Woodburn Men Like Service Make Changes

Woodburn — Michael A. Vistica, second class seaman in the navy, has completed his training and has been transferred to naval aviation machinist school where he will be trained for five or six months as a machinist's mate.

Word has been received that Lyman R. Dehut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Dehut of Woodburn who is with the army stationed at Camp Campbell, Kentucky, and Miss Katherine Mattingly of Louisville, Kentucky, were married January 28. After the war they plan to make their home in Oregon.

Dr. Gerald B. Smith made a "flying" trip to San Francisco last week, leaving Tuesday and returning Friday, both ways by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Witham have moved to McLaughlin Heights near Vancouver where he is employed in the shipyards.

Dr. and Mrs. T. K. Sanderson have moved from the post office apartments to the Kilian Smith home on Settlemier avenue.

The Rev. Peter Hanrahan of Los Angeles is a visitor at the home of his brother, Dr. John M. Hanrahan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Rue moved this week to Newberg to make their home. Mr. Rue is manager of the Newberg branch bank, having been transferred from Woodburn to Newberg several months ago but has just now been able to find a residence in Newberg. The residence vacated by the Rues at 611 Harrison street will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bishoprick who are moving from Gresham Saturday. Bishoprick is the present manager of the Woodburn branch.

Lieut. Robert Y. Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dean, has received his appointment to the army air forces' general staff and is now stationed at the long range forecasting and research headquarters at the California Institute of Technology. Until recently he was meteorologist at the Portland army air base.

Rodeo Association To Banquet Sunday

St. Paul—The St. Paul Rodeo association will hold its annual stockholders' meeting Sunday at the city hall starting with a banquet at 7 o'clock followed by election of officers.

The banquet is under the direction of the wives of the nine directors with Mrs. John McKillip, chairman.

The annual report will be read by the secretary, Carl J. Smith. This meeting usually occurs in January but due to the high water the date was postponed to this later time.

Union Hill

Students Attending Silverton School; Mrs. Heater To Entertain Club

Donnie Peters, Rollin Heater and Charles Morley are staying in Silverton at present to attend high school until Wilbur and Leonard Seeley are able to go again, so as to transport them to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rabens have moved to Silverton to help care for an aged aunt.

Wilbur and Leonard Seely are confined to their beds with a severe attack of measles.

Mrs. Bob Morrison, who is working at the Crown mills in Portland, spent last week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Heater.

The Woman's club will hold its next all-day meeting at the Maurice Heater home.

Mrs. Lee Seely, who has been working at Paulus Bros. cannery since last August, returned home last Saturday.

Heaters are Hosts

Union Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Heater entertained at a "500" card party. Invited guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Neal of Grande Ronde, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Neal and daughter of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Neal and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carpenter and Lucille of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Seely and Wilbur and Leonard, and the Dolph Heater family. High score was won by Mrs. Larry Carpenter and Lee Seely. Luncheon was served at a late hour by the host and hostess.

Babies Set Record

Silverton—Miss Ruth Barber, supervising nurse at the Silverton hospital, reports four more than capacity house, twelve in all, babies being cared for in the nursery since Monday. This number is a record for one time at the hospital.

Cloverleaf Rebekahs Holding Initiation

Independence — At a special meeting of the Cloverleaf Rebekah lodge, Monday evening, February 15, Mrs. Madeline Rossner of Dayton, president of the Rebekah assembly, will be the guest of honor. Initiation ceremonies for new candidates will be held during the evening. The regular meeting of the Rebekahs will be held Tuesday evening.

Turner Clubs Hold Meeting Together

Turner—The Turner 4-H clubs held their sixth meeting of the year with a joint meeting attended by the Victory Garden club, the Livestock club, the Cooking II and III clubs, and the Sewing club. The meeting was called to order by Eunice Bear. It began with a salute to the flag, and then the group sang songs.

Amos Bierly, county club agent, was their guest and he gave a speech on what other clubs in the county are doing. He also inquired into what the Turner clubs were doing. After he had finished speaking, the meeting was closed.

