At the Illihee yard friends, neighbors and former neighbors of Stephen A. Van Houten, general manager, and M. E. Cade, yard man took care of the picking and no truck was run, no special calls for help made, and no day was there any need for worry that the hops would not be picked. There were 14 days work completing the two fields of 16 and 26 acres. Hops were good, not rain enough any day for the fields to be muddy and even the very warm days work went on all day, and everyone picking made good wages.

Santa has a Lot of Traveling to do this Year

To the supposedly impenetrable land of Germany, to the little sun-baked islands in the Pacific, the snow-covered Aleutians, in African deserts, in ruined French and Italian villages and in the crowded cities of England and Australia, Christmas will come as usual to the far corners of the world, bringing cheer and gaiety and gifts from home to our fighting men.

Christmas gifts to soldiers overseas must be mailed early — Sept. 15th to Oct. 15th. Don't disappoint them! These remembrances from home mean so much to our battle weary soldiers. They're a touch of home and a tangible proof of love from the dear ones they left behind.

... You owe it to our fighting men to do your Christmas shopping early and to mail your presents overseas as soon as possible so that you can be sure your gifts reach them in time. Gifts purchased from Stevens and Son will be wrapped and mailed without charge. They have a wide selection to choose from in their "Gift Canteen" — shop early and don't forget the date — September 15 to October 15.

The usual Post Office Written Request will not be necessary to mail your Christmas gifts.
