Mrs. Brand Entertains For Guests

Mrs. James T. Brand will preside at a delightful luncheon and bridge party next Saturday afternoon for the pleasure of a group of out-of-town women who will be her weekend guests.

Arriving Saturday morning will be Mrs. J. W. McInturf, Mrs. A. Y. Meyers, Mrs. Lewis McGeorge, Mrs. G. C. Huggins, Mrs. Walter Asplund, Mrs. J. E. Beddingfield, Mrs. Wesley Seaman and Mrs. Frances Peck of Marshfield and Mrs. Robert Savage of Roseburg. The matrons will be in the capital until Sunday.

Mrs. Brand has invited a group of Salem women to be additional guests at the luncheon and to make up tables for contract later in the afternoon.

Mrs. Rue Drager will preside at tea Saturday afternoon at her home in North Capitol street in honor of her daughter, Miss Doris, bride-elect of James Nicholson, Jr.

Salem matrons and maids have been invited to call from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Reception To Honor Miss Kantner

Thursday night will be highlighted by the appearance of a prominent young violinist in Salem. She is Miss Katharine Kantner, who will be presented in concert at the First Congregational church at 8 o'clock. Miss Kantner, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kantner, has visited often in Salem and has many friends here. She is a granddaughter of the late Rev. W. C. Kantner.

Following the program, the young artist will be honored with a reception in the church, in charge of Mrs. George R. Rossmann.

Miss Constance Kantner will greet guests and will introduce to Miss Kantner, the guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kantner and Miss La Verne Kantner.

The serving table will be arranged by Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. James McGilchrist and Mrs. Richard Slater, who also will do the decorations about the rooms. The table will be covered with a dainty pink dotted-swiss cloth and centered with pink flowers, flanked by pink tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Robert Hutchinson and Dr. Mary Purvine will preside at the urns.

Serving will be Miss Patricia Byrd, Miss Eileen Hutchinson, Miss Arlene Thomas and Miss Carolyn Carson.

Inviting guests to the dining room will be Mrs. Edgar Pierce and Mrs. Roger Mything.

Style No. 2559 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 requires 3 yards of 54-inch fabric for dress; 1/2 yard for jacket.

Couple's Friends Invited to Reception

Rev. and Mrs. George A. Morley will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary Wednesday afternoon, October 22, at a reception to be held at their home in North Liberty street from 2 to 5 o'clock. Friends are invited through the press to attend.

Rev. Morley and Winnie Stout were married October 22, 1891, in Johnson county, Tenn. They came to Salem in 1923 and have resided here since that time. Rev. Morley retired from the ministry in 1927. Rev. and Mrs. Morley have seven children and two grandsons, all of whom live in Salem.

Salem Rebekah Lodge Announces Party Plans

The Salem Rebekah lodge met in regular session Monday evening in the I. O. O. F. Temple with Miss Helen McElroy presiding as noble grand. Mrs. Maude Rogers, chairman of the Birthday and Halloween party for next Monday night, announced plans and requested all persons whose birthdays are in October to be present. After the close of the business session the F. L. Girls arranged a card party with "500" bridge and pinocle in play. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Jennie Martin, Tom McLeod, Miss Myrtle McCloy, Mrs. Robert G. Henderson and Carl Engstrom.

Later in the evening the club served refreshments to the group. The F. L. Girls in charge were Mrs. Paul A. Heath, Mrs. Beryl Muellerhaupt, Mrs. Dorothy Hauge, Miss Helen McElroy, Miss Willowbelle Matachek, Miss Dessie McCloy and Miss Cleonora Naderman.

The F. L. club is planning a rummage sale for November 21-22 in the Nelson building and asked the cooperation of the lodge members.

During the lodge session the Past Noble Grand association presented the lodge with a new ballot box. Mrs. Clem W. Ohlsen, president of the club, made the presentation.

Thursday night, October 23, is the regular meeting of the auxiliary of the Patriarchs Militant to be held at 8 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. temple. Mrs. Clarence Townsend will have charge of the meeting.

The Rebekah lodge will hold a practice of the degree team Tuesday, October 21, in the I. O. O. F. temple as announced by the team captain, Mrs. Clarence Townsend.

Friday afternoon, October 24, at 2 o'clock in the club room of the I. O. O. F. temple, Mrs. Jennie M. Willis will have charge of the regular meeting of the Three Link club of the Salem Rebekah lodge. The hostesses will be Mrs. John Darnelle, Mrs. Roy S. McNeill and Mrs. Estella Hess.

