Salemites Return From Trip East

Mrs. M. R. Perkins and daughter, Marlene, have returned from a two months' sojourn in New York City. Several parties are being planned for them in the near future. They were accompanied east by Warrent Officer M. R. Perkins, who spent a few days in Salem en route from the south Pacific, where he was previously stationed. He is remaining in New York City where he will await further orders.

Miss Florence Cauthorn was a week-end visitor in Corvallis.

Albany Rites of Interest Here

At one of Albany's largest weddings of the late summer season, Miss Ida Mitzner of that city became the bride of Loral Burggraf of Albany. The ceremony was read Monday evening in the Methodist church, with Rev. Edward Terry officiating and Dr. D. H. Leech assisting.

Vows were exchanged as members of the bridal party stood before an embankment of gladioli, zinnias and greenery at the church altar.

For the ceremony the bride wore a white faille taffeta wedding gown with sweetheart neckline and a full train. Her finger-tip length veil was arranged from a Juliet cap, and her bouquet was of white stephanotis centered with a corsage of gardenias and Cecil Brewer roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Acheson, Mrs. Duane Brown,

Miss Irene de Vries and Mrs. Hazel Harnish, the latter two of Salem. Edward Sox was best man for Mr. Burggraf and the ushers were Clark Kendall, Vernon Carper, William Kurtz and Stanley Peterson.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parlors of the church. Later in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip to British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Burggraf are to make their home in Albany. They are both well known in Salem.

Dinner Party Tonight

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Nibler and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Newell will entertain at dinner tonight at the home of Mrs. James Turnbull in compliment to Miss Marjorie Tye, the new Marion county home demonstration agent, and Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop. Mr. Bishop is the new 4-H club agent.

The Marion county agent's staff will make up the guest list. Fall flowers in tones of yellow and orchid will be used in the table appointments and about the rooms. Covers will be placed for 34.

Wedding Details Are Received in Capital

Details of the marriage of Miss Carroll Margaret Gardner, formerly of Salem, daughter of Mrs. Henry Seth Gardner, of Berkeley, Calif., and the late Dr. Gardner, and Lt. John Robert Carr, United States army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Carr of Eureka, Calif., have reached the capital. The ceremony was solemnized at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 10, in the First Presbyterian church at Oakland, Calif., with Dr. Ralph Marshall Davis officiating.

The bride was lovely in a white satin wedding gown designed with a slight train and long sleeves. Duchess lace was used in the panel down the front of the skirt and formed cuffs on the sleeves. A lace cap held the bride's full-length veil. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls and she carried a white prayer book topped with white butterfly orchids.

Mrs. George McLeod, the former Winifred Gardner, was the honor attendant. She wore a frock of delicate pink chiffon and net and carried an old-fashioned nosegay in tones of pink and white.

John McGuffick of Berkeley, Calif., was his cousin's best man and ushers were Belford Brown of San Francisco and Albin Templeman of Berkeley.

A reception followed in the church reception rooms. Mrs. Frank Morgan of Berkeley presided at the urns and Mrs. Albin Templeman cut the ices. Among those serving were Miss Margaret Nunn of Salem and Miss Frances Faber, now of Los Angeles, who was a member of the bride's class at Willamette university.

After the reception the couple left by motor for Tyler, Texas, near Camp Fannin, where Lt. Carr is stationed as medical administrative officer.

The bride is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Delta Phi. She has also attended the University of California and the University of Washington. Her husband is a graduate of the University of California and a member of Phi Psi fraternity.

Leslie Methodist Wesleyan Service guild met at the home of Miss Leora Strong, September 18 with Miss Jessie Belden the assisting hostess. Each guest was presented with a redwood burl by Miss Strong, who spent the summer in California.

Miss Grace Flynn of Portland will be the speaker at the October meeting.
