

Locals

District Deputy William J. LaRoche of Salem, installed the officers of the Sublimity Knights of Columbus Tuesday evening, October 17, at their council chambers at Sublimity. Plans were outlined, following the reading of numerous applications for the conferring of the degrees of the order during the latter part of November. The Catholic Boy Scout program was also discussed.

Fall bulbs. Floral section. Fred Meyer Drug.

For Home Loans see Salem Federal, 130 South Liberty.

E. W. (Gill) Norman, Portland zone manager for the Pontiac motor division since 1941, has been promoted to manager of the Boston zone, effective Monday. K. D. Clark will replace Norman. He was manager of the Salem district for three years after joining Pontiac in 1936.

Excellent unpainted furniture, beds, chests, book shelves, etc. R. D. Woodrow, 345 Center St.

Wedding pictures taken at the church. Bishop's Studio. Ph. 5722. 520 State St.

The hop control board has been called to meet in San Francisco Tuesday, October 31, for organization. There are a number of new members on the board which is made up of two dealers, two grower-dealers, four brewers and eight growers.

Every form of insurance. R. G. Severin, 212 N. High. Tel. 4016. Constant, dependable service.

Eckert's Famous Crawfish. Ph. 9080.

Townsend Club No. 2 will meet Monday, October 23, at 8 p. m. at the W.C.T.U. hall.

Democrat headquarters, 409 1st National Bank Bldg. 252

Fall bulbs. Floral section. Fred Meyer Drug.

Check-up of cigarettes in packages left for collection with downtown merchants and to be taken to veterans' hospital in Portland Sunday by the American Legion Auxiliary was being made today by B. E. (Kelly) Owens, commander of Capital Post No. 9. So far thirty full cartons have been contributed and more are expected before tomorrow. All these will be delivered to bed-ridden and Mullan county patients in the hospital, Commander Owens states.

W. L. (Habby) Habernicht is now associated with Lee Ohmart & Co. 164 S. Com'l. Ph. 9680 253

Deafened are finding Salem's new hearing aid headquarters means better service, free hearing test and private demonstration of new symphonic acousticon—905 First Nat'l. Bank Bldg. Phone 6350. 252

The Oregon liquor control commission in Portland Friday rescinded its former action and issued a letter of warning to Thomas B. Hill, Hill's Candy shop, 687 North Capitol street, retail beer license class B. The previous suspension was ordered upon showing that Hill had acted as an unlicensed wholesaler.

The name of The Quelle Cafe has been changed to Hill's Fountain Cafe, 440 State. 256

Pioneer Trust Co. Fire and automobile insurance. 252

Congressman James W. Mott, of Salem, will discuss election issues at the Wednesday evening forum dinner of the Silverton chamber of commerce. Chairmen of the program committee are Glenn Briedwell and Henry Pritzlaff. John W. Jordan, president of the Silverton chamber of commerce, is inviting the Silverton public to attend. Election of officers will be held during the evening following the report of the nominating committee.

Locall Beauty Shoppe now featuring Daphna Expert Cold Waver. 253

Richard Ware, cook 3/e, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ware, 410 Evergreen, until November 15 after two years of service with the navy in the South Pacific.

Turkey pickers report 9 a.m. Monday. Marion Creamery & Poultry Co. 252

The first meeting of the Pratum-Macleay home extension unit will be held Thursday at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. C. Baleson, one-half mile east of Pratum. Miss Marjory Tye, county home demonstration agent, will speak on "Forestalling Delinquency."

Rugs cleaned. Ph. 6831. 252

Returned to Portland authorities Friday was Charles Frank Ivey, 24, who had been picked up by state police while he was hitchhiking near Eola. He was found to be without a draft card, and later investigation disclosed that he had run away from a Portland police trusty gang May 11.

"Darts for Dough." KEX Sunday, 1 p.m. 252

Central Townsend club will meet at 447 Center street Saturday evening for the regular business meeting.

Reroof with Johns Manville shingles right over your old roof. Free estimates. Mathis Bros., 164 S. Com'l. Ph. 4642. 252

Fire equipment was called early Friday afternoon to Erixon and North Capitol where the sawdust furnace in a residence ran out of sawdust in the hopper, causing flame to belch from the heater. Some smoke damage was reported.

United States Senator Guy Cordon speaks in Floral room, Chamber of Commerce, Monday evening, October 23. Program begins promptly at 8 o'clock. —pd. adv. 253

Governor Earl Snell today called up the citizens of Oregon to join in the observance of "Navy Day," October 27.

For Shatter Proof Glass see R. D. Woodrow, 345 Center St. 252

Daniel Emerson Hutchinson, 15, who ran away from Oregon State Training school October 16, was apprehended Friday, state police reported at Ilwaco, Wash.

Rummage sale, auxiliary Isak Walton League, 217 State Oct. 27th and 28th. 252

Reported missing since Friday morning when he left for Leslie junior high school as usual is Randall Surgeon, 15, rural route 1. The report to the police was made by his mother, Mrs. George Surgeon.

