

SOCIETY CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by MARGARET MASON, PHOENIX 3212

Miss Marylee Fry Reveals Members of Bridal Party

Her marriage to William Earl Snell, son of Governor and Mrs. Earl Snell dated for Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the St. Paul's Episcopal church, Miss Marylee Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., is today announcing members of her wedding party. Rev. George Herbert Swift will be the officiating clergyman and singing preceding the ceremony will be Mrs. Josephine Albert Spaulding. Accompanying Mrs. Spaulding will be Miss Ruth Bedford, who will also play the wedding marches. The tapers will be lighted by Mrs. James Houck and Miss Betty Simmons.

Portland Church Scene Of Ceremony

Setting March 4 for the ceremony at which Miss Frances Hope Kring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlen R. Kring, and Storekeeper Second Class Earl L. Malm of the U.S. navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Malm of Salem, was the chapel of the Peninsula Evangelical church in Portland.

The couple exchanged their vows before an altar decorated with arrangements of white tulips and carnations and lighted with white tapers in tall candelabra. Rev. Gerald Jeffe officiated at the ceremony, which was attended by members of the two families. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Jeffe sang "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her wedding costume an afternoon frock of navy blue with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Doris Schulze, who was the bride's only attendant, wore a frock of aquamarine crepe and a corsage of pink camellias.

Mr. Malm served as best man for his son.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was held at the Imperial hotel.

On returning from a short wedding trip the bridegroom will return to active services and the bride will make her home with her parents in Portland.

Mrs. Malm, who is a graduate of Salem high school, and of Northwestern Business college in Spokane, Wash., is now connected with the priority office of the Oregon Shipbuilding corporation. Storekeeper Malm, also a graduate of Salem high school, was an employee of the Remington Rand, Inc., prior to entering the navy.

Dinner Compliments Maj. and Mrs. Ullman

Honoring Major and Mrs. LeRoy Ullman, of Ft. Scott, Calif., who arrive in the capital city Sunday afternoon for a visit with the H. G. Henderson and Percy Ullman families was the dinner for which Mrs. Percy Ullman was hostess Monday evening.

Covers were placed at the dinner for Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Henderson, Ida Jo Henderson, W. J. Ullman, of Paulina, Iowa, A. E. Ullman, Major and Mrs. LeRoy Ullman, Bobby and Ronald Ullman, Mrs. Eileen Wikoff and Mrs. Percy Ullman.

Dinner Party Fetes Miss Marjorie Tate

Complimenting their daughter, Miss Marjorie Tate, whose 16th birthday anniversary it was, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate entertained with a dinner party at their country home east of Salem Sunday.

Bidden to honor Miss Tate were Miss Jean Fidler, Miss Betty Zo Allen, Miss Addysee Lane, Miss Jackie Torgerson, Miss Shirley Lukens, Miss Marjorie Lundahl and Miss Elcena McCune.

Bound for California are Mrs. Robert Barnett, the former Barbara Bell, and Mrs. William Regner, the former Lorraine Sampson, who today started their drive south. Mrs. Barnett will make her home in Carmel, while her husband, a captain in the army, is stationed at the Monterey Presidio, and Mrs. Regner, whose husband is a lieutenant in the army, is returning to San Mateo to make her home with her parents. Both have been making their home in Salem, while their husbands were stationed at Camp Adair.

Organizations

Women of the McCormick class of the First Methodist church will be entertained at a dinner, luncheon at the home of Mrs. Fred Powers at 384 North 18th street, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Attending guests will be Mrs. George Lewis and Mrs. Doral Jones.

Director of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Jean Lee Nelson, who church started for March 22, included: January-July with Mrs. George Smith at 1190 North 21st street at 1:30 o'clock. February-August with Mrs. E. W. Galt at 120 Highland avenue at 1:30 o'clock for a dinner luncheon. March-September with Mrs. A. H. Davis at 20 North 20th street at 1:30 o'clock for a dinner luncheon. April-October with Mrs. Harvey Bryant at 1833 Kale street at 2 o'clock. May-November with Mrs. John Bryant at 1475 North 21st street at 2 o'clock. June-December with Mrs. John Bryant at 1050 North 18th street at 2 o'clock.

From Wink, Texas, comes word of the birth of a daughter, Barbara Maude, in that city March 2, to Lt. and Mrs. James A. McKinney. The little girl's father, who was graduated from West Point in January, 1943, and while attending West Point was a member of their football team, is a former Willamette university student. During the years that he attended Willamette, prior to leaving for West Point, he was a member of the varsity football squad.

Betrothal Told At Sorority Chapter-House

Betrothal announcement made on the University of Oregon campus last week-end was that of Miss Doris Adelle Chaplin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Chaplin, and Merton Clay Cole, of the United States navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory M. Cole of Portland.

The news was told last Thursday at a fireside at the Alpha Delta Pi sorority chapter-house. Miss Chaplin, a sophomore at the University of Oregon, is a graduate of Salem high school. Her fiancé, who attended Roseburg schools, is an air radio mate and has been attending radio school at Corpus Christi, Texas, for the past two years. He is now in California awaiting assignment.

