

Silverton Host Fall Lutheran Church Session

Silverton—The autumn session of the Oregon circuit of the Lutheran Free church will convene in Calvary Lutheran church, from October 29 to November 1, Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Olson, pastorate hosts.

The opening meeting will be Thursday evening with communion services at 7:30 o'clock, followed by an address by Rev. I. O. Hustoft of Astoria. The Rev. E. J. Raam, Portland, will introduce the theme of the convention, 1 Pet. 2:1-10, a lesson in Christian growth and charity, on Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

The Rev. James Toft of Astoria will deliver the Sunday worship hour sermon at 11 a.m.

Three sessions each day from Friday through Sunday will be held at 10:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and at 7:30 p.m.

Meals will be served in the church social rooms each day of the meetings at 12 noon and 5:30 p.m. by members of the Ladies' Aid society.

Special confirmation instruction will be Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The public is cordially welcome to attend the meetings.

Neighborhood Units Will Meet Tonight

Labish Center—A meeting of the neighborhood leaders for Hazel Green and Labish Center is scheduled to be held at the school Wednesday evening. Harvey Aker of this community and Mrs. Glen Looney of Hazel Green are chairmen of the leaders. Representing Hazel Green are Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave, Mrs. Ralph Worden, Mrs. Guy Looney, Ralph Gilbert, Kenneth Bayne, Ed Hynes and Mrs. Lewis Wampler. Those in this district are Orle McClaughey, Mrs. Harlan Pearsall, Mrs. Reuben Boehm, Nathan Kurth and Harold Watenaugh.

This meeting will be devoted to four things, the most important being the scrap drive. Others will be collection of waste fats, the value of enriched food and transportation problems. Solution for these problems will be discussed and each leader will be given the required literature to distribute to their quota of families in their vicinity.

Children Interested In Scrap Campaign

Labish Center—Children of the grade school are vitally interested in the scrap iron drive and are responding with collections from near and far. Local residents are donating their accumulation to the scholars and the funds derived from the sale will be used to purchase school equipment.

Absent on account of illness the past week were Norene Goins, of the seventh grade, Dean Lowery, eighth grade, Beverly Ricketts, primary beginner and Neil Kurth of the second grade.

The students are spending part of their school hours practicing songs which will be used for the next Community club sing Friday night, Nov. 6th.

Bethel Welcoming More Newcomers

Bethel—New residents in this district are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rorex who have moved onto the farm recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Harkreder. This is known as the Harry Boles farm. Mr. and Mrs. Rorex came from McMinnville. They have a son, Edward, in the navy; a daughter, Mrs. John F. Hardy, living in Salem; and a son Robert, who has finished high school and is at home helping with the work of the farm-dairy which they are operating.

Chalfins are Back

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chalfin (Ruth Hubbs) and their small son, David Earl, of Oakland, Calif., arrived by train at the home of Mrs. Chalfin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs, for a two weeks' vacation visit. Chalfin is making a hunting trip in central Oregon.

Potts Returns From Oyster Plantings

Sidney-Talbot—Mr. and Mrs. George Potts, Sr., returned recently from Coos Bay where Potts, who is president of the Associated Coos Bay Land Owners, and a member of the Sidney-Talbot Farmers' union, had an active part in planting oysters. This cooperative association is made up of Farmers' Union members and is concerned with the growing, packing and canning of oysters at Coos Bay. Potts is a former president of the Oregon Farmers' union.

Norma Shearer and Melvyn Douglas are co-starred in the romantic comedy "We Were Dancing," with Noel Coward's tunes, Hollywood theatre today and Thursday, plus second feature, Richard Carlson, Nancy Kelly and Martin Kosleck appearing together in "Fly by Night."

Dallas Curfew Rules Conform To District

Dallas—Uniform curfew ordinances for communities neighboring Camp Adair corresponding with ordinances in the Camp White area was discussed by council members meeting at the city hall Monday night. Agreement was reached that the age limit should be set at 18 years and the curfew hour at 10 p.m. Dallas now has an ordinance setting the age at 16 years and the hour at 10.

Referred to the ordinance committee, Hollis Smith, Dr. A. B. Starbuck and H. D. Peterson and to City Attorney Oscar Hayter was the matter of the city telephone franchise, now open for renewal.

The matter of enforcing dim-out regulations, which in this section of the country become effective October 25, was discussed and referred to the ordinance committee.

A letter from railroad officials requesting the city to put stop signs at all railroad crossings was read and discussed.

Children Interested In Scrap Campaign

Labish Center—Children of the grade school are vitally interested in the scrap iron drive and are responding with collections from near and far. Local residents are donating their accumulation to the scholars and the funds derived from the sale will be used to purchase school equipment.

