

West Salem Church Nominates Officers

West Salem, May 20—Dr. Raynor Smith of the Jason Lee church presided at the quarterly conference at the Methodist church Monday evening in the absence of the district superintendent, Dr. J. Edgar Purdy. A budget of $1,910 was adopted for the following year. Financial report showed $411.13 still outstanding of the $1,490.54 budgeted for the past year.

Nominations for church officers were presented by the nominating committee composed of Mrs. E. A. Dickson, Mrs. Leighton Dashiell and Rev. Don Haddock. Election results were Kenneth Abbott, general superintendent and lay member; Arthur Brown, lay leader; Robert Pattison, treasurer; Mrs. D. I. Henderson, communion stewardess; Mrs. Archie Cameron, treasurer of benevolence; Mrs. Harry Bonney, Leo Eater, D. I. Henderson, Mrs. Elmer Ransom, H. C. White, Mrs. C. E. Vosburgh, Elmer Rietson, Robert Pattison, Mrs. D. I. Henderson, Mrs. Archie Cameron, Arthur K. Abbott, board of stewards; Kenneth Abbott and Arthur Brown to the two vacancies on the board of trustees; Elmer Ransom, financial secretary, and Mrs. G. E. Vosburgh, recording secretary.

Appointments of standing committees will be made at a later date.

Poppy Sale Planned

People of West Salem will be given an opportunity to buy poppies Friday and Saturday. The poppies this year will be worn in memory of those who have lost their lives in the present war as well as for the World war dead.

The auxiliary of the Kingwood post of the American Legion will sell the poppies on the street during two days in order to conform with the sales plans of the Salem organizations. Mrs. Kenneth Abbott will serve as the chairman and be assisted by unit members and children of the veterans.

The unit will sell 350 poppies made by the disabled veterans, who are patients at the Roseburg hospital.

Sugar Sign-up Slated

Persons living in rationing district 27-3 who failed to register for sugar allotments during the first registration will be given an opportunity to register May 21. Reports indicate a number of individuals have failed to register as well as some of the organizations. Information relative to the registration may be obtained from Walter Gerth, chairman of the local rationing board.

Sand Still Available

Anyone wishing to get sand from the supply at the old city hall may have the use of cement sacks at the hall of this purpose as long as the supply lasts. The city had planned to obtain discarded heavy paper sacks from the construction companies at the cantonment but when F. E. Neely made a trip to the camp to pick up the sacks it was found that they were not in a condition to be used for this purpose.

Traffic Violations Charged

Arrests made for traffic violations were John Dlodate, Salem, violation of the basic rule, forfeited $5 bail, and Ira Dysert, Portland, arrested on a similar charge is cited to appear in police court.

Legion Units Meet

Kingwood Post of the American Legion and the auxiliary will meet Thursday evening at the Legion home. Although the organizations plan to meet during the summer months much of the important business of the year will be completed at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sloper were guests over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Domes at Toledo.

59 Lieutenants Get Promotions

Washington, May 20 (AP)—Among 59 navy lieutenants who have been given temporary promotions by President Roosevelt to the rank of lieutenant commander were the following: Satoll W. Hanns, Eugene, Ore.; William B. Cranston, Edmonds, Wash.; Artyn L. Main, Bremerton, Wash.; and Louis Roedel, Walla Walla, Wash.

Martin and Ross Nominated For Governor

Philadelphia, May 20 (AP)—Major General Edward Martin, soft-spoken six-foot soldier, banker and attorney, and F. Clair Ross, diminutive but fiery political officeholder, were nominated today as rivals for the governorship of Pennsylvania at the November election.

Martin, the Pew-Grundy republican organization candidate, gave U. S. Senator James J. Davis, U. S. secretary of labor under three presidents, the first defeat of his long political career.

Ross defeated Judge Ralph H. Smith, of Pittsburgh, and Luther A. Harr, of Philadelphia, biturnous coal consumers counsel, in the democratic race. Ross is state auditor general.

Both winners were backed by their respective state committees. Martin is 62, Ross 46. Their slates for other state-wide offices also triumphed.

Tokyo Heroes Trained At Pendleton Base

Pendleton, May 20 (AP)—All of the 79 officers and enlisted men who participated in the raid by American bombers on Japan April 18, with the exception of the leader, Brig. Gen. James H. Doolittle received their advanced training at Pendleton field and were members of the original squadrons based here.

A check on the names of the flight personnel, released today by the war department, showed that the entire group volunteering for the dangerous mission was based here from mid-summer of 1941 until early spring of this year.

"Naturally, we're proud beyond words," commented Colonel Frank W. Wright, base commander.

Firemen Elected Foster of Astoria

Baker, May 20 (AP)—Oregon Firemen elected officers yesterday, but delayed selection of the 1943 convention site.

Fire chiefs named Charles Foster, Astoria, president; Ed Grenfell, Portland, first vice-president; Cecil Harrison, Sheridan, second vice-president; Ivan Pearson, McMinnville, treasurer; Thomas Coates, Tillamook, secretary.

The State Association of Fire Fighters elected J. J. Hicks, Portland, president; Robert Mills, Salem, vice-president; Terry Schunk, Portland, secretary; William Batchelor, Pendleton, Hubert Damon, Baker, and W. Dixon, Eugene, trustees.

