Farmer Union Hears Reports Of Activities

Central Howell—The regular meeting of the Farmers' union was held at the school house Monday evening, with Henry Torvend, president, presiding. One applicant, Harris Ault, of Route 6, Salem, was accepted and the obligation was given to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, who were accepted at the last meeting. The committee was instructed to inquire as to the reason for the negative vote.

Alvin Krug spoke of the number of announcements on certain radio programs, pertaining to meetings of farm organizations with no mention of Farmers' union. It was suggested the county president take this matter up with the management of certain stations.

The State Junior camp will be held at Camp Cleowax four miles from Florence, Ore., beginning August 21 and continuing through until Sunday. Mrs. Pauline Johnson, a staff member, urged some local young people to attend. Age limits are 15 to 21 years. Earl DeSart reported for the building committee.

Attention was also called to the market reports as given over radio station KEX at 12:15 p.m. noon, and members were urged to write this station urging the continuance of this program at this time when the change back to standard time is made in the east. The Oregon State Farmers' union picnic will be held at Champcoog park next Sunday, August 17, with a full day of events being planned. Alvin Krug of this local is chairman of the sports committee, assisted by Joe Owens of Dayton and a program for the afternoon by all the counties. Mrs. Earl DeSart was appointed as a committee of one in charge of Central Howell Banquets, and as a table committee, Ralph Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buetler and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown will serve.

Refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Frank Buetler, Mrs. Silas Torvend and Mrs. Henry Torvend serving.
