Sororities Entertain With Dance

Willamette University Campus—The gay moods of "Carnivale" will create a festive atmosphere as members of the three sororities and their dates dance to the music of George Carey and his 11-piece orchestra at the inter-sorority winter formal tonight in the Willamette gymnasium. Gaudy streamers of many colors and shadow-murals thrown ingeniously on the walls will carry out the theme in decorations. Pink punch will be served from a brightly trimmed red and white candy striped booth. Pains about the gymnasium will complete the setting.

Dancing will continue from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Mr. Carey's orchestra is from the University of Oregon campus. A soloist is also featured.

Special guests will include Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Hon. and Mrs. Earl Snell, Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean and Mrs. Chester F. Luther, Dean and Mrs. Daniel H. Schulze, Dean and Mrs. Walter E. Erickson, Dean and Mrs. Melvin H. Geist, Dean and Mrs. Ray L. Smith, Mrs. Maria Davidson, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Frank James and Dean Olive M. Dahl.

Chairmen planning decorations for the affair are Miss Miriam Jensen, Miss Helen Zimmerman, and Miss Barbara Viesko. Assisting them are Miss Bette Burkhart, Miss Carol Young, Miss Shirley Vallian, Miss Kay Wilson, Miss Janet Blake, Miss Dorothy Hoar, Miss Jean Selden, Miss Billie McCleod, Miss Jean Wing, Miss Ruth Finney, Miss Rosella Bell, Miss Pat Short and Miss Betty Andrews.

Other groups selected from the three sororities aiding in making arrangements are the punch committee with Miss Eleanor Todd, chairman, Miss Eloise Findley, Miss Vicki Jones, Miss Susanna Schramm, Miss Lois Phillips, Miss Mary Bennett, Miss Thyra Jean Curry and the cleanup committee consisting of Miss Jeanette Mack, Miss Margaret Hughlett, Miss Virginia Hobbs, Miss Marjorie Sipes, Miss Pat Carter, Miss Marjorie Hill, Miss Beth Nordean, Miss Joan Hotzman, Miss Barbara Tallant, Miss Grace Hannigan and Miss Betty Jean Tucker.

Miss Kingsbury Is Speaker

Woodburn—Miss Grace Kingsbury, executive secretary of the Marion county health association, was the guest speaker at the December meeting of the Woodburn Woman's club, held Wednesday afternoon at the library clubrooms. Miss Kingsbury talked on the subject of "Nutrition as the Basis of Good Health," and also showed two motion picture films, one on nutrition and the other on tuberculosis.

A no-host luncheon was held at 12:30 o'clock and the business session opened at 2 o'clock. Money was voted for the purchase of Christmas seals, and for servicemen. A collection was taken up for the purchase of war stamps.

Mrs. Carl Huber was elected vice-president to succeed Mrs. C. G. Rue, who is moving to Newberg soon. Mrs. H. S. LeFebvre was taken into the club. Mrs. Wallace Jones, president, announced that the clubrooms will be open every Wednesday afternoon for Red Cross sewing. A quilt is to be completed which will be sold for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Post-Nuptial Shower Event of Tuesday

Mrs. Warren Jones, the former Marie Schindler, who was an October bride, was an incentive for a gay party and miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Carl Schneider in South Winter street Tuesday evening. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Schneider and Miss Agnes Walsh.

The evening was spent informally and a late supper was served by the hostess from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums.

Bidden to honor Mrs. Jones were Mrs. Jack Neville, Mrs. Harvey Quistad, Mrs. Bud Melin, Mrs. Glenn Paxson, Miss Frances Decker, Miss Virginia Bartruff, Miss Florence Ritchie, Miss Patsy Schneider and Miss Lena Glass of Portland.

