The bride is a graduate of University of Oregon, where she was a member of Hermian, physical education honorary. Amphibians, the swimming honorary, and Alpha Psi. She received her master's degree from Temple university, where she was a member of Phi Delta Gamma, woman's graduate scholastic honorary, and is now principal of the Linnton school in Portland.

Mr. Brunskill is a graduate of Oregon State college school of pharmacy and a member of Phi Kappa Phi. He is now chief pharmacist's mate at the naval training station at Farragut, Idaho, having returned from 20 months of active duty in the Aleutians.

Servicemen Appearing On Program
Combining their talents to present a varied musical program for the entertainment of servicemen stationed in this vicinity and Salemites are a group of men in uniform, who prior to entering the armed services appeared before audiences in New York, Chicago, and other large cities in the United States.

Event of July 29, in the auditorium of the Salem senior high school, the program is sponsored by the Salvation Army USO center in Court street, and will have as master of ceremonies Lieutenant Robert Renfrow, formerly with Paramount studios in Hollywood and a radio star over NBC.

Guest soloist on the program will be Josephine Albert Spaulding, who needs no introduction to people of the capital city.

Servicemen appearing on the program are Corporal Lawrence Hahn, pianist; Corporal Mackey Swan, baritone; Private Bernard Kovler, tenor; Private Kenneth Lang, violinist; Private Fordyce L. Waldo, bass baritone; and Private Bernard Barron, cellist, who is stationed at the Portland air base.

Birthdays Celebrated At Picnic Dinner
Honor guests at a surprise birthday dinner for which friends were hosts in the Dallas city park Sunday were Mrs. Joe Ryan and Mrs. Peter Voith. Centering the table at which the guests were seated was an arrangement of pastel sweets.

Present to honor Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Voith were Mr. and Mrs. Walter McFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Herrold, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. A. McFetridge, Orville Malm and Mr. Ryan and Mr. Voith.

Falls City—Mrs. and Mrs. F. E. Driggs entertained with a birthday dinner at their home Saturday honoring their granddaughter, Mrs. Harold Ellis of Salem. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ellis and son, Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Driggs and daughter, Jean, all of Salem.

Fort Sumner, New Mexico, will be the destination of Mrs. Marion C. Jewel and small son, Jimmy, early in August, at which time the two plan to join Lieutenant Jewel, who is stationed in New Mexico as an assistant squadron commander at the advance flying school army air base, Mrs. Jewel, the former Margaret Johnson, and Master Jimmy, who was born July 6, are now the guests of Mrs. Jewel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson.

Mrs. Gil Ogden, who has been visiting in Salem as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Harry Ross, returned to her home in Seaside this week. Accompanying her on the return trip was her cousin, Miss Louise Lucas, who will spend her vacation with Sergeant and Mrs. Ogden.

Got Wrong Baby, Suit Charges (P)—Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Hardwing (above) filed suit in Los Angeles for $500,000 damages against the South Hoover hospital and others charging they were told when their baby was born it was a boy but when they brought it home it was discovered the baby was a girl. The suit also asked for the return of their own baby. Mrs. Hardwing holds the baby girl while Mr. Hardwing holds the notarized birth certificate made out for "Richard Allen Hardwig."

George Jones Sleeps With Hand on Hilt, Nerves Alert

By George E. Jones

With U. S. Force, Outside Munda, July 11 (Delayed) (P)—The battle for Munda is one of knives and nerves—and if an American sometimes stabs a buddy in the dark, it is chalked up as another score to settle against the Japs.

body in the jungle yells "Help, I'm stabbed," nobody moves.

No Good for Nerves
Few of the knife wounds are critical. One man cut five times survived. But the Japanese night warfare, first practiced on American troops in Guadalcanal and embellished on this island, doesn't benefit the nervous system.

Japanese soldiers swing from trees and scream and call out through the night. The first few tastes of this, and the knife wielding, brought orders for American soldiers and machines moving in on Munda from the east to hit it for a foxhole at dusk and stay there regardless.

As many as a half-dozen enemy soldiers will climb the tall banyan trees around a camp. Dark starts the uproar. The Japanese holler, "Hey, Jim, where's your foxhole?" There's no reply. They keep calling names at random.

Decoy Calls Sound
Getting no response, they rattle the branches around their tree perches and bang their helmets, yelling "The Japs are coming—the Japs are coming!" Or they'll say, "Oh, Bill, fire a couple of rounds into that bush on the left." Any American that fails for the decoy calls and gives himself away, is plunged upon by a creeping enemy or is on the receiving end of a 25 caliber slug.

Sometimes the Japanese crawl on hands and knees into a camp, starting a fight in a foxhole hoping Americans will knife each other. But regardless of the commotion, these boys stick tight to their own spots.

Reunion Arranged For Mountain Home
Dayton—There were 20 people who attended the annual reunion of the Mountain Home church and Sunday school held all day Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Lynn Gubser at McMinnville.

These were members and descendants of members of the organization before 1900. Mrs. Emaline Vincent, 86, of Newberg, was the eldest and Lucien Ross Gubser, two months old, of McMinnville, was the youngest member present.

When Mrs. Vincent's people came to that district in 1876 there was no church or Sunday school closer to them than that to the Gibbs school, 3 1/2 miles distant, and they walked to the services each week. Later her husband and Daniel Gubser, father of Lynn, erected the old Mountain Home church from lumber hauled by Mr. Gubser's father Yamhill County Senator W. E. Burke is of the Mountain Home neighborhood.

A basket dinner was served at noon.

Scotts Mills—Mrs. Bernie Oas and children are visiting the Moberg and the Nelson families.

The Indians of Peru kept the medical properties of quinine a secret from the Spaniards for a century.
