

Farmers' Union Locals Meet

Aumsville—The Aumsville Farmers' Union held the July meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Morrison and Mr. Roy Dahl given the obligation. Donald F. Rudisil will become a member of the local at the next meeting.

C. E. Lewis reported on the county convention which was held in Salem the first of July. Fred Steiner gave a report on the public market which is now open to the public each Saturday. The president announced there is to be a meeting held at the city hall in Stayton July 13, at 8 p.m., sponsored by the Jordan and Sublimity locals. This is to be held in regards to plans in the future for a new warehouse to be built near enough to these locals to enable them to have a place to trade nearer home than the present warehouse in Salem.

It was decided that the Aumsville local will meet once a month during the summer; the second Tuesday evening of each month will be the meeting night.

Mrs. Smelser reported on the sick. Mrs. Tarpley is much improved and Mr. Rueck is at his home now after being in the hospital.

Officers Installed Outdoors Meeting

Dallas—Officers of Marmion lodge No. 96, Knights of Pythias, were installed Tuesday night at an out-of-doors meeting held at Marlin's Grove on the Ellendale road. Installing officers were Hollis Smith, past chancellor commander, Fred B. West, prelate, and Merritt Hart, master-at-arms.

Installed were Bolton Stinnett, chancellor commander; Kermit Courter, vice-chancellor commander; Abe Regehr, prelate; Gordon Akers, master-at-arms; Walter Young, master-of-work; Louis Terrill, inner guard, and Ralph Johnson, outer guard. A picnic lunch was served following the meeting.

St. Paul

Shirley and Delores Smith are spending a week at the home of their grandfather, J. E. Smith, in Salem. They were accompanied by Mary Lou Manegre who is spending the week-end with them.

Leo Blanchette is seriously ill at the New Providence hospital in Portland following an appendicitis operation. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Edna McKay has left for southern California to spend some time with her sons, Bill and Bob McKay who are stationed in the south at the present time.

Mrs. Dell Miller and children of Milwaukie were visitors at the home of Mrs. Miller's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bernard. Miss Marjorie Bernard also spent over the 4th of July holiday at her parents' home.

Peter Kirk, Jr., 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kirk, left July 6 for the service and is at present stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash.

A group of St. Paul folks spent the week-end at Ocean Lake by the sea. Going were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bunning, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Manegre, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Manegre, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Crust and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Merten.

Valentine Gebhardt Has 57th Birthday

Silverton—Observing the 75th anniversary of the birth of Valentine Gebhardt of Willamina, were members of his family, with a fourth generation group present, including Mr. Gebhardt, his daughter, Mrs. A. P. Klees (Bernice Gebhardt), Mrs. S. L. Austin and Stephen and Marvin Austin of Sweet home.

Others present were Mrs. Valentine Gebhardt, Mrs. Mary Prager of Vancouver, Mrs. M. L. Bowder and Jerry of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Gebhardt and Janet and Roger, and grandsons of the honor guest, Victor and Val Rickett of Long Creek, Ore. A guest from Willamina was Mrs. Myrtle Allen.

Webfoot Grangers Welcome Members

Dayton—There were 18 members attending the July monthly meeting of the Webfoot grange.

A. J. French, master of Yamhill county Pomona grange and Mrs. French, members of Carlton grange, who recently purchased and moved to a home in Dayton, were guests and French a speaker.

Ruth Beech, delegate, who attended the state grange, gave a comprehensive report.

Unionvale

Mrs. Louis Magee reports $2800 and Mrs. Clark Noble $350, maturity value 5th war bond sales in their part of Unionvale district turned into the Dayton bank Friday.

Mrs. Clark Noble, superintendent of the Unionvale Evangelical Sunday school, gives the following report on the third quarterly business meeting held Monday evening at the church: Miss Audrey Chittim was elected treasurer, to fill vacancy; Mrs. Ivan Gubser, Cradle Roll superintendent; a series of five Sunday school teachers meetings will be held in November.

The next regular Sunday school business meeting will be held Monday, October 2.

State Church Meet Planned at Woodburn

Woodburn—The Oregon State Camp meeting of the Church of God will open its 50th annual session in the fir grove at the north city limits of Woodburn July 20 and will continue for 19 days. Three general services will be held each day.

