

Dallas School Seats Officers

Dallas—At the final assembly held Wednesday afternoon at the high school, officers for next year were installed and presentation of awards were made. Heading next year's student body will be Bob Dornhecker. Other officers installed were Bob Smith, vice-president; Frankie Cordell, secretary-treasurer; Paul Dille, sergeant-at-arms; Bud Pierce, yell leader; Beverly Bennett, song queen; Bobby Beharrell, editor of Persiscope and Phyllis Bennett, business manager.

Donald Gabbert, principal, made the presentation to the boys' tennis team with letters going to Howard Petersen, manager; Tommy Hooker, Mel Courter, Paul Dille, Kenneth Wright and Jack Crider.

To the baseball team, Coach O. E. Anderson made the presentation, with letters going to Ray Osuna, Neil Richardson, Homer Olfert, Harold Olfert, Lee Kroeker, Joe Cochran, Milton Baker, Armond Frey, Bill Rohrs and Ray Prescott.

Miss Maxine Horton, girls' physical education instructor, presented honors to the girls who had done outstanding work in civilian defense and the GAA awards. About 20 girls received the numeral, 15 the small D and 10 the large D. Three senior girls received the highest award, a gold pin. They were Ruth Van Orsdel, Joyce Houtz and Barbara Kracher.

Certificates were awarded the Forensic club by Miss Marjorie Thorne. Receiving these were Rees Linn, Lloyd Domaschowsky, Jewelle Schmidt, Marilyn Parrish, Curtis Lamb and Beverly Bennett.

Program numbers consisted of African victory speeches by Elsie Yungen, Anna Fast and Shirley Phelps, members of Miss Buchanan's speech class; a group of patriotic songs by Ruth Schultz, accompanied by Lloyd Domaschowsky; assembly singing of "Star Spangled Banner" and the flag salute, led by Robert Middleton.

The Girls League, meeting immediately after assembly, elected their officers for next year. Marcell Stinnett was chosen president; Sharon Lamb, vice-president and Marcell Osborne, secretary-treasurer. The sergeant-at-arms is selected from the incoming freshman class in the fall.

Lebanon Students Hear C. F. Walker

Lebanon—Charles F. Walker, president of the Northwest School of Business in Portland, will be the commencement speaker for the Lebanon high school graduating class at the exercises May 26. Irvin F. Bryan, principal, announced. Baccalaureate, with Rev. Harvey J. Schmidt delivering the sermon, will be Sunday night.

The junior-senior prom was held May 14, adding to the busy last month's activities. Friday was annual senior class day at the school, when awards, athletic letters and other presentations were made. Examinations will be held May 24 and 25, with no regular school scheduled after May 21.

Unionvale

Mr. and Mrs. John Stoutenburg of Casper, Wyo., arrived Sunday by automobile to spend their annual vacation with their father, Neal Stoutenburg, and other relatives here. Besides them, guests of Mr. Stoutenburg and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Holt Sunday for dinner and the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gistler of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stoutenburg of Mission Bottom, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Stoutenburg of Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McFarlane and family of Pleasantdale and Ruth Dixon.

Mrs. Henry Knoche, Unionvale primary teacher, who has been receiving treatments at the McMinnville hospital, was brought to her home Saturday. Her aunt, Mrs. Henry Wickler of McMinnville, is caring for her. Mrs. Frank Armentrout and Judy Ann were her Sunday guests.

Many residents of this district attended the May day exercises at the Dayton union high school.

Silverton Visitors

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Marshall and their granddaughter, Julie Ann, of Pocatello, Idaho, and Milton A. Marshall, his daughter, Mrs. Ada Haynes, and George McKinney, all of Portland, were Tuesday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Powell. The Marshalls are cousins of Mrs. Powell.

Mt. Angel—Peter Meissner, who submitted to a major operation about 10 days ago, is making satisfactory recovery at the Silverton hospital.

