Retreat Guild Holds Election

Central Howell—The showing of two reels of motion pictures by County Agent Nibler was the featured part of the program at the Farmers Union meeting. Regular business was taken care of and the Marion county quarterly meeting was announced to be held in the Farmers Union hall over the State store in Salem Saturday evening, July 1. Mrs. Frank Way and Mrs. Clarence Johnson were appointed as a committee to meet with a similar group from the Gervais local to plan the social hour for this meeting. Additional members will be asked to assist with the serving.

Members present voted to hold their annual picnic at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hyett east of the Middle Grove school. The committee in charge, includes Alvin Krug, Mrs. Earl DeSart, W. T. Hatteberg and Mrs. O. G. McCloughry. This group will also plan a program of game and sports. There will also be a short program and a business meeting to be held following the picnic dinner, will take the place of the regular July meeting, July 9 was chosen as the day for the picnic.

Several committee reports were made. S. B. Torvend made the suggestion that the Ladies auxiliary serve a dinner preceding the corn show this next winter, also that the corn show be held later than has been the custom, as most of the corn has not been harvested at the earlier date.

A social hour was enjoyed with lunch served by Mrs. Henry Torvend, Mrs. Silas Torvend and Miss Olga Torvend.

On a general average it takes 336 hours of labor to harvest an acre of strawberries in the valley.

Members of the Liberty Woman's club have voted to continue the home extension program next year.

Others elected were: first vice president, Francis J. Kern of Portland; second vice president, R. J. Windishar of McMinnville; third vice president, Mike Benedict of Sublimity; secretary, E. P. Gilsdorf of Portland; and treasurer, Alvis Keber of Mt. Angel. Very Rev. John Carlin, CSP., of Portland, was retreat master.

The second retreat this summer will be held at Mt. Angel college on August 18, 19 and 20.

Following is the list of retreatants:

Dallas Budget Gets Approval

Dallas—A budget calling for a levy of $23,937.59 for operating expenses for the year 1944-45 was approved by the city budget committee at a special meeting following the regular Monday night. The levy marks a decrease of $322.41 over last year's $24,270 figure.

Total estimated expenditures for the coming year amount to $45,587.72 as against $30,601.50 for the year 1943-44. The amount to be raised is offset by anticipated receipts of $23,600 for the year. Last year's receipts were estimated at $8,385. The budget allows $21,998.72 for the general fund, $7,200 for the general road fund, $3,900 state tax fund, $10,000 road district sinking fund and $2,489 general bonds and interest.

A salary increase from $1,800 to $2,100 was allowed the city auditor. Other city salaries remain: treasurer, $300; attorney, $300; police department $3,900 and street cleaning $2,400.

The outstanding indebtedness for the city includes $10,750 improvement bonds, $2,000 water bonds, $14,300 city hall bonds and $6,300 fire apparatus bonds.

The subcommittee preparing the budget included C. B. Sundberg, Erle Fulgham and James Leitch, Earle Richardson heads the budget committee.

A resolution calling for $10,000 road district reserve fund was approved at the council meeting. The sinking fund is to be used for street repairs, equipment, etc. The council also approved a resolution authorizing sale of property at the corner of Burch and Ellis streets to Ed Morris.

Walter Young, fire chief, was named Dallas' fire chief representative with all expenses paid at the convention of fire chiefs to be held in Portland. The recommendation was made by Hollis Smith, chairman of the fire and water committee.

Heavy Vote Cast For Lone Director

Albany—Floyd Mullen was elected to membership on the Albany school board Monday with the vote being surprisingly heavy in view of the fact that no contest was involved.

Of the 146 votes cast Mullen received 140, with six voters writing in the name of E. V. Bennett.

As soon as the vote was counted the board met and Mullen took the oath of office. At its meeting the board granted Hazel Rolfe a year's leave of absence and offered contracts to Mrs. Laura Freeman Powell, to teach in the Madison junior high school and Mabel Howard to teach Spanish in the senior high school and home economics at Madison school. Mrs. Powell will instruct in science and physical education. Miss Howard is an Albany girl but has been teaching at Colfax, Wash., recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hobart have as their house guest Mrs. Hobart's father, Henry Lynne of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brant visited with relatives for a few days in Portland. Returning with them were Mrs. Murray Marquiss (Margaret Langley), and two daughters, Betty and Arlene, who are house guests of Mrs. Marquiss' parents, the R. Langleys of McClaine street.

Mrs. Gurina Westley left for Salem Tuesday, where she will be with relatives for a few days prior to making a trip to the middle west to remain for some time.

Ray Schantz, veteran of World War I, is at the home of Mrs. Schantz' parents, the Al Downs. Schantz has been confined to his bed for more than four years as the result of an automobile accident. He appreciates company. Mrs. Schantz is employed in Salem and makes the trip daily from here.

One Negative Vote For School Budget

Mt. Angel—Joseph Wavra conducted the school board meeting on Monday night when election was held. Joseph Wavra was re-elected a member of the school board for three years, and C. J. Butsch was elected to serve as clerk for one year. Joseph Wachter will be chairman for this coming year and Fred J. Schwab will follow as chairman.

Thirty voters were present, with 29 votes, yes, to accept the budgets and one no.

Teachers will be the same as last year: Miss Theresa Dehler, principal; Miss Helen Keber, Miss Pauline Saalfeld, Miss Eustelle Bauman, Miss Maxine Berning and Miss Georgianna Piennett will teach the upper six grades. The first three grade classes are conducted by the Benedictine sisters.

Discussion was held favoring moving pictures and amusement for the grade school children.
