Miss Brown Weds Orville T. Thompson

Wacanda—Ceremony solemnized at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Scheuerman in Monmouth the evening of April 11 at 8 o'clock, was that at which Miss Elinor Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Brown of Wacanda, became the bride of Orville T. Thompson, third class P. O. United States navy, of Hannibal, Mo., with Rev. Scheuerman officiating.

Little Miss Gloria Scheuerman lighted the tapers at the improvised altar decorated with an arrangement of mixed flowers and Miss Opal Scheuerman sang "Because" and played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a white chiffon gown fashioned with a sweetheart neck and shirred bodice and full skirt. Her floor length veil was edged with lace and fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Miss Shirley Brown was her sister's only attendant. She wore a petal blue lace and net gown and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations and sweet peas.

Little Miss Eloise Brown, sister of the bride, who was flower girl, wore a pink and blue satin gown and carried a nosegay of sweet peas and roses.

Sergeant Gilbert Warren of Camp Adair, served as best man for Mr. Thompson.

At the reception, held following the ceremony, Mrs. Arthur Griffin cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Karl Brown served ices.

Mrs. Thompson will make her home with her parents while Mr. Thompson, now stationed at Long Beach, Calif., is serving in the U. S. navy.

Couple Plights Troth At Monday Ceremony

Scio—Solemnized Monday afternoon at the Baptist church were the marriage vows of Miss Marilyn A. Pynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pynch of the Providence community near Scio, and Erwin M. Burge of Lebanon.

Rev. V. L. Loucks was the officiating clergyman.

The bride is a recent graduate of the Lebanon high school. Her husband prior to leaving for service with the army air corps at Wendover field, Utah, where the couple will make their home, resided in Lebanon.

Jefferson Church Is Scene of Ceremony

Jefferson—At rites read at the First Christian church in Jefferson Saturday night at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Lois Hampton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Hampton, and Richard Schweinfurth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Schweinfurth of Salem, exchanged their marriage vows. Rev. F. Claude Stephens officiated before an altar decorated with baskets of apples and English laurel.

Preceding the ceremony, Leon Hampton, brother of the bride sang, "The Sunshine of Your Smile," and Miss Louise Wattenbarger sang, "I Love You Truly." Miss Lois Smith in turquoise taffeta, and Miss Louise Wattenbarger in peach taffeta lighted the altar candles.

The bride wore a white gown of imported organza, made with fitted bodice with a sweetheart neckline and puffed sleeves and a full skirt. She wore pink rosebuds in her hair, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and pastel sweet peas, from which fell a shower of blue streamers tipped with sweet peas.

Miss Gaynell Cole, the bride's only attendant, wore a gown of aqua taffeta and a corsage of rosebuds. Monte Weddle served as best man for Mr. Schweinfurth.

The couple greeted their guests in the foyer of the church after the ceremony. Receiving with the bridal party were the bride's mother and Mrs. Schweinfurth.

At the reception held at the home of the bride for immediate relatives and close friends, the serving table was covered with a hand crocheted cloth and was centered the bride's cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Schweinfurth will make their home on the bridegroom's farm north of Jefferson.