After the joint meeting the Cooking II and III clubs had a party under the direction of Mrs. Roy Hatfield. Miss Dessie McClay was their guest.

The Sewing club held a party after the joint meeting under the leadership of Mrs. Frances Whitehead. Refreshments were served.

St. Paul

Accidents Hospitalize Local Residents; Portland Doctor Is Guest

Steve Heller has returned home from Willamette hospital in Newberg, where he was confined following an accident in which he suffered the loss of an index finger. Bill Berhorst is confined to the same hospital following a serious injury to his eye, which he injured when a screwdriver slipped and hit the pupil of his eye while repairing a car at the P. A. Bernard garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Muckin and children, Shirley, Maxine and Bobby, were visitors at homes of Mrs. Muckin's mother, Mrs. Agnes Faber, and with Mr. Muckin's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Manegre.

Mrs. Carl Smith is enjoying a visit from her brother, Dr. Charles Kennedy of Portland, who is convalescing following a serious seige of pneumonia, which kept him confined to a Portland hospital for the past three weeks.

Miss Lois McKillip spent the week-end at the home of her parents in St. Paul. She has just returned from a ten days' vacation to California. She was accompanied by Miss Audrey Feig.

Orville Raymond is recovering at his home from a near siege of bronchial pneumonia and flu.

Mr. Derby has returned to his home at Garibaldi after spending last week visiting at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bernard.

Union Hill Econ Club Entertained

Union Hill—Mrs. Alice Doerfler and Mrs. Florence Doerfler entertained the ladies of the Home Economics club of the Union Hill grange, at the former's home on Wednesday.

A no-host luncheon was served at noon by the hostesses.

Red Cross sewing was worked on by the ladies as their day's work.

Mrs. Elsie Tate presided at the business meeting. Leona King Krenz reported on the box of games sent Marvin and Jimmie Darby, in the service and that they were greatly appreciated.

Leona Hubbard Krenz and Josephine Fox were appointed to plan some numbers for the March grange meeting at which time the Home Economics club will be in charge of the program.

Mort Gets Commission

Independence—Loren Mort received the rating of 2nd Lieut. with the U. S. Coast Artillery when he graduated from officers' training school at Camp Davis, North Carolina. He will arrive in Independence February 17 for a short furlough before taking up his new duties on the Pacific coast. Mrs. Mort resigned from her teaching position at Leslie junior high school in Salem and will accompany Lieut. Mort to his destination.

Men of Grange Give Program

Brush College — Fifty persons attended annual "men's night" at Brush College Grange for the February meeting. The men were in charge of all arrangements for the program and supper.

The program included a reading and travelogue by R. C. Shepard, who came to Portland and thence to Salem by boat from California in 1888. He returned to California for the first time since then this winter, traveling by bus and noted many interesting changes.

Mrs. Lyle Thomas gave a group of piano numbers. Judge Elmer Cook of West Salem gave gave a short talk concerning the income tax, Earl Cooley, state vocational and agricultural director, and D. Craig, agricultural instructor at Salem high, gave talks of general interest on farm machinery repair classes and poultry and gardening classes which will be open to the farmers in the near future.

Woodcraft Neighbors Name New Officers

Independence—The Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge met this week at the home of Mrs. Percy Dickinson. Election of officers for the year was held with the following elected: Guardian Neighbor, Mrs. Lelia Oberson; Past Guardian Neighbor, Mrs. Edith Campbell; Advisor, Mrs. Maggie Wattenberger; Magician, Mrs. Mae Dickinson; Treasurer, Mrs. Lula Mattison; Banker, Mrs. Edith Campbell; Musician, Mrs. Pearl Johnson; Attendant, Mrs. Laura Peterson; Capt. of the Guards, Mrs. Doris Miller; Flag Bearer, Mrs. Fred Oberson; Managers, Mrs. Mae Dickinson, Mrs. Pearl Johnson, and Mrs. Anna Ramey; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. Olive Byers; Outer Sentinel, Will Mattison. Mrs. Mae Dickinson is to be installing officer at the first meeting in March at the home of Mrs. Edith Campbell.

