

Marion Legion Units Gather

Woodburn—Woodburn Post No. 46 and Woodburn auxiliary of the American Legion met Wednesday evening, each group in separate session in the Legion rooms at the city hall and completed plans for the county council which meets here tonight.

Committees in charge include: Refreshments, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Lang, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lenners, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rheinholdt, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moon and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Simonson. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Walter G. Miller. A dance will be held after the meeting.

At the Legion meeting guest speakers were Percy Barbour of Dundee, district chairman of district No. 2 who spoke on the work of the Legion in Oregon and O. E. (Mose) Palmateer of Salem, national committeeman, who gave a report of the national convention held in Chicago during the summer.

Plans were discussed for a number of fall activities and the post voted to take over a second Boy Scout troop here if one is organized and also to assist the Auxiliary with a series of card parties.

At the auxiliary meeting Mrs. J. Wiltmeyer was received as a new member.

Mrs. Julia Brassel and Mrs. Retta Scholer were appointed as the hostess committee for the next sewing meeting which will be held October 25 and the refreshment committee for the next regular meeting, November 8, will be Mrs. Nadine Branigan, Mrs. Florence Adams Wilson and Mrs. Marie Cornwell.

Refreshments were served to the two groups by a committee from the Legion with Albert Osterstrom in charge.

Lakeview Youngster Highly Proficient

Silverton—Mrs. Cora Graden and her mother, Mrs. Oscar Broten, have returned home from a several weeks' stay at Lakeview and at the Oswego and Portland homes of another daughter of Mrs. Broten, Mrs. T. P. Risteigen, who accompanied them home Tuesday for a brief stay.

While Mrs. Graden was in Lakeview with the family of her daughter, the William Holloways, she attended the Lakeview county fair and was thrilled at the outstanding successes of her granddaughter, Joy Holloway, 11 years of age.

Her winnings included first on cooking, canning, sewing, and her steer, a pole Angus, sold for $95 a pound, bringing $900. Joy took first on two Hereford cows, and first on grooming for wetting and curling the animals. Her exhibits are on display at a Meier and Fand window in Portland.

The Holloways live in town and raise the stock on empty lots which has won their prizes for three years.

Bucket Camp Mecca For Deer Hunters

Silverton—"Bucket Camp" mountain cabin, the resort of Walter Fry, prominent local hop man, has been a mecca for hunters since the open season on deer with the shortage of gas. Among recent guests of Fry have been his son-in-law, Clarence Klein, of Portland, and Oscar and Harvey Meyer.

Mrs. Klein remained in Silverton as house guest of her mother during the vacation of her husband.

Several Silverton Hills hunters are remaining home this season and getting their buck from the back pasture of their own ranches, as the deer are unusually numerous this year and somewhat destructive to the strawberry growers and other small crop raisers.

Cadet Nurse Visitor

Silverton—Miss Margaret Gander, cadet nurse at St. Joseph's hospital in Vancouver, Wash., has returned from an overnight stay at the home of her parents, the Joseph Ganders. Only brief vacation visits are now granted cadet student nurses at the present time from their hospital duties.

Amity

Amity—Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Massey who had been Amity residents for many years, have bought a large farm near Perrydale, formerly the Dave Bychly place, and will move there this month.

Rev. W. F. Morse, pastor of the Christian church of Amity, was the guest speaker Sunday at the recently organized Christian church at Seaside. Rev. F. Smith of Portland was the guest speaker Sunday at the Amity Christian church.

Guests for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Taylor, were his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cheshire of Pasadena, California. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor drove there as far as Salem on Friday where they spent the day and from there Mr. and Mrs. Cheshire went by bus.

Polk Program Presented PTA

Independence—Members of the executive board of the Polk county council of PTA met at the home of the council's president, Mrs. E. F. Barrows, at Monmouth for an all-day meeting.

The morning session was opened at 10 o'clock, devoted to the usual business meeting, with the latter part given to Miss Helen Taylor of Dallas, emergency assistant for the war food administration, who presented the program of the monthly demonstrations which will be available for communities in Polk county.

A buffet luncheon was served by the hostess at noon with the meeting continued during the afternoon. Reports were given by the county chairmen and the presidents of the various local associations outlined the work of the year of their association.

Mrs. Barrows, as a member of the state board, made a report on the recent meeting held in Portland, September 28. Polk county is represented on the state board by four Polk county members, including Mrs. Barrows, Mrs. Dean Walker, Mrs. Ira Mix and Dr. Ivan Milhous.

