

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Marguerite Rieder, Phone 2578

Miss Barkus To Wed June 7

"Wideview," the delightful suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Barkus, was the scene of a delightful tea Sunday afternoon, when Mrs. Barkus entertained honoring her daughter, Miss Alice Barkus. The lovely affair announced the date of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Barkus to Milton Peterson of Portland. The wedding will be an event of June 7.

Miss Barkus wore a gown of yellow organza, fashioned with a full skirt and fitted bodice. Her corsage was of orchids.

Greeting the guests at the door was Mrs. Elmer Barkus, who presented each guest with small booklets, bearing the names of the couple and the date of their marriage. Mrs. Barkus and Miss Barkus received the guests informally.

Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Mrs. W. L. Meeker and Mrs. J. F. Billeter. Assisting about the rooms were Miss Evelyn Peterson of Portland and Miss Elsie Boston.

The tea table was covered with a white Madeira cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white tulips, guarded with tall white tapers. Arrangements of lilacs, bleeding heart and tulips were about the rooms.

The bride-elect is a member of the capital's younger set, and she attended Salem schools, later attending the St. Vincent's school of nursing in Portland.

Mr. Peterson is a graduate of Portland schools and is now affiliated with the Gilbert Brothers wholesale hardware company in Portland.

Mrs. Mayme Yates of the Senator hotel was a dinner guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kinnely of Portland, former Salem residents.

28 69
SIZES 14-48
A sure-fire hit is the bolero suit, so kind to all figures, and sharing the season's fashion honors with tailored suits. If you're making it in black or navy, how about a bright print blouse?

Style No. 2869 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 2 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric for bolero and skirt and 1 1/4 yards 39-inch fabric for blouse.

The new Spring Fashion Book was compiled for the express purpose of making your clothes purchase more elastic. It's filled with a number of real-life problems of women who want to be well-dressed in spite of mounting living costs—and with simple solutions to these problems. 15c a copy—10c when ordered with a pattern.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15) (coin preferred) for PATTERN. Write plainly YOUR NAME, ADDRESS AND STYLE NUMBER. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE YOU WISH. Address PATTERN DEPARTMENT, Capital Journal, 516 Mission Street, San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. R. C. Davis and Miss Thelma Davis, who are visiting in the east are registered at the Barbizon-Plaza at New York City.

Fidells class of Jason Lee are meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Jones for a no-host dinner at 6:45 o'clock Friday evening. The dinner will be at the Dr. Pepper plant at 1055 North Liberty.

Juveniles of Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet for a business meeting Friday afternoon at the fraternal temple.

Miss La Von Ellis Will Wed Mr. Parnell

Mr. and Mrs. George Linnell announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss La Von Ellis, to Darrel Parnell at a dinner party held at their home Saturday evening. Mr. Parnell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parnell, is in the navy air corps. No date has been set for the wedding.

The news was revealed with unique "cats out of the bag" place cards. Spring flowers decorated the rooms. Following lunch the group spent an informal evening.

Guests at the party were Miss La Von Ellis, Miss Arlene Hicks, Miss Pearl Friesen, Miss Ruby Friesen, Miss Eva Mae Aylett, Miss Bernita Aylett, Miss Marie Lough, Miss Mary Helen Schroeder, Mrs. John Doran, Mrs. Gerald Aylett, Mrs. Joe Doran, Mrs. Tom Pfou, and the hosts.

'Get Acquainted Party' At Presbyterian Church

Presbyterian intermediates enjoyed a "Get Acquainted Party" at the church Saturday evening. Thirty-six were present and were led in games by Joan Lohrke, social chairman, and Don Doucis, youth director. The room was decorated in gay spring colors of many crepe streamers. Group games and songs were played, after which folk-games were learned. Refreshments were served at the close of the party. Several members of the group will be among those going to the state C. E. convention at Eugene this weekend. Mrs. Carl Greider is superintendent of the intermediate Sunday school department and Miss Jane Patton is advisor for the intermediate C. E. group.

Maccabees to Entertain Soldiers

Maccabees of the Capital lodge, No. 84D, are devoting Thursday evening, April 23, to the entertainment of soldiers stationed in and near Salem.

