

ZONTIANS FROM throughout the northwest gathered in Oregon's capital today for the annual Autumn conference of District Six, Zonta International, with the Salem Zonta club acting as hostess group. Miss Helen Yockey of Salem, chairman of District Six and long an active member of the Salem club, is presiding at the business sessions.

Registration was held at 9 o'clock this morning at the Hotel Marion, where the business sessions are being held. Mrs. Dora Stacey gave the address of welcome and Miss Ann Johnston of Seattle responded at the first session of the conference.

Dr. Helen Pearce, prominent Oregon educator and past president of Zonta International, spoke this morning on "America Earns It." Miss Marie Fitzgerald of Spokane talked informally on "A Broader Field for Women." Miss Evangeline Philbin, well-known Portland clubwoman, spoke on "Zonta's Responsibilities to the Public."

Frank Bennett, superintendent of the Salem school system, talked to the Zontians and chose as his subject "You Are a Teacher." Miss Bertha Allen spoke on the "Importance of Organization."

The Medford Zonta club was in charge of the luncheon arrangements at the Hotel Marion.

The banquet in the Mirrorroom of the Hotel Marion will be an event of interest tonight. Miss Evangeline Philbin will act as toastmistress. Dr. Ivan Lovell of the Willamette university faculty will be the banquet speaker. His subject will be "Looking Ahead." Dean Melvin Geist of the Willamette school of music will sing. Mrs. Lydia Derriek of Olympia is arranging a stunt program for the late evening.

Dr. Helen Pearce is arranging an observance of Zonta International's silver anniversary at the Sunday morning breakfast. Miss Helen Yockey will preside and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding will sing. Greetings will be read from the international officers and district members. The conference will adjourn following the breakfast meeting.

Miss Marie Patton of Bend is spending the week-end at the Leslie street home of her mother, Mrs. Hal D. Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jochimsen entertained a group of friends at dinner Thursday evening with several hours of contract following the dinner hour.

Mrs. Julia Gregory entertained Saturday afternoon for the pleasure of her mother, Mrs. Katherine Rogers, who was celebrating her 91st birthday.

Jocille Gregory, a great granddaughter, assisted with the opening of the gifts. Mrs. Rogers received birthday best wishes by telegram from Mrs. Georgia Coffin of Seattle.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth centered with a lovely birthday cake, guarded by tall pink candles. Those present were Mrs. Catherine Gregory and daughter Jocille of Portland; Mesdames Bertha Loveland, Mary Wickman, Laverna Flala, Dora Pratt, France Hoyt, Sarah Peterson, Mary Ackerman, Rose Abbott, Jossie Boedenheimer, Hattie Rodgers, Zula Webb, Irene Speed, Edna Shepard, Mae Givens, Mary Stevens, Nettie Cole, Mary Swinwall and Gertrude Walker.

THE MISSES MARY ANN AND CAROLYN BRADY, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brady, one of the loveliest sister twosomes in town. Miss Mary Ann will enter Willamette as a freshman this autumn and Miss Carolyn, who is an active nurses' aide, is a member of Pi Beta Phi at Willamette and a member of Spinsters. (Jesten-Miller.)

Miss Dorothy Koschnider and Miss Bernice Elgin entertained with a smartly arranged dessert supper Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koschnider. Following the supper hour tables were made up for bridge. Yellow roses formed the decorative note about the rooms.

Bidden were Miss Patricia Ryan, Miss Beth Stewart, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Ernestine Frederickson, Miss Geraldine Shafer, Miss Nancy Stricklin, Miss Suzanna Schramm, Mrs. James Howard, Mrs. Orville South, Mrs. William Whitmore, Mrs. Norman Yagle, and the hostesses, Miss Elgin and Miss Koschnider.

Members of the Mayflower Evening Guild of the First Congregational church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Martin Elle, 1690 North 17th street, Monday night.

During the evening Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff will review "Time for Decision" by Sumner Welles. Sharing hostess honors with Mrs. Elle will be Mrs. Ray Bailey.

WOODBURN—The Marion County Federation of Women's clubs will hold its annual meeting at Woodburn October 27. The meeting will be held in the Methodist church and about 100 women are expected. Mrs. George Gast of Salem is county president.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the business session will get under way at 10 o'clock.

Luncheon will be served by the Methodist women.

