

Franco Move Nazi Prototype

Washington, Feb. 21 (AP)—Attorney General Francis Biddle today branded the falangist movement headed by Generalissimo Francisco Franco as the Spanish prototype of nazism and said its doctrine is "incompatible with the well-being of the United States."

Biddle assailed the Spanish political party in announcing that denaturalization proceedings have been started against Puerto Rican member, Isidore Conde Fernandez, 40. It was the first justice department action of its kind against a falangist, but Biddle hinted that others might follow.

Asserting that Franco "heads the falange and dictates its decrees," Biddle said the party was dedicated to "re-establishment of the lost empire of Spain." It is, he added, "the prototype in Spain of the fascist and nazi parties in Italy and Germany."

The government seeks to revoke Fernandez' citizenship on the ground that "by reason of his lack of attachment to constitutional principles he is not entitled to the privileges of American citizenship," Biddle said. The government, he said, will base its case on the fact that "membership in the falange and other evidence indicates that the defendant advocated a totalitarian form of government and subscribed to other principles of the falange inimical to democracy, either at the time of his naturalization or during the five years immediately preceding it."

Fernandez, a resident of San Juan, was born in Spain in 1897, came to Puerto Rico in 1915, was naturalized in March, 1942, and joined the falange in January, 1938, Biddle said.

Air Mail Loads Up 62 Percent

The large increase of 62 percent in air mail loads carried by United Air Lines during January as against the same month a year ago is attributed to the additional Cargoline service which the company inaugurated between Chicago and San Francisco on January 17 to supplement the all-cargo service from coast-to-coast which was opened last fall.

According to estimated figures released by Robley L. Mangold, area cargo manager, United flew 1,180,523 mail ton-miles as against 733,198 in January, 1943. Express ton-miles showed a gain of 13 percent, with 319,260 being flown in January as compared with 282,274 in the same month last year.

About 10,000 women now are employed in petroleum refineries of the country.

Back to Tokyo, Doolittle Says

London, Feb. 21 (AP)—Maj. Gen. James Doolittle, commander of the Eighth air force, assured the American people last night, that after Hitler is finished with, "we are going back to Tokyo in full array and with mighty allies."

He issued his message in a radio broadcast, paying tribute to the men of the U.S.S. Hornet, from which he led the air raid on Tokyo in April, 1942.

Doolittle acknowledged that Hitler "must be finished first," but added, "when this is accomplished we hope to go to the Pacific and join American, British and allied forces who are ready winning land, sea and air victories of increasing magnitude."

The word Alaska is from the Eskimo meaning "Great Country."
