West Salem Lacks Chairman For Sixth War Loan Campaign

West Salem, Nov. 21—Numerous inquiries have failed to reveal any information as to who will be West Salem's chairman in the sixth war loan drive. The silence on the subject undoubtedly comes from difficulty in securing a chairman or unannounced plans on the part of a chairman already appointed by the county chairman.

Despite the fact that no particular campaign has been organized thus far, the school will open its own stamp and bond sales booth today. Mrs. McCormack, defense chairman of the P.T.A., has secured funds from the P.T.A. to finance stamp sales each Tuesday during the remainder of the term.

The Blue Lake Producers have organized their own plant campaign and opened the drive Saturday night with a kick-off meeting at the city hall.

Students Start Drive

West Salem—Students of the local schools have swung into its tin can drive and report tin coming in quite rapidly. A contest is being waged in both the upper grade building and the lower grade building with a prize offered to the grade bringing in the greatest poundage.

The paper drive has been completed and the students are busy bundling the paper for marketing. The sixth grade, winners in that contest, received a half day vacation as a reward.

P.T.A. Council Called

West Salem—The Polk County council of the P.T.A. will meet Wednesday, November 29 in Independence with Dr. James Millar as the principal speaker. UNTIL THIS SNAKE SAYS "UNCLE"

We must keep on saving Used Fats!

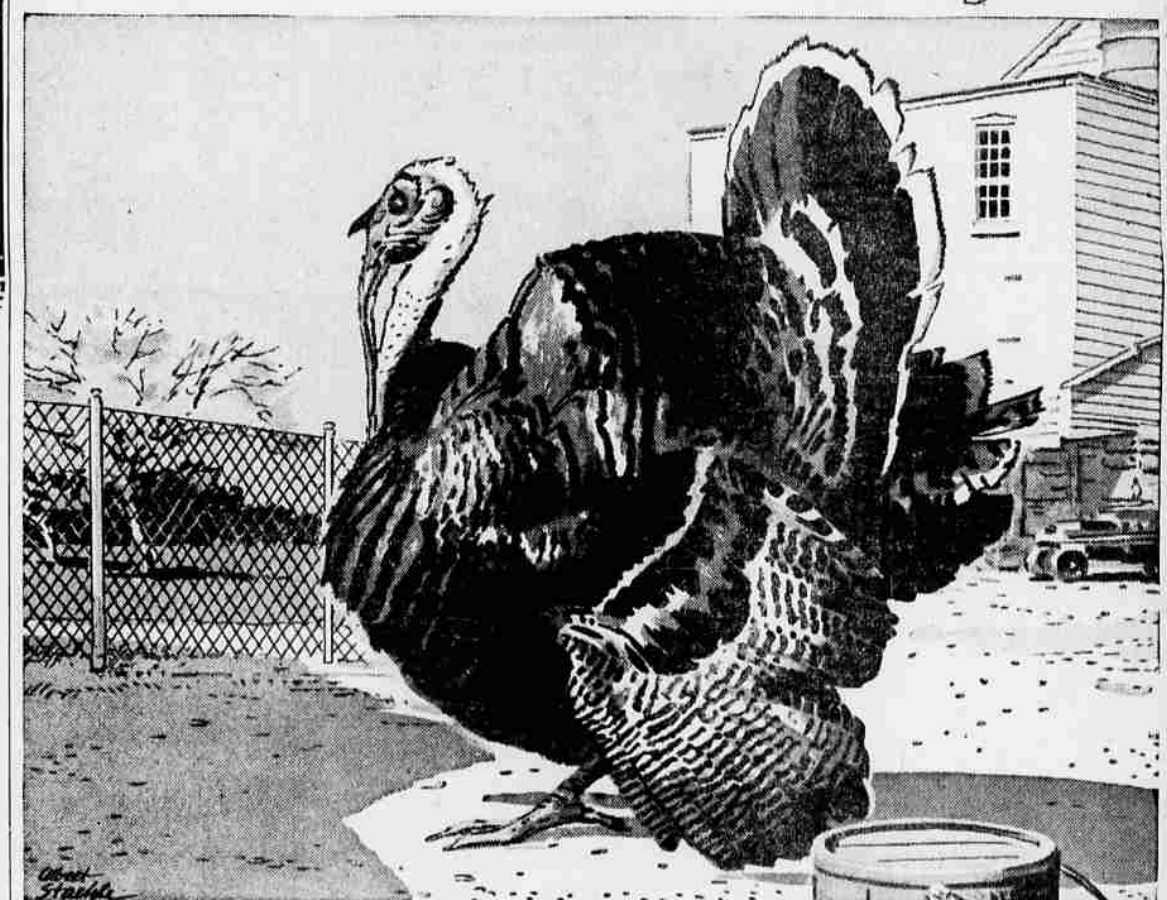

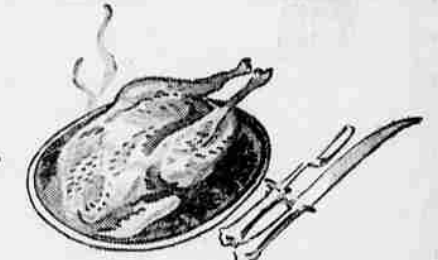

THE slimy Jap snake has still got his hold on those Pacific areas which once supplied us with fats and oils at the rate of one billion pounds a year. So not until we blow him to shreds can we stop saving our kitchen fats to make the materials of war.

Even the defeat of Germany won't change this situation in the least. It's not the Nazis; it's the Japs who still have our fats.

And tons of munitions, explosives, medicines and soaps will be needed in our campaign to blast them out.

Remember, there is still the second round to go with Japan! Keep on saving your used fats to make battlefield essentials. For each pound saved, get 4¢ and 2 free red points! Keep saving till V-J Day! This message has been approved by WFA and OPA and paid for by industry.

The front-page guy

No barnyard biddie can compete with the majestic gobble for gustatory greatness. He has an excellence that is all his own—a luscious goodness that makes him a national favorite.

IMPERIAL, too, has an excellence that sets it apart—a mellow goodness, a taste-delighting smoothness—that has made this grand whiskey the favorite of millions. Taste the difference.

What S.P. train whistles mean

We haven't room to explain all the whistles, but here are the commonest ones. The "o" stands for a short sound, the dash means a longer sound.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■ Warning whistle when train is approaching a highway crossing.

○ ○ ○ When train is running, this means it will stop at next station, which is not a regular stop. If train is standing still, this signal warns that it is about to back up.

■ One long whistle is sounded a mile before train reaches stations, railroad crossings, drawbridges, etc.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■ Signal for brakeman to protect rear of train. He must go down the track with necessary flagman's signals.

○ ○ ○ ■ Signal for brakeman to protect front of train.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■ This signal orders brakeman to return from the west.

■ ■ ■ ■ ■ This signal recalls brakeman from the east.

■ ■ ■ This tells other trains that a second section is following.

○ ○ This is the engineer's answer to most signals from other trains.

○ ○ ○ ○ ○ A succession of short sounds is a warning to persons or livestock on the track.
