

Sunday School Gathering Set For Silverton

Silverton—The Christian church will be host group to the members of the district Sunday school convention Sunday afternoon. The program starts promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

Special meetings of church groups during the next few days include the annual business meeting of Immanuel Lutheran Wednesday evening, January 13, at 8 o'clock in the church parlors.

Calvary Lutheran Willing Workers will meet at the home of the LeRuds, Saturday, January 9, at 2 p.m. A mid-week Bible study and prayer service will be Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Calvary social rooms, and the annual business meeting of the church will be Tuesday, January 12, at 7:30 p.m. Rev. O. C. Olson is host pastor.

Luther League officers of Trinity Lutheran church will be elected Sunday evening at the regular meeting of the younger group with the business and devotional session beginning at 7:15 o'clock.

The girls of Trinity L.D.R. will meet Monday evening at the 913 South Water street home of Miss Phyllis Wik.

The afternoon group of the Dorcas society will meet on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Larson; the evening division of the Dorcas society will meet with Mrs. Ludvig Meyer as home hostess.

The annual business meeting of Trinity with Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr in charge, will be held at the church parlors on Wednesday evening, January 13 at 8 o'clock.

Rev. O. Leonard Jones of the Methodist church is announcing the installation of officers and a thank offering to be received for the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the forenoon worship hour, Sunday.

The Methodist official board will meet at 7:30 Monday evening.

The Methodist Young Adult Fellowship will be host group featuring Otto Knoeb of Mt. Angel as speaker at the 8 p.m. Sunday hour, at the church. Mr. Knoeb is a refugee from Germany, a former leading editor there, and will talk of the meaning of Nazism to Germany and to the world. The public is welcome.

Falls City

Eastern Star Chief Makes Official Visit; PTA Holds Monthly Meeting

Dr. June Martin, grand associate matron of the Eastern Star of Oregon, paid her official visit and held her school of instruction at the Masonic hall Sunday afternoon for the Falls City Eastern Star chapter. Refreshments were served at the close of the session at the home of Mrs. Maude Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Goode of Bay City spent the week-end with their son's family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Goode.

Roy Jones returned home Sunday evening from a southern Oregon vacation trip.

The PTA held its January meeting at the high school on Wednesday night.

Miss Mattie Swann, the second grade teacher, spent her vacation at Tillamook with a sister's family.

John Paul Frink, a student of the Bible school at Eugene, was home for a week-end visit with his mother's family, Mrs. Faye Frink, and other relatives. This was his first visit for many weeks.

Mrs. Geo. Daugherty, baby daughter and daughter Faye returned home Sunday from Belingham, Wash., where they had been enjoying the holidays.

Mrs. Wellen Courter is spending the fortnight with her daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Russell of Eugene.

Mrs. Amos Pierce was called to Philomath Sunday to be with her aunt who is very ill.

Gerald Harris who is in the army in Washington, visited his cousin's family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dodd of Arlie for a few hours. He came with them to attend the evening services at the Christian church.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

DANCE

SATURDAY
Veterans' Hall
640 Hood St.

Playing at the Hollywood today and Saturday are "This Gun for Hire" and second feature, "Outlaws of the Desert," with William Boyd.

Woodburn Volunteers Assist Red Cross

Woodburn—Volunteer workers for the local Red Cross have completed 86 garments during the busy month of December in addition to the knitting done and the ditty bags made. The local Red Cross committees are gratified with the work accomplished but the monthly reports disclose the fact that there is still a large number of women, not connected with any defense work, who have not taken advantage of the opportunities for service offered by the Red Cross.

Mrs. Lyman Shorey has the Red Cross rooms in the basement of the city hall open each Friday afternoon for those who wish to sew or take garments out.

Those wishing to knit may get yarn from Mrs. Kenneth McGrath at her home, 417 Second street on the corner of Hayes. Mrs. Fred Evenden has material for ditty bags at the Evenden drug store.

One volunteer worker has completed 50 pairs of boys' wool pants since she started to sew for the Red Cross.

Women who have done sewing for the month of December are Miss Hildebrand, Mrs. H. H. Layman, Mrs. Jeanette Zimmerman, Mrs. Ben Hauke, Mrs. Howard Leach, Mrs. Anna Chapman, Mrs. Claude Seilheimer, Mrs. Bert Byers, Mrs. William Polk, Mrs. Carl Hansen, Mrs. Josephine Dunton, Mrs. Jennie East, Mrs. Julius Vandenberg, Mrs. Glen Polk, Mrs. W. C. Beaman, Mrs. R. H. Scott, Mrs. W. B. McClain, Mrs. S. B. Kallus, Mrs. F. P. Wolfe, Mrs. Edward Deltsan, Mrs. Frank Wells, Mrs. Burton Wilford, Mrs. L. H. Shiner, Mrs. Fred Evenden, Woodburn Rural club, Mr. Mary's National Guild, American Legion auxiliary and the Red club.