A varied program has been arranged for their pleasure and dancing will follow. Refreshments will be served late in the evening.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Reay, Mr. and Mrs. George Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shafer and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Parker.

All Maccabees and their friends are invited as well as all uniformed men in the service.

White-Gardner Rites Solemnized Saturday

At a quiet ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gardner, Miss LaVaun Gardner became the bride of Wesley White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. White of Independence, Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The members of both families were present at the ceremony. The bride's sisters, Mrs. J. N. Brinkley and Mrs. Otto Yunker sang "O Promise Me" and they were accompanied by Miss Alice Rose, a niece of the bride. Rev. Everett Gardner, a brother of the bride, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of blue silk for the ceremony, and added a dusty rose coat and blue accessories for traveling. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

The fireplace, before which the ceremony was read, was banked with apple blossoms and lilacs.

A reception followed the ceremony and Mrs. Everett Gardner of Portland cut the cake and Mrs. F. L. Rose, sister of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

The bride is a graduate of Salem high school and Oregon College of Education at Monmouth.

Mr. White is a graduate of Salem high school and Willamette university. He is now employed at Busick's.

Following a trip to the Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. White will make their home in the capital.

The Salem Philharmonic Orchestra is presenting the final concert of the season this evening, at 8:30 o'clock at the high school auditorium. Guest soloist with the orchestra will be Mark Daniels, baritone, of Portland. (Jesten-Miller).

Orchestra Presents Final Concert

Under the direction of Conductor Edouard Hurlimann, the Salem Philharmonic orchestra concludes the current season tonight with one of the most interesting and varied programs of the year. Guest soloist will be Mark Daniels, nationally known baritone of Portland and the northwest. Mr. Daniels' singing is familiar to many music lovers of Salem and vicinity. His rich background of experience and training includes distinguished appearances in concert, oratorio, opera and radio.

The complete program for the concert is announced as follows: Carmen Suite No. 2.....Bizet

Adagio for Strings.....Barber

Orchestra

Aria: Vision Fugitive, Herodiade.....Massenet

Mark Daniels

Danse Macabre.....Saint-Saens

Mosquito Danse.....White

Orchestra

Selected Vocal Group—

Mark Daniels

Night on Bald Mountain.....Moussorgsky

Orchestra

As special guests of the orchestra, military and naval men in uniform will be admitted free of charge.

Luncheon Fetes Bride-Elect

A no-host luncheon at the Argo today honored Miss Cleo Sauresisig, who will become the bride of Glenn A. Rogers Thursday morning. Hostesses were alumnae of the bride-elect's sorority, Alpha Gamma Delta.

The table was centered with an arrangement of spring flowers.

Covers were placed for Miss Sauresisig, Miss Lillian Holechek, Miss Rosemary Snyder, Miss Maxine Klings, Miss Letha Glath, Miss Margaret Mullen, Miss Barbara Western, Mrs. Kenneth McGrath of Woodburn, Mrs. Frank Lathrop, Mrs. Estill Brunk and Mrs. James Turnbull.

Missionary Society Installs Officers

The Ann Judson Missionary society of the First Baptist church held its monthly meeting at the church Friday evening.

Following a business meeting officers were installed for the ensuing year. Installing officer was Mrs. Floyd White and Rev. Irving Fox presented corsages during the ceremony.

Newly installed officers are Mrs. Clarence Greig, president; Mrs. Ed Lucas, first vice-president; Mrs. Cecil Lantz, second vice-president; Mrs. Glen Newland, recording secretary; Mrs. Albert Ramseyer, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. C. Nash, treasurer; and Mrs. Harley Cross, publicity.

Mrs. Floyd McClellan led the devotions and a gift was presented to the outgoing president, Mrs. Homer Blum.

Mrs. Ray Cates was hostess, and she was assisted by Mrs. Gilbert Stein, Mrs. Gus Linkstrand and Mrs. Harley Cross.