Mrs. L. S. Mochel, president of the Woodburn Womens' club, is in charge of local arrangements and the co-hostesses will be the Woodburn Womens' club, the Junior Womens' club and the Woodburn Rural club.

Lieutenant George Bliss, in command of the V-12 training at Willamette University, will speak at the Wednesday meeting of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church at the church. Soloist on the program will be Mrs. Arthur Linerode. The meeting will begin at 2 o'clock, preceded by an executive session at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Rieder and her little daughter, Neena Lee, returned to their home in Corvallis today after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Smith.

Women of Rotary will meet for luncheon at the Golden Pheasant Monday at 1 o'clock. Miss Isabel Childs will speak on measures to appear on the November ballot and Mrs. N. H. Napier will sing a group of numbers.

From Fort Richardson, Alaska, comes news of the marriage there August 21 of Miss Margaret Louise Hamilton, daughter of Mrs. Louise M. Hamilton, Portland, and Lt. Charles W. Brown, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown, Fort Worth, Texas. The wedding was performed by Chaplain L. F. Ohrst in the post chapel. Miss Marian McCann, Seattle, was the bride's only attendant and Lt. William P. Sheahan was best man.

Victor G. Rowe, Anchorage, Alaska, gave the bride in marriage. A breakfast for the wedding party was held afterward at the Rowe home in Anchorage.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown are at home in Anchorage. Mrs. Brown is well known in Salem.

Mrs. George Tate and Miss Dorothy Tate were visitors in Lebanon Thursday.

The Golden Pheasant was the scene of a smartly arranged dinner party Tuesday night when Mrs. Helen Buckland entertained honoring Mrs. William Skewis on the occasion of her birthday. Gold chrysanthemums and lighted tapers centered the attractive table. Covers were placed for Mrs. Skewis, the honored guest, Mrs. Mina Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Lebold, Herbert Staples, Captain William Langhauser and the hostess, Mrs. Helen Buckland.

Pvt. Tom Brand is home from Corvallis for the week-end as the guest of his parents, Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. James T. Brand.

THREE SISTERS are Miss Stella McKay, Miss Mary McKay and Miss Connie McKay, daughters of Mrs. Stanley McKay, who are prominent in the philanthropic work of the Spinsters and many other activities of the younger set. Miss Stella McKay is a Red Cross Nurses' aide and spends much time assisting at the hospitals. (Jesten-Miller.)

A WEDDING of interest calendar for late October is that of Miss Norma Smith, daughter of Commander and Mrs. Elmer E. Smith of Salem, who will become the bride of Dr. John Chandler Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chandler Smith of Hood River, at 4 o'clock next Wednesday in a ceremony to be held in St. Michael and All Angels' church in Portland.

The bride will be given in marriage by her brother, Ensign Elmer E. Smith, Jr., of Seattle, as her father is serving in the South Pacific war theater. She will wear a smart brown wool tulle with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids. Miss Beatrice Smith will be her sister's attendant.

The couple will greet their wedding guests in the church foyer following the ceremony and leave directly afterward for Detroit, Mich., where Dr. Smith will take his internship at Eloise hospital.

Miss Smith is a graduate of Salem schools and Emmanuel hospital school of nursing in Portland. She is a member of the United States Cadet Nurses' corps. Dr. Smith attended the University of Oregon and was graduated from the University of Oregon Medical school last month.

In compliment to Miss Smith a prettily appointed tea was arranged Wednesday by Mrs. Duane Gibson and Mrs. Clifford Chaffee at the former's home.

Making up the guest list were Miss Smith, Mrs. Elmer Smith, Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. L. D. Gibson, Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mrs. Charles Glaze, Mrs. Marvin Johnson, Mrs. A. L. Newton, Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, Mrs. Jennie Gibson, Mrs. Lockwood Franklin, Mrs. Lawrence Inlath, Mrs. Rex Gibson, Mrs. Ray Binegar, Mrs. L. E. Wendt, Mrs. P. E. Castle, Mrs. John Crabtree, Mrs. Duane Gibson, Mrs. Clifford Chaffee and Mrs. M. P. Adams.

Mrs. Thomas Ewing (Evanelle Esson) is leaving Sunday to spend a month in California, visiting friends in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Stearns Eason and small daughter, Miss Lynn, will arrive October 27 for a several days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. David Eason. Lt. Eason recently returned from two years service in the South Pacific and is enjoying a 30-day leave.