Absent on account of illness the past week were Norene Goins, of the seventh grade, Dean Lowery, eighth grade, Beverly Ricketts, primary beginner and Neil Kurth of the second grade.

The students are spending part of their school hours practicing songs which will be used for the next Community club sing Friday night, Nov. 6th.

Bethel Welcoming More Newcomers

Bethel—New residents in this district are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rorex who have moved onto the farm recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Harkreder. This is known as the Harry Boles farm. Mr. and Mrs. Rorex came from McMinnville. They have a son, Edward, in the navy; a daughter, Mrs. John F. Hardy, living in Salem; and a son Robert, who has finished high school and is at home helping with the work of the farm-dairy which they are operating.

Chalfins are Back

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chalfin (Ruth Hubbs) and their small son, David Earl, of Oakland, Calif., arrived by train at the home of Mrs. Chalfin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs, for a two weeks' vacation visit. Chalfin is making a hunting trip in central Oregon.

Jefferson Hours are Changed by Pioneer Stores; Van Svarverud's Visiting in Valley

Smith & Fontaine and Thurston's store announce that starting Monday of this week, store hours will be as follows: Week days, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturdays, 8 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. S. A. Pease of Eugene, who visited relatives and friends here last week, has gone to Salem where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Myra Reed, and Miss Ruth Reed. She will also visit her son, Ferris, and family in Portland before returning to Eugene. She has just returned from a three months' visit in California with her son, Levant, and family. Mrs. Pease is a former local resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Waterman and son, Michael, of Eugene were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Waterman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee. Mrs. McKee accompanied them home for a visit while McKee is away on a deer hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tecker of Portland were visiting friends and looking after business interests here Sunday. Mrs. Tecker will be remembered as Lena Eades, a former local resident.

Frank Wied and Earl Lynes left last week for a deer hunt in the Crescent district in central Oregon. They expect to return home the first of this week.

Among the hunters leaving here this week for eastern Oregon were W. L. Jones and Postmaster Clarence Miller, Robert Terhune and son, Bob, and Clair Haight, who left Sunday. Other members of their party leaving Tuesday were the McKee brothers and Knight brothers. Another party, the McGill brothers and their families, also left Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers of Silverton visited Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Jacob and Mrs. S. M. Green. They were on their way to Talbot to spend the week-end at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Myers. Their son, Max, who recently joined the U. S. army, is stationed near Little Rock, Ark.

Major and Mrs. Van Svarverud of San Francisco, Calif., are guests at the home of Mrs. Svarverud's sister, Mrs. James G. Pate, and family. They will visit other relatives in this district and in Salem before returning to California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McQuary of Centralia, Wash., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Richardson.

Navy Man Returns

Slayton—Byron Champ, who has been in the navy for the past several months, is in town to see relatives and friends. He is staying at the home of his brother, Eldon Champ.

Adair Council Dinner Guests

Dallas—An invitation has been extended by Mayor Leif S. Finseth to Camp Adair four-county cantonment officials to attend a council dinner to be held in the city hall Monday night, October 26.

John Wilfred Webster has been appointed acting corporal and will have charge of the group from Woodburn to the reception center at Fort Lewis. The men are called for 1:45 o'clock, October 27, at the city hall and previous to their departure at 2:30 o'clock an informal program will be given by the North Marion County Service committee.

The next call from the local board will be November 4 when a group will take their army physical at the induction station in Portland.

Officers Are Named For School Club

Quincy—Officers of the Buena Crest school club for the second month are: president, Helen Ritchie; secretary, Buddy De Geer; playground inspectors, Charles Beckner and Alfred Meithof; substitute, Bobby De Geer.

Spelling honor roll for the past week includes Don Meithof, Glen Jones, Charles Asbury, Betty Diem, Alta Hadley, Doris Meithof, Donna Hall, Elsie Field, Charles Beckner, Betty Meithof, Jack Hall, Mildred Meithof, Patricia Partridge and Jackie Coop.

New pupils of the past week were Phyllis and Patricia Partridge who entered from Monmouth and are in the fourth and fifth grades.

Lawrence Rites Held

Grand Island—Relatives from a distance attending the funeral of Mrs. Arka Lawrence, 52, Thursday afternoon at the Hope-United Brethren church, included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Penrose, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Thornion and Fred Bethune, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunt, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. George Penrose, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Harvey, Mrs. Horace Propst of Portland; Miss Ella Hendrick and Mrs. Miles Hendricks of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Antrim of Aloha; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith, Mrs. William Warmington and Damon Sawyer of Lafayette; Mrs. Laura Reener of Los Angeles, Cal.

