Portland Ceremony Of Interest

Calendared for Saturday, November 22, in Portland is a wedding ceremony of much interest to Salem folk.

At high noon in the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church, Mrs. Emma Sherwood Liljeqvist of Portland, formerly of Marshfield, will become the bride of Dr. Andrew J. Browning, prominent Portland eye specialist.

Only immediate members of the family will witness the exchange of vows. A breakfast will follow at the Town club, after which the couple will leave for a stay at Palm Springs, Calif.

Mrs. Liljeqvist has visited often in the capital and has a wide circle of friends here.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf spent Thanksgiving in Portland, where Dr. Knopf spoke to a group of high school students.

Later they joined Bishop and Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter and Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith at the Hotel Benson for dinner.

Past Guardian Neighbors Meet

The Past Guardian Neighbors club met at the home of Mrs. Velma Tesson for a business meeting. Members present were Mrs. Gussie Shaw, Mrs. Loreta Neely, Mrs. Eliza Darling, Mrs. Velma Andrews, Mrs. Orville Rose, Mrs. Eva Craven, Mrs. Pauline Clark, Mrs. Mina Olmsted, Mrs. Florence Bressler, Miss Pearl Bailey, Mrs. Sara McNeil, the hostess, Mrs. Tesson and Miss Stella Tesson.

The table was decorated with apples, gourds and snowberries. Plans were made for the Christmas party to be at Mrs. Craven's December 18.

After refreshments were served a card and handkerchief shower was given in honor of Miss Pearl Bailey on the occasion of her birthday.

Shower Is Surprise Affair

Monitor—A surprise miscellaneous shower was given Tuesday night to honor Miss Mamie Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Nelson, whose marriage to Robert Adams of Centralia, Wash., will be an event of the near future.

Present were Mrs. Olga Rogan, Mrs. Raymond Simmons, Mrs. Della Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rostvold, Mrs. Landem, Mrs. Henry Moen, Mrs. Melby, Mrs. H. Jacobson, Mrs. N. J. Brekke, Mrs. Matt Koch, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Joe Brock, Miss Mamie Nelson, Miss Hjaris Rogan, Miss Dorothy Anderson, Miss Lilybelle Owen, Miss Avon Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Nelson, Miss Jean Anderson and Howard and Norman Rogan.

Style No. 3111 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 54-inch fabric for day-time length.

Tickets and Money Exchange Hands as Miss Betty Travis, left; Miss Olive Santelli, center, and Miss Mary Shreve, right, plan for the Young Republican "Why" dance to be held tonight in the Mirror and Marine rooms of the Marion hotel. Fifty Salem women will be hostesses to 50 Portland army air base men at the affair. A stag buffet dinner given by the American Legion will precede the dance. (Courtesy Oregonian).

Home Ceremony in Silverton Is Event of Wednesday

Silverton—A lovely home wedding here of interest throughout the state took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Tomison, Miss Catherine Marian Tomison, became the bride of John Vanle Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vanle Walker of Klamath Falls, the Rev. J. M. Jensen of the Immanuel Lutheran church reading the lines before a greenery-filled fireplace and a mantel bower bouquet of large white chrysanthemums and fern flanked by bronze candelabra bearing lighted white tapers.

Miss Mildred Hubbs of Dallas played the wedding marches and preceding the ceremony played "Oh, Promise Me," and "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes."

The bride wore a gown of mouseline de laine of a delicate pastel blue, fashioned on Grecian lines, and a medieval headdress which held in place the finger-tip veil of matching blue color. She wore a beautiful antique necklace of gold, set with rubies and pearls, a gift to the bride from her maternal grandmother for whom she was named. She carried her mother's wedding handkerchief of rare lace. Her flowers were an arm shower bouquet of Talsman roses and white bouvardia.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Jean Tomison, as maid of honor, in a coral taffeta brocaded model of low waistline and full floor-length skirt. She wore a small beret of tiny pink rosebuds and carried an old fashioned nosegay of many colored small flowers set in a dainty silk frill of lace. The bride, with her sister, was met at the foot of the stairs by her father, who gave her in marriage. Miss Doris Herring of Newberg, Phi Beta Mu sister of the bride, lighted the tapers. She wore a deep blue taffeta gown, made princess style.

William R. Tomison, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man.

For going away the bride wore a black sheer wool model, grey caracul coat, black accessories and a corsage of pink cyclamen and bouvardia. After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Walker will make their residence at Klamath Falls.

The bride, a member of the Klamath Falls high school faculty, was graduated three years ago as an honor student from Linfield college. Her social affiliation is Phi Beta Mu; dramatics, Alpha Psi Omega, and Pi Gamma Mu, social science honorary.

Mr. Walker's social fraternity is Theta Xi, and he is affiliated with Sigma Tau, engineering honorary. He is employed as civil engineer at Klamath Falls.

