

Miss Anita Wagner
Tells Wedding Plans

From Seattle comes word today of the wedding plans of Miss Anita Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wagner of Salem, and Vernon Drye of Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drye. Miss Wagner, one of Salem's most charming maids, has been making her home in the north following her graduation from the University of Washington. The

Wedding At
St. Paul's
Saturday

An attractive and popular maid, Miss Harriet Kleinsorge of Silverton, has chosen St. Paul's Episcopal church in Salem as the setting for her wedding next Saturday afternoon, August 23, at 4:30 o'clock. Miss Kleinsorge, who is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rudolph E. Kleinsorge, will become the bride of James Turner of Corvallis and Portland.

Rev. George H. Swift will perform the ceremony before the immediate families of the couple. Miss Ruth Bedford will play the wedding marches.

The bride's father will give her in marriage. Her sister, Miss Elizabeth Kleinsorge, will be the honor attendant.

Dr. Robert Jones of Corvallis will be best man for Mr. Turner.

A small reception will follow at the Kleinsorge residence in Silverton for the wedding party and guests at the ceremony.

Senator and Mrs. Douglas McKay and their daughters, Miss Shirley and Miss Mary Lou, will leave Friday for a week's trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Silverton—The C. W. Keene home in McClaine and Main streets was the scene of one of the loveliest mid-summer social affairs of the season for an afternoon tea arranged for the pleasure of Mrs. E. W. Mutch of Penitence, B. C., and many of her friends from Portland, Salem and Silverton.

Mrs. Mutch is here for the month as house guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McGinnis of Coalgate street, and of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Woodward of Portland.

The large rooms of the Keene home were candlelighted amid an artistic decor of grey-pink gladioluses in tall and flat arrangements. The table was covered with a Venetian cloth. Presiding at the urns during the first hours were Mrs. M. C. Woodward and Mrs. George Powell, both of Portland, and during the latter period, Mrs. George Steelhammer and Mrs. W. L. McGinnis. Mrs. P. A. Loar assisted Mrs. Keene about the rooms.

Among other delightful social gestures complimenting Mrs. Mutch was a breakfast for a group at the summer cabin home of the Nelson Adamson on the North Santiam Friday, and a day among the mountains.

Dinner hosts for the popular visitor have been Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curry at the country home in the Waldo Hills section and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pritzlaff of West Main street.

Mrs. M. C. Woodward entertained today at a charmingly arranged noon luncheon at the Town club in Portland with several Silverton friends driving into the city for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marlatt of Salem were honored at dinner Saturday night when Mr. and Mrs. George Timm of Woodburn entertained in their honor.

Later the Marlatts drove to Mt. Hood, where they spent Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Hoffman
Hostess to Club Members

Mrs. Sidney Hoffman entertained members of her sewing club Wednesday night at her home.

Supper was served after an informal evening. Summer flowers formed the decor about the rooms and at the supper hour.

Club members are Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. Bjarne Erickson, Mrs. Harold Ladd, Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. Marlon Horton, Mrs. Floyd Bowers, Mrs. Charles Felke and the hostess, Mrs. Sidney Hoffman.

Expected in the capital soon are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Spear of Sacramento, Calif., who will visit friends and relatives here. Mrs. Spear was formerly Miss Wilma Geise.

Rotarians Have Annual Picnic at Chemawa

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson were hosts at another of their delightful parties at Chemawa Wednesday evening when they entertained Salem Rotarians and their families with a gay dinner and evening of sports. Two hundred and four Salem folk were present for the affair. Games of ping pong, badminton, archery and baseball were enjoyed before the dinner hour. Ellis VonEschen, president of the Salem Rotary club, was chairman of the party and was assisted by Gardner Knapp, who also presided as toastmaster.

Selections were given by the quartet from the Salem Y. Green and by Ruthy Turney, who played a Fantasy on the Blue Bells of Scotland on the double bass, accompanied by Mrs. Turney, Joseph Medicine Crow, a new member of the Chemawa staff, told Indian legends and vocal numbers were given by Dean Melvin Geist of Willamette university.

The tables in the dining room were beautifully decorated with mixed garden flowers, arranged by Mrs. Lou Ahren and Mrs. Frank Crawford. Indian girls from the school served.

Enjoying a vacation at Twin Rocks this week are Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Donaldson.

Sewing Club
Meets With
Mrs. Kerrick

Mrs. John Kerrick entertained the members of her sewing club at a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday.

Mrs. Harold Berthelson of Spokane, Wash., who is visiting in Woodburn, and Miss Ethel Martin, who is spending the summer in Salem, were special guests.

Members of the club are Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. Alton Kilian, Mrs. Lorenz Schuette, Mrs. Leslie White, Mrs. Helen Hanks, Mrs. Everett Booster and the hostess.

Miss Margaret Magee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee, has returned to the home of her parents following a stay in Los Angeles, where she attended summer session at the University of Southern California.

Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Sidney Stevens and Mrs. Eugene Halley motored to the Halley summer home at Brac-Mar beach Wednesday afternoon. They will return to their homes this evening.

Delta Phis