In conclusion the board voted to hold the county council meeting in Independence on November 29.

Discussions were held with recommendations to be made to the council on the following items:

1. That each association use the ROCAF Parent-Teacher broadcast either as a study club or as a program.

2. That all elective officers in various PTA associations complete the state course of study.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. L. H. Hart, Polk City; Mrs. Lloyd Hodson, Mrs. McWhorter and Mrs. R. A. Peterson, Dallas; Mrs. Norman Hanna, Mrs. Dean Walker, Mrs. Ira Mix and Mrs. C. A. Franks, Independence; Mrs. Hugh Van Loan, Monmouth; and Mrs. W. P. Van Don Bosch, Pendleton. West Nelson and Grand House are members of the council but were not represented.

Mrs. Coolidge Guest On 84th Birthday

Roberts—A group of friends met at the home of Mrs. Alice Coolidge in honor of her 84th birthday Tuesday.

At a late hour refreshments were served including a huge birthday cake which centered the table. After luncheon was presented a gift from her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge came to the community in November, 1913. Two years later Mr. Coolidge passed away and since then Mrs. Coolidge has been managing her small ranch, which is mostly in fruits and nuts, doing a great deal of the work herself.

This summer she sold her place to Lee U. Evely and plans to move away next month. After the 1st of December her friends will find her at 858 Cascade Drive, West Salem.

Young Grange Women Discuss Game Night

Union Hill—The Young Grange auxiliary met at the grange hall Saturday. Miss Ruth Kostenbender presided at the business meeting. Plans were made for the year's activities. The next meeting, November 4, will be game night and the group will meet at the Floyd Fox home. The business meeting will be called at 8:30 o'clock, with games following, led by Anne Louise and Rollin Heater. Bill Kostenbender, Guy Scott and Floyd Fox, Jr., will be on the lunch committee. All young people of the community are invited.

Richard Hewett Eagle Scouter

Lebanon—Richard Hewett, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Hewett, became the first Eagle Scout in the history of Lebanon at the Calapooia District Court of Honor, held in the First Methodist church Tuesday night.

The Court of Honor convened at 8 o'clock, with Lawrence Morley, neighborhood commissioner, presiding as judge, and John Eskeldson acting as clerk.

The opening ceremony was conducted by Star Scout John Richards of Troop 51, the host troop. Rev. Ralph G. Kleen gave the invocation.

The climax of the court came with the presentation to Hewett of the Eagle Scout badge by Harry M. Michelsen, assistant scout executive of the Cascade Area council.

Awards presented were as follows: Second class rank, Jack Johnson and Lester Longton, troop 51, Richard Osterman, troop 30, second class merit badge, John Jacobson, troop 51, award of merit for personal health: first class rank, John Jacobson and Delos Houghton, both troop 51; first class merit badge, John Jacobson, award of merit for swimming, and John Ramsey, troop 51, award of merit for personal health.

Special awards included: one year service stars to Donovan Baker, Albert Dwyer, Delos Houghton, Jack Johnson and Robert Patterson, Jr., all of troop 51; five-year service star, John Richards, troop 51; one year perfect attendance, Albert Dwyer, troop 51.

For each of the awards made, Dr. George K. Crain told the audience what the boys did to earn the awards. The court adjourned with Star Scout John Richards leading the recitation of the scout oath and retiring the flag, and Rev. Kleen pronouncing the benediction.

Arrangements for the court were made by F. C. Johannsen, chairman of the Calapooia district.

Stamp Collectors Are Disappointed

Lebanon—As evidence of the wide-spread publicity given the proposed change of Berlin to Distomo, stamp and post office cancellation collectors, eager not to have any omissions in their collections, have been sending letters all week addressed to the Postmaster, Berlin, Ore.

Requests are made for last cancellation from Berlin and first ones from Distomo.

The joker in the deal, reports Lebanon Postmaster Merrill Smith, is that there is no post office at Berlin, as that territory is now served by a rural route out of Lebanon.

Eight letters arrived in one day last week, shortly after the first announcement of the proposed change in name was made in the papers. In all about 50 letters have come through from many parts of the country.

Reports Upon Clinic Pleases Pedee PTA

Pedee—The first PTA meeting of the current school year was held Friday at the schoolhouse with Mrs. W. P. VanDenBosch in the chair. During the business meeting a favorable report was given of the clinical work done with the pre-school and other children the past summer.

