Finnish Minister Creates Sensation

By DeWitt Mackenzie
(Wide World War Analysis)

The Finnish minister to Washington, Hjalmar J. Procope, has dropped a bomb big enough to reverberate in many capitals, both axis and allied, in his announcement that "Finland wants to cease fighting as soon as the threat to her existence has been averted and guarantees secured for her lasting security."

If we label this extraordinary move as a fishing expedition for a peace offer, we probably shall encounter an official denial from Helsinki. Still, that's exactly what it looks like—a trial peace balloon. Between the lines there seems to lurk the hope that Uncle Sam will overlook that Finland is an ally of the Hitler he has sworn to crush, and will persuade the Russians to make some proposal.

It might seem that it didn't matter a great deal whether tiny clock in the fireplace room of the church before the fireplace, which was banked with pink and white gladioluses, greenery and ferns.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Richard Maxwell of Colfax. She wore a full length dress of white marquisette with stirred sleeves and veil. Her bouquet was of white dahlias and gardenias.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. Miss Shirley English, a former classmate of the bride, poured.

After a honeymoon to Victoria, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make their home in Bremerton. For traveling the bride wore a tailored blue suit with white sharkskin blouse and hat to match.

Mrs. Wright is a graduate of Washington State college and has been employed in Seattle. Mr. Wright attended school in Woodburn and Portland and also attended Washington State college. He is employed as electrician in the Bremerton shipyards.

Jefferson Is Scene of Rites

Jefferson—At an all white candle-light ceremony Friday evening, September 18, at the Jefferson Church of Christ, Miss Donna June Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Powell of Jefferson, became the bride of Virgil T. Bailes, son of Mrs. Helen Bailes of Ellensburg, Wash. Rev. James E. Whitaker, pastor of the local church, read the double ring service in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white tulle wedding dress with fingertip veil held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a spray of gardenias and bouvardia with white ribbon streamers.

Miss Marjorie Jensen of Eugene, maid of honor, wore a white net frock and carried a nosegay of pink Rapture roses and white asters.

Miss Wilma Sargent of Salem and Miss Lois Long of Yakima, Wash., were bridesmaids wearing white frocks and carrying nosegays of yellow Taisman roses and white asters.

George Alder was best man and Ivan Correll and Gene Powell were ushers.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Sara Margaret Hutchinson, a Miss Sara Margaret Thurston lit the candles. Mrs. George Alder sang "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Fernie Nutting, who also played the wedding marches.

A reception followed with Mrs. Lloyd Arnold, Mrs. Cora Miller, Mrs. Benton Arnold, and Mrs. Lester Arnold presiding at the tables. Miss Crystal Struckmeier, Miss Sara Margaret Mutchings, Miss Mickie Thurston and Mrs. Ivan Correll served.

For going away the bride chose a brown crepe dress with beige coat and brown accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias. After a short trip the young couple will be at home at 1331 Emerald street, Eugene, Oregon.
