Everett-Gibson Vows Said At Home Rites

Solemnized Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in West Salem, with Rev. Irving Fox officiating, were the marriage vows of Miss Helen Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gibson, and PFC Clarence E. Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Everett of Wilmington, Del.

Preceding the double ring ceremony, which was performed before an improvised altar decorated with baskets of calla lilies, pink chrysanthemums, Woodwardia ferns and palms, and lighted with white tapers in tall candelabra, Mrs. Veda Stevens sang "Because" and "I Love Thee." She was accompanied by Mrs. Fred Broer, Jr., who also played the wedding marches. Lighting the tapers was Miss Jean DeLapp.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin, designed with a fitted bodice which had a sweetheart neckline and a full skirt. Her fingertip length veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and rhinestones and she carried a fan bouquet of pink roses and pearl lilies, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Arnold L. Ebert, the bride's only attendant, wore a gown of orchid flowered taffeta and carried a bouquet of violets, yellow roses and lavender stock, tied with a violet and lavender ribbon.

Leo Brockway served as best man for PFC Everett.

An arrangement of pink and white carnations, pink roses, sweetpeas and paper white narcissuses, flanked by white tapers centered the serving table at the reception, which followed the ceremony.

The bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Muriel Roberts of Eugene, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Leo Brockway presided at the punch bowl. Assisting with the serving were Miss Elsie Jensen, Mrs. Ambrose Jones, Mrs. J. McPhail of Monmouth, Mrs. Agnes Janzen and Mrs. Sam Emery. Miss Elva Buhler of Dallas passed the guest book and the dream cakes were dispensed by Miss Jean DeLapp.

On their return from a short wedding trip to the Oregon beaches the couple will be at home to their friends in Salem.

Mrs. Everett, who is now employed in the office of the secretary of state, is a graduate of Salem high school and attended the Capital Business

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crum, and their small son, Jimmy, of Detroit.

Marriage Ceremony Read At Silverton Church

Read Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Trinity Lutheran church in Silverton was the ceremony at which Miss Dorothy Annabelle Jensen, daughter of Mrs. Hans Jensen and the late Mr. Jensen, exchanged her marriage vows with Anders E. Sola of Everett, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Olav E. Sola of that city.

Rev. M. J. K. Fuhr officiated at the rites, which were solemnized before an altar decorated with white lilies and lighted by white tapers in tall candelabra. Lighting the tapers was Miss Bernice Gay of Portland, who was gowned in deep pink and wore a wristlet of flowers. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Tom Anderson sang "Yeg Elsker Dig." She was accompanied by Mrs. Elvin Almqvist, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride's white satin gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, which had a high neckline and a seed pearl trim, long sleeves that came to a point over the wrists and a full skirt that extended into a train. Her lace edged veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Mrs. Norman W. Jensen of Clatskanie, who served as matron of honor for her sister-in-law, was gowned in pink taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt, and carried a nosegay of pink and white spring flowers.

The bridesmaids, Miss June Jernes and Miss Arlene Gjertsen, both of Portland, wore identical gowns of turquoise satin of the same design as the matron of honor, and carried pink and white nosegays. Little Miss Melva Marie Fuhr, the flower girl, wore a turquoise taffeta gown of identical design to those of the other attendants.

Olav M. Sola, Seattle, Wash., served as best man for his brother.

An arrangement of pink and white spring flowers, flanked by matching tapers, decorated the serving table at the reception held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The bride's cake was cut by college. PFC Everett was graduated from Wilmington, Del., schools.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister were Mrs. Lister's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrell, Sr., and Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Kingery and daughter, Susan, all of Portland. Following dinner the Listers and their guests attended "The Messiah" at the Leslie Junior high school auditorium.