Dr. C. E. Brown of Anderson, Indiana, will be the guest speaker. Among other prominent speakers will be the Rev. and Mrs. Sydney Rogers, missionaries, just returned from East Africa, who will speak at the missionary meetings. The Rev. Mack Caldwell of Long Beach, Calif., will be instructor of the leadership training class.

The golden anniversary will be celebrated Sunday, July 23.

Two Hammer Boys Observe Birthdays

Mt. Angel—Joseph Hammer, 17, and Maurice Hammer, 14, both born on July 7, were guests of honor at a picnic party Sunday when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hammer, and uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Annen, were hosts.

The picnic was held on Butte creek on the Henry Annen farm. A large square two-layer decorated cake held greetings for both boys. Charles Ertel, celebrating his 13th birthday anniversary, shared honors.

Other guests were Bernard Vandecovering, Albert Schneider, Joseph Bochsler, Ed Annen, Raymond Esch, Elmer Esch, Paul Bede Annen, Norbert Annen, George, Johnnie, Dorothy and Vincent Paul Hammer.

Mrs. Meissner Hurt In Fall From Hay

Lincoln—A broken arm and bruises were received by Mrs. R. J. Meissner when she fell from a load of hay at her home. Mrs. Meissner was helping her husband get the hay into the barn, hauling it in on a trailer behind their car. When almost to the barn the top of the load came off and she went with it. In trying to save herself she tried to break her fall with her left arm in which a bone above the wrist was broken.

Sewing Club Guest

Amity—The East Side sewing club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnson. After a short business meeting the afternoon was spent in sewing. Refreshments were served. Miss Alice Beeler, a Wac, was a guest. Miss Beeler, who is stationed in Texas, spent a short furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Beeler.

STATE NOW PLAYING!

Spencer Katharine Tracy-Hepburn
Woman of the Year

The STARS and PICTURE of the Year!

CO-FEATURE
True pictures of a bomber's life over Europe! Filmed in technicolor!

"THE MEMPHIS BELLE"

Scio Doubles Its Bond Quota

Scio—The Scio area subscribed 213 percent of its $60,000 fifth war loan quota, according to final statement of Waldo DeMoy, manager of the Scio State bank, and chairman of bond solicitations for the city of Scio and adjacent rural communities.

Series E bonds bought by individuals alone topped the quota and totaled $66,471.25. Series C were $6700, series F $74, and series G $5000. Remaining amount of the community's total was a $30,000 allocation in unspecified series credited to Scio by the Roaring River Logging company, subsidiary of Crossett and Western.

Women's ambulance corps members soliciting within the city were Mrs. Jean Haugen, Mrs. Eva Kupfers, Mrs. Pauline Green, Mrs. Justina Oakley, Mrs. Lucille Collier, Arlene Zielinski, Patsy Martin, Zola Zander, Penny Hoagland, Mayline Baker, Barbara Pennell, Mrs. Mayline Baker, Mrs. Patricia Denmore and Mrs. Wilma Crow.

Solicitors in rural districts or assisting in town were Victor Lyon, Glenn Denmore, Mrs. E. J. Denmore, Mrs. Christine Hildreth, Evelyn Tidwell, John Shelton, R. M. Cain, John Sandner, Mrs. Ida Sandner, George Sandner, George Weber, Jean Weber, Mrs. Elsie Eberhardt, D. J. Angerter, Haskel Huntley, Mrs. Ella Johnson, Mrs. Sylvia Lumb, Mrs. Gertrude Mauch, Mrs. J. N. Blyson, Mrs. Leone Ray, Mrs. Maud Montanier, H. E. Zeller, Mrs. Josephine Sommer, Vardie Shilton, Ed Stepanek, S. H. Coles, Mrs. Hattie Goin, W. J. Beran, Wilbur Pank, John Shepherd, W. A. Waid, Mrs. Ralph McDonald, E. Phillips, Mrs. Birdie Phillips, John Silbernagel, John Perry, Mrs. J. N. Blyson.

Silverton

Mrs. Gilbert Moser who has been ill for many months suffered another stroke of paralysis Saturday and was taken to the local hospital for treatment.

Mrs. B. E. Gaffey who has been ill for three weeks at the local hospital, is able to be removed to her home the first of this week.