Those who have donated money for the contents of ditty bags or have made ditty bags are Mrs. Max Waring, Mrs. Jack Cannell, Mrs. Frank Corser, Mrs. Elsie Becker, Mrs. Althea Kamberger, Mrs. Carl Huber, Mrs. H. Hoyt, American Legion auxiliary, Woodburn Choral club, Mrs. Stella Geler, Mrs. Olive Smith, Mrs. Molly Hunt, Mrs. T. C. Poorman and Mrs. Lyman Shorey.

Lyman Shorey, Ray Glatt and Mrs. Gerald Smith have taken finished garments to Salem and brought back supplies at various times during the month, which has been much help.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Jacob spent Monday and Tuesday in Portland, where Mrs. Jacob is receiving medical treatment for asthma and hay fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Eperly and daughter, Sharon, of Salem were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Eperly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bruce.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kils and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. George Kils and daughter, Carmen and Mr. and Mrs. John Kils attended a recent family dinner party at the home of Walter Kils near Scio.

Aumsville

Three Leave for Naval Enlistment; Hospital Patients Improving

Dean Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hayes, Irvine Lane and Herman Branch, son of Mrs. Dorothy Branch, all left Tuesday for the navy.

Corporal Warren E. Killinger of Camp Cook, Calif., is home on a 14-day furlough, visiting his parents.

The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Gillespie was burned last week. His clothing being sucked in by the stove draft and burning his legs.

Everett Warren, who is critically ill in the Deaconess hospital, has an unchanged condition.

Mrs. Margaret Martin, who is ill in the Deaconess hospital, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Rosie Redman's condition is unchanged.

Private John H. Corser has been transferred from Florida to Huntersville, Texas. His wife, Mrs. Lois Corser, left for Texas last week where she will join him.

Mrs. Amos Pierce was called to Philomath Sunday to be with her aunt who is very ill.

Gerald Harris who is in the army in Washington, visited his cousin's family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dodd of Arlie for a few hours. He came with them to attend the evening services at the Christian church.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

F.U. Will Install Central Howell—The Farmers' Union will meet Monday evening, January 11, with installation of officers the main feature. A social hour will follow the meeting.

New Officers Rebekah Lodge Are Installed

Woodburn—The new officers of Home Rebekah lodge No. 58 were installed with impressive ceremony at the regular meeting Tuesday night.

Myrtle Hall, district deputy president, was the installing officer assisted by Gertrude Beach, deputy marshal; Jeanette Zimmerman, deputy warden; Mabel Livesay, deputy treasurer; Laura Livesay, deputy secretary and Maude Scott, deputy chaplain.

Officers installed were: Freda Burt, noble grand; Esther Moon, vice-grand; Addie Dodd, recording secretary; Mabel Jackson, financial secretary; Myrtle Hall, treasurer; Zoia Lovthian, past noble grand; Joyce Enloe, warden; Laura Livesay, conductor; Gertrude Beach, chaplain; Nina Ringo, musician; Edith Francis, RNCO; Maude Scott, LARG; Mabel Livesay, RNVO; Jeanette Zimmerman, LAVO; Mae Olsen, inside guardian and Clementine Blaser, outside guardian.

Visitors were May West of Thalia Lodge No. 191 of Hubbard and Mrs. Jones of Montana.

Mrs. Burt announced the appointment of the following standing committees: finance, Agnes Doss, Mary Whitman, Nellie Yates; press and correspondence, Zoia Lovthian; good of order, Joyce Enloe, Myrtle Hall, Mabel Wright; non-payment of dues, Mabel Jackson, Myrtle Hall, Maude Klamp; courtesy, Gertrude Beach, Laura Livesay and Katherine Moeding; Laura Livesay was elected third trustee for a term of three years.

For the next meeting the good of order committee will put on the program.

After the lodge adjourned a program was furnished by the losing side in the recent contest which included a reading by Dorothy Ross, vocal solo by Nina Ringo and a constitutional quiz by Mabel Jackson. Refreshments provided by the losers were served.

State Examiners Come Extra Days

Albany—Improved service in examining applicants for drivers' licenses in the city of Albany was announced Wednesday by the secretary of state. After January 1, state license examiners will be in the city Wednesday and Thursday of the last three weeks of each month.

This gives Albany residents two extra days in each month. Formerly the examiners were in the city Tuesdays of each week. The new schedule will go into effect January 13.

St. Paul

County Commissioner Hospitalized; Service Men Home on Furloughs

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hopfer and family of North Plains were the week-end guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hopfer.