Ahwahndah group Camp Fire Girls met at the home of their guardian, Mrs. James Bunnell, Thursday evening. The time was spent in making wall plaques.

Crescendo Club Gives Weekly Program Today

Offering another in a series of weekly programs being broadcast over station KSLM Tuesday afternoons between the hours of 4:30 and 4:45 o'clock were members of the Salem high school Crescendo club.

Appearing on today's program were Verne Esch, vocalist, who was accompanied by Miss Jewell Gueffroy, Miss Ruth Baine, bassoonist, and Dean Allport. Miss Baine and Mr. Allport will both appear as soloist and then will play a duet.

Country Club Has Supper Meeting

Wallace Road—Spring flowers and green candles centered the long supper table when Willamette Lodge Country club entertained with its March meeting. Committee in charge of arrangements was Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. James Smart. Five tables of cards were in play with Mrs. Charles McCarter winning women's high honors and A. E. Utley the men's prize.

Capital city visitors Saturday will be Mr. and Mrs. William Einzig of Portland, who will be attending the wedding of Miss Marylee Fry and William Earl Snell.

Lowell Fox Honored At Saturday Party

Honored on his 13th birthday anniversary was Lowell Fox, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gale L. Fox, Saturday feted him with a dinner party at their home in the Portland road followed by a line party.

Sunday a group of relatives were present at the Fox home to help Lowell celebrate his birthday anniversary. Out of town guests present were his grandmother, Mrs. Ada Farmer, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farmer and family, all of Portland.

Junior Club Has St. Patrick's Party

Woodburn—A St. Patrick's Day party was that held Thursday evening at the library club rooms by the members of the Junior Woman's club with Mrs. Freda Burt as hostess.

Irish games were played and Irish songs were sung by the group with prizes in games going to Mrs. Wilma Hooper, Mrs. Eva Halter and Mrs. Elaine Steele, and to Mrs. Verna Heer and Mrs. Ione Scholler as captains in a contest between two groups.

Decorations of spring flowers, pussy willows and Irish colors carried out the party theme. Miss Zo Lowthian assisted the hostess in serving.

Meeting at the home of their guardian, Mrs. F. W. Taylor, last week for a council fire members of the Luta Camp Fire group had as their guests, members of Mrs. Fred Fleming's Blue Bird group.

Are you MISSING DATES? Don't let life and gaiety leave you behind! Insure your charm and personal attractiveness with cooling, refreshing, delightfully fragrant CERTANE medicated douche powder. No telltale odor. Inexpensive! Ask your druggist today for CERTANE.

Come to Quisenberry's 410 STATE ST.

Dinner Party Compliments Newly Weds

Complimenting Machinist's Mate First Class and Mrs. Kenneth Juzo, whose marriage was an event of last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Juzo entertained with a dinner party at their home Sunday afternoon.

A wedding cake centered the large table at which the honor guests were seated and decorating the tables were arrangements of daffodils and greenery flanked by white tapers.

Covers were placed at the dinner for Machinist's Mate and Mrs. Juzo, Mr. and Mrs. George Stinson and daughters, Carol and Mary, of Portland; Mrs. Roy O. Brainard of Reedsport, Mrs. Myra Ward, Mrs. Samuel B. Harbison and daughter, Joan, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Harbison, W. H. Sheppard and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Juzo and sons, Billy and Tommy.

Walter Frys Have Number of Visitors

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fry have had as recent guests the family of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Stewart, Jackie, Julie Ann and Jimmy of Portland, and as week-end guests, the family of another daughter and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kleen (Iwana Fry) and Erlene, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kinch and Carol, all of Portland who stopped en route home Sunday, at the Bluelake home of the LaMont Frys, near Salem, for a visit.

Arriving Wednesday at the Walter Fry home from California, is a cousin of Mrs. Fry and also of Nels Henjum of Silverton, George Grinde whose home is in Colton, S. D., and who is on his first trip west. He will visit old time friends living in Silverton and Salem and relatives in western Oregon.

Miss Clinton Leads Discussion At Meet

Woodburn—Hubbard Woman's club met March 15 at the home of Mrs. Ethel Shrock with Mrs. Mina de Wolf and Mrs. Louise Murrell as assisting hostesses.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. Ruby Murphy reported on articles read in the general Federation Clubwoman magazine. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in a discussion on "Understanding Ourselves," led by Miss Frances Clinton, home demonstration agent of Marion county.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Woman's Club Sponsor Library Benefit Tea

Independence—Planned for Tuesday evening at the Woman's clubhouse is annual library benefit tea sponsored by members of the Independence Woman's club.

A program of musical numbers by students at the Sacred Heart academy and Ralph Baldwin and his orchestra has been arranged for the evening.

On the hostess committee for the evening are Mrs. E. E. Altison, Mrs. Nick Versteeg, Mrs. Ira Mix, Mrs. Clarence Harwood and Mrs. Joe Rogers, Jr.