Scio's 'Old Cap' Passes to Reward

Scio—Old Cap, 13, English setter owned by Dean Morris of Scio, is hunting in happier hunting grounds following final rites here this week.

The dog won five championships in state field trials, and continued to outclass scores of other hunting dogs, although barred from competition because of too many previous registered records.

A familiar part of the Scio scene since he was a pup, Old Cap won his first field event when he was but one year old, and was loaned to other hunters by his owner for many hunting trips.

Morris owns another young dog sired by Old Cap, whom he hopes will follow in the footsteps of his famous father.

Mt. Angel Observes 'North Africa' Day

Mt. Angel—No holiday was called but Mt. Angel observed Victory in North Africa day by a reminder. The church bells chimed for about five minutes, then followed the sounding of the fire siren and the blowing of whistles at the Mt. Angel cooperative creamery and the Mt. Angel Flax Growers plant at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. All places of business had out their flags for the day.

War Stamps Given Contest Winners

Dayton—The Webfoot school gave its closing program at the schoolhouse Wednesday evening and because some of the parents were unable to attend, some of the numbers prepared for their benefit were repeated Thursday forenoon when the students and patrons of the district gathered for a picnic dinner, sports of various kinds and three softball games.

The teacher, Mrs. Frank Osborne, gave war savings stamps and stamp books to each first prize winner in each event. Mrs. Osborne did not sign the contract which was offered her to teach here next year but will teach in her home district, in the Briedwell school near Amity.

There are two eighth grade Webfoot students, Roy Kneel and LaVern Patterson. They received their diplomas Wednesday evening.

There will be six in the beginners' class next fall in the Webfoot school if those who are here remain in the district.

Sawmill Workers Donating Plasma

Silverton—Members of the Lumber and Sawmill Workers Union, local No. 2725 are planning a full quota donation of blood plasma Monday, May 31, when the mobile unit comes to Silverton. It was decided at the regular meeting of the group at the KP hall, Ernest J. Boesch presiding.

The local sent $25 worth of cigarettes to men in service, recently, with funds realized from the series of dances for that purpose. Joe Messmer was a new member admitted to the union Tuesday night.

Yamhill Clubbers To Attend Fair

Dayton—Mrs. B. R. Bell, leader, and her six 4-H sewing club members of the Webfoot school will attend the county festival and fair in session at the McMinnville Methodist church Friday and Saturday, under the leadership of Miss Hazel Packard, home demonstration leader of Yamhill county. The girls plan to attend only Saturday. They are Joan Bell, Laura Mae Goodrich, Donna Gates, Lois Garrett, Malissa Milam, Helen May. Some of the girls are taking first year work and the remainder are in the second year division.

Employed at Camp Hopewell—Miss Margaret Geisler, graduate of Amity union high school, has a stenographic position at Camp Adair and lives at Monmouth.

Flax Building Plans Received

Sidney—The Sidney-Talbot Farmers Union met with the exchange board given orally. E. B. Henningsen gave the livestock report, stating that one dairyman has sold part of his herd for beef, due to shortage of help.

Louise Johnston reported on the station bulletin available at the county agent's office for treating seed corn with coal tar, so pheasants, crows, etc., would not bother it. G. W. Potts, Sr., stated that insecticides would soon be available at the warehouse to be used on different crops. Jake Gilmour reported that a chopper has been installed at the Jefferson warehouse to chop screenings. E. B. Henningsen reported receiving plans for the flax plant to be built near Jefferson and that bids would soon be open for building the plant.

For the educational report, Edmund Clark spoke on anti-semitism, how the Jewish people were being cruelly treated in Europe. G. W. Potts, Sr., read part of an article from Reader's Digest on what we'll do with Germany when the war is over. Connie Henningsen reported that applications can be made for pressure cookers to the home demonstration agent, Miss Frances Clinton; that applications should be made before May 31, and that it was preferable that people apply in a group for one of four or five families; that all canning should be done in a pressure cooker, is being urged now.