Fuel Hour Signup Hours Are Listed

Woodburn — Registration for fuel oil for the Woodburn area will take place next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in room 114 at Woodburn high school between the hours of 3 and 6 o'clock each day.

Everyone using fuel oil for heating purposes will have to register if he is to continue to receive oil. Blanks may be obtained from the representative selling the fuel oil or in case of emergency from the ration board office in the city hall. The blanks are to be filled out at home, signed by the head of the family and taken or sent to the high school during the specified hours.

Fuel Consumers Given Locations

Lebanon—Registration in Lebanon for fuel oil consumers will take place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday between 3 and 5 o'clock, at the high school in the band room, Superintendent M. E. Coe announced. Persons unable to come at that time may come earlier, but since there will be a larger staff of teachers available for registration at that time, all who can are asked to come at the designated hours.

Other schools where registration will take place in eastern Linn county are Lacomb and Lyons grade schools, Scio, Mill City and Sweet Home high schools, the local war price and ration board announces.

Lebanon Policemen Seek New Uniforms

Lebanon—Lebanon policemen are to benefit from the dance this Saturday night at the armory, since the funds derived will be used to purchase new uniforms for the force.

Members of the cavalry troop are turning over their night to the police, with the dance to be sponsored by Ray Johnson's taxi service. Although the cavalry will have nothing officially to do with the management, the members have volunteered their services for assistance.

Recital Is Offered

Independence — Mrs. Irene Seeley presented a group of students at her country home in a piano and violin recital. Included in the group were Barbara Whitwell, Muriel Ward, Virginia Busby, Lorraine Powell, Barbara Peterson, LeVelle Scranton, Maudeen Burch, Yvonne Scranton, Patty Hanna, Cary Burch, Shirley Peterson, Beverly Peterson, Barbara Benscoter Janice Sterns and Darrel Ward.

Legion to Dismantle Shooting Ground Trap

Mt. Angel—The Legion voted to dismantle the trap on their shooting grounds northwest of town. The post collected enough donations Tuesday night to raise the necessary amount to purchase a $25.00 war bond. The donations had been accumulating for some time. Fred Lucht donated a half cord a wood for use in the Legion hall.

Comrad Harrison Morgan was reported out of the hospital and back at work.

Tryphena Rebekahs Hold Social Night

Silverton—The members of Tryphena Rebekah lodge, No. 38, held their regular business meeting Thursday night with Mrs. W. C. Larson, N.G., in charge. Social night was observed following the routine work, and drill practice for a class of initiates at the Thursday, February 25, meeting.

Mrs. Jessie Rains is captain of the drill team and is announcing a final rehearsal for her team on Wednesday, February 17, at 8 o'clock. Eight candidates are to be initiated.

Mrs. Larson named for her refreshment committee of February 25 Mrs. Mary Skaife, Mrs. Florence Tuggle and Mrs. Grace Noftsker. Serving during Thursday's evening social hour were Mrs. Mary Andrews, Mrs. Laura Busch, Mrs. Frances Gehrke and Mrs. Edie Riches.

Silverton Notes Property Changes

Silverton—The E. Oscar Bakers, proprietors of the Black and White cafe, have sold their home property at 937 South Water street, to the Harold Bartsches. The Bakers came to Silverton three years ago and until the purchase of the cafe in January Baker had been an employe of the Silverton Bakery. Their former home for more than 30 years had been in North Dakota.

The Homeseeker's Agency reports the sale of the Alvin Henjum acreage on Salem road to Mr. and Mrs. Art Steinberger during the past week, also the Sigrud Lund acreage near Rosk street to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Harrell of New Mexico.

Jay Morley, real estate dealer, dahls of the Selma Jorgenson home in South Church street. The Opedahls sold their acreage over East Hill during the week.

Fairfield

Relatives and Visitors Are Entertained; Mrs. Mahony Returns Home

Miss Mary Moses, a student at Willamette university, and John Moses of Portland, called to see their grandmother, Mrs. M. W. Mahony during the week-end. Miss Moses was an over-night guest at the Ward Lundy home.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren James of Portland visited with her parents, the D. B. DuRettes Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. L. L. Granoff spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. R. Short.

