Spinsters Entertain At Dinner

Annual affair slated for this evening at 7 o'clock at Schneider's is the Christmas dinner with which members of Spinsters are entertaining honoring their patronesses.

Christmas will be the theme for the table decorations with the table centered with an arrangement of holly, and red taper placecards marking the covers for the guests.

Honor guests will be Mrs. George A. White of Clackamas, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Miss Beryl Holt, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, Mrs. Frank Spears, Sr., Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mrs. Robert Shinn, Mrs. Arch M. Jerman, Mrs. Douglas McKay and Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Sr.

Event of December 28 will be the Christmas party of the Business and Professional Women, which will be held at the YWCA in the form of a buffet supper. Plans were made for the party at a meeting of the music, art and hospitality committees of the club, when they were called together last week by the chairman of the music committee, Miss Josephine Evans.

Camp Fire Girls Form New Groups

Two new groups of Camp Fire Girls were formed this past week, sixth graders of Washington school, under the guardianship of Mrs. O. Severson, who comes to the Camp Fire with a background of girls' work in the middle west, and fifth graders of McKinley school whose chosen guardian, Mrs. W. S. Hudson, comes from Phoenix, Ariz., with considerable experience in girls' work.

Mrs. Emma Maxwell, executive, met with both of these groups and plans were formulated for future active work. Immediately following the new year a third group, consisting of fourth graders from Grant school, will begin meeting, under the leadership of Mrs. C. Ramsey.

Miss Mary Jean McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. McKay will entertain this evening for Chicago, where she will spend the holidays visiting her fiancé, Elmer Harrold, a former Willamette university student, taking officers' training at Northwestern university. While in Chicago Miss McKay will be the guest of Mr. Harrold's grandmother and her relatives.

H. D. Trovers Celebrate Fifty Years of Wedded Life

Well known Salem couple that Monday celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with an "open house" and dinner party at Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Trover, who for many years have operated a photography studio in the city. Friends of the couple were invited to call at Mrs. Trover's gift shop, during the afternoon and a 6:30 o'clock dinner at the Spa with members of the family in attendance.

Greeting the guests at the "open house" with Mr. and Mrs. Trover were their niece, Mrs. Joseph A. Benjamin of Tillamook, and their three nephews, Cratz Cronise of Pocatello, Idaho, Ralph Cronise of Albany, Oregon, and Harry Cronise of Salem.

Former Salem Girl Wed In California

Being announced this week is the marriage of a former Salem girl, Miss Barbara Colgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Colgan of Pendleton, and William McCall Pennick of the U.S. navy, son of Mrs. N. L. Pennick.

The vows were exchanged at a 5 o'clock ceremony read the afternoon of December 6 in the fireplace room of the First Methodist church in Ontario, Calif., with Rev. Roy L. Ruth officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a suit of powder blue wool jersey with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Hansen. A reception at the Hotel Ontario followed the ceremony shortly after which the couple left on their wedding trip.

On their return from the wedding trip Mr. Pennick will return to Chicago for advanced naval training and Mrs. Pennick will resume her position at the army air base at Pendleton.

Making their home in Portland, where Mr. Hayes will soon enter the University of Oregon Medical school are Mr. and Mrs. John Folsom Hayes. Mrs. Hayes is the former Irene Paulson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Paulson, Sr.

Returning Monday from a visit in San Francisco were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elfstrom.