The refreshment committee for the May 28 meeting is D. E. Turnidge, Robert Terhune, Edwin Swartz, Howard Snodgrass and Adam Sevelsforth.

Edna Reeves, of the relief committee, reported that Betty Wintermantel is ill with pneumonia and then measles in the hospital. Dona Zehner and Jeanette Gilmour are also ill with measles. C. F. Johnston injured his foot and shoulder while plowing.

Union Hill

Leonard Seely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Seely, won the registered Jersey calf given away by the Silverton Rotary club to one of the local Future Farmers of America, of which Leonard is a member. The calf was purchased from Rex Ross, noted registered Jersey breeder of Marion county.

Clean-up day will be Saturday, May 22, at the Union Hill cemetery. All interested parties please come and help.

Miss Starr, teacher of Union Hill, who has been staying with Mrs. Jessie Caster, will go back to live with her sister at Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Seely were dinner guests at the John Leinhardt home at Monitor and also visited at the Harry Rushold home.

Mrs. Salden, mother of Mrs. Roy King, is some better in health, but still confined to her bed.

Grand Island

Mrs. J. L. Martin has returned from a week's trip to North Bend, where she was a guest of the Forrest Jenks family. Mrs. Charles Cole and daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. William Dusenberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed White and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cole and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Martin and in the afternoon they were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hagner and family at Salem.

Mrs. J. L. Martin is another victim of a severe cold, accompanied by hoarseness, which has been prevalent in the valley during the last few weeks.

Three acres of tomato plants are being transferred from the greenhouse to open field at the Ernest Douglas farm.

Communion Arranged

Army Asks Lebanon For Typewriters

Lebanon—Whether or not the school district can spare one-fourth of its typewriters for use of the armed services was a principal topic of discussion at the school board meeting.

It was brought out that the school at present is operating with about a third the number of machines it really needs, since the number was not increased as fast as the school attendance. Investigation will be made to see if older typewriters suitable for school use can be obtained.

New teachers who have been given contracts for next year include Frank L. France of Cheney, Wash., who will teach in the high school; Mrs. Orville Lane and Mrs. Walter Young of Lebanon, grade school teachers; Mrs. Kenneth Wilshire, who has been in the city superintendent's office at Oregon City, will teach in the high school, and Mrs. Christine Smith, placed on a full-time basis.

Date of the regular school election will be Monday, June 21. Candidates for office must file petitions seven days prior or by June 14. The term of E. H. Bohle, chairman, expires this year.

Tilton to Address Dallas Graduates

Dallas—Rev. Ellsworth Tilton will preach the baccalaureate sermon for the Dallas high school graduating class Sunday night at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. This will be a union service, with other ministers taking part in the program. Dan W. Polling, assistant dean of men at Oregon State college, will deliver the commencement address Thursday evening at the auditorium.

Polk-Yamhill Fire Fighters to Gather

Dallas—Members of the Dallas fire department will be hosts on Friday, May 28, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms to the Polk-Yamhill Firemen's association. Seth Thomas, state fire marshal, will talk on "Mutual Aid," explaining the new state law which places fire departments at the call of the governor in case of emergency. Jack Hayes, deputy state fire marshal, will show new pictures of special interest to fire fighters.

School Year Ends

Hopewell—The Hopewell school closed Thursday, May 20, with a picnic.

Old Rickreall Program Found

Rickreall—The Rickreall high school will hold its graduation exercises Monday night at the high school auditorium. The graduates are Betty Auer, Kenneth Wait, Alden Schmidt, Walter Hill, Donald Hamilton, Marshall Teter and George Fuller.

The speaker will be Rev. Loy-al H. Vickers of Corvallis. Vocal numbers will be furnished by Barbara Kester and the girls' glee club. Betty Auer will give the valedictory and Walter Hill the salutatory.