Canning tomatoes; apples. Spitz, Baldwin, G. Golden, 3380 N. River Rd. 1 1/2 mi. city limits. 252

John M. Robbie, civilian recruiter for west coast navy yards, will be at the Salem U. S. employment office Oct. 23, 24 and 25 to interview applicants concerning living and working conditions at the Bremerton navy yard and the yards in California. These yards are badly in need of men to build and repair navy ships. Shipfitters, chippers and caulkers, machinists, pipefitters, cooper-smiths, electricians and sheet metal workers, are in demand.

Request for execution has been filed in the case of Pioneer Trust company vs. City View cemetery association.

A jury in circuit court Friday afternoon found Pearl Patricia Hiday innocent of the charge of false swearing in connection with securing the transfer of title of an automobile from the name of her deceased husband to her own in freezing Mrs. Hiday from the charge the jury deliberated only a short time.

Demurrer has been filed in the case of Elizabeth Ann vs. Robert Budd Parker.

Aloysius Edwin Kilmer, recently sentenced to 20 years in prison for assault on the person of William Neimeyer, local druggist, who was shot by Kilmer when an attempt was made to rob his drug store, was arraigned before Judge George Duane Saturday morning on an information by the district attorney charging him with being a habitual offender. The information alleges six convictions, including the latest in Marion county. The court advised Kilmer that conviction under the present information would mean a life sentence. Kilmer asked for appointment of an attorney before entering a plea. The court named Herbert Carter to appear on behalf of the defendant and set October 25 at 10 a.m. as time for entry of plea.

Complaint for divorce by Dolly L. vs. Oliver William Johnston alleges cruel and inhuman treatment, asks custody of two children, certain household furniture, $50 a month for support of plaintiff, $50 a month for support of each of the two children, $1000 lump sum alimony, or in lieu thereof ownership of an automobile, attorney fees and costs. She also asks for an order to compel her husband to remain away from her during pendency of the suit.

Ed Brundridge was arraigned before Judge E. M. Pae on a motion charge Saturday morning, entered a plea of not guilty and his trial was set for Nov. 18 at 9:30 a.m. On request of defendant for summary was granted by Judge Brundridge. Plaintiff was asked to appear on behalf of defendant. The defendant indicated he would make an application for reduction of bail.

Answer in the case of Chester Maupied vs. M. Angel Creamery. Cooperative alleges that said creamery sustained were due to the plaintiff's own negligence.

Order in the case of Eric G. Kraft vs. Horace Kraft made by Judge John P. Lewis. Plaintiff of payment of $25 a month support money as provided in the

It is not necessary to have experience in these types of work as there are also a number of openings for unskilled men, 18 and over. Comfortable, furnished housing facilities are now available to couples, families and single men. The navy will pay transportation expenses of all new workers.

Attention voters of 6th ward: Re-elect Tom Armstrong for alderman.—pd. adv. 252

First aid: Wayne Weston, Salem high school football player, was knocked unconscious on Sweetland field, Willamette university, Friday evening and was taken to Salem Deaconess hospital for examination. Debra Meten received minor leg injuries in an automobile accident Friday afternoon.

"The Pike" ice cream to carry out 12 flavors, cartons and cones. Open on Sunday, 138 S. Liberty. 252

Emory J. Goode will conduct church services at the Middle Grove school house Sunday morning at 11 o'clock immediately after the Sunday school hour.

Barber shop at 19th & State under new management. Open until 8 Wed. & Sat. nites. 254

Turkey pickers report 9 a.m. Monday. Marion Creamery & Poultry Co. 252

Rex Kimmel, assistant attorney general, has been appointed a member of the legislative committee of the American Legion state department. Gene Oppenheimer, Portland, is chairman of the committee.

Mary Lou Huston, of Mill City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Huston, underwent a major operation in a local hospital this week. She is a junior in the Mill City high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Busick, of Salem Heights avenue, have sold their home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilber of Valley Junction, and are moving to a new home on North Capitol street.

The score of more sanitarians, including a number of army officers who have been in Salem in connection with the Oregon association's fall conference, concluded their deliberations at noon Saturday. Saturday forenoon's program included discussions of industrial hygiene, a report on organization of the public health workers association and home inspection for the state welfare commission.

"Death doesn't wait" for the soldier, aviator or sailor who has been seriously injured in the line of duty. Red Cross officials pointed out today as they issued a call for more than 100 additional blood donors for next Tuesday's clinic to be held at the First Methodist church. The city failed to reach its maximum quota last week although 160 would be donors had registered. A high percentage of rejections has been experienced in recent weeks, making it necessary to have a longer list of registrants.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.

James D. Sears, member of the Salem Board of Realtors, has moved his place of business from Center and North High streets to 1818 North Capitol street.

Dr. Irene Waldo, of Portland, will speak at the Aumsville city hall next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the "Little Townsend" bill on the ballot for the November election.

Continuation of aerial tactics brought the final touchdown.

It was Chemawa's first win in Duroal league circles.