Earl Bennett, employed in industrial work at Portland with his family in Silverton for the week-end.

Miss Loraine Johnson, daughter of the W. Johnsons, and her cousin, Miss Margaret Kennedy, daughter of the Art Kennedys, are leaving for Hawthorne, Calif. this week, where Miss Kennedy has been employed in industrial work. Miss Johnson has recently been working at the Salem state house.

Mrs. Verna Bailey, R. N., of the local hospital force, is spending a portion of her fortnight's vacation from work at Camas, Wash., at the home of a son.

Mrs. Gladys Irish returned Monday from Eugene where she was house guest for the Fourth of July vacation week of Dr. and Mrs. G. I. Hurley. Her daughter, Miss Jane Irish, arrived home Sunday from Gooding, Ida., having spent the week at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed Irish.

Trenches are being dug on the Abiqua pipe line, is reported from city headquarters, with the P. S. Lord and Company workmen doing the job for the 2.2 miles of pipe replacing worn out material. From a month to six weeks will be required to finish the work.

Mrs. Julius Alm of Aurora, and her sister, Mrs. Charles Littlepage of Cottage Grove, are visiting their father, J. P. Rankin, for a few days. Rankin recently had his leg amputated at the local hospital.

LIBERTY NOW SHOWING!

OPENS 6:45 P.M.
Tyrone Power
Linda Darnell

Dean Jagger
"BRIGHAM YOUNG"

CO-FEATURE!

A PRAIRIE THRILL-FAST PACKED WITH RISKY RIDING AND SIX-GUN ACTION!

GENE AUTRY
SMILEY BURNETTE
"PERILS OF NORTH-WEST MOUNTED"

Mt. Angel

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lacy and Barbara spent the holidays at Newport. The Lacey's, who own and operate the Mt. Angel Electric Bakery, were visited by Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Raught and Shirley of Winlock, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Woll of Junction City.

Mt. and Mrs. Frank Fessler purchased the Lucy Schumacher residence during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Ebner visited with his brother, Raymond Ebner, at St. Vincent's hospital Sunday. Raymond is making satisfactory recovery.

Cadet Nurse Pat Penner of St. Joseph's school of nursing at Vancouver, Wash., spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Penner.

Miss Myra Kaiser returned to St. Joseph's school of nursing in Vancouver after a three week vacation spent at Seattle and at the home of her parents here.

Carroll Reunion Held At Park in Albany

Lebanon—The annual Carroll reunion was held at Bryant's park in Albany with 57 present. Entertainment was furnished by members of the clan, Frank and George Carroll, who played banjos. Mr. Shoulderbrand, a visitor, contributed with his guitar and harmonica.

Present were Chester Carroll, serving in the navy and now stationed at Astoria; and his wife and family; Frank Carroll, also in the navy on tour from Camp Parks, Calif., and his wife.

Others were Mrs. Mable Linkle and children, Mr. and Mrs. David May and children, Mr. and Mrs. Corlis Stringer, Mr. and Mrs. Everett McClellan and son, Mrs. Lena McClellan and son, Mrs. Hazel Leamon, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Sherrill and family, Mrs. Juanita Chambers and family, Mrs. Arthur Leamon and new nephew, Mrs. Christina Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carroll, H. O. Shoulderbrand, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chamble and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roper, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown, Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll and family, Mrs. H. L. Plummer and daughter, Mrs. Rose Jenks, Mrs. Jessie Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Carroll and children.

Falls City

Rev. John Poet and family, Miss Martha Raker and family, Bertha Harrington left Tuesday for the Free Methodist conference at Beaverton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor and daughter, Lavelle spent the week-end at Powers with Mc-Taylor's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cummings and family of Cutler City were in Falls City to get cherries to can.

J. A. Bowman fell out of the cherry tree the past week and broke several ribs.

Mrs. Carl Smith, daughter Violet, Leonard and Dale Britt and Leslie Kerns of Dallas were dinner guests of her mother, Mrs. Fay Frink.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ellis, son Dickey, Mrs. O. P. Driggs, and daughter Jean of Salem were Sunday afternoon callers on Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Driggs.

Dona Jean Harlan of Philomath visited Monday and Tuesday with her two school mates, Joyce Bartell and Evelyn Nairn. J. W. Lacey, Mrs. Robert Worden and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Lacey, and Shevlun Lacey made a trip to Estacada for strawberries.

