The army has arrived in Salem, and as the saying goes for marines, the USO and the Senior Hostess league have the situation well in hand with Wednesday night set as the date for the Junior Hostess league members to swing into action at the informal party at which the men in uniform will be entertained at the Legion Home.

One of the "DO's" in connection with planning a recreation program for Uncle Sam's boys is that the fairer sex "dress-up" for these soldier lads, who see so much of uniformed life, hence the Senior Hostess league has decreed that the lasses, who Wednesday night will assist in initiating Salem's recreation program for service men, come clad in their loveliest "dress-up" frock, whether it be a filly frothy frock of sheer material, a gay floral print or a lacy sheer blouse worn with a soft contrasting skirt. Silk hose, too, even if they are the fair maiden's only pair, are the order of the day and slippers with higher heels win out over play shoes. Summer formals are ruled out for this affair but later the long full swishing skirts will have their innings at one of the parties planned for the soldiers.

Let your clothes do double duty and be patriotic, practical and fabric saving and solve your vacation packing problems by buying the types of blouses that can be worn with innumerable skirts, slacks and culottes. A gay floral blouse, a skirt and a pair of slacks and your dressed for hiking, riding, golfing, for strolling about resorts or for staying at home. A soft frilly sheer blouse with ruffle or lace trim, a gay peasant skirt and a long full black crepe skirt and you're all set up for a luncheon, an afternoon of bridge, a dinner party or an evening of dancing.

Summertime! What is more refreshing than a splash in the "Ole swimming hole" and though the Japanese have caused your Uncle Sam to take away the rubber from those fetching latex bathing suits that control your curves, lady, Uncle Sam's co-workers have come to your rescue and created some most attractive numbers designed to hide troublesome bulges. These new models are gay and colorful, leaning toward bright prints and stripes and are perky enough to lift even your lowest spirits.

It's a world of working women today as we turn our all-out effort toward winning this war and the glamour girl has traded her high heeled shoes for practical flat heels, shortened her fingernails and readied them for practical tasks, and last but not least she has traded her long hair-do for short bobs that will not hinder her at her work and can be kept in place by running a comb through her hair with no extra effort.

Denim has become a popular fabric with this working woman, who may at this time of year be helping in the orchards or in the berry fields. She wears shorts or slacks of denim with a plaid or plain shirt or perhaps a halter, that will let her store up sunshine for the winter months. Made to order for the feminine gardener are the waterproof duck overalls with big pockets designed for holding those little extras that she uses in the garden and then lays down and cannot find.

Sunday afternoon, July 12, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Lehmer will entertain a group of out-of-town guests at tea, in their charming Kingwood Heights home. About 15 guests have been bidden to attend. The tea table will be centered with an arrangement of garden flowers.

Mrs. Woodrow Stratler, with her small daughter, Margaret, and Mrs. Vera Myron of Des Moines, are in the capital visiting Mrs. Stratler's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Clark, at their home in South Commercial street.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church met Thursday with Mrs. I. W. Herbert in charge. A budget of $100 for various missionary causes was adopted.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cadger, chairman of White Cross work, reported the following activities: emergency first aid supplies are being stored in the church. Once a month a group of women meet at the Deaconess hospital to sew.

During this month a box of supplies was sent to the Mather school for negro girls at Beaufort, South Carolina.

A program on Christian Citizenship was presented by Mrs. L. G. Prescott. Mrs. Floyd White and Mrs. L. A. Dunn brought interesting news of missionaries. Devotions were led by Mrs. E. D. Buell. Hostesses were Mrs. J. W. Humphreys and Mrs. L. Cabeau.

Miss June Earle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Lind, whose betrothal to Warren Porter of Corvallis, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Porter of Klamath Falls, was announced at a party Tuesday evening at the home of the bride-elect. The wedding will be an event of July 26. (Jesten-Miller).

A BEAUTIFULLY arranged party Friday evening was the scene of the announcement of the betrothal of Miss June Earle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Earle, and Dean Trumbo, son of Marcus Trumbo, of Portland. Mrs. Earle and Miss Earle were hostesses for the affair. The wedding will be an event of July 26.

The guests were told the news of the betrothal when they were seated at a table for a late supper. The table was centered with a miniature cottage of white and blue, from which ribbons extended to each plate bearing the names of the couple and the date of their coming marriage. The evening was spent informally. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Miss Betty Anunson and Miss Jean Moore.