Hazel Green—The Brooks Garden club meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Britt Aspinwall on Friday, December 4 rather than December 3 as previously announced.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Salem Art center will be held at the center tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Enthusiastic Salem Audience Attends Delbert Anderson Concert

Almost a capacity audience enthusiastically greeted the concert given Thursday evening at the Salem High school auditorium by Delbert Lee Anderson, of Seattle, tenor, under the auspices of the Crescendo club. Mr. Anderson, a former Salem student, displayed a great ability in the vocal field. Excellent diction, combined with a lyric quality of tenor voice serves to make him an outstanding young vocalist.

Woman's Club Plans 'Social'

Mehama—The first December meeting of the Mehama Woman's club was held Wednesday at the clubhouse with Winifred Branch presiding and Gladys Marks, Ardys Kimsey and Myrtle Goodell acting as hostesses. At the business session the secretary read letters of thanks from sailors and soldiers overseas who had received Christmas gift boxes from the club.

Rachel Liedtke was elected vice-president to replace Margaret Kimsey, who resigned. It was decided to officially name the club the Mehama Woman's club. Plans were discussed and voted upon to have a dance and an old-fashioned basket social at the clubhouse New Year's eve.

A five dollar bond for the Christmas seal drive was purchased and also it was decided to buy candy and nuts to fill Christmas sacks for the grade school children. After the business meeting members joined in singing old time songs. The next meeting will be the annual Christmas party, December 18, with Estelle Philippi, Mildred Greer and Alice Pooler acting as hostesses.

Woman's Club At Mason Home

Mill City—Mrs. C. E. Mason entertained the members of the Mill City Woman's club at her home Tuesday evening. Thirteen members were present. Following the regular opening ceremonies, minutes and correspondence were read. It was voted to send a special donation to the Doernbecher Hospital for Children, to add to their Christmas fund.

It was also voted to buy a $5 Christmas Seal Bond from the Marion County Public Health Association to aid in fighting tuberculosis.

Members drew names for the usual exchange of Christmas gifts at the annual Christmas party to be held at Mrs. J. F. Potter's on December 15. The response to roll call was "News from Washington," some very interesting items being mentioned. Mrs. Donald Sheythe told of exciting events related by her brother, Delmar Corbin, an engineer in the merchant marine who just completed a 10-day visit here.

Following adjournment, two violin solos were played by Mrs. Sheythe, including a group of "Viennese Waltzes," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Robert Schroeder.

Dinner Honors Serviceman

Miss Winters Tells of Seal Sale

Independence — Mrs. T. D. Pomeroy presided at the regular meeting of the Independence Woman's club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. B. F. Swope, membership chairman, announced that three new members, Mrs. Robert Grantham, Mrs. Thad Moreland and Mrs. Bruce Roessler, had been added to the club.

Mrs. M. J. Butler, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Miss Elsie Winters of Portland, who gave an enlightening talk on tuberculosis entitled "Fighters Always." She urged members to buy Christmas seals to help in the battle of tuberculosis and stated that of each dollar given in Oregon, 95 cents remained in the state and that in Polk county the Polk county public health association kept 75 cents of each dollar for work in the county. She stated that 282 Oregonians died last year from tuberculosis.

Following the speaker, Miss Virginia Makoff gave two accordion solos, "White Christmas" and "Why Don't You Fall in Love With Me?"

Eastern Rites Are Said

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Horner announce the marriage of their daughter, Shirley Cleo, to Lieut. George W. Laird, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Laird of Vernonia. The ceremony took place August 15 at Dillon, South Carolina, in the Baptist church with Rev. Lyon officiating.

The bride wore a white jersey dress with white accessories, and corsage of white orchids. The couple was attended by Lieut. and Mrs. G. Hunter of Fort Bragg. Mrs. Hunter's corsage was also a white orchid.

Lieut. and Mrs. Laird are living at Fayetteville, North Carolina, while he is stationed at Fort Bragg. Mrs. Laird is a graduate of the Mill City high school.

Lieut. Laird made a short visit at the Horner home Thursday.