GRAND NOW PLAYING!

INSIDE STORY... of the toughest guy who ever bossed a shipbuilding crew or conquered a woman's heart!

MICHAEL O'SHEA
ANNE SHIRLEY
Man from Frisco

GENE LOCKHART
A PRAIRIE THRILL-FAST PACKED WITH RISKY RIDING AND SIX-GUN ACTION!

CO-FEATURE A LAFF RIOT!

follow the LEADER
EAST SIDE KIDS
MARSH LARUE GORDON
Saipan Invasion News!

Sgt. Newhouse Memorial Held

Dayton—More than 250 relatives and friends Sunday attended the memorial at the Pioneer church for Sgt. Russell Clinton Newhouse, 23, who was killed in action June 3 on Biak island near New Guinea. Rev. E. C. Hicks, the pastor, officiating.

There are more than 50 stars in the service flag hanging in the church and Sgt. Newhouse's is the first gold star, although several Dayton men have been reported missing who attended the church before induction.

Sgt. Newhouse was born July 19, 1920 in the Neck district near Dayton. He was a graduate of Dayton Union high school and was attending Oregon College of Education when he enlisted in company L, 162nd infantry.

He was sent to Australia in February, 1942 and was returned to combat duty following a rest in Australia. He was a member of the 41st division brought to the front by General MacArthur and a personal letter from the general to the parents of Sgt. Newhouse, extolling the soldierly virtues of the fallen hero, was read at the memorial services by Rev. Hicks Sunday.

Besides his parents, two brothers; Leland Newhouse of Pleasantdale district; two sisters, Mrs. Glen McFarlane of Pleasantdale, Mrs. John Allison of Fairview survive him.

Miss Anabel Nelson was soloist and Miss Audrey Flier, pianist. By coincidence airplane were dropping over Dayton almost all of the time during the memorial services.

Afternoon Card Club Guest Downing Home

Lyons—Mrs. Orville Downing was hostess for the afternoon card club with a party held at her home Tuesday afternoon. Three tables were in play with Mrs. Earl Miller holding high score.

Mrs. Francis Jungwirth low and Mrs. Melborne Rambo drew traveling prize. Mrs. Downing served refreshments to Mrs. Earl Miller, Mrs. Lingascher, Mrs. Francis Jungwirth, Mrs. Art Anderson, Mrs. Percy Hiett, Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Walter Blevier, Mrs. Oscar Naue, Mrs. Melborne Rambo, Mrs. Bert Lyons, Mrs. Arthur Olmstead and Mrs. Earl Allen.

Salem Heights

Miss Olga Wickberg is spending a few days in Portland with her sister, Mrs. Martha Hobson. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Iufer and daughter, Janet, are spending a week at Waldport visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Dorothy Clinker of Portland is spending several weeks at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Burger on Madrona avenue. Mrs. Burger has not been very well for the past several weeks, so Dorothy came home to help her with her canning and to do some canning for herself.

Mrs. Barbara Lovcik has turned in her contract to the school board. She has taken a position with the federal labor board and will continue to work there. As yet a teacher to take her place has not been hired.

Roorks Are Given Farewell at Lyons

Lyons—A farewell party honoring Rev. and Mrs. Roorks was held at the community hall. The evening was spent informally after which refreshments were served. The Roorks were presented with a beautiful picture of Christ in the Garden.

Rev. Roorks, who has been pastor of the Lyons and Stayton churches for the last two years has been transferred to the Monroe-Alpine churches and Rev. R. T. Cookingham from Monroe-Alpine has been sent to supply the Lyons-Stayton district.

Klev Honor Guest Following Church

Silverton—H. N. Klev was a specially honored guest at the fellowship dinner hour following the forenoon worship services at Immanuel Lutheran church Sunday in appreciation of his many years of service as treasurer of the pastorate.

Rev. S. L. Almli gave a complimentary talk honoring Mr. Klev and Otto Dahl, president of the board of trustees, presented a gift.

Seated at the honor table were Mr. and Mrs. Klev, Rev. and Mrs. Almli, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Byberg (Marie Klev) and their small daughter, Carole Joy, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jorgenson and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dahl. More than 150 guests were present.