O.N.O. club will meet with Mrs. Chester Gemmill, 765 North Cottage street, Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern F. Davis (Maxine Crabtree) of Norfolk, Va., are being felicitated on the birth of a son, April 10. The baby, who has been named James Franklin, is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crabtree and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Davis.

The Salem chapter of the Oregon Association of the Deaf met at Mr. and Mrs. William Toll's residence on April 18 for a "500" party. Honors in cards went to Miss Alice Beach, Lester Peterson, Mrs. Mabel Peterson and Mrs. Thomas Ulmer.

Miss Winn will entertain the chapter at her home May 9.

Mrs. Robert Gentzkow is entertaining members of her club with a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Bartlett in North Cottage street. The dessert luncheon will be followed by several hours of contract.

Camp Fire Course To Begin May 2

An instructor course in Camp Fire guardian training will be offered by the Salem Camp Fire council. The course was originally scheduled to begin April 25, but has been postponed until May 2. The classes will be held in the fireplace room of First Presbyterian church.

The instructor will be Mrs. W. A. Barnum, of the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth. Mrs. Barnum teaches a course to students in guardian training, and will present it here. The classes are from 1 until 3 o'clock Saturday afternoons and will continue for four weeks.

All guardians are urged to attend and a special invitation is issued to all who are interested in Camp Fire work.

Church Party for Junior Department

Fifty-six members of the Junior Sunday school department of First Presbyterian church attended a party held in the social hall of the church last Friday afternoon. Don Douris, youth director, supervised the program which included ping-pong, Chinese checkers, darts and many kinds of group games. Thirty members of the Junior department were prize winners in a recently completed Sunday school attendance contest and will be guests at an honor banquet being served at the church this Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Miss Hazel Snyder is superintendent of the juniors, who have maintained an average attendance of 70 at Sunday school during the past month.

Mrs. Robert Worrall Is Feted with Shower

Mrs. Leonard Howe entertained at her home in Norway street for Mrs. Robert Worrall Monday night. Pink and blue spring flowers decorated the rooms. The evening was spent informally.

Bidden to honor Mrs. Robert Worrall were Mrs. James Smart, Mrs. Walter Worrall, Mrs. Julia Lytle, Mrs. Gerald Kendall, Mrs. James Pike, Mrs. Daniel Olin, Mrs. Lloyd Relly, Mrs. A. A. Taylor, Mrs. Chester Fisher, Mrs. William C. Clare, Mrs. W. P. Anderson, Mrs. W. E. White, Mrs. Frederick Worrall of Eugene, Mrs. Chester Howe of Newport, Miss Ada Keyes of Vancouver, Wash., and Miss Betty Taylor of Independence.

D.A.V. Auxiliary At Noyes Home

D.A.V. auxiliary No. 6 held an all day session at the home of Mrs. William Noyes. Preceding the business meeting a no-host luncheon was served. It was decided to hold business and social meetings together to save rent and light expense.

It was voted to send $5 to the United Hospitality association. Mrs. Hiram Dobson was appointed chairman of the salvage committee. A committee was appointed to sponsor a "candy bee" to send a box of candy to each member's son serving in this war. To date the auxiliary members have 13 sons in the armed forces.

The next meeting will be May 13 at the home of Mrs. Amanda Molencup, Gold Star mother. The afternoon was spent in working on the Children's Farm Home quilt.

Neighborhood Club Meets at Ricket Home

East Salem—Friday afternoon Mrs. Frank Ricket and Mrs. Martin Star were hostesses to the ladies of the Garden Road neighborhood club at the Ricket home on Garden Road. A program of patriotic music, current events and a lesson on "Know Your Flowers," was presented. Ten members were present and the following guests: Mrs. R. T. Wicklander, Mrs. Paul Rasmussen, Gae Swingle, Mrs. Ruth Compton, Mrs. Noby Zeller, Mrs. Ward Prescott, Mrs. Charles Knight, Mrs. Harry Heffley and Miss Hazel Heffley. Mrs. Earl Wood was reported ill.

Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet at the home of Mrs. Clara Jones, 655 North 17th street, for a social afternoon, Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Members of the Junior Woman's club will entertain with a no-host dinner at the Golden Pheasant this evening at 8 o'clock. The dinner will honor Miss Hatlie Bratzel, club delegate to the national federation meeting in Fort Worth, Mrs. Delbert Schwaubauer is in general charge of the affair.

