

SOCIETY

Dallas—Mrs. Lawrence Smith entertained members of her bridge club with a 1 o'clock luncheon at her home Friday afternoon. Mrs. Jack Eakin, former member of the club, who has been with her husband, Capt. Jack Eakin, stationed at Pittsburgh, Pa., was a guest of the club. Scoring honors for bridge were won by Mrs. V. O. Williams and Mrs. Randolph Hilton.

Shower Given In Lyons

Lyons—Mrs. Paul Smith and Mrs. George Huffman were hostesses for a shower honoring Mrs. Hershel Culwell, the former Daisy Weitman, which was held at the community hall Friday night. Mrs. Wallace Power and Mrs. Douglas Gavette were in charge of games. Following the opening of gifts, refreshments were served to the following: Miss Daisy Weitman, Miss Elaine and Evelyn Cliftell, Misses Constance and Betty Jean Bodeker, Miss Beulah Lewis, Mrs. Clyde Lewis, Mrs. Wallace Powers, Mrs. Art Ayers, Mrs. Joe Weitman, Mrs. George Hubbard, Mrs. Paul Johnston, Mrs. George Cliftell, Mrs. Earl Allen, Mrs. Albert Ring, Mrs. Oral Toland, Mrs. Douglas Gavette, Mrs. Leonard Snyder, Mrs. Alex Bodeker, Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Clyde Bressler, Mrs. Hugh Gavette, Mrs. Bob Fetherston, Mrs. Roy Huber, Mrs. Paul Smith and Mrs. George Huffman.

Oregon History Topic of Meeting

Independence—Mrs. D. A. Ebbert with Mrs. E. M. Ebbert of Monmouth as co-hostess, entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of the former for the April meeting of the Delphian Book club.

Mrs. Ebbert was in charge of the program which centered on the subject of Oregon history. Mrs. B. F. Swope presented a paper on the very early history of the pioneers from the time they left the east to migrate to Oregon. Mrs. Estella Fluke gave a report on the settling of the pioneers in Polk county and Mrs. William Riddell presented a paper on the humorous side of pioneers life.

In conclusion, pioneer songs were enjoyed by the group led by Mrs. Riddell. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Matt Thompson and Mrs. M. L. Thompson. Refreshments served by the hostesses concluded the afternoon. Mrs. A. L. Thomas will entertain at the May meeting.

Talbot Women Make Draperies

Sidney-Talbot—The Talbot Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Addie Davidson. Mrs. D. E. Blinston presided at the brief business session. In response to roll call, "household hints" were given by the members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lena Burrell and the delegates will be appointed to attend the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs to be held at Gates. Names were drawn for the annual flower exchange.

Following the business session, the time was spent in making drapes for a day room at Camp Adair, which the Sidney-Talbot Farmers Union are furnishing. The Talbot Women's club members are donating the drapes.

Mrs. D. E. Blinston and Mrs. Richard King assisted the hostess in serving refreshments. Twelve members and one guest, Miss Bernice Burrell, were present.

Plans Made For Meeting

Woodburn—The Hubbard Women's club met at the home of Mrs. J. E. McLaughlin, April 7 with Mina DeWolf and Lucille Moohaw as co-hostesses. Sixteen members were present.

Stuart Johnson, formerly a member, now of Elotika club of Salem, was a guest. Officers elected for the coming year were: Lenore Schoor, president; Evelyn Morris, vice president; Lenore Scholl, secretary; Mabel Cook, treasurer.

Plans were discussed for the coming Marion county federation meeting, April 30 at Gates and also for representatives of the Women's club at the dedication of the Hubbard plaque at Camp Adair to take place Saturday, April 10.

For the program Lenore Schoor gave a reading on "Hail, the Citadel of Christoph" and Kathryn Paulsen gave on "Defense of the Western Hemisphere."

The next meeting will be at the home of Lois Miller, April 14 at which time Miss Frances Clinton, Marion county home demonstration agent, will give a talk and demonstration on "Care and Repair of Clothing." All members are urged to attend this meeting.