Entraining for the south Sunday was Mrs. Donald Plympton (Wilda Jerman) of Portland, who will visit her father, Arch M. Jerman, in Tucson, Arizona, and her husband, who is stationed at Big Springs, Texas, with the army air corps. During Mrs. Plympton's stay in the south her young daughter, Sally, will visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Arch Jerman.

Lebanon—Announcement is being made of the marriage in Vancouver, Wash. March 13, of Miss Marian Towers of Sweet Home and Cpl. Alvin Jarvis of Camp Adair, formerly of Lebanon.

Women Who Suffer from SIMPLE ANEMIA Here's One Of the Best Home Ways To Help Build Up Red Blood!

You girls who suffer from simple anemia or who lose so much during monthly periods that you feel tired, weak, "dragged out"—due to low blood iron—start today try Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS—one of the greatest blood-iron tonics you can buy to help build up red blood to get more strength and energy—in such cases. Taken as directed—Pinkham's Tablets is one of the very best home ways to get precious iron into the blood. Just try them for 30 days—then see if you, too, don't remarkably benefit. Follow label directions. Worth trying!

Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS

House guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Netter last week were Miss Dolores Gunther and Miss Maryann Holmes of Pendleton.

Miss Gunther and Miss Holmes are students at the Pendleton high school and were in Salem to attend the tournament.

Leaving last week for Carmel, California, there to join Lt. de Schweinitz and make their home, while he is stationed at Fort Ord, were Mrs. Alex de Schweinitz and the de Schweinitz' young son, Allan. Accompanying the two on their southern trip were Mrs. de Schweinitz' parents, Justice and Mrs. Harry Belt.

Birthday Dinner Honors Ronald Netter

Honoring Ronald Ernest Netter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Netter, on the occasion of his second birthday anniversary was the dinner party for which his grandmother, Mrs. Louis Simon, was hostess at her Madison street home Friday evening.

The St. Patrick's motif was carried out in the decorating of the table, which was centered with a birthday cake.

Covers were placed at the dinner for Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Netter, Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, Miss Dolores Gunther, Miss Maryann Holmes and Mrs. Simon.

Miss Brown Betrothed to Sgt. Hagstrom

Joining the ranks of brides-elect is Miss Donna Marie Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ray Brown, whose betrothal to Sgt. Roland G. Hagstrom of San Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Hagstrom of Seattle, was revealed at a tea for which her parents were hosts at their home in North Front street Sunday afternoon.

No date was named for the wedding.

Scrolls bearing the names of the betrothed couple and tied with yellow and white ribbons were presented the guests on their arrival by Little Miss Sandra Van Lydegraf and Danny Keidatz.

Arrangements of yellow and white spring flowers were used in decorating the living room, where the hosts and Miss Brown and her fiancé received the guests, and centering the tea table was an arrangement of daffodils in a crystal bowl flanked by yellow tapers in a crystal holder.

Guests were greeted at the door by Little Miss Jean Brown, Billy Brown and Douglas Brown and assisting the hostess at the tea was Mrs. Eula Price.

Mrs. W. F. Pahl, Mrs. J. G. Nash and Mrs. Lee Doerkson presided at the urns and cut-

Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Tuesday, Mar. 21, 1944—5

Miss Welsh Signs For Wave Service

In different branches of the service, but both serving their country are Miss Bertha Louise Welsh, who recently enlisted in the Waves and her twin brother, Cpl. Orville E. Welsh, now stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif., with the army.

Miss Welsh, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Welsh of Salem, route 7, was graduated from Salem high school in 1940 and while in school was active in the Home Economics club and the Girls Letter club and was a member of the basketball and volleyball teams.

She attended the Capital Business college and has recently been connected with the Oregon state public utilities office. Previously she was a stenographer in the office of the secretary of state.

Aumsville—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gleason have as their guest (Continued on page 11)

Woman's Association To Hear Reports

Installation of officers for the coming year and the yearly reports of the retiring officers will claim the attention of the members of the Woman's association of the First Presbyterian church at their regular meeting to be held at the church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Officers to be installed are president, Mrs. John Harbison; first vice president, Mrs. J. C. Leedy; second vice president, Mrs. Robert Elfstrom; recording secretary, Mrs. L. L. Laws; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Otto Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. R. T. Bales; and auditor, Mrs. A. F. Marcus.

Permanent Push $3.50 Wave, complete 3 Open Thursday Eve by Appointment Phone 3663 Castle Perm. Wavers 365 First National Bank Bldg.

Easter Notes

MILLINERY.

SUITS

Strike a smart note in a new, wonderfully flattering suit for Easter. They're young — they're sophisticated — bright new colors.

$29.75
$39.75

And Up

FUTURE-BRIGHT CHESTERFIELDS

No. 1 coat for smart good looks, day and night wear, now thru Spring. All new Spring colors. Just the coat to top off your new Easter suit.

$29.75
$39.75

And Up

SALLY'S

N.W. CORNER COURT and LIBERTY STS.