Mrs. George Rossman and Mrs. Arthur Hay will entertain the A.A.U.W. Afternoon Literature group at the home of Judge and Mrs. Rossman in North Capitol street Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff will give a book review.

Miss Stella McKay will entertain the Spinsters Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Phillip Brandt, Jr., and her young son, Phillip III, have been in Corvallis during the past week as the guests of Professor and Mrs. P. M. Brandt.

Mrs. Brandt and her son recently returned from Fort Douglas, Utah, where they were with Captain Brandt. They plan to make their home in Salem while Captain Brandt is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla.

AAUW will sponsor a radio program Tuesday, October 25, at 2 o'clock over KOAC. Chairman of the broadcast is U. G. Dubach, head of the political science department at Oregon State college. Subject of discussion will be "What Shall We Do With Germany?"

Arriving from her home in San Francisco Friday was Miss Dolores Nichols, who is the house guest of her Pi Beta Phi sorority sister, Miss Bernice Elgin.

Monday evening Miss Elgin will entertain for the pleasure of Miss Nichols with a group of their sorority sisters making up the guest list.

TOWN and Gown will have its first meeting of the season Thursday, October 26, in the Music hall at 2:30 o'clock. Ralph Dobbs will play several piano selections followed by a talk by Miss Joy Hills, principal of Leslie Junior High school. Her topic will be "The Passing of the Fireside."

The program will be followed by a tea at the home of Mrs. G. Homer Smith.

Those assisting at the tea will be Mrs. George W. Shepard, Mrs. Oscar Cutler, Mrs. George C. Bliss, Mrs. J. N. Chambers, Mrs. Arthur Hay, Mrs. Melvin Geist, Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. L. C. McLeod, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. Karl B. Kugel, Mrs. Rex Putnam, Mrs. W. H. Wood, Mrs. Ray Yocom, Mrs. W. E. Hanson, Mrs. W. I. Needham, and Mrs. Herbert E. Rahe.

Mrs. George Rossman and Mrs. Chester Luther will pour.

Mrs. Richard C. Nelson has been spending several days in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney King will entertain at dinner at their home this evening with covers placed for 12. Bridge will be in play during the evening.

Most of the counties of the state were represented at a special division session of women chairmen Thursday at the two-day state conference of the Oregon war finance committee at the Benson hotel in Portland. Several speakers from different sections reported that the sixth war loan drive, soon to start, will find their workers ready to repeat, with willing enthusiasm, the duties which were theirs in the five previous bond drives.

Presiding was Mrs. Ellen MacVeagh, associate director of the state women's division, in the absence of the director, Mrs. Sallie Orr Dunbar.

The Multnomah county director, Mrs. Donald Bradford, who was called upon first, declared sound organization is the most vital thing. Mrs. Martin T. Pratt, head of block leaders in the county outside Portland, and Mrs. J. A. Minott, speaking for Portland block leaders, assured Mrs. MacVeagh that women will exert every effort again in selling bonds for the sixth war loan drive.

Among other speakers were Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn of Salem and Mrs. Viola Moore of Grants Pass. Mrs. Pettyjohn explained training classes she has conducted for 10 to 25 women at a time so they will understand the bond picture as a whole.

"The first thing to make clear to women who are going to sell bonds," said Mrs. Pettyjohn, "is the tremendous cost of the war. Next it is necessary to explain inflation, and third the remedies for inflation should be given. 'E' bonds are one of the best remedies."

She asserted that in Salem 90 percent of the war bond solicitors are women. They must learn to evaluate themselves and demand recognition when they are entitled to it, she argued.

Mrs. O. K. DeWitt was in town Friday from her Mehama country place.

Announced is the approaching marriage of Miss Elizabeth Hayes to David Martin Wieder.

The wedding will take place the evening of October 25, at the new home of the couple, 1229 SE 55th avenue, in Portland. Dr. Thomas Franklin Hudson of Westminster Presbyterian church will officiate. A reception will be held after the ceremony.

Mr. Wieder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wieder, live in Albany and are well known in Salem.

A GALA PERFORMANCE by the famed Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo is scheduled for the Salem Senior high school auditorium on the evening of Wednesday, November 15, at 8:30 o'clock. News of this engagement was revealed here today by Phil Hart, manager of The Record Shop in Portland, who is in charge of the Salem and Portland appearances of this internationally famed ballet troupe.

