George W. Koski, of Salem, at the Portland air base, has been promoted to sergeant.

John Stewart, who lives at 143 Court, recently found on the highway between Hubbard and Woodburn an interesting old United States history textbook. It is the Quackenbos history and was published in 1877. On an inside page in a schoolboy scrawl is the name Earl Haack, but no address. The front part of the book is pasted full of old poems clipped from newspapers and magazines.

Clarence Dykes was arraigned in police court today and entered a plea of innocent to a charge of larceny of $56 from Mrs. George Smith, 1120 Center street. He will have a preliminary hearing this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The case is being handled in police court because of the absence of Justice of the Peace Joseph B. Felton. Mrs. Smith told police that she accepted a ride with Dykes to a grocery store and that she missed her purse when she returned home, and claims evidence that the purse was later seen in Dykes' car.

Preparatory for the 1942 packing season, the California Packing corporation is engaging in new construction totalling more than $10,000. Himmler Chief In Netherlands

London, May 20 (U.P.)—Heinrich Himmler, chief of the dread German gестаapo, has been made supreme police chief in The Netherlands in a new German attempt to crush the spirit of the Dutch people, Stockholm press dispatches reported today.

United Nations sources reported that the Germans planned soon to incorporate The Netherlands into Germany as a province to be called Niederarrk, and it was asserted that the Germans had shot 15 Belgian and five French patriots because other men had opposed the German regime.

It was reported also that the Germans had sent Dr. Didrick Akup Seip, rector of Oslo university and visiting professor of the University of Minnesota, to Poland under a sentence of hard labor, and that Vichy authorities had arrested 19 French patriots at Roanne, in the Vichy area, as "communists."

Allies Adopt New War Slogan

Washington, May 20 (U.P.)—Members of the Pacific war council today adopted a new slogan for the United Nations war effort in the far east—"Japan for the Japanese."

Walter Nash, New Zealand minister, announced the slogan after an hour and a half meeting of the council with President Roosevelt.

At the same time Nash paid tribute to Brig. Gen. James H. (Jimmy) Doolittle for leadership of the American air raid on Japan.

"We will have to think up another of the same type," Nash said after referring to the raid on Tokyo as a "magnificent exploit."

The council members declined to give the author of the new war slogan. When reporters told them it sounded like President Roosevelt, they merely chuckled.

Nash said the council received a general picture of the war in the Pacific and found the situation "not bad."

May Be No Reward For Tokyo Bomb

Washington, May 20 (U.P.)—The awards of cash or defense bonds which have been proposed in various communities for the person who first bombed Tokyo may have to be devoted to some other purpose unless the army changes a rule that has stood for more than 30 years.

Asked today if Brigadier General James H. Doolittle, who led the squadron of bombers which raided the Japanese mainland on April 18, and the 79 other fliers who participated might collect the prize funds, army officials said war department policy prevented such awards.

Since 1909, they said regulations have forbidden officers and enlisted men to accept money or other gifts for actions performed in the line of duty. These regulations probably would apply to the raid on Japan, officials said, despite the fact that Doolittle and his men were decorated for actions "above and beyond the call of duty."

More Hostages Shot; Bombings Follow

Vichy, May 20 (U.P.)—Two Paris establishments occupied by Germans were bombed and a German officer was shot and seriously wounded in the last 24 hours while occupation authorities executed eight more hostages it was learned today.

German authorities in Paris announced they had shot "five eastern European Jews" in Paris in reprisal for an attack on a German soldier and a dynamite attack on an occupied building May 10.

The assassination attempt was made by a boy described as about 17 years old. He shot a German officer three times when he encountered him on the Conti quay behind the Notre Dame cathedral. As the German fell, the youth fled on a bicycle.

Father Pleaded Son Was in Raid

Portland, May 20 (U.P.)—Little more than a year ago, Lt. Robert S. Clever, who took part in the bombing of Tokyo, was a student at the University of Oregon.

