Three and a half months in Alaska is "enough" for Ship's Cook Ralph Seaton, who is home on a 15-day leave visiting his mother, Mrs. G. B. Seaton, 763 North 18th street. What Salem people regarded as a rain when he arrived two days ago was only "mist" as compared with the precipitation and high winds at Kodiak, Seaton declares. He flew into Seattle in a little more than 13 hours. Seaton has been home about three months in the past six years but has been in the navy since Dec. 5, 1941. He finds it a relief to be wearing his whites instead of the blue uniform which he finds too warm for comfort. He will report back for duty at Bremerton, Wash., April 30.