The Ballet Russe has appeared previously here as a part of a Community Concert series, but this is the first time that it has been open to general single ticket sale.

Three of the finest ballets in the repertoire of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo will be included in the Salem program. "Les Sylphides," the lovely classical "white ballet" with music by Chopin, will open the program. It will be followed by the new American ballet, "Rodeo," which has music by Aaron Copeland and choreography by Agnes de Mille, designer of the dances in "Oklahoma." The final number on the program will be one of the most popular of all ballets, "Gaiety Parisienne," complete with Can-Can girls and a scintillating score by Offenbach.

This season the Ballet Russe again has an exceptionally fine touring troupe with a brilliant corps de ballet, symphony orchestra, and such featured dancers as Natalie Krassovska, Ruthanna Boris, Dorothy Etheridge, Mary Ellen Moylan, Yurek Laowski and Leon Danielian.

For this, the only large scale ballet performance in Oregon outside of Portland this season, general admission tickets are available by mail order from The Record Shop in Portland.

Mrs. Rose Reilly and Mrs. May Bennett will act as hostesses to the Sons of Union Veterans and auxiliary when they meet for a no-host dinner Tuesday evening, October 24, at 6:30 o'clock.

THE MISSES SALLY AND MARGIE SMITH, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert Smith, who make their home with their parents at University House on the Willamette campus. Miss Sally is a sophomore at Salem High school and is interested in the Junior Nurses' Aides. Miss Margie is in the eighth grade at Parrish Junior High school and an active member of Girl Reserves. (Jesten-Miller.)

MISS CAROL COOK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cook, will become the bride of Corporal Bernard Raymond Sibulsky of Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, son of Stanley Sibulsky of Exeter, Pennsylvania, at a beautiful ceremony to be held in St. Joseph's Catholic church at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. Rev. T. J. Bernards will officiate.

The bride will wear a princess gown of heavy white satin designed with round neck embellished with seed pearls, long sleeves and court train. Her veil will fall from a tiara of seed pearls and she will carry a white prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Clyde Gilman, the matron of honor, will wear a gown of white chiffon trimmed in royal blue. Her hat will be blue and she will carry an old-fashioned nosegay.

Conrad Cook, brother of the bride, will be the best man.

A reception will follow at the studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts with the wedding party receiving. Miss Elizabeth Ann Apple will greet the guests at the door and assisting in greeting the guests will be Mrs. Fred Klaus, Miss Shirley Stearns, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Pearce, will sing a group of numbers during the reception.

Mrs. Michael Panek will preside at the urns and Miss Mabel Potts of Eugene will assist in serving.

Mrs. W. L. Robertson, Jr., of Albany will be in charge of the guest book and little Miss Martha Marie Klaus will pass the dream cakes.

Later the couple will leave on a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches. The bride will wear a stone blue flannel suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage for travelling.

Miss Cook will return to the University of Oregon to complete her senior year. She is editor of "Old Oregon," the University of Oregon alumni magazine. Cpl. Sibulsky will return to Camp Leonard Wood where he is with the 70th division. He is a graduate of Exeter and Wilkes-Barre schools.

Mrs. Reynolds Allen entrained last night for a holiday in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hines of Lebanon are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bernadine Hinz of Salem, and Lt. Roy Fulk of West Virginia and formerly of Camp Adair.

The ceremony was held in Berkeley, Calif., Friday in the presence of a few close friends and relatives.

The bride was lovely in a poudre blue suit with an orchid hat and accessories and a corsage of orchids.

A small reception followed the ceremony with the couple leaving later on a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Fulk attended Lebanon schools and has been with Johnson's shop in Salem. Her husband was educated in the east and was stationed at Camp Adair for some time.

Miss Gertrude Shoemaker, who returned home recently from missionary work in Africa, is attending the International Convention of Christian Churches held this week in Columbus, Ohio. She was on the program on Friday. Next week she will visit relatives in Minnesota on her return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Page have had Miss Virginia Lee Campbell, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Rose of Santa Ana, Calif., as their house guest during the past week.

Au revoir will be said next week to Mr. and Mrs. R. Van Dorn and their daughter, Jane Allyn, who will leave to take up their residence in Portland.

(Additional Society on Page 11)