Mrs. James Mahony is home again after a three-weeks' visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carleton of North Bonneville.

Mrs. M. B. Lucas and sons spent the week-end in Portland visiting her sister, Mrs. B. Phillips and family.

Frank Mahony of Junction City spent a couple of days here recently on a business trip and to visit his mother, Mrs. M. W. Mahony.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Belleque and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Belleque attended a birthday dinner in Portland Sunday, of their son and brother, Frank Belleque.

A group of relatives and neighbors spent Sunday evening at the Pearl Lundy home. Cards and a late supper were the evening's entertainment. High scores in cards went to Mrs. F. Runcorn and Ward Lundy; second high to Mrs. Albert Belleque and C. E. Ditmars.

Collie Needs Home

Silverton—A fine collie pup, between two and three months old, was found Thursday evening near the Eugene Field building by the Cub Scouts. The owner may have the dog by contacting Billy Achetz, youngest local Capital Journal carrier, at his home in Holland apartment No. 2, as he cannot keep the puppy.

Eastern Stars Guests

Independence—Several Eastern Star members were guests Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Smith to meet Mrs. G. F. Walker of Fresno, Calif., who was initiated into the order at the last meeting.

Cards Will Help Club House Fund

Turner—The Women's club of the Pringle district met for its usual meeting. Mrs. Ed Kottek presided at the meeting. A no-host luncheon was served and the day was spent in quilting.

Saturday evening a benefit cardl party will be held at the John Fabry home in the Pringle district. Pinochle and "500" will be played and prizes will be given for high and low scores. The proceeds will go to the fund for a clubhouse.

Jack Schifferer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schifferer of the Cloverdale district, left for Fresno, Calif., where he will take training as an aviation cadet.

Kenneth Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barber of Turner, will leave Monday for Denver, Colo., where he will enter training as a cadet in the army air corps.

The Turner school bus ran off the road Friday, due to faulty brakes. The accident occurred as the bus went through Marion. No injuries resulted. The students proceeded to school by truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kottek and sons, Duane and Jim, of the Pringle district, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Kottek's brother, George Weber, of Scio. Mrs. Weber and baby daughter had just returned from the hospital at Lebanon.

Mrs. Ruth Niemi entertained at tea Thursday in honor of Mrs. W. E. Ray, who has recently moved to Turner from West Stayton. Those present were Mrs. A. E. Spencer, Mrs. Vina Moore, Mrs. Wes Smith, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mrs. Lucille McKinney, Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell and son, and Mrs. Ruby Oust and daughter.

Fuel Oil Users Must Give Record

Dallas—Dallas and North Dallas fuel and kerosene users will sign for rationing at he elementary school from 3 to 6 o'clock, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, according to announcement of Sidney E. Whitworth, city superintendent of schools. Persons using fuel oil should secure a form from their dealer or ration board will fill it out before registering. Fuel oil dealers will supply customers with a record of the amount of fuel oil used during the year ending last spring as the basis for the present ration program.

County Superintendent of Schools Josiah Wills, has announced that all county users of fuel oil and kerosene will sign for rationing at school houses in their districts from 3 to 6 p.m. on the three days specified, unless informed of a schedule change.

Fuel oil forms will be processed by the mathematics classes of Dallas high school and Independence high school for all of the county except the West Salem area, where Salem processed forms will be used.

War Bond Quota Exceeded by Linn

Albany—Linn county exceeded its January quota for sale of E bonds by more than 14 per cent, or $29,932.50, according to word received from state headquarters by Harold E. Farris, Linn county chairman. Total sales were $26,962.50 with the quota having been set at $207,030. The last week of the month reported a large sale with $79,368.75 being recorded.

The February quota has been set for $145,000, Chairman Farris believes and he also believes this quota will be exceeded in Linn county.