County Commissioner J. E. Smith is again confined to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, following a major operation. His many St. Paul friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Much damage was done by the week-end high water with Hiller Brothers losing 175 head of sheep which drowned. Families were marooned and brought to safety by row boats. They were the families of Mr. and Mrs. Vickroy, the Ray Wahls and Fritz Hillers.

Arriving to spend the New Year holiday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Kirk, was their daughter, Miss Jeanette, who is in nurses' training at Astoria.

Bob Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith, who is in the navy, stationed in Oklahoma, is home for a week's furlough and their son, Joe, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the training camp where he is stationed in Virginia has sent word that he is well on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Forthys and daughter, Rosalee, of Portland, spent the New Year holiday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bernard.

Misses Maryanne Smith and Betty Manegre returned to school at Marylhurst college Sunday after spending a two week's Christmas vacation at their respective homes.

After spending the holiday vacation at the homes of their parents, Bert Bernard of Mt. Angel college and James Smith of Portland university, have returned to their classes.

Misses Maryanne Smith and Betty Manegre returned to school at Marylhurst college Sunday after spending a two week's Christmas vacation at their respective homes.

After spending the holiday vacation at the homes of their parents, Bert Bernard of Mt. Angel college and James Smith of Portland university, have returned to their classes.

Misses Maryanne Smith and Betty Manegre returned to school at Marylhurst college Sunday after spending a two week's Christmas vacation at their respective homes.

After spending the holiday vacation at the homes of their parents, Bert Bernard of Mt. Angel college and James Smith of Portland university, have returned to their classes.

Misses Maryanne Smith and Betty Manegre returned to school at Marylhurst college Sunday after spending a two week's Christmas vacation at their respective homes.

After spending the holiday vacation at the homes of their parents, Bert Bernard of Mt. Angel college and James Smith of Portland university, have returned to their classes.

Misses Maryanne Smith and Betty Manegre returned to school at Marylhurst college Sunday after spending a two week's Christmas vacation at their respective homes.

After spending the holiday vacation at the homes of their parents, Bert Bernard of Mt. Angel college and James Smith of Portland university, have returned to their classes.

Misses Maryanne Smith and Betty Manegre returned to school at Marylhurst college Sunday after spending a two week's Christmas vacation at their respective homes.

Student Body Play Success

Jefferson—The student body play, "Lindy Lou," was a big success. Barbara Miller was "Lindy Lou"; "Duchess," Ruth Terhune, who got a millionaire, Keith Keesecker, movie man; Jack Skelton and his secretary, Jim Henderson, Monte Weddle, who won "Lindy," and his pal Ronald Allen, the American Beauties; Lois Smith, Fay Ray and Mary Jo Baxter.

At the end of the second act the president of the student body presented the director, Miss Westphal, with a gift in appreciation for her work.

Miss Westphal, on behalf of the student body, thanked all who had contributed to the production; Mrs. Luper, who gave the musical numbers; Miss Getchell and the girls who presented the new stage curtains; Mr. Beal and Mr. Wright, who took care of the lighting; parents who loaned the stage furniture; Gary Barna and Stanley Miller, stage managers and the ushers, Lois Hampton, Gaynell Cole, Jack Knight and Jim Baxter.

The Jefferson high school held a general assembly Tuesday morning. The purpose of the assembly was to present the servicemen's flag to the associated student body. Mr. Beal made the presentation.

Mill City

Revival Campaign Meeting With Success; Drapela Logging Victim

The evangelistic institute being conducted at the Church of Christ by Guy Armstrong is proving successful. The meetings will continue for some time. Mrs. Armstrong is conducting a "Booster" meeting for the children at 4 o'clock each afternoon. Her husband gives teaching on the New Testament at the church each night at 6:30 o'clock.

Eddie Drapela was severely injured in a logging accident at the Linn Lumber company camp last week and was taken to the Deaconess hospital in Salem. It was reported that he suffered a broken collar bone and other injuries.

C. A. Bruder spent a few days in San Francisco, Calif., with his mother, who was reported as seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Pioneer Scio Merchant Heads Council Groups

Scio — R. M. Cain, pioneer Scio merchant, is president of the city council, having been elected to that body at the January regular meeting to succeed M. B. Cyrus, recently resigned from council membership. The president of the commission has the same power and authority as the mayor in the absence of the latter official.

Two new council members filed oath of office and entered upon official duties. They are W. H. Dennison, merchant and school board member, and R. B. Haines, sawmill employee at West Scio. The new members succeeded Mylo Bartu and M. B. Cyrus, who filed resignations a short time ago.