Beta Sigma Phi Are Dinner Hostesses

Mrs. Lawrence Brown opened her attractive home in South High street last night to members of Beta Sigma Phi and their guests for a smartly arranged no-host dinner.

Autumn leaves and fruit formed the centerpiece for the table and fall flowers were used about the room. The guests enjoyed a white elephant exchange during the evening and also presented a gift to Miss Meredith Lathrop, bride-elect of Dwight Parsons.

Those present were Miss Kaye Booth, Miss Dorothy Cornelius, Miss Gerrie Mathes, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Meredith Lathrop, Mrs. Leonard Loetterle, Miss Isabel Mielke, Miss Mary White, Miss Cynthia Delano, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. Thomas Drynan, Mrs. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. Harry Weinstein, Miss Hattie Bratzel, Miss Dorothy Blaisdell, Miss Jane Harbison, Mrs. Wheeler English and Mrs. Lawrence Brown.

David W. Eyre and Miss Royena Eyre motored to resorts along the Oregon coast today.

Ladies of the G.A.R. will meet for a no-host luncheon at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sarah Oliver, 340 South Winter street.

Spinsters Assist Red Cross Work

Spinsters met Monday night at the home of Miss Sybil Spears in Chemeketa street, with Miss Doris Drager, president, presiding.

Members voted $5 to the "Red Cross Bazaar" and also gave a donation for milk for a needy girl. Plans for the annual Thanksgiving baskets for needy families were discussed.

Ten were present for the meeting last night. Miss Spears served refreshments after an informal evening.

The Woman's Union of First Congregational church will meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Kittle Graver will speak on her work at the Fairview home.

Miss Marian Steigerwald Reveals Wedding Plans

Miss Marian Steigerwald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Steigerwald of Portland, whose marriage to Edward Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Murphy of Oregon City, will be an event of November 22. Is announcing her wedding plans. The ceremony will be performed in the Rose City Methodist church in Portland, with Bishop Bruce R. Baxter officiating. Miss Betty Starr, sorority sister of Miss Steigerwald, will sing preceding the ceremony and Mrs. Esther Cox Todd will accompany her at the organ and play the wedding march.

Miss Maxine Steigerwald will be her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids will be Miss Betty Steigerwald, Miss Dorothy Mihalek, Miss Alma Sies, Miss Marjorie Schmitt, Miss Mildred Scott and Miss Mary Dorothy Simmons. The Misses Barbara and Dorothy Stephenson, cousins of the bride, will light the tapers.

Mr. Murphy has asked his brother, William Murphy, Jr., of Oregon City, to be his best man, and ushers will be Elmer Baldwin, John Spangle, Dr. Donald Bramwell and Everett McKenna, all of Portland. Lynn Latourrette of Oregon City and Edward Baltreus of Seattle.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents will follow the ceremony. Presiding at the urns will be Mrs. Dan Embree, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. A. N. Steigerwald, aunt of the bride. Mrs. C. B. Stephenson, another aunt, will cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Hugh Winstanley will pass the guest book and Miss Barbara Hain will have charge of the gift room. Assisting with the serving will be Miss Margaret Magee, Mrs. Stephen Anderson and Mrs. Otto Skopli of Salem, Mrs. Jack Redman and Mrs. Robert M. Williams of Portland and Mrs. James Arthur of Bremerton.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Portland.

Miss Steigerwald is a former Willamette student and attended Woodbury college in Los Angeles. She was a member of the Delta Phi sorority at Willamette and a member of both the Collegian and Wal-lulah staffs. Mr. Murphy attended University of Oregon and Albany college.

Auxiliary Has Program Monday

The American Legion auxiliary, Capital Unit No. 9, met in Legion Home Monday night with a large attendance. The assembly room was decorated with autumn flowers and foliage.

In honor of Columbus Day, Robert Robbins of Leslie Junior high school gave an appropriate reading. Mrs. Fred Gahldorf, hostess, presented the guests of the evening. Mrs. Mary Hartwell, Mrs. George Berlin, Mrs. M. J. Conklin, Mrs. Thelma Reese and Mrs. Shinn. New members are Miss Vivian Williams, Mrs. Mae Butler and Mrs. Glen Kirkwood.

Membership is climbing swiftly, with Mrs. Stanley Krueger as chairman. The committee has been divided into two groups, with the losing group paying a forfeit to the winners. The captains of each team plan to have the Unit quota in by October 30.