Couple Wed at Church Rites

The beautiful Congregational church was the scene of a lovely ceremony Saturday evening, April 11, when Miss Virginia Davis of Long Beach, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Davis of Williamsburg, Iowa, became the bride of Lieutenant Earl Alfred Swenson, Jr., of Long Beach, son of Dr. Earl Alfred Swenson of Prescott, Arizona and Mrs. Lucille Swenson of Long Beach.

Rev. Robert Hutchinson officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony. The church was decorated with cherry blossoms, lilacs and tall white tapers. The bride wore a gown of white satin, modeled with a lace yoke, which was fastened to the bodice with tiny sequins which were on her mothers wedding gown. The long dolman style sleeves came to a point over the wrist, and the skirt had a court train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink tea roses, sweet peas of pastel pink and white.

The matron of honor was Mrs. William Colton of Merced, Calif., and she wore a gown of orchid satin with a sweet heart neck line and short puffed sleeves. The bodice was fitted and the skirt was very full. She carried a bouquet of deep pink roses, orchid and pink sweetpeas, which was tied with a ribbon of orchid satin.

Couple Wed at Church Rites

The beautiful Congregational church was the scene of a lovely ceremony Saturday evening, April 11, when Miss Virginia Davis of Long Beach, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Davis of Williamsburg, Iowa, became the bride of Lieutenant Earl Alfred Swenson, Jr., of Long Beach, son of Dr. Earl Alfred Swenson of Prescott, Arizona and Mrs. Lucille Swenson of Long Beach.

Visitor Honored With Smart Luncheon

The Arch M. Jerman home was the scene of a beautifully appointed luncheon, when Mrs. Jerman and Mrs. James B. Young presided honoring Mrs. Margaret Callahan of San Diego, Calif., Monday. Mrs. Callahan is visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Scandling.

Contract was in play during the afternoon. Spring flowers centered the luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. William Scandling, Mrs. John J. Elliott and Mrs. Palmer MacDonald of Portland, Mrs. Karl G. Becke, Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Conrad Paulus, Mrs. Wayne Loder and the hostesses, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Jerman.

Rebekah Lodge Has Meeting

At the regular meeting of Salem Rebekah lodge, Mrs. Blanche Hull presided over the business session.

Reports were given of the Rebekah district convention which was held in Silverton last Saturday afternoon and evening. The noble grand of Salem lodge gave the courtesy to honor the assembly and grand lodge officers. Two Salem members were elected to office for the convention in Turner in 1943. They are Miss Wilda Siegmund to be vice chairman and Mrs. George Edwards one of her supporters. They were honored Monday evening during the business session. Salem lodge will be host to the convention in 1944.

Mrs. Lena Peebles was honored and presented a membership jewel by the noble grand for the lodge for 35 years continuous service. Salem lodge accepted the honor and responsibility of giving a tribute to the flag at the Rebekah assembly of Oregon being held in Portland in May. This will be under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Townsend.

Temping Home Baking

Specially prepared whole wheat and rye grains, plus added outer parts of wheat, make Roman Meal ideal for porridge and use in all home baking. Its delicious, nut-like flavor and appetizing aroma give new, zestful appeal to favorite recipes. At all grocers.

Eat ROMAN MEAL SOME WAY EVERY DAY

BEAUTIFUL OIL PERMANENTS

$2.00 Values 95c Complete Only 95c Complete

All work carefully supervised by specially trained expert stylists

MODERN BEAUTY COLLEGES

179 N. Liberty—Dial 8141

Auxiliary Entertains Past-Presidents

The American Legion auxiliary met Monday evening at Legion Home. The meeting was the annual program given in honor of the past presidents of the auxiliary. The assembly and dining halls were beautifully decorated with large arrangements of lilacs, tulips and spring greenery for the occasion.

Corsages were presented to each of the seventeen past presidents by the wee maids, Miss Marilyn Olson and Miss Sue Arlene Wilson.

