

West Salem Salvage Drive Continues on Many Lines

West Salem, April 15—The collection of waste fats, tin cans and hose will be emphasized by salvage committee heads in plans for current drives. Tentative plans are to seek the help of the Girl Scouts in the collection of waste fats but pending the announcement of definite plans for the drive, housewives are urged to save and prepare the waste grease for collection.

Court Observes Lenten Season

Stayton — Approximately 40 members of Court Queen of Peace, Catholic Daughters of America, met in Stayton Tuesday evening and heard a talk by Dr. Theodore Stuckart on "Psychoanalysis." It was voted to share half the expense of issuing the Bulletin each month with the Knights of Columbus. They also voted to purchase another $100 war bond, making the second $100 war bond purchased since Pearl Harbor.

Mrs. Ida Wourms was elected alternate delegate to the state convention, which will be held in Eugene, May 1 and 2. The Catholic Daughters of America are to celebrate the 40th anniversary in June, when the supreme board will christen a motor trailer chapel car, "Queen of Peace," in honor of their patroness, to be presented to the Paulist Fathers. The Mile of Dimes committee appointed to contact members includes Angeline Lambrecht, Rose Meier, Mary Fink and Celia Mertz.

The first Sunday in May being National Communion Sunday, all members are to receive communion at the 7 o'clock mass at Stayton if possible. A number of the mothers will receive with their children who make their first communion on that Sunday at the 9 o'clock mass. The Red Cross war fund drive committee reported $147.22 collected in the section of Stayton assigned for them to solicit.

A quiz program was conducted by a committee composed of Effie Gescher, Ida Wourms, Ida Frost, Mary Highberger and Veronica Thoma. This being the Lenten season, instead of serving lunch the committee donated the regular amount allowed for such expenditure to the flower fund.

The election of officers will take place at the next meeting, May 11, at which time Rev. Father Baur of Jordan will be their guest speaker.

Chapter Postpones Anniversary Event

Silverton—The 45th anniversary observance of Roman chapter No. 58, OES, planned for Tuesday evening, was postponed until the April 27 meeting in respect to the memory of Mrs. G. B. Benton, a past worthy matron.

Mrs. Carol Van Cleave, worthy matron and George Barr, acting worthy patron in the absence of Roy Skafie, were in charge of the business of Tuesday's meeting.

who will arrange through the school to have the collection called for. Clean rayon, silk and cotton hose should be left in the container placed at the city hall for this purpose.

The salvage collections are being supervised by H. C. Heise, chairman, Mrs. Fred Gibson and Mrs. Fern Bradford, drive supervisors.

Mercy Fund Totaled
Mrs. Fred Gibson, city Red Cross chairman and member of the Polk county board of directors, announces West Salem's contributions toward the Red Cross war fund drive now total $904.35.

White Rags Needed
A vast quantity of clean white rags is needed at the Camp Adair hospital, according to word received from Mrs. Greenwood of Dallas. Instructions for preparing the rags include the cleansing, removal of buttons and cutting of seams so the material may be folded and flattened. Persons who have rags to contribute are asked to contact either Mrs. L. Franklin or Mrs. R. O. Brown, West Salem's committee members of Camp Adair Council, which meets each month at Dallas.

First Aid Given
The Salem first aid car was called at noon yesterday to the school to treat an arm injury suffered by Beverly Grosso when she fell down the basement steps. The injury was diagnosed as a severe sprain.

Swimmer Loses Shoes
Rushing the swimming season yesterday by Warylly Ashcraft and Andy Anderson cost Ashcraft the premature use of rationing stamp 17. The young men took a plunge in the river then boated across to the other side to enjoy a sun bath, and while Ashcraft went ashore, leaving his good shoes in the boat, Anderson decided to do a little practice rowing with the result that the boat capsized, dumping the shoes to the bottom of the river.

VanDen Bosch and Milo Gage were able to return home Sunday. Mrs. Van Den Bosch and Oziah are still in the hospital.

Wade Wilson and wife returned to Seattle Monday having spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson.

Business Men Discuss Bonds

Mt. Angel—The main topic of discussion at the regular meeting of the Mt. Angel Business Men's club was the war bond drive. Alois Keber explained the various types of war bonds that are available and stated that committees would be taken from the Catholic Daughters of America, Catholic Order of Foresters, the Knights of Columbus and the Business Men's club, who would meet in the very near future to discuss plans as to the way Mt. Angel would raise its quota.

A committee of six taken from the Business Men's club to attend this meeting included W. D. Harris, chairman, Peter F. Gores, Louis A. LeDoux, John T. Bauman, G. D. Ebner and Frank Hettwer.

Paul Reiling, athletic coach, asked the club if they would help purchase 15 books to be used as textbooks for boys interested in athletics. These books will be used in the grade school for boys with proper grades and good conduct.

A committee consisting of L. A. LeDoux and E. B. Stolle was appointed to meet with the Catholic Order of Foresters and the Knights of Columbus to discuss the matter.

Ticket sellers for the next meeting include Louis A. LeDoux and Frank Hettwer.

Charges of Forgery Faced in Arkansas

Dallas—Sheriff Bill Bookout of Piggott, Ark., arrived in Dallas Tuesday to take back to Piggott, Paul Rodney, charged there with forgery. Rodney was arrested in Dallas last week by Deputy Sheriff Tony Neufeldt and held in jail here pending arrival of the Arkansas sheriff.

Dallas Schools Start Earlier

Dallas—In order that local schools may close a week earlier than scheduled, Superintendent Sidney E. Whitworth has announced that beginning Monday, the schools will open at an earlier hour.

The closing date was originally set for June 11, but shortening of the Christmas vacation and adding to the length of the school day for the remainder of the year will make it possible to close on May 28. The urgent need of student help in industry and on farms made imperative the earlier closing date.

Classes will begin at 8:10 o'clock in the high school and slightly later in the other two buildings. The hour of dismissal in the afternoons will remain unchanged at present.

Forum Will Buy Jersey Heifer

Independence—Plans are being completed by the agriculture committee of the Independence Chamber of Commerce for the purchase of a Jersey heifer calf, which will be presented to a member of the independence high school agriculture class.

The calf will be given under a similar plan to that of Sears, Roebuck and company and title will be given to the boy receiving the calf upon delivery of the first heifer calf to the Chamber, which will in turn be given to another boy. The Polk County Jersey Cattle club is cooperating with the Chamber and will give a calf on the same plan every other year, alternating with the Chamber.

Boys who have made applications and become eligible will appear before the members of the committee and Chamber members next Tuesday evening at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, and each will be given three minutes to tell why they should receive the calf. Announcement of the judges' decision will be made at the next meeting of the Chamber on May 4, to which farmers and Jersey breeders will be invited. The presentation of the calf will be made at a Jersey cattle club picnic to be held at a later date.