Plans were made for the November meeting when Dr. Ripley will show pictures from Oregon State college. Plans were also made for a pie social for early December to secure funds for the local work. The teachers Mrs. Homer Dodel, high school principal; Mrs. Lydia Carmichael, Mrs. G. Murphy, Miss Elizabeth Wagner were introduced. Gus Johns gave several accordion numbers. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Returns From Dakota

Grand Island—Mrs. Mary Mandigo of Portland came Wednesday for a visit with her son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mandigo. She just recently returned from a visit with relatives at Bismark, N. D. Miss Phyllis Mandigo, cadet nurse in training at Emanuel hospital in Portland, was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of her parents.

St. Paul

Christening services were held at St. Paul's Catholic church for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Koch. Rev. James Maxwell, local pastor, officiated, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith were sponsors for the young lady, who was named Rosemary.

Miss Mary Cecelia Davidson, a graduate nurse of St. Vincent's hospital, now teaching nurse's training in Washington, spent the week-end at her home in St. Paul.

Mrs. Edna Smith has left for New York, where she will spend an indefinite time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Slover. Mrs. Smith made the trip by plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mucken and children, Shirley, Maxine and Bobby, were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Mucken's mother, Mrs. Agnes Faber, and also visited at the Ed Faber home, whose son, Virgil, with the United States army, is spending a furlough of several days.

Awards presented were as follows: Second class rank, Jack Johnson and Lester Longton, troop 51, Richard Osterman, troop 30, second class merit badge, John Jacobson, troop 51, award of merit for personal health: first class rank, John Jacobson and Delos Houghton, both troop 51; first class merit badge, John Jacobson, award of merit for swimming, and John Ramsey, troop 51, award of merit for personal health.

Dallas Starts Chest Plans

Dallas—Members of the Dallas Lions club voted to back the War Chest drive 100 per cent, following a talk by William Blackley, local drive chairman, at the Lions clubrooms Wednesday night.

Three soliciting teams appointed by George Worth, president, included R. R. Turner, Dr. E. B. Bossatti, Dr. E. B. McCallon and Otto Adolf; Walter Craven, Lawrence Smith, Hollis Smith and Howard Hall; J. A. Inglis, Cecil Dunn, Paul Bollman and George Worth. The teams will have charge of soliciting in the northern half of the business district.

The southern half of the business district will be contacted by a group of Chamber of Commerce representatives, headed by Victor H. Collins, Earle Richardson and Andrew Irvin, Jr. Other solicitors now in the field are C. B. Sundberg, in charge of the industrial area; Matt Gillis, Farmers Warehouse; Clyde Gibbs, Southern Pacific crews and office; Edward J. Himes, court house, and S. E. Whitworth, schools.

A house to house canvass is not contemplated locally by the chairman unless the city fails to meet its $5,300 assignment.

A kick-off meeting has been tentatively set for the Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting, October 20, when Charles A. Sprague of Salem, Oregon War Chest chairman, is the slated speaker.

Church Women Organizing Guild

Silverton—Mrs. Adney Tokstad is asking the members of the Christian church young woman's Guild to meet promptly at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening at the church for transportation to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bye, where organization of the group, and plans for the future meetings will be formulated.

Mrs. Russell Myers will be in charge of the Junior Intermediates Endeavors in their first meeting of the year at the Christian church parsonage Monday after school, and of the Loyal Temperance Legion at her parsonage home Wednesday afternoon. Unger Funeral Home Improved Unger—The Unger Funeral Home which was officially opened recently and christened by the Rt. Rev. Prior James Koessler, O.S.B., of St. Benedict's Abbey is as modern as the best mortuary in any large city.

The chapel is 75 feet long, newly decorated, can be extended to 150 feet by opening French doors, has side wall light fixtures, indirect light floor lamps, draperies in deep red, venetian blinds, and marbled inlaid linoleum.

Next to the chapel are a large slumber room, for use when more than one funeral is being arranged; a beautiful family room with private entrance; and an elevator to the second floor. At the entrance is a spacious reception room, about 50 feet long, with fireplace, new davenport, modern furniture, and new rug.

On the second floor are a display room, taking in the whole front of the funeral home, lighted by fluorescent lights, also a morgue, a rest room, an elevator and store room.

A gravel driveway is being laid all around the home, and concrete walk built across the back and to the private entrance.

The grounds are being landscaped; all of which is an added asset to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Unger purchased the former Dr. James E. Webb home and had carpenters, painters and decorators enlarging and beautifying the home and gardens, for the past summer. The family have put in all their days and evenings, to speed up the completion of the Unger Funeral Home.