Helping Red Cross

Roberts—The women of the Roberts community are meeting every Wednesday at the Grange hall, under the supervision of Mrs. Lee U. Eyerly, to make comforters for the Red Cross. Last winter the group made 62 comforters, of which 60 were turned into the Red Cross and two were sold to purchase material for some of the comforters. During the recent flood the Red Cross had occasion to use many of the comforters.

Dance
TONITE
VETERAN'S HALL
Cor. Hood & Church Sts.
Old Time Music
By 'THE OREGONIANS'

Change Announced In Lodge Sessions

Independence—Adah chapter, No. 34, met in regular session at the Masonic hall with Mrs. C. A. Fratzke, associate matron, presiding as worthy matron in the absence of Mrs. Van Crider.

Until further notice, the meetings of the order will be held one a month, the second Tuesday of the month.

Refreshments followed chapter in the dining room with the lunch committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Mix, Mrs. Della Keeney, Mrs. Ralph Kletzing and Mrs. W. A. Barnum.

Eola Will Resume Sunday Church Hour

Eola—The Eola Sunday school which was discontinued for several weeks because of bad weather and illness in the neighborhood, will open tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Floyd Harrison is superintendent.

Mrs. J. W. Adams has received a letter from her husband recently. He is somewhere in the Solomons in radio commission division.

The knitting class has proven very fascinating to a large group of Eola women. They will meet at the home of Mrs. E. L. Herrell Wednesday afternoon, February 17.

Jefferson

Little Girls Recovering From Measles; Rose Family Moves to Albany

Sandra, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stephenson, has recovered from a siege of measles and pneumonia. Her sister, Delores, is also recovering from measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Rose, who have been staying at the home of Mrs. Rose's sister, Mrs. Ethel Rhodes, and family, have moved to Albany. Another family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lewer and children, have moved to Yamhill.

Miss Evelyn Ickes visited her grandmother, Mrs. Curry, at Astoria recently.

Richard Lane of Portland is visiting his sister, Mrs. Irvine Wright, and family.

Mrs. F. E. Seehale, who has been visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnston, has returned to her home here.

Rebekahs at Lyons Name New Trustee

Lyons—The regular meeting of Faith Rebekah lodge was held Wednesday evening with the following officers in the chairs: Goldie Rambo, noble grand; Helen Anderson, vice grand; Hazel Lewis, secretary, and Eva Bressler, treasurer.

Betty Johnston was elected trustee for a term of three years of replace Theresa Crabtree, who resigned. Ruth Day, Hazel Lewis and Mable Bass were appointed a benefit committee and will sponsor a card party to be held at the hall February 20. At the social hour Mary Garrison, Rachel Liedtke and Dorothy Reid entertained with a Valentine party.

Committees Named For Aumsville FU

Aumsville—At a regular Farmers' Union meeting Mr. Lewis, president, appointed the following committees:

F. O. Garbe, good of the order; Lee Sutton, livestock committee; Roy Porter, legislative committee; Stine and Mrs. Sutton, flower committee.

The next meetitng will be February 23.

Continuous Today from 1:00
ELSINORE
NOW SHOWING
They had a date with fate—in the city that rocked the world!
HUMPHREY BOGART · INGRID BERGMAN · PAUL HENREID
CASABLANCA NOW
WARNER BROS. HIT
CLAUDE RAINS · CONRAD VEIDT · SYDNEY GREENSTREET · PETER LORRE · S. Z. SAKALL
MICHAEL CURTIZ
HAL B. WALLIS
—COMPANION FEATURE—
A Thrilling Mystery!
"DR. RENAULT'S SECRET"
with J. Carrol Naish

Independence School Holds Founder's Day

Independence—Founder's day was observed at the February meeting of the Independence training school with Mrs. Charles Bullock presiding as president.

Following a short business session, Mrs. W. F. McBee introduced the program numbers which were under the direction of Mrs. Florence Hutchinson. The first number on the program was a chorus by the upper grade students who sang "America the Beautiful."

A group of selections by the training school band under the direction of Robert Dexter were presented before the public for the first time. In the group were "America," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Go Tell Aunt Rhody" and "Auld Lang Syne."