Schmidt Heads Fire Fighters At Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—Andrew Schmidt was unanimously elected fire chief of the Mt. Angel fire department at a special meeting held Monday evening when the city council accepted the resignation of Louis Schwab, who like his predecessor, A. J. Butsch, also has undertaken defense work which keeps them out of the city many days out of the month.

Dimout regulations were also discussed and Leonard Fisher was appointed to contact the Portland General Electric company, regarding shields for the street lights.

Four members of the fire department, now in the Salem airport department, A. J. Butsch, Louis Schwab, Walter Smith and Joseph Wagner, are appointed in an advisory capacity to the local department.

At the caucus meeting following candidates were nominated for the office of city councilmen for Mt. Angel for two-year terms to fill the offices of J. Wachter, George Meyers and Leonard Fisher, whose terms expire.

Those nominated for the office include Joseph Wachter, George Meyers, Leonard Fisher, Frank Berg, Emil Wolf, Joseph Keber, A. G. Traeger and Sylvester Schmitt.

Armed Service Calling Men

Woodburn—Registrants of the Woodburn draft board who passed their army physical on October 13 will leave from the city hall October 27 for active duty. They are: Privates Kenneth Ray Luckey, Hubbard; Fred Ira Strubhar, Hubbard; William Anthony Poepping, Mt. Angel; Harold Edward Knorr, Aurora; John C. Sigloh, Woodburn; William Augustine LaFontaine Brooks; Ross Frederick Arthur, Silverton; Otto Theodore Paulson, Hubbard; Raymond Albert Norton, Silverton; Harold Leroy Leith, Salem; Glenn Samuel Stetter, Woodburn.

Accepted for limited service are John Wilfred Webster; transferred from Clatsop county; Norman James Nibler, Gervais; Doyle Vincent Shipp, Silverton.

John Wilfred Webster has been appointed acting corporal and will have charge of the group from Woodburn to the reception center at Fort Lewis. The men are called for 1:45 o'clock, October 27, at the city hall and previous to their departure at 2:30 o'clock an informal program will be given by the North Marion County Service committee.

The next call from the local board will be November 4 when a group will take their army physical at the induction station in Portland.

Burelback Flying

Dallas—Martin LeRoy Burelback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Burelback here, recently graduated from the primary flying school at King City, Calif., and has been sent to the army flying school at Lemoore, Calif. Burelback enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force for flight training last winter, later secured a transfer back to the U. S. army air corps made up of American citizens and enlisted in the air force.

Training in Wyoming

Dallas—Ray McKee, Dallas attorney, who enlisted in the army in May, is now in the officers' school for quartermasters' training at Fort Warren, Wyo., according to word received here. At Fort Warren, also is Attorney Philip Hayler of Dallas, who first took training in the armored tank division, was later transferred to the Quartermaster corps.

Dallas—Percy Laing of Black Rock was fined $10 by Police Judge William Blackley, Monday, for being drunk in a public place.

"Isle of Missing Men" starring John Howard, Helen Gilbert and Gilbert Roland, opening tomorrow at the Grand theatre, is co-featured with "Yukon Patrol" with Allan Lane and Lita Conway.

Lowes Are Back From Seattle for Visit; Bill Lane Honored by Students

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brinkman of Portland visited his father, John Brinkman.

Mrs. Ruby Potter, who has been with her son, Orville Potter, since he has been working in Vancouver, is visiting here this week with her daughter, Mrs. Mark Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Arthur Lowe and Mr. and Mrs. David Lowe of Seattle spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain and with Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer in Turner. The Lowes are in defense work in Seattle and wished to visit their relatives here before gas rationing starts.

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Luta Fuson were John Serwerda, Al Serwerda of Shelton, Wash., and Mrs. Anne Richards of Mt. Vernon, Wash.

Bill Lane was the guest of honor at a farewell party Friday night given by students of Aumsville high school. Lane was a prominent student. He came to Aumsville from Missouri in 1937. Lane will go to Salem high school. Mrs. Lane and sons, Forest Lane and Bill Lane, moved to Salem Sunday.

Jefferson Greening Woman Meat Cutter

Jefferson—The war changes customs. Heretofore meat cutting was considered a man's job—but not any more.

Mrs. Harvey Thurston has accepted a position at C. J. Thurston's meat market as meat cutter and clerk, taking the place of her husband, who has joined the armed forces. Under the efficient teaching of the proprietor, C. J. Thurston, she expects to become very proficient with a cleaver.

