was in charge, and Miss Ruth Lorenzen served as secretary, during the auxiliary hour. Miss Vera Heldestrom was piano soloist, Bobby Boulester gave two piano-accompanied numbers and Mrs. Carl Lorenzen, a reading in a joint program with the post members as guests.

The unit voted to use the proceeds of the rummage sale, scheduled for Saturday, October 25, on the purchase of a defense bond.

Mrs. A. J. Titus is rummage sale chairman and her "pick up" committee is Mrs. J. J. Lewis, phone blue 2381, and Mrs. Al Lerfeld, phone green 1881. Used paper bags are asked for instead of newspapers for wrapping articles. The unit gratefully acknowledges the donation of articles from the Methodist and Lions auxiliary sales.

Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg, membership chairman, reported 67 paid up of the 70 quota.

Active relief for local non-undertaken families has been reported by Mrs. A. J. Titus, child-welfare chairman, with five individuals furnished food and other necessities. Five dollars Christmas cheer will be sent to child welfare and hospital centers this week. Mrs. Ernest Starr, Mrs. Sam Lorenzen and Mrs. A. J. Titus are serving today at the child health clinic from the unit. Mrs. Lewis Hall opens her home Monday night to the past president's club. Mrs. Ernest Starr, assisted by Mrs. Al Lerfeld, Mrs. A. J. Titus and Mrs. T. P. Heldestrom, entertains the unit sewing club Wednesday evening of the week at her Brown street home.

F. Grenz, Mrs. John Grenz,

Mrs. John Budd, Mrs. Richard Pheil, Virginia Motley, Mrs. D. W. Porter, Lorraine and Cornelia Bond and the hostesses, Mrs. Haight and Mrs. Boyes.

Lebanon—Mrs. Karl Gehlert, Lebanon chairman for the Linn county tuberculosis seal sale campaign, named her committee workers this week and stated that preliminary arrangements for the sale, to start November 21, are well under way.

Her committee, chosen from the Junior Woman's club, whose members are cooperating in the drive, include Frances Rice, Kae Hayden, Bertha Schackmann, Alta Wilson, Kay Bullard and Hazel Durlam.

Garden Club Outlines Program

Hazel Green—The Hazel Green Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Zeno Gregg with Mrs. Andrew Zahare, vice president, presiding over the business meeting.

The program for the coming winter was outlined and the program booklets will be ready for the next meeting. Committee in charge of the booklets is Mrs. Ralph Worden, Mrs. Andrew Zahare and Mrs. Louis Wampler. The club has resumed the radio study club sessions and some of the members plan taking the flower judging course, which is open to all clubs.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hattie Van Cleave Thursday, October 30, and will be a no-host affair with a luncheon at noon. Mrs. Daniel Heffner, state president, will be present and will speak on flower arrangement. Members are asked to bring specimens of their chrysanthemums and an exchange will be made in the spring. The flowers will be used to make floral arrangements by Mrs. Heffner.

Following the club meeting the members motored to the gardens at the Perry Henderson home and enjoyed the choice blooms of the chrysanthemums, numbering almost a hundred varieties. Mrs. Marie Perry of Elmira, New York, was a special guest for the afternoon.

Women of Knight Memorial church will entertain with a fall tea at the church Wednesday, October 22, at 2:30 o'clock. All interested women are invited to attend.

Eola—Mrs. J. W. Adams (Maxine Ferguson) was hostess for a shower Thursday night at her home on route four complimenting Mrs. Donald Kimpke.

Guests attending were members of her sewing club. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by little Beverly Nyburg.

Present were Mrs. Donald Kimpke, Mrs. B. Walker, Mrs. John Pryzbilla, Mrs. Oscar Phillips, Mrs. Ellen Nyburg, Mrs. Edward Antican, Mrs. James Sanderson, Jr., Mrs. D. D. Hewitt, Mrs. Naama Beach, Miss Helene Schultz, Beverly Nyburg and the hostess, Mrs. Adams.

Junior Girls Show Activities

Silverton—The Junior Girls of the American Legion auxiliary, Unit No. 7, are showing unusual activity in their beginning programs for the club year, according to the report given at the unit meeting Monday night by one of the advisors, Mrs. Clifton Dickerson. Miss Dorothy Towle is president.

The younger group is buying defense stamps at each meeting. They have permission and encouragement in distributing 100 flag codes in the schools.

A choral group has been organized and is preparing two numbers for the Armistice day program, when the boys from the Sons of Legion squadron will assist.

Miss Betty Towle and Miss Dorothy Stump will be assisting hostesses for the Halloween party to be given at the home of Miss Dorothy Towle at Main and Second streets.

Members from the unit giving brief talks were Mrs. Lewis Hall, telling of the history of the national and local auxiliary; Mrs. Sam Lorenzen, the star of "The Star Spangled Banner," and Mrs. Clifton Dickerson, talking on the significance of Navy day.

Silverton Couple Celebrate Anniversary

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Rhyne were honored Sunday on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary with their daughters arranging a lovely affair.

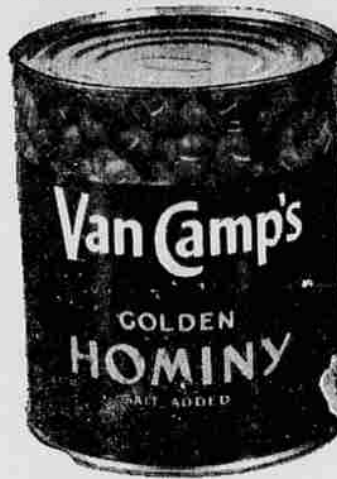

Two guests present Sunday were at the original ceremony in Iowa when Bessie Jacobson became the bride of E. M. Rhyne.