'OLD GLORY' ON THE MARCH IN AUSTRALIA—The Stars and Stripes stream in the wind as a column of American troops marches over rolling country in far away Australia. More U.S. soldiers march with 'Old Glory' there as United Nations forces prepare to repulse Jap onslaught or to launch an offensive.

Authors Will Speak Before Geology Group

Dr. H. C. Dake and J. A. DeMont, editors of the Mineralogist and authors of several textbooks on ultraviolet light and fluorescence, will be the speakers at the regular lecture meeting of the Salem Geological society Thursday, May 21, at 8 o'clock in Collins hall.

These two scientists have made a number of important contributions to the arts, sciences and industries in evolving methods of applying ultraviolet light and fluorescence. They will discuss the more recent developments of these phenomena in the fields of geology, prospecting and mining, microscopy, chemistry, medicine and criminology. They will also touch upon their use in military science, including the numerous applications of ultraviolet light during blackouts. In connection with their talks Dr. Dake and Mr. DeMont will demonstrate the use of several types of modern ultraviolet light units and will arrange an exhibit of fluorescent minerals, chemicals and other substances.

On Tuesday, May 26, at 8 o'clock in Collins hall, the society will hear Dr. Edwin T. Hodge of the department of geology at Oregon State college, speak on the geology of Mt. Jefferson. Dr. Hodge, who is recognized as one of the great authorities on the general geology of the Pacific northwest, will trace the history of Mt. Jefferson from the time its site was washed by the sea to its present state of a mature, sleeping volcano.

The field trip of the society will be held Sunday, May 24, and will be a repeat trip to Finzer cut seven miles southwest of Salem. The cut, which is only 100 yards from the highway, is rich in fossils of the Oligocene period. The caravan will leave from in front of Collins hall at 1:30 o'clock.

VIOLET—This two-piece New York creation is of violet alpaca with soft pink picture hat, matching handbag and gloves. The outfit has three large, purple crystal buttons.

Doolittle fears U-Drive Elevators

Portland, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Brig. Gen. James H. Doolittle, intrepid leader of the United States air raid on Tokyo, is a brave man in a plane. But he's afraid to ride alone in an automatic elevator.

Herbert Dahlke, an apartment manager, recalled that when the flier visited him several years ago, he asked Dahlke to accompany him upstairs in the lift.

"He said he once got stuck between floors, and had to spend the night there," Dahlke said, "and that he was just plain scared of the things."

Action at Kharkov Not Overwhelming

(This daily feature, conducted by DeWitt MacKenzie, Wide World War News Analyst, is being written in his absence for a fortnight by Fred Vanderschmidt.)

It now is time to come down to earth and recognize the battle of Kharkov for what it is. It is not an overwhelming offensive action by the Russians against a "half-dead" German army, nor are the Germans being encircled, or annihilated or are they fleeing in disorder.

It is, rather, a shrewd, well-timed and sustained tactical thrust of local character against a German force of sinister size and power which is all but ready to leap at the oil of the Caucasus from at least three directions. It is intended to capsize the arrangements for that Caucasian offensive by ripping up the German lines of forward communication and transport and by grinding down the new mechanical weapons which Hitler has assembled in great quantity in the Ukraine.

From the last standpoint Marshal Timoshenko's offensive has been initially successful. There is evidence that the nazis have lost a great many tanks and guns and that they have had to draw upon their offensive reserves.

It does not appear, however, that the Germans have lost a great many men or, indeed, that infantry has played any major part in the action.

Von Bock Evacive In addition, the Russians themselves disclose that the German General von Bock has evaded envelopment of any great part of the 2,000,000 men he is supposed to have in the Ukraine.

The Germans have begun a counter-offensive in the sector Izymbarenkova, a deep flanking action below the southern end of the arc which the red army was swinging around Kharkov, and well to the east of the furthestmost point of soviet advance below Kharkov.

Until this is dealt with, the red army cannot safely extend its lines to the southwest of Kharkov in the direction of the Germans' main communication arteries.

Fighting has spread over 150 miles or more of very fluid front, and, because of the EXPLAINS—Dr. Glenn L. Casio, a Spencer, W. Va., dentist, explained his rubber substitute tire retreading material. He said first tire ran 10,000 miles, using two-thirds of tread.

Parent-Teacher Group Will Have Carnival

The Richmond Parent-Teacher association will sponsor its annual carnival project for the purpose of raising funds for the ensuing year. The carnival will be given at the school Friday, May 22, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock under the leadership of Mrs. James Bunnell, room mothers, and their assistants.

There will be entertainment in the rooms and hall for everyone. There will be a merry-go-round, coffee, hot dogs, pop, movies, hit-the-nigger baby, novelties, white elephant sale, dart games, fish pond, beauty shop, wood burning, ice cream, candy, confetti, bowling alley, balloons, popcorn, fortune telling and a variety show.

Funds received by the PTA will be budgeted and used in the various projects sponsored during the coming year.

The newly installed president, George Wayser, urges the cooperation of all parents, former Richmond students or any interested citizens.