New council now consists of J. A. Withers, mayor; R. M. Cain, Raymond Chromy, W. H. Dennison, Guy Funk, R. B. Haines and Max Wesley. Joe Lytle is recorder, P. W. Shunk, treasurer, C. M. Cyrus, water superintendent and marshal.

At the recent meeting Mayor Withers announced appointment of the following standing committees:

Fire, light and water—Cain, Chromy, Dennison.

Streets and public property—Wesely, Dennison, Haines.

Finance—Chromy, Cain, Funk.

Health—Wesely, Hains, Chromy.

Ordinance—Funk, Dennison, Haines.

Report of the treasurer as of January 1, 1943, was accepted as read. Two bonds of $500 each, reported by the treasurer as having been paid in due course, were canceled, together with coupons, and ordered destroyed. These papers accordingly were burned in presence of the council.

Balances on hand January 1 in various city funds were reported as follows: Road fund, $182.03; light and water fund, $179.21; general fund, $204.67.

Letters and bulletins from the League of Oregon Cities, of which Scio is an official member, were called to attention of the council by the recorder, as were also letter and other papers from the state highway commission.

On suggestion of Wesely, chairman of the street committee, action was taken looking to repair of drains on either side of Main street from the Wesely and Schunk business corners south to Thomas creek. Larger conduits were proposed, better to take care of surface water during freshets, which recently have resulted in large volumes of standing water near the curbs on the street in that section of the city. The proper committee was instructed to act at once.

Claims against the city were allowed in the approximate sum of $130. All members attended the meeting excepting Chromy and Funk. Mayor Withers was in the chair.

Floyd Miller Home Unionvale—Floyd Miller, airplane mechanic instructor at Meridian, Miss., on a 14 days' furlough, arrived Wednesday, December 30, at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Soldiers Get Citizenship

Albany — Citizenship papers were granted Wednesday to 16 Linn and Benton county residents by Judge L. G. Levelling as the conclusion of hearings held this week in circuit court.

Mrs. Margaret Madigan, native of Canada, now a resident of Lebanon, who came to the United States 30 years ago, is now 81 years of age, and was given her papers this week.

All five of the Benton county residents receiving papers are soldiers stationed at Camp Adair. They are Corporal Dimitri Kitrina, 23, former citizen of Italy; Pvt. Berthold Lang, 26, a former Rumanian; Staff Sgt. James A. Browning, 27, former Canadian; Technician Fourth Class John O. Varazo, 22, former citizen of Greece; and Pvt. Octavio R. Garcia, 25, former citizen of Nicaragua.

Others receiving papers were: Chris Knutson, 31, Lyons; Donald H. Williams, 24, Sweet Home; Fred Yutzie, 40, Rt. 3, Albany; and Mrs. Mary A. Thomas, 47, Rt. 1, Lyons, all former Canadians; Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Kallus, Albany, former Russians; E. Gloria Huffman, 25, Albany, former Canadian; Mrs. Dorothy E. Cadie, 28, Lacombe, former subject of Great Britain; Sylvester Kreek, 72, Scio, former Czech, and Mrs. Anna S. Olsen, 55, Rt. 4, Albany, a former subject of Sweden.

Report of the treasurer as of January 1, 1943, was accepted as read. Two bonds of $500 each, reported by the treasurer as having been paid in due course, were canceled, together with coupons, and ordered destroyed. These papers accordingly were burned in presence of the council.

Balances on hand January 1 in various city funds were reported as follows: Road fund, $182.03; light and water fund, $179.21; general fund, $204.67.

Letters and bulletins from the League of Oregon Cities, of which Scio is an official member, were called to attention of the council by the recorder, as were also letter and other papers from the state highway commission.

On suggestion of Wesely, chairman of the street committee, action was taken looking to repair of drains on either side of Main street from the Wesely and Schunk business corners south to Thomas creek. Larger conduits were proposed, better to take care of surface water during freshets, which recently have resulted in large volumes of standing water near the curbs on the street in that section of the city. The proper committee was instructed to act at once.

Claims against the city were allowed in the approximate sum of $130. All members attended the meeting excepting Chromy and Funk. Mayor Withers was in the chair.

Floyd Miller Home Unionvale—Floyd Miller, airplane mechanic instructor at Meridian, Miss., on a 14 days' furlough, arrived Wednesday, December 30, at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. Warren McWilliams and Miss Helen White of Corvallis visited with Mrs. A. A. Holt-house, whose daughter, Mary, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bruder of Portland spent the holidays here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Potter returned Monday from San Francisco, where they spent the holidays with their son and family, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Willis Potter and Billy. The Potters will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 12.

Jack Allen of Chicago, Ill., spent several days here with his mother, Mrs. W. W. Allen and sister, Mrs. Vernon Todd. His wife visited relatives in Eugene.