Army Rules For Congress Are Demanded

Los Angeles, Nov. 21 (AP) — With the slogan "Army discipline for congress! No tricky pairings! No deserters!" southern California members of the America First committee demanded today that every member of congress be required to vote on important defense legislation.

Mrs. Lillian Pascal Day, legislative chairman of the Lincoln Heights chapter of Los Angeles, released a resolution addressed to Sen. Matthew M. Neely and Rep. Adolph Sabath, as chairman of the rules committees of the two branches of congress.

Neely now is governor of West Virginia, and has been succeeded as head of the senate committee by Harry F. Byrd of Virginia.

The resolution stated in part: "If one of our beardless high school $21 a month draftees goes AWOL (absent without leave) he also goes to jail. If in war he deserts, he is stood up against a wall and shot."

"But our $10,000 a year representatives in Washington may desert their post of duty without voting to decide the most calamitous crisis in the history of our nation, when a single vote may turn the tide to death and ruin for millions—and not even be called to account. They even draw salaries for desertion!"

"In the neutrality (repeal) count a scanty majority of 18 carried us toward war. Yet 26 of the house membership x x x did not vote. x x x (the letter also said nine senators did not.)"

"Our unfaithful public servants should be forced under army penalties to stay on the job and vote! x x x."

Brazil will subdivide government property and sell lots to provide funds for the construction of a sports stadium, seating 100,000, in Rio de Janeiro.