Reading Club Formed

Unionvale—Under the leadership of their teacher, Mrs. Glen McFarlane, the upper grades organized a 4-H reading club. Officers elected were: president, Elmore Allen; vice-president, Mary Launer; secretary, Lois Hibbs.

Albany Faces 'Aerial' Attack For One Hour

Albany—At a signal of the Albany fire alarm siren all local civilian defense agencies and groups will turn out in full force at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday night, traffic will stop and every condition incidental to an airplane attack by an enemy upon the community will be simulated for an hour while United States army officers inspect the local civilian defense organization in operation, C. R. Ashton, local civilian defense commander, stated.

Six or more incidents will be enacted, Ashton stated, and traffic will be suspended. It was also requested that no one use local telephones unless necessary during the "raid."

Announcing the period will be 12 pairs of siren blasts, six separated by 30 seconds, and the all-clear signal will be the same. The regular air raid siren will not be employed, Ashton said.

Scrap Drive Closing

Albany—Wind-up of the local scrap metal drive is scheduled for next Sunday, when it is hoped to have not less than 200 men in working togs. Final disposition of the great mass of iron that has accumulated on the softball diamond at the municipal swimming pool will be made.

Aumsville

Lowes Are Back From Seattle for Visit; Bill Lane Honored by Students

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brinkman of Portland visited his father, John Brinkman.

Mrs. Ruby Potter, who has been with her son, Orville Potter, since he has been working in Vancouver, is visiting here this week with her daughter, Mrs. Mark Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Arthur Lowe and Mr. and Mrs. David Lowe of Seattle spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain and with Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer in Turner. The Lowes are in defense work in Seattle and wished to visit their relatives here before gas rationing starts.

Recent guests at the home of Mrs. Luta Fuson were John Serwerda, Al Serwerda of Shelton, Wash., and Mrs. Anne Richards of Mt. Vernon, Wash.

Bill Lane was the guest of honor at a farewell party Friday night given by students of Aumsville high school. Lane was a prominent student. He came to Aumsville from Missouri in 1937. Lane will go to Salem high school. Mrs. Lane and sons, Forest Lane and Bill Lane, moved to Salem Sunday.

Officers Are Named For School Club

Quincy—Officers of the Buena Crest school club for the second month are: president, Helen Ritchie; secretary, Buddy De Geer; playground inspectors, Charles Beckner and Alfred Meithof; substitute, Bobby De Geer.

Spelling honor roll for the past week includes Don Meithof, Glen Jones, Charles Asbury, Betty Diem, Alta Hadley, Doris Meithof, Donna Hall, Elsie Field, Charles Beckner, Betty Meithof, Jack Hall, Mildred Meithof, Patricia Partridge and Jackie Coop.

New pupils of the past week were Phyllis and Patricia Partridge who entered from Monmouth and are in the fourth and fifth grades.

Lawrence Rites Held

Grand Island—Relatives from a distance attending the funeral of Mrs. Arka Lawrence, 52, Thursday afternoon at the Hope-United Brethren church, included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Penrose, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Thornion and Fred Bethune, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunt, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. George Penrose, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Harvey, Mrs. Horace Propst of Portland; Miss Ella Hendrick and Mrs. Miles Hendricks of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Antrim of Aloha; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith, Mrs. William Warmington and Damon Sawyer of Lafayette; Mrs. Laura Reener of Los Angeles, Cal.

Army Men Speak

Albany—Major R. E. Riordan, post intelligence officer at Camp Adair, and Lieut. George H. Godfrey, public relations officer, addressed the members of the Albany Chamber of Commerce and visitors at a meeting Wednesday noon at the Albany hotel.

Mrs. Gowdy Home

Silverton—Mrs. Steele Gowdy of Clear Lake, who is located on Coolidge street, Silverton, for the fall and winter months for school advantages for her children, is spending ten days at her home in Clear Lake on a business trip.

Armed Service Calling Men

Woodburn—Registrants of the Woodburn draft board who passed their army physical on October 13 will leave from the city hall October 27 for active duty. They are: Privates Kenneth Ray Luckey, Hubbard; Fred Ira Strubhar, Hubbard; William Anthony Poepping, Mt. Angel; Harold Edward Knorr, Aurora; John C. Sigloh, Woodburn; William Augustine LaFontaine Brooks; Ross Frederick Arthur, Silverton; Otto Theodore Paulson, Hubbard; Raymond Albert Norton, Silverton; Harold Leroy Leith, Salem; Glenn Samuel Stetter, Woodburn.

Accepted for limited service are John Wilfred Webster; transferred from Clatsop county; Norman James Nibler, Gervais; Doyle Vincent Shipp, Silverton.

