Congress Urges News Freedom

Washington, Sept. 21 (AP)—Congress unanimously urged upon the world today the free exchange of news as a cornerstone of the approaching peace.

Plans Made for V-Day Parade

The Federation of Patriotic Societies has taken the initiative in laying plans for an orderly celebration of V-day. Representatives of that organization met at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night and authorized Rex Kimmell, chairman for V-day, to name various committees to assist in the celebration. Approximately 50 representatives of a number of organizations took part in last night's discussion.

Plans discussed included the formation of a parade which would march through the downtown streets and culminate at the state house for a program of speaking. The conferees endorsed the plans of the churches which will ring their bells at the time of the announcement that Germany has capitulated and a subsequent calling together of the various congregations.

It was suggested that booths be set up in the downtown section where registrations for participation in the local blood bank could be taken.

Chairman Kimmell announced that additional plans would be forthcoming but admitted that any program would of necessity be flexible because of the uncertainty of the time when the news will be received.

President Roosevelt today urged congress to establish a new agency, similar to the Tennessee Valley Authority, to stimulate industry, business and agriculture in the nine states embracing the Missouri river valley.

He also asked congress to give "renewed consideration to studies for similar developments in the Arkansas and Columbia river basins."

Citing the "benefits" brought about by the huge Tennessee Valley Authority, Mr. Roosevelt said he had for many years "advocated establishment of separate authorities to deal with the development of certain river basins where several states were involved."

The general functions and purposes of the Tennessee Valley Authority might well serve as a pattern for similar developments of other river basins," the president said.

Several bills have been introduced at this session of congress to create a Missouri Valley Authority similar to TVA. Sens. Guy Gillette (D. Ida.) and James Murray (D. Mont.) and Reps. John J. Cochran (D. Mo.) and John Rankin (D. Miss.) have sponsored such measures.

The 20th Century business man, frequently called a materialist, is in reality a poet in that he sees visions and makes these dreams come true. Dr. Henry Marcotte, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, told the Rotary club Wednesday noon.

Money, Dr. Marcotte held, is the concentrated essence of the finest spirits and means power to be used either for good or evil. He warned against dreaming of undeveloped places and at the same time ignoring the things at hand. The business man, he said, is approaching God as he realizes God's omnipotence and his own impotence. He closed his talk with a plea for power to do things a man ought to do.
