

WEDDING of much interest to their friends in Salem took place Friday morning, December 11, in the parlors of the parsonage of the First Methodist church in Vancouver, when Miss Ina V. Miller became the bride of Harold Monson. Miss Miller has for some time been the office manager of Day and company, and Mr. Monson was formerly the service manager of Day and company.

They were married by Rev. Fred C. Taylor, a former pastor of the First Methodist church in Salem.

The bride wore a frock of brown wool, fashioned with a V yoke and an ornamentation of gold nailheads. Her accessories and fur coat were of brown, and she wore a corsage of deep lavender orchids.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Rollin K. Page. Mrs. Page wore a frock of wine red silk jersey and black accessories.

Mr. Monson is a private first class in the marine reserve corps and is now stationed at Tongue Point. He was in the capital on a brief furlough.

Informal dancing between the hours of 8 and 11 o'clock will provide the entertainment for the servicemen and Junior Hostess league members visiting the USO center this evening, and games will be in play in the game room for the non-dancers. The dancing class for beginners will begin this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Dancing to the music of the juke box will occupy the afternoon hours of the men in uniform and the Junior Hostess league members Sunday and a program of Christmas songs between the hours of 5:15 and 6:45 o'clock will usher in the Christmas season at the center.

Only informal activities, which include dancing to the music of a juke box and games in the game room are scheduled for Monday at the center.

Lost buttons will be sewed on and tears will be mended for the men in the services Tuesday by the American War Mothers, who are meeting in the small clubroom at the center from 10 o'clock in the morning until 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Tuesday evening beginning dancers will be instructed in that art at a class beginning at 7:30 o'clock and at 8 o'clock. Camera club members will hold their regular meeting. The final event listed for Tuesday's activities is the songfest.

Servicemen will read, write letters, dance, play games with the Junior Hostesses visiting the center Wednesday, and partake of all types of informal activities which are listed for that evening.

Newest addition to the list of clubs being sponsored by the USO for the men in uniform is the Stamp club, which will meet at the center Thursday night at 8:30 o'clock. Other activities scheduled for that evening are of an informal nature.

With many of the Junior Hostess league members being the guests of the soldiers stationed at Camp Adair at their informal dances in the service clubs Friday night, informal activities again are the priorities at the USO center that evening.

On duty next Saturday, as every week-end, to extend invitations to the men in uniform to be the guests of Salem residents in their homes will be members of the home hospitality committee, which is headed by Mrs. W. L. Phillips. Late that afternoon servicemen spending the night in Salem will be permitted to register at the USO for cots at the YMCA and at St. Joseph's hall, both of which places are under the supervision of the USO.

Once again Saturday evening the men in uniform and the Junior Hostess league members will be entertained at an informal dance at the center between the hours of 8 and 11 o'clock. The regular Saturday afternoon dancing class for servicemen and Junior Hostess league members is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

South Central circle of the First Methodist church will meet Wednesday, December 16, for a 1:15 o'clock dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Verne D. Bain, 35 Hansen avenue.

A concert of recorded music, consisting of tuneful, lilting numbers from famous light operas, will be given in the recreation room of the YWCA Sunday afternoon, December 13, at 3:30 o'clock. Robert Rawson will contribute his usual interesting comments on the numbers performed. The public is cordially invited.

AN EXCEPTIONALLY interesting program will be presented for members of the Salem Junior Woman's club following their regular business meeting on Monday evening at the clubhouse, when the American Home department of the club presents Miss Edith Schryver, president of the Salem Garden club, in a talk on "Simple Christmas Decorations for the Home." Miss Schryver, who is an instructor at Oregon State college this winter, is widely known for her ability as a decorator, and her talk promises much of interest. The American Home department chairman, who arranged for Miss Schryver to appear, is Mrs. W. Gerald Nibler. Members of her department are Mrs. Lee Crawford, Mrs. Talbot Bennett and Mrs. Wayne J. Page.

Club board members will meet at 7:30 o'clock and the business meeting will convene at 8 o'clock, with Miss Hattie Brazel, president, presiding. In addition to war services and philanthropic work reports, initiation ceremonies will be held for three newly elected members. Applications for membership will be presented by the membership committee through Mrs. Joseph Felton. Plans for presenting gifts for the girls at Hillcrest school at the club's annual Christmas party on December 21 will be told by the party chairman, Miss Maria Dare. Completed plans for the club's Christmas dance will be told by the chairman, Miss Hazel Shutt, and members of her committee will distribute tickets.

Little Garden club of Salem Heights met at the home of Mrs. Charles Sawyer with 17 members attending. Mrs. Paul Acton spoke on growing plants and Mrs. C. A. Kells spoke on the Christmas holly.

A gala Christmas party will be the event of Monday, December 14, when members of the Chi Omega alumnae gather at the home of Mrs. George W. Neuner, 1470 Market street. Dessert supper will be served to the guests and several hours of bridge will be in play. Members will exchange gifts. Newcomers or visitors, who are members of Chi Omega, and who wish to attend the affair are asked to call Mrs. Neuner at 21795.