Continuation of— Soldier's In-Laws

The bill became law. The scale of monthly payments for class "B" dependents provides for the government to pay $15 to a dependent parent, $25 to two dependent parents, and $5 to disabled or dependent brothers and sisters. To this would be added $20 from the service man's pay if he had no class "A" dependents, and $5 if he had class "A" dependents. A soldier having both classes of dependents would have $25 deducted from his pay each month.

Leaflet Raid On Vichy Area

Vichy, France, May 20 (U.P.)—British planes dropped American-printed leaflets over unoccupied France during the night, containing a promise by President Roosevelt that all occupied French possessions would be restored after the war.

Wave after wave, to an obligato of anti-aircraft gunfire, the royal air force planes droned over the Vichy area showering their leaflets on town and countryside.

All the leaflets bore the statement that they were printed by the United States government and distributed by the British air force.

The raid came at a time when Vichy sources claimed to have received reports that Britain might move soon against French Somaliland and government leaders were conferring on a serious clash between British and Vichy air and naval forces off Algeria, on the French North African coast.

Chief of Government Pierre Laval, after hurrying here from Paris last night, conferred with Marshal Henri Philippe Pétain on the Algerian clash, and presumably the Somaliland situation and the implication of the Anglo-American leaflet raid.

Operetta Benefit for Casualty Station

The Bush grade school casualty station is to benefit from a program, "The Adventures of Goldilocks," an operetta, to be given tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The casualty station which has been established by the Marion county civil defense committee is in need of many articles, including blankets of army size which may be old and patched, if clean; hand towels, wash basins, old sheets and pillow slips, clean old rags and four quart utensils, plus nine cents, will constitute the cost of admission.

Primary children of the school constitute the cast of characters, including Mary Lee White as Goldilocks, Bobby McConville as Papa Bear, Georgia Walling as Mamma Bear and Don Redel as Baby Bear.

The operetta was prepared under the direction of Bertha Allen, Hazel Bean, Merl Dimick, Orpha Mitchell, Loraine Meusey, Alice Inlow Polk and Mildred Wyatt.

Scissors Turned on Men's Pajamas

Washington, May 20 (U.P.)—The war production board today turned its scissors on men's pajamas in the effort to save cloth. Clothing officials told an industry advisory committee that a few inches could be taken off here and there to conserve thousands of yards of material.

The WPB also suggested changes in styles, restricting pajamas to possibly only three forms. The styles were believed to be a collarless slip-over coat, a surplus coat which buttons in the front, and a "collarless sleep coat." The latter was the WPB's phrase for the old-fashioned nightgown.

Joe Singer Leaves Estate of $40,469

Joseph F. Singer, veteran sergeant-at-arms of the state house of representatives and doorkeeper of the United States senate, who died in Portland April 18, left an estate valued at $40,469.93, of which $22,489.83 was in cash, according to an appraisal filed in the Multnomah county probate court.

The sole beneficiary is Harold I. Singer, a son.

Junk Dealers To be Licensed

Every waste dealer in the nation today automatically became a federally-licensed operator, according to Claude I. Sersanus, state salvage committee chairman, but on or before June 20 every waste dealer must declare himself and register with our Uncle Samuel.

The deadline of June 20 has been set by Leon Henderson, price administrator, to give the junk dealers of the country time to get their houses in order and sign up as soon as the required forms arrive in Oregon. According to Sersanus, Oregon's price administrator, Richard Montgomery, expects the Montgomeries to arrive before June 1.

"So vital is the need for scrap rubber and metals," said Sersanus, "that every waste dealer and auto graveyard will be listed and enlisted in the great program to get the millions of tons of scrap metals into war production factories as quickly as possible."

"When one realizes that it requires 9000 tons of scrap metals to build a 35,000 ton battleship and when one realizes the great need for battleships it begins to dawn on us Americans just what is meant by a salvage program that must be intensive, extensive and continuous."

