned with tight bodice, sweetheart neckline and long, full skirt. She carried gladioluses to match. Mrs. Harold Kneiss in peach net, Mrs. Elton Embrey in blue net, Mrs. Ridgley Miller in pink net and Miss Willo Van Lydegraf in yellow net were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were made identical to that of the maid of honor's and they carried gladioluses to match.

Best man for Mr. Ramage was Ridgley Miller and ushers included Harold Kneiss, Elton Embrey, Ralph Denham, brother of the bride, and Calvin Chambers.

A reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of water lilies and the bride's cake.

Mrs. John Ramage introduced guests to the receiving line. Mrs. Webb Ramage was at the punch bowl and serving the cake was Mrs. Elton Embrey. Mrs. Guy Denham of Silverton was at the gift table and passing the guest book was Miss Louise Ramage. The other bridesmaids assisted about the rooms.

The bride's mother wore a dress of aqua blue lace and Mrs. Ramage, mother of the bridegroom, was in a floral printed sheer with black and white accessories.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue wool suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Following a trip along the coast, the couple will reside at 375 East Washington street.

Miss Denham attended Salem schools and is well known here. Mr. Ramage also attended Salem schools.

(Concluded on Page 11)

Exhibit Sale

ANNIS FUR COATS

AMERICA'S FINEST FOR OVER HALF A CENTURY

July 21st, 22nd, 23rd

MR. JACK REIFF
FUR EXPERT AND REPRESENTATIVE OF ANNIS FURS

will be here to advise and help you to make your selection.

Ann's Furs
Detroit — Est. 1887 — New York
Exclusive with Miller's

Extra Savings Offered for NOW!

From the house of ANNIS—America's leading furrier for more than half a century—we bring to you fine fur coats in any size, fur or style trend you may desire... THESE COATS ARE MADE FROM THE FIRST... THE BEST... SELECTION OF SKINS FROM THIS SEASON'S NEW CATCH! The fur coat you've dreamed of owning will be here—and for much less than you'd expect to pay! You'll be delighted with the authoritative styles, the new and luxurious blendings, the flattering details and the unmistakable "look of quality" typical of all ANNIS Fur Coats. The values we will offer in this sale are amazing! Unquestionably NOW is the time to make your fur investment. Be first among your friends to own a lovely new fur coat by ANNIS, the label you'll be proud to display! 2ND FLOOR COAT SHOP.

Miller's
SALEM, OREGON

TERMS IF DESIRED