Mr. and Mrs. Bethune de Sully, who were married Friday evening, December 4, at the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Mrs. de Sully is the former Helena Schneider, and is the daughter of Mrs. Marie H. Schneider. Mr. de Sully is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles de Sully of Portland.—(Jensen-Miller).

Members of the Westminster guild of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, December 16. Rev. W. Irvin Williams will lead the devotions and members will bring gifts for the servicemen.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. William Everett Anderson, who will speak upon Christmas greens and their decorative uses. A chorus from the Willamette university choir, under the direction of Dean Melvin H. Geist, will present special Christmas music.

Salem Ministers' Wives will meet with Mrs. J. C. Harrison, 636 State street for a dessert luncheon at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday, December 16. Sharing hostess honors will be Mrs. M. A. Getzender, Mrs. Warren Hale, Mrs. Irving Fox, Mrs. Weaver W. Hess, Mrs. T. W. Henderson and Mrs. Harrison.

The honored guests at the meeting will be the wives of retired ministers, who make their homes in Salem. Mrs. Irving Fox has prepared the program, and will give a reading entitled, "The Christmas Story."

Members are planning to bring scrapbooks and notebooks, which will be sent to Japanese children situated in the relocation centers, who have been evacuated from the Salem district.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. Gilmour of Jefferson, are announcing this week-end, the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Aneta Gilmour to John S. Craig, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Craig of Salem Heights.

The marriage will be an event of the Christmas holiday season in Los Angeles.

Miss Gilmour was graduated from schools in Jefferson and later attended business college. She is now connected with Boeing in Seattle.

Mr. Craig was graduated from Salem schools and attended the Oregon College of Education in Monmouth. He is now with the army air corps, and is stationed in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Millard Pekar of Salem Heights is spending the week-end in Portland as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Snodgrass.

The Salem high school chorus classes, under the direction of Miss Lena Belle Tartar, will present their Christmas program Thursday at 12:50 o'clock. All parents and interested friends are invited to the program, which will be held in the auditorium of the high school.

The Stagecraft club is arranging the stage with elaborate scenery and effective lighting arrangements. The club will also present tableaux, which will typify the Christmas season. Mrs. Gertrude Schisler is advisor of the club.

The first and fifth period classes will each present a group of numbers, followed by a group of numbers by the second and fourth period chorus. Taking solo and obligato parts will be Miss Mary Ann Brady, Miss Pat Maurer, Miss Jean Sechrist, Miss Marilyn Wyatt, Miss Betty Jean Merton, Miss Joyce Reeves and Miss Jean Barham.

Accompanists will be Miss Alice Rose and Miss Evelyn Johnson.

Twelve more days until that day on which we wish to our fellowmen "peace on earth and good will to men," and the lives of many of the men folk are in a turmoil as to what to give the lady of their choice at Christmastide.

The states in the northern section of the United States are still faced with several months of cold and slightly cool weather, with the rationing of fuel oil and lowering of the temperatures in the homes and the offices, make a warmth-giving article of clothing a most acceptable gift for milady.

Sweaters, both the slip-on and the button type, are a boon these days, and the newest creation in the sweater line is the novelty "Fighting Eagle" and "Playmates" sweaters, along with other solashy sweaters with gay designs on their plain backgrounds. Such sweaters are tops for out-of-doors when the fluffy snowflakes are falling and hit the spot in the 65 degree office.

For variety in the sweater line there is the jacket of part wool and part rabbit hair with the fitted waistline and a "V" neckline, that is tops for wearing over the rayon jersey or rayon crepe dress in the early spring months or with a blouse and skirt.

Nothing could be more appreciated than a warm robe for the winter evening's wear. In the lower price range is the quilted cotton, which is "tubable" and most practical for morning wear. Then there is the kitten-soft rayon suede in either the zipper or wrap-around style, which is lighter weight than any of the other warm types of robes. Definitely warm is the baby candlewick chenille robe and on the dressy side is the quilted taffeta in the wrap-around version.

Want to be a bit frivolous in your gift for the lady of your choice? What's nicer than her favorite scent in perfume or toilet water, with perhaps bath powder completing the set. If she has no pet perfume, find one that you think is made to order for her. There are any number of scents to choose from, and here are a few: L'ardente Nuit, Jet, Tours Moi, Tzigane, Possession, Tweed, Bouquet Letheric, Miracle, Shanghai, Pink Party, Courage, Love Potion, Cotton Blossom, Chantilly, Mais Qui, Blue Fern, Gold Tassel, Superbe, Pink Coral, White Hyacinth, Bewitching, Gardenia, Flowers of Devonshire and Reflections.

Why not accessories to give the new dress a different outlook on life? Necklaces and earrings to match may change the entire appearance of the double duty costume and would be so much fun for milady to wear on the day after Christmas, or if she is not the type to wear necklaces, there are the pin and earring sets or the clip and earring sets. Or perhaps she prefers only the earrings. Whatever it is, be sure that the style and design are especially suited to her personality and to the costumes with which she will wear the accessories.