John Wilfred Webster has been appointed acting corporal and will have charge of the group from Woodburn to the reception center at Fort Lewis. The men are called for 1:45 o'clock, October 27, at the city hall and previous to their departure at 2:30 o'clock an informal program will be given by the North Marion County Service committee.

The next call from the local board will be November 4 when a group will take their army physical at the induction station in Portland.

Burelback Flying

Dallas—Martin LeRoy Burelback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Burelback here, recently graduated from the primary flying school at King City, Calif., and has been sent to the army flying school at Lemoore, Calif. Burelback enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force for flight training last winter, later secured a transfer back to the U. S. army air corps made up of American citizens and enlisted in the air force.

Training in Wyoming

Dallas—Ray McKee, Dallas attorney, who enlisted in the army in May, is now in the officers' school for quartermasters' training at Fort Warren, Wyo., according to word received here. At Fort Warren, also is Attorney Philip Hayler of Dallas, who first took training in the armored tank division, was later transferred to the Quartermaster corps.

Dallas—Percy Laing of Black Rock was fined $10 by Police Judge William Blackley, Monday, for being drunk in a public place.

It was estimated that about two more carloads of scrap iron and steel are now reposing on the ground awaiting shipment. Roscoe Ames, county salvage chairman, said Tuesday that two cars will be available on the ground and that, as was the case with the last consignment, the iron will be shipped directly to the Bethlehem steel works at San Francisco.

Albany—At a signal of the Albany fire alarm siren all local civilian defense agencies and groups will turn out in full force at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday night, traffic will stop and every condition incidental to an airplane attack by an enemy upon the community will be simulated for an hour while United States army officers inspect the local civilian defense organization in operation, C. R. Ashton, local civilian defense commander, stated.

Six or more incidents will be enacted, Ashton stated, and traffic will be suspended. It was also requested that no one use local telephones unless necessary during the "raid."

Announcing the period will be 12 pairs of siren blasts, six separated by 30 seconds, and the all-clear signal will be the same. The regular air raid siren will not be employed, Ashton said.

Scrap Drive Closing

Albany—Wind-up of the local scrap metal drive is scheduled for next Sunday, when it is hoped to have not less than 200 men in working togs. Final disposition of the great mass of iron that has accumulated on the softball diamond at the municipal swimming pool will be made.

GRAND

Jeanette MacDonald and Robert Young in "CAIRO"

Lloyd Nolan and "Apache Trail"

Continuous Show Daily - Mat. 1:00

All New Show TODAY

LIBERTY

He's the Whoos-Ho-o-o! of Merry-Mad Comedy - - - -

HUGH HERBERT

Mischa Auer - Ernest Truax

DON'T GET Personal

Two Action-Packed Hits

DON "RED" BARRY

in "APACHE KID"

with Lynn Merrick

18c Plus Tax Till 5:00

ELLSINORE

Now 2 Big Hits

PANAMA

Red HATTIE

SKELTON SOTHERN

Plus Companion Feature She's a Terror with a Gun! "LADY GANGSTER" with Faye Emerson - June Bishop Plus MARCH OF TIME See how the FBI fights its secret battle against Axis agents!

Gambling Daughters

with EVELIA PARKER and ROGER PRYOR

Box Office Open 1:00

Debutantes of SIN

Now Showing 22c Plus Tax

GIRLS' TOWN

EDITH FELLOWS

JUNE STOREY

KENNETH HOWELL

Anna 2. WHITE-NILSSON

Plus Tax

ELFSTROM'S

for Floor Coverings

★ RUGS

★ CARPETS

★ LINOLEUM

R. L. ELFSTROM CO.

375 Chemeketa Phone 9221

HALLOWEEN

Party Decorations and Supplies

COSTUMES

Skeletons - Napkins - Games Luncheon Sets - Place Cards Tallies, Etc.

Guelfroy's Commercial Book Store

Phone 4534 141 N. Commercial

HOLLYWOOD Today Thurs.

It's Saucy! It's Gay!

NORMA SHEARER - DOUGLAS

WE WERE Dancing

Plus 2nd Feature

The Great SPY-HUNT of the year!

FLY BY NIGHT

Nancy Kelly Richard Carlson

Added: March of Time - News Cartoon

CAPITOL

STARTS TODAY

Paulette's back... in the raciest, most riotous romantic escapade you'll see this year!

THE LADY HAS PLANS

MILLAND

GODDARD

— PLUS —

HELLO ANNAPOLIS

Stirring Thrilling Youthful romance

TOM BROWN - JEAN PARKER

A COLUMBIA PICTURE