More than 100 guests called during the evening for a reception. The mother of the bride wore Alice blue lace over taffeta and a corsage of yellow roses, and the mother of the bridegroom was in a model of powder blue printed taffeta and flowers of white carnations and baby chrysanthemums. The sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Irene Hawkins of Klamath Falls, wore shell pink organdy.

Mrs. George Custer, in blue velvet and coral satin, received at the door.

Presiding at the urns during the first hour were Mrs. Dave John of Stayton and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins of Klamath Falls, and during the later hour, Mrs. Percy L. Brown and Mrs. R. A. McClanathan. The serving table was in silver and white in an arrangement of low silver bowls of white chrysanthemums and white

Supper Follows Rehearsal

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stephenson of Portland will entertain with a gay supper party at their home tonight honoring their niece, Miss Marian Steigerwald, and her fiancé, Edward Murphy, whose marriage will be an event of Saturday night at Rose City Methodist church.

Twenty-Third Psalm in Cross Stitch

By Baroness Plantoni

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou dost anoint my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Fall Prom November 28

Mt. Angel—Girls of Mt. Angel college and normal are making the last minute arrangements for the annual Fall Prom to be held on the evening of November 28. Last year's graduates will be the special guests of the evening.

Russ Brown's popular Portland orchestra, whose band is now playing at the Multnomah Athletic club, has been engaged to play at the prom. St. Mary's auditorium has been selected as the gathering center for students and alumni.

Invitations are in the hands of Helene Schantlin, Dolphine Gooley, and Dorothy Anderson, refreshment committee members are Mary Grace Richard, Kay Proxell and Jeanne DeMartini, and programs have been provided by Gladys Grilla, Pat McGinley and Joy Paulson.

Tradition allows the Welcome Dance to the boys and leaves the Fall Prom in the hands of the girls.

Friends are bidding au revoir to Miss Ingrid Liljeqvist, of Portland, who is leaving the first of the week for New York and Boston where she will be the guest of a Scripps college schoolmate, Miss Jane Forrier of Pasadena, who is attending art school in the Cape Cod city.

Miss Liljeqvist expects to be gone until after the holidays.

Monitor—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Simon and Charles Popp of Banduel, Wis., are here to attend the wedding of their nephew, Leon Simon.

Rites Solemnized At Monitor

Monitor—At a beautiful ceremony read Wednesday night at the Lutheran church by Rev. Dohrbuhl, Miss Elsie Satterlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Satterlee of Silverton, became the bride of Leon Simon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simon of Monitor.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white satin and long tulle veil. She carried a bouquet of roses and gardenias.

Miss Dorothy Satterlee was her sister's honor attendant.

Herman Goehle was best man. Ushers included Donald Olsen of Woodburn and Richard Satterlee.

A large reception followed in the IOOF hall in Monitor. After a wedding trip through California the couple will make their home north of Woodburn.

The Homecoming celebration of the Degree of Honor will be an event of tonight at Pythias hall. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock. The regional director, Lois Geiser, will be present as well as many other out-of-town guests.

The committee includes Mrs. Gladys Eoff and Mrs. Louise Spaulding.

Miss Erma Cole Now Mrs. Rickard

Miss Erma Cole, daughter of Curtis C. Cole of Salem, and Emmett Rickard of Ceres, Calif., son of Mrs. Dora Rickard of Ceres, were married Thanksgiving night at 7 o'clock at First Christian church with the bride's brother, Rev. Howard Cole, officiating.

White and orchid chrysanthemums were used as decorations on the altar, combined with cathedral tapers, which were lighted by Miss Beth DeLapp and Mrs. Paul Rickard of Eugene. Mrs. Curtis Cole sang "I Love You Truly" and "I Promise You" before the ceremony.

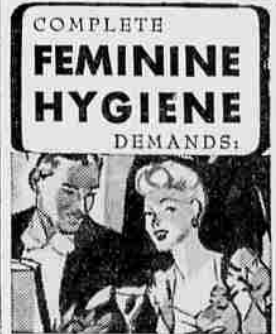

The bride was given to marriage by her father. She wore a lovely gown of white velvet, fashioned with closely-fitted bodice, a sweetheart neckline, long, leg-o-mutton sleeves and a flowing skirt. Her veil of tulle fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of roses and bouvardia, centered with a white orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Henry Wenderoth, who wore a gown of peach velvet, made with full skirt, bracelet-length sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard Cole and Mrs. Adrian Fraley, who wore deep rose tulle taffeta frocks, and Mrs. James Whitaker of Eugene and Miss Nola Lee, who were in gowns of pale blue. They carried arm bouquets of chrysanthemums to match their frocks.

Paul Rickard was best man for his brother and ushers were Myrl McKee of Corvallis, Harold Scott, Tom Grinstead, James Whitaker of Eugene, Ray Harold of Valdez, Adrian Fraley of Eugene and Francis Lefer of Stayton.

A reception for the several hundred guests was held in the church parlors. Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Arthur Lefer of Stayton, Mrs. E. M. Young of Wenatchee, Wash., aunt of the bride.