Richmond Parent Teachers association will meet Monday evening, December 14, at 7:30 o'clock at the school. George Kayser will preside at the business meeting. Following the business meeting a room count will be taken and a prize will be awarded to the room having the most parents present.

A program will be presented, later in the evening. Miss Carolyn Parker will present a piano solo. Miss Betty Randall and Robert Eugene Brown will give a reading entitled, "Gift of the Magi," by O. Henry. The program will be concluded with the singing of Christmas carols, led by Miss Mathilda Gillis, 4th grade teacher.

Willamette University Campus—In a patriotic setting of red, white and blue streamers and gold eagles placed in strategic formation, members of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity will entertain with their dinner dance at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall this evening. Carrying out the patriotic theme of the decorations will be the defense stamp corsages that will mark the places of the feminine guests.

Deviating from the patriotic and a bit on the romantic side will be the ballroom, where floating candles will light the garden pool in the center of the dance floor. Palms and a white picket fence will surround the pool and palms will be used in decorating the room.

Johnny Callis and his orchestra will play for the dancing, the hours for which will be from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

Special guests at the dinner dance will be Dean and Mrs. Melvin H. Geist, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erickson, Miss Margaret Ewing, Miss Marjorie Waters, Pete Faminow and Bob Hamilton.

Mark Hatfield heads the general committee planning the affair, and committee chairmen assisting him are: decorations, Wally McCall; banquet, Warren Hunter; programs, Chuck Morris; orchestra, Bob Brown, and punch, George Luthy.

The Cheschamay Camp Fire group met at the Presbyterian church. Reports were made upon the number of Christmas cards sold, and members practiced Christmas carols. Miss Beverly McCoy, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Gordon H. McCoy, a transfer member from Louisiana was welcomed into the group.

Miss Maryellen Bywater, whose marriage to Marion Krebs of Cecil, Oregon, will be an event of Saturday, December 10. Miss Bywater is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bywater and Mr. Krebs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs—(Ball).

THE lovely First Presbyterian church will be the scene of a beautiful ceremony Sunday, December 13, at 3 o'clock, when Miss Yvonne Jeanette Bolton becomes the bride of Jimmie L. Ritchie. Miss Bolton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil T. Bolton and Mr. Ritchie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Ritchie.

The church will be decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and tapers in tall candelabra. Lighting the tapers will be Miss Barbara Arthur and Miss Shirley Johnson.

Preceding the ceremony Prof. Frank Churchill will play wedding selections, and will also play the wedding processional and recessional marches. Rev. W. Irvin Williams will perform the impressive rites.

Miss Bolton will be given in marriage by her father. She will wear a gown of egg-shell satin fashioned with seed pearl ornamentation at the neckline. The gown has a full skirt, extending into a slight train and long sleeves. Her full length veil will fall from a pearl crown. She will carry a shower bouquet of gardenias, carnations and chrysanthemums.

Miss Adell Anderson will be the bride's honor attendant. She will wear a pastel blue metallic satin gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and full skirt. She will wear a small blue hat, and will carry a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids will include Miss Mildred Burnham, Miss Barbara Arthur and Miss Shirley Johnson. They will wear sheer gowns fashioned with torso bodices, full skirts and three quarter length sleeves. They will each carry a colonial bouquet of pastel flowers. Miss Burnham will be gowned in turquoise, Miss Arthur will wear pink and Miss Johnson will wear a frock of orchid.

Lyle Johnson will serve as best man, and ushers will include Virgil Bolton, Richard Tompson and Floyd Griffiths.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents in South 13th street. Mrs. J. A. Rooper of McMinnville will cut the bride's cake and presiding at the urns will be Mrs. Hubert Hansen and Mrs. A. O. Anderson. Mrs. Tom Bride of McMinnville will serve the ices.

For traveling the bride has chosen a chocolate brown tailleur with which she will wear matching accessories. Her corsage will be of gardenias.

After December 20, the couple will be at home to their friends in Portland.

Several gala holiday affairs are being planned for the servicemen at the Salem Recreation center, which is located in Pringle park. Arranging the decorations for the center will be members of the Salem Garden club.

The largest event of those planned at the center will be a Christmas party planned for December 23. The center will be host at the regular Wednesday evening affair with a group of soldiers bidden from the fairgrounds. Junior and Senior hostesses will be invited to attend.

Dancing and games will form the entertainment of the evening, and refreshments will be served.

Wives of enlisted men making their homes in Salem will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Sherwood Gerber at 1410 Ferry street Monday afternoon. All enlisted men's wives who have not already joined the group are asked to contact Mrs. Fred Legler at 4442 for the Monday meeting.

Mrs. Melvin H. Geist will entertain Monday evening, with members of Mu Phi Epsilon as her guests. The event will be at the Geist home in Lefele street and will be a Christmas party. The party will follow initiation.
