Miss Westerman Is Bride of Mr. Dickenson

Independence—Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Baptist church, Miss Barbara Westerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Westerman, became the bride of John Dickenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Dickenson.

The altar was banked with tall baskets of autumn flowers and ivy guarded by white candelabra bearing white tapers.

Preceding the ceremony, Hugh Amsherry sang "At Dawning" and "Still as the Night," accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Amsherry who also played the wedding marches.

Rev. Loyal H. Vickers performed the impressive ceremony.

Miss Westerman was given in marriage by her father, and wore a powder blue costume suit with brown accessories.

Miss Marjorie Westerman of Astoria was the bride's only attendant and wore a cocoa brown dress suit with dark brown accessories.

Clinton Smith of Albany served as best man for Mr. Dickenson. Ushers were William Fisher and Roy Yung of Salem.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Westerman chose an afternoon dress of forest green with brown accessories and Mrs. Dickenson wore a plum colored crepe dress with black accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors which were decorated with fall flowers. The bride's table was covered with gold satin and centered with a four-tiered wedding cake which was cut by Mrs. V. J. Capron, Sr., of Friday Harbor, San Juan island, Wash. Mrs. William C. Wood presided at the urns.

Assisting with the serving were sorority sisters of Miss Westerman, Miss Peggy Lou Alexander of Portland, Miss Betty Zumwalt of Port Orford, Miss Georgia Cook of Salem and Miss Lillian Holeczek.

Following a week at the Oregon beaches the couple will be

"He doesn't say where... but he got the Camels!"

WHERE THEY ARE, where they're going may be a military secret, but it's no secret that the one gift most men in the service want from home is cigarettes. The brand? Camel—the favorite in every branch of the service... Army, Navy, Marines, Coast Guard (see bottom, right). Make it a point today to send a carton of Camels to that fellow you know in the service. Be sure to ask your dealer for the Camel carton in the service mailing wrapper.

GOOD NEWS FROM HOME! Mail call is as sweet as pay call when it brings a carton of Camels. Yes, Camels—for when the order of the hour is steady nerves, mildness means more than ever before. And for steady pleasure, there's nothing like mild, slow-burning Camels with the full round flavor that never wears out its welcome.

IT'S EVEN EASIER than writing a letter. No wrapping—no mailing. Your dealer has a special wrapper for Camel cartons and complete mailing instructions for all branches of the service. Stop in at your dealer today. Let him send off a carton of Camels to that young fellow who's waiting to hear from you. Take another carton home with you. Enjoy that full, rich flavor... that slow-burning mildness that only Camels give. Then you'll know why, with men in the service, the favorite is Camel!

Send him his favorite... Camels THE CIGARETTE OF COSTLIER TOBACCOS

...FIRST OVER THERE... With men in the Army, Navy, Marines, and the Coast Guard, the favorite cigarette is Camel. (Based on actual sales records in Post Exchanges, Sales Commissaries, Ship's Service Stores, Ship's Stores, and Canteens.) ...AND OVER HERE!