Building in Albany Includes New Homes

Albany—Building permits issued during June in Albany by City Recorder C. R. Ashton upon authorization of city council committees, represented estimated construction costs totaling $44,275, of which $32,000 is credited to eight residences now in process of erection at the south end of Calapooia street.

June's total brings the aggregate of construction authorized this year to an estimated cost of $378,150.

Dallas Bond Drive Quota is Exceeded

Dallas—Sales in the fifth war bond drive in Polk county had reached $785,016, topping the $754,000 quota by $31,000 in Monday's report released by E. J. Page, county drive chairman. Tabulations are incomplete and it is expected that final returns will show the county over the top by $100,000.

E bond sales have been lagging and still were considerably short of the quota Monday. Further tabulated results will be announced later in the week.

Harrisburg Bonds Reach High Point

Albany—Harrisburg Tuesday entered its bid for top fifth war loan bond honors by turning in a report which showed the community had over-subscribed its quota nearly five times, County War Finance Chairman Harold Farris said yesterday.

Though the Harrisburg quota was $75,000 Farris said, the community is now credited with total purchase of $372,291.20 of which $64,000 are represented by E bonds, for which the Harrisburg quota was $31,240. The Harrisburg report was turned in by J. W. Moore, chairman of the drive in that city.

Little Turner Boy Host on Birthday

Turner—Little Jamie Nelson celebrated his second birthday at the home of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Curt Mellis.

Those present were Mrs. Herman Johnson and sons Jerry and Lonnie, Mrs. Robert Mitchell and sons Freddie and Dale, Mrs. W. R. Hottel and grandson, Gene Poltras, Jr., Roger Ditzform, Jr., Donna Mae Nelson, Mrs. J. R. Smith and Vernon Paul and Anna Mae Smith, Jamie and his grandmother, Mrs. Curt Mellis.

Lyons

Viola Hansen demonstration agent from Oregon State college met with the women at the community club house and demonstrated cooking with pressure cookers.

Mrs. Ora (Lancy) Manning of Medford who was en route to Miles, Wash., to visit her sister and father visited at the home of Mrs. Daisy Johnston, Mrs. Manning and Mrs. Johnston have not seen each other for 40 years. The Lancys years ago lived on the Johnston farm in Fox Valley now occupied by Mrs. Johnston's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston.

Miss Elaine Clippell has returned home from Salem after spending some time with relatives.

Miss Joyce Gunn of Oakland, Calif., visited several days with relatives in Lyons. She is a niece of Mrs. Amos Hiett, Mrs. Edmond Engdahl, Bert and Pat Lyons.

Max McCall of Washington, D. C., visited the home of his stepmother, Mrs. Stacey McCall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Day spent the week-end and the Fourth at the home of her parents at Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brassfield spent the first of the week with relatives in Hillsboro and Portland. They also visited at the Clinton Surry home, former residents of Lyons.

Mrs. Mildred Thompson and daughter, Bonnie Jean, have returned to Seattle after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Ed Spa, and mother, Mrs. Anna Keeton.

CAPITOL
Today
Continuous From 1 P.M.
NONE SHALL ESCAPE
A Thriller Story - Hammer Film - Henry Travers - Eric Portman
★ Co-lead ★
HENRY ALDRICH
"COUNT'S A HOUSE"
A Paramount Picture with JIMMY LYDON
★ HENRY ALDRICH ★

The Song of Songs of Every Woman!

"Lady in the Dark"

PARAMOUNT'S
Technicolor
triumph from the celebrated stage success!

Starring
GINGER ROGERS
RAY MILLAND
WARNER BAXTER
JON HALL
with MISCHA AUER
B. G. DE SYLVA Executive Producer
A MITCHELL LEISEN PRODUCTION

The startling story of a woman's secret loves—sweet with music—bright with color—filled with dazzling scenes!

Directed by Mitchell Leisen • Screen Play by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett • Based Upon the Play by Moss Hart with Music by Kurt Weill and Lyrics by Ira Gershwin

EL SINORE
PHONE 5798
DOORS OPEN AT 6:45 P.M.
Starts TODAY!!

COMPANION FEATURE
TERROR! Inside Nazi Lines!
UNCENSORED
with Eric Portman and Phyllis Calvert