Benefit Party Is Planned

Mill City—Mrs. Herbert Schroeder was hostess to members of the Mill City Woman's club, with Mrs. Lee Morris assisting. Report of the committee arranging the benefit card party for the Children's Farm Home, to be held Friday, April 16 at the J. F. Potter home, was given by the chairman, Mrs. Albert Millsap.

The Mill City club will join with the Gates club in entertaining the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs at Gates Friday, April 30. Club members were also invited to attend a meeting of the Stayton Garden club on Friday evening, April 16, at which time there will be an outside speaker.

Appointed on the nominating committee were Mrs. A. R. Hoenig, Mrs. Vernon Todd and Mrs. Mabel Needham, election of officers to be held next time. Roll call was answered with April fool pranks and jokes. Mrs. R. L. Faust played two "bazooka" solos. A very enlightening book review was given by Mrs. W. W. Allen on the book entitled, "Japan Rides the Tiger."

Mrs. Johnson Named President

Silverton—Mrs. Ida Johnson was elected president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary for the coming year at the meeting of the group at the armory club rooms.

Assisting Mrs. Johnson will be Mrs. Josephine Hartman, senior vice president; Mrs. Sadie Barkhurst, junior vice president; Marion Tucker, treasurer; Agnes Naegeli, chaplain; Ethel McClung, guard; Marie Thomas, conductress, and Clara Tokstad, trustee.

Those who wish to be blood donors for war purposes were advised to contact Dr. P. A. Loar. The year's reports by Bernice Grant and Marie Thomas on Red Cross sewing and quilting, showed satisfactory accomplishments. Gertrude Moen and Jessie Goodall were initiated as new members and one initiate is to be taken into the group at the next meeting. A social hour with the post was observed after the business meeting.

G.T. Club at Blankenship Home

Roberts—The G.T. club met at the home of Mrs. J. P. Blankenship Thursday. Mrs. W. A. Shorey and Mrs. Albert Blankenship assisted the hostess.

A dessert luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock, after which Mrs. Alice Coolidge, president, called the group to order. New members accepted into the club were Mrs. Virgil Gearhart, Mrs. Cora S. Smith, Mrs. Gerald Shorey and Mrs. Henry Bruce.

Mrs. John Orsborn reported on the gift from the club, purchased for Camp Adair, and told of the need for hot water bottle covers by the Red Cross and the group agreed to make 100.

Mrs. H. Bruce won the prize for the guessing contest which was given, then each member responded with a "penny-saver" idea. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. William Peterson May 13.

Officers Are Elected

Albany—Election of officers featured the meeting of the Albany Business and Professional Woman's club. Mrs. Justin Miller was re-elected president. Mrs. Miller also holds the office of secretary of the state organization. Other officers elected are Miss Geraldine Nott, vice-president; Miss Katherine Pugh, recording secretary; Mrs. Arlene VanDahl, corresponding secretary and Miss Frances McKee, treasurer.

Following the business meeting the remainder of the evening was spent informally. A light lunch was served by Mrs. Mary Vandel and Miss Zelma Wood.

Wild Flowers Topic of Meeting

Woodburn—Chapter J. P.E.O. Sisterhood, met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Nellie Muir. Mrs. Carl Huber presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Clair Nibler.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Rosina Barnes and her topic was wild flowers. She gave an interesting talk and displayed several varieties of wild flowers, followed by a quiz on the subject with prizes going to Mrs. Kenneth McGrath and Mrs. Carl Huber.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Mary Scollard and Miss Zoia Lowthian.

Silverton—Among out-of-town visitors of relatives are Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Olson of Humboldt, Iowa, who are with Olson's sisters, Mrs. Ida Doyle and Miss Hannah Olson, at the Oak street home. At the home of Mrs. Mary Rask of the Monson addition for three days are her sister, Mrs. Joe Wheeler and two children, Joseph and Marybell, of Longview, Wash.