Dinner Rally for Young People

A dinner rally for young people in the Salem district will be held at 6:30 this evening in the social hall of the First Presbyterian church for the purpose of creating interest in the Willamette youth presbytery camp to be held in July. Reservations have been received from Independence, Dallas, Gervais and Salem. Camp movies will be shown while an initiation by the "Order of the Fork" will be conducted.

A similar rally was held in Albany Tuesday evening when Cameron McDonald, Salem, president of the youth presbytery, told of the program. Don Douris, youth advisor for the presbytery, presided as toastmaster. Others from Salem were Mrs. Douris, Vernon Merrick and David Milnar.

Rev. W. Irvin Williams, pastor of the Salem Presbyterian church, will be dean of the school camp scheduled for July 19-26, while Don Douris will be in charge of the intermediate conference, July 26-31.

All Martinique Ships To be Immobilized

Washington, May 20 (U.P.)—Chairman Connally (D., Tex.), of the senate foreign relations committee, told reporters today that a satisfactory agreement for immobilizing French merchant ships at Martinique as well as warships there had largely been worked out.

He said negotiations for the agreement were carried on entirely with Admiral Georges Robert at Martinique without reference to the Vichy government. Connally made the disclosure at a press conference, at which he said the committee had discussed the international situation earlier in the day with representatives of the state department.

"In the main," he declared, "the United States has worked out a satisfactory agreement with Admiral Robert with respect to immobilizing the merchant and naval ships at Martinique."

Gunshot Death Of Lemskie Sifted

Portland, May 20 (U.P.)—Investigation was being made today into the death of Orin Lemskie, 27, formerly of Cosmopolis, Wash., who died from a gunshot wound received from a .38 caliber revolver yesterday.

Lemskie died in a Portland hospital shortly after being found in the back seat of his car by his wife.

The revolver was identified as one Lemskie carried as a member of the veterans guard and patrol.

Survivors include a brother, Corporal Forest Lemskie of Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Prejudice Against Japanese Lilies

Brookings, Ore., May 20 (U.P.)—Croft lilies will replace Japanese Easter lilies, marketed along the nation from here, because of the rising prejudice throughout the country, growers announced today.

Continuation of— Mannheim Bombed

Mannheim is the second largest inland port of Europe and the site of a number of important factories. Among them are the Badische Anilin chemical works, the Lanz armament works and the Daimler-Benz engineering works.

Berlin, (From German Broadcasts) May 20 (U.P.)—Strong German air formations over night raided Hull, English town on the Humber estuary, the German high command said today, while eight bombers made a daylight attack on factories on the British south coast.

In fighting over the English channel seven British Spitfires were shot down yesterday, it said, and the British lost 11 bombers in "harassing" night attacks on "southwest Germany."

Rubber Shortage Growing Acute

The rubber situation is even worse than has been painted and there is a wanton disregard of the use of rubber that verges on the unpatriotic, Earl F. Campbell, city traffic engineer of Portland, told the Rotary club today noon. Campbell has just returned from a FBI course and survey in 22 states of standard practices of war traffic control.

There was only 15 months of normal average usage left on January 1, though this will be prolonged by gasoline rationing June 1, he said. It is imperative that every effort be made to make these tires go as far as possible in order to eliminate the ultimate demand upon mass transportation.

In Portland today the traffic is moving at 250,000 persons an hour and is expected to be doubled next year. Under construction are 150 wooden body trucks for transportation of shipyard workers, ferries ordered from San Francisco and extra trains to be placed in service between Portland and Vancouver, Wash. Work hours must be staggered and women should shop early to get off the streets and transportation during the peak hours of the day, Campbell said.

Riley Accepts O'Hara Resignation

Portland, May 20 (U.P.)—Mayor Earl Riley Tuesday accepted the resignation of John P. O'Hara, long-time member of the Portland housing code commission, who gave up his post in protests against relaxation of housing restrictions to permit construction of temporary homes for war workers.