Eileen Spencer, a student of the eighth grade, gave a short review of the war activities of the school. She reported that 21 tons of scrap metal had been turned in with the school receiving the sum of $35.00 to be used on worthwhile projects to improve the school. She stated that they had helped with the rationing program and helped with the Red Cross projects making scrap books collecting games, etc.

A weekly program for the sale of defense stamps is held in the hall each Tuesday morning with students assisting. The school is also collecting old magazines and games to be sent to Camp Adair and are keeping a record of the war work in a scrap book presented to the school by the Parent-Teacher association.

The concluding program number was the singing of a group of three numbers by the third grade by Franklin Walker on the accordion.

The tea hour followed in the library with Mrs. Charles Bullock and Mrs. Charles Burch presiding at the urns. The Valentine motif was used in the decorative note both in tea cakes and the tablearrangement.

Hostesses were Mrs. George Herley, Mrs. C. A. Fratzke, Mrs. Ira Mix, Mrs. Robert Craven, Mrs. Ralph Kletzing, Mrs. Harold Sprague, Mrs. W. C. Frantz, Miss Bette Taylor, Miss Mary Donaldson, Mrs. Bette Wright, Miss Dora Gallagher, Mrs. Melford Nelson and Mrs. W. F. McBee.

Tobacco is being grown in Puerto Rico under cheesecloth to protect it from insects and the hot sun.

Former Silverton Pastor Is Honored

Silverton—Honoring the memory of the late Rev. I. M. Jenson, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church until his sudden death in June, hyminaries will be dedicated during the afternoon program which is planned to follow the Sunday noon luncheon immediately after the forenoon worship hour with Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr, supply pastor, and the Trinity congregation having a part in the ceremonial.

Mrs. Esther Jenkins and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, presidents of the Junior Woman's Guild, and the Young People's society at the time they purchased the books, will be in charge of the program.

Light Will Direct Fuel Oil Sign-Up

Silverton—Floyd Light, assistant superintendent of the Silverton schools, and Guy W. DeLay of the senior high faculty, will direct the fuel oil rationing sign up at the senior high school on James avenue, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 15-17.

Assistants will be members of the mathematics classes, taught by DeLay, as the figuring is intricate on the cards to be given out, it was explained Friday by Mr. Light.

Hours are from 2 to 5 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, and from 2 to 9 p.m. Wednesday.

Sublimity

Pvt. Etzel Home on Army Furlough; Hendricks Drops College Work

Pvt. Sylvester Etzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Etzel, arrived at his home Wednesday evening. Pvt. Etzel is stationed in Colorado and is on leave from duty.

Miss Anna Lulay and her brother, Orville, have left for Bakersfield, Calif., where they will visit John Mackie.

Leonard Hendricks, a freshman at Oregon State college, has discontinued his studies there until after the duration.

Mrs. Margaret Winters of Eugene has been with her mother, Mrs. Joe Heuberger, who has been seriously ill at her home.

Miss Delores Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wolf, was rushed to the hospital Tuesday night for an emergency operation.

Miss Marietta Zuber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Zuber, has discontinued her studies at school for this year because of illness.

CONTINUOUS EVERY DAY FROM 1 P. M.
CAPITOL STARTS TODAY
Take a Holiday Today!
Hear 11 new IRVING BERLIN SONGS
with Bing singing 'em . . . Fred dancing 'em
(with 2 beautiful new dancing partners!)
Irving Berlin's "HOLIDAY INN"
BING CROSBY
FRED ASTAIRE
A Mark Sandrich production
Bargain Matinee Today
22c Plus tax
Till 5 p.m.
REYNOLDS · DALE · ABEL · IRVING BERLIN
COMPANION FEATURE
A DEAD MAN... WHO WALKS... AND TALKS... AND KILLS!
LLOYD NOLAN
THE MAN WHO WOULDN'T DIE
MARJORIE WEAVER
Get him, Mike Shayne . . . or you're a dead duck!
Plus Serial