Chintz Is New
 The newest in dancing dresses for the teen-age girl are made of chintz, a flowery fabric which can be fashioned up into gay, youthful gowns.
 There is the suspender-top style which can be worn with, or without, a quaint little gimp of eyelid-embroidered fabric. Another version is an off-the-shoulder gown with the long, fitted torso and lampshade skirt. Other feminine chintz dresses feature puff sleeves, round or sweetheart necklines and snugly fitted bodices.

PIE YOUR LEPTOVERS

Leptovers need a languish meat pie, tucked with a flaky pastry crust best made with lard. First sift together 2 cups all-purpose flour and 3/4 teaspoon salt. Cut in 2/3 cup lard with spatula until particles are size of small peas.

Sprinkle 4 tablespoons cold water, few drops at a time, over the mixture working it in lightly with fork until all particles are moistened and into small lumps. Press dough into side of shallow 9-inch pie plate. Flour board lightly. Divide pastry in half and lightly roll to 1/4 inch thickness, using 3/8 inch pie plate, cut circles from pastry.

Cut 1/2 inch wedges from each circle to insure better fit in muffin tins. Press pastry lightly to fit tins and lay over pie wedges. Fill with stew or leftover meat. Bake in hot oven at 375 degrees for 15 minutes. Remove from oven and serve hot, 1 individual pie.

Symplicity Makes Bow In Hair-Dos

What does war do to hairdos? Just ask the Manhattan stylists at the New York State Hairdressers and Cosmetologists and here's what they say: "Coiffures are getting shorter, simpler and set to the bonnets you wear with them. In a recent show these styles so spring 1942 started:

Variety in hair-length. The idea is to cut the hair 2 1/2 inches on top and 4 1/2 inches in back for all adaptable edge effect, easy to transform from business to formal fashion. It's right for this vision fronted bobs in green felt.

Hair unity for a uniform not only means feminine style like the feathery 2 1/2-inch cut brushed off at the right angle, but also a uniform hat set at the face, apt for coiffures and composure. This style can be combed to flutter evening effect.

Swirl hair to the left with a double row of soft curls clustering at the right side, for special smartness with this corn-colored cloche and composure. This style can be added back interest fill this riding-type of bonnet.

Feminine frills find a chic culture to match if the hair is cut to three-inch length—a time-saver, too—and swept up in what stylist call a "war-time wig" like this. The hat is green straw set off smartly with coarse black veil.