O'Hara resigned in a letter to the city council in which he charged the housing code commission had been "shorn of much of its usefulness" by an ordinance adopted May 7 revising housing regulations.

His action came after several stormy sessions of the housing commission, at one of which the group voted 5-2 against resigning en masse.

Gas Concessions For Oregon Farmers

The Dalles, Ore., May 20 (U.P.)—The office of price administration has relaxed gasoline restrictions to permit Washington and Oregon farmers, hard-pressed for farm laborers, to employ itinerant workers, Sen. Charles L. McNary today advised H. G. Miller, manager of The Dalles Cooperative Growers.

McNary, in a telegram to Miller, said the OPA's fuel rationing section had ruled the rationing act provides sufficient gasoline for migrant workers requiring cars "for travel from job to job through the Pacific coast states."

The OPA also ruled, McNary added, that transient laborers need not prove that no alternative means of transportation is available.

Miller had asked McNary to obtain the ruling because of serious concern that sufficient farm labor would not be available, due to gasoline rationing, to care for Oregon and Washington harvests.

Bone Bill Opposed By PUD Directors

Redmond, May 20 (U.P.)—Central Oregon PUD directors have voted opposition to the Bone bill, now in the senate, which would set up one-man administration over Bonneville and Grand Coulee power.

No Berry Prices Fixed at Joint Conference

Mr. Maher closed his statement by giving assurance he would try to determine at the earliest date possible what the support program will be.

Discussion had with various growers and canners following the meeting indicated that if definite word of the nature and amount of the support program isn't received before the harvesting and packing actually starts, it will be necessary for delivery to canners to go ahead without any definite prices being established, the top price to be received for berries having to wait on information as to just what the government will do in the nature of giving support.

Harvest Nearing

Harvesting of gooseberries and strawberries is only a little over a week away, and with the statement by Mr. Maher that a series of meetings to discuss a supporting program for berries is scheduled "to take place within a couple of weeks" makes it possible that the harvest will be getting a good start before either canners or growers are advised as to what support may be given.

However, some clue may be drawn from the supporting program recently announced in Washington governing canned vegetables under which the additional costs of harvesting and packing are taken into consideration and the government makes up the difference on a formula which has been worked out for the vegetable program.

All Berries Affected
While today's meeting was primarily an outgrowth of a movement started in regard to the strawberry crop, it is understood that any supporting program worked out will affect all berry and fruit crops.

An incident of the meeting was exclusion of Ray Gill, chairman of the executive committee of the National Grange, second highest office of the organization, who had come here to attend. The session behind closed doors took a vote on whether he would be permitted admission and the vote was against it. All others than growers named on a committee at a meeting of the growers here Monday night and representatives of the canning and processing industry were also excluded from the meeting.

Americans Shoot Hun Planes Down

London, May 20 (U.P.)—Flight Sergeant C. W. Harp of Columbus, Ga., a member of the American Eagle squadron, shot down two German Focke-Wulf 109 fighters Tuesday in a sharp, short battle over northern France, the air ministry announced.

Eagle Pilot Officer Moran Morris of Durant, Okla., bagged one Messerschmitt 109. Harp sent his two victims crashing into the sea after his squadron encountered some of the heaviest Nazi opposition in weeks. Two British planes were lost in the operation.

"At various times we saw between 30 and 40 Huns," Harp related. "About 12 or 15 tried to jump on us as we started for home and the fight was pretty hot while it lasted. Then the Huns scattered."

The air ministry said a number of German craft were believed damaged.

Licenses Suspended By Liquor Board

Portland, May 20 (U.P.)—The Oregon State Liquor commission today announced suspension of these licenses:
R. J. Hillstrom, Rudy's Rendezvous, 4th and Bennett streets, Marshfield; retail beer class A license suspended 15 days; sale to a minor.
Orville V. Weekly, Coquille auto court, Coquille; package store class A license suspended 7 days; sale to minors.