Mrs. James Carson, rehabilitation chairman, and her committee plan to drive to Roseburg to visit the Veterans Hospitals there and carry gifts from the unit.

The auxiliary will sponsor a radio program again this year on the second and fourth Mondays of each month at 9:15 o'clock over the local station, KSLM.

The sewing group will meet again Thursday afternoon to sew on articles for the American Red Cross. The Past-President's club will meet in Legion Home Monday night, October 27, for a no-host dinner.

Mrs. Charles Low, National Defense chairman, announced that groups of twelve women would be formed to begin first aid classes from the American Red Cross. Her committee will meet at her home, 235 Park avenue, Thursday night at 8 o'clock to work out further plans in the project.

After the business meeting the auxiliary joined Capital Post for refreshments and dancing. The tables in the dining hall were decorated with huge sprays of autumn leaves, to blend with the Halloween refreshments.

Decorations were in charge of membership committee: Mrs. John Nash, Mrs. Harold Perkins, Mrs. Don Madison, Mrs. J. A. Garson, Mrs. Fred Gahldorf, Mrs. J. E. Cannon, Mrs. M. Y. Brooks, Mrs. K. Smith, Mrs. Mem Pearce and Mrs. Glen Sealey.

Dancing began at 10 o'clock. The next meeting will be November 3.

Dinner Fetes Doris Haak

Honoring Miss Doris Haak of Portland, whose marriage to Clifford Bendiksen of Tacoma, will be an event of December 5, the Misses Virginia and Pearl Bendiksen and Hope Dowd entertained at an informal dinner party at their home in Mill street, Sunday.

Covers were placed for Miss Haak, Mr. Bendiksen, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Dirks of Portland, Miss Evelyn Bendiksen of Tacoma, Miss Virginia Bendiksen, Miss Pearl Bendiksen and Miss Hope Dowd.

The Maccabee Thimble club will meet at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Kurth on Route 3, Box 537, Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Friday night, October 17, the Amica and Sterling guilds of the Calvary Baptist church were hostesses at a central association banquet.

The motif of the banquet was "Autumn." The tables were centered with autumn flowers, trailing vines, gourds and candles.

During the evening Mrs. Ella Matthews gave the devotions, following which Dr. O. C. Wright showed moving pictures of the guild camp at Arrah-Wanna.

Sixty-Third Anniversary Observed

Observing their 63rd wedding anniversary yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bellamy, who reside at 702 North Church street.

J. W. Bellamy, who was born in Tennessee 33 years ago, and Nora Ward, who is now 80 years of age, were married near Benton, Ill., and in 1903 moved to Oregon and took up their residence in the Rieky district.

Later the Bellamys moved to the Fruitland community and in 1921 they to their present home in Salem. They celebrated their wedding anniversary quietly because Mrs. Bellamy has been in ill health for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy have five children, one of whom died in infancy: a son, Tullius, and a daughter, Olga Flagg, both of whom are now deceased; a daughter, Claudine Bellamy Purvine of Independence, and a son, William Bellamy, of Lebanon.

All women of First Methodist church are invited to join the study group which will meet Wednesday in the Carrier room of the church at 2 o'clock to study "Christian Roots of Democracy in America" by Arthur Holt.

Salem Women Greet Charming Newcomer at Tea Today

Several hundred Salem women called at the Y.W.C.A. headquarters in State street this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock to greet Mrs. Esther W. Little, the new general secretary of the YW. Members of the board served as hostesses for the smart affair. Mrs. Little has been in Salem since the first of September, coming here from North Dakota to accept the position with the Salem organization.

Mrs. Helen Goodenough greeted guests at the door and Mrs. W. E. Kirk introduced to the line. Receiving were Mrs. Karl Becke, president of the Y. W., Mrs. Little and Mrs. J. A. Brownson, executive board member. Mrs. Becke wore a smart black afternoon dress, with a gold-studded suede belt and gold trimmings at the neckline. Mrs. Little was in a smart dress of grape velvet, with which she wore brilliant jewelry, and Mrs. Brownson wore an afternoon frock of black silk crepe, trimmed with silver, and black accessories. Their corsages were of gardenias, roses, bouvardia and sweet peas.

The tea table, decorated by Mrs. Clifford Brown, was covered with a handsome pink damask cloth and centered with a stunning fan arrangement of pink snowball leaves and pink and lavender dahlias, guarded by pink candles in cut glass holders. About the rooms were cut glass bowls filled with autumn flowers.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Carl Sumner