Mrs. Verne Ostrander, poppy sales chairman, announced plans for the poppy campaign being completed and that the annual poppy luncheon will be held May 12. The poppy posters distributed to the schools are being judged this week.

Mrs. James Garson announced the rehabilitation committee had motored to Portland with fruit and flowers for the Veterans' hospital. Also candy and fruit had been sent to the Roseburg hospital.

The sewing committee will meet Thursday, April 23, and every two weeks until vacation. The group is completing some articles for the Marion county health center and will begin on a new allotment of Red Cross work at the next meeting. The auxiliary voted to buy the yarn and knit helmets for the boys in service.

There is to be a district meeting in Salem May 8, in the afternoon, and a joint meeting with Capital Post No. 9 in the evening.

The Junior auxiliary will meet Monday, April 27, Mrs. Richard Severin, chairman, announced. The girls will place the seals on the poppies that evening.

The Past Presidents club will meet Wednesday at the home of Ella Voss.

Decorations were by Mrs. Clyde Kaiser and her child welfare committee. Mrs. W. H. Lorenze and the telephone committee served the supper.

The unit joined Capital Post No. 9 for an entertainment presented by Miss Rhinehart and her Juniors of Parrish junior high school. Musical and dance numbers given by the group were much enjoyed.

The next meeting, May 4, will be in honor of the War Mothers and mothers of auxiliary members.

Visitor Honored With Smart Luncheon

The Arch M. Jerman home was the scene of a beautifully appointed luncheon, when Mrs. Jerman and Mrs. James B. Young presided honoring Mrs. Margaret Callahan of San Diego, Calif., Monday. Mrs. Callahan is visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Scandling.

Contract was in play during the afternoon. Spring flowers centered the luncheon table.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. William Scandling, Mrs. John J. Elliott and Mrs. Palmer MacDonald of Portland, Mrs. Karl G. Becke, Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Conrad Paulus, Mrs. Wayne Loder and the hostesses, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Jerman.

Rebekah Lodge Has Meeting

At the regular meeting of Salem Rebekah lodge, Mrs. Blanche Hull presided over the business session.

Reports were given of the Rebekah district convention which was held in Silverton last Saturday afternoon and evening. The noble grand of Salem lodge gave the courtesy to honor the assembly and grand lodge officers. Two Salem members were elected to office for the convention in Turner in 1943. They are Miss Wilda Siegmund to be vice chairman and Mrs. George Edwards one of her supporters. They were honored Monday evening during the business session. Salem lodge will be host to the convention in 1944.

Mrs. Lena Peebles was honored and presented a membership jewel by the noble grand for the lodge for 35 years continuous service. Salem lodge accepted the honor and responsibility of giving a tribute to the flag at the Rebekah assembly of Oregon being held in Portland in May. This will be under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Townsend.

Temping Home Baking

Specially prepared whole wheat and rye grains, plus added outer parts of wheat, make Roman Meal ideal for porridge and use in all home baking. Its delicious, nut-like flavor and appetizing aroma give new, zestful appeal to favorite recipes. At all grocers.

Eat ROMAN MEAL SOME WAY EVERY DAY

BEAUTIFUL OIL PERMANENTS

$2.00 Values 95c Complete Only 95c Complete

All work carefully supervised by specially trained expert stylists

MODERN BEAUTY COLLEGES

179 N. Liberty—Dial 8141

Anniversary Sale!

Big Bargains!

100% Down PILLOWS - 498

50-inch Bath TOWELS - 59c

Moth-Proof CLOSETS - 398

FINE SILK STOCKINGS - 100

Virgin Wool BLANKETS - 1098

Men's DRESS SHIRTS - 125

MACARONI JEWELRY - 59c

SILK GOWNS - 198

LE GANT Foundations - 595

Large, Fancy MIRRORS - 229

New, Framed PICTURES - 100

SPRING FABRICS, yd. 79c

Temping Home Baking

Eat ROMAN MEAL SOME WAY EVERY DAY

BEAUTIFUL OIL PERMANENTS

MODERN BEAUTY COLLEGES

179 N. Liberty—Dial 8141