

Investment Ceremony Held And Golden Rites Observed

Mt. Angel—His Excellency Most Rev. Edward D. Howard, D.D., officiated at the profession and investment ceremony of eight young women of the Benedictine Convent Queen of Angels at a solemn high mass Saturday morning, the feast of Saint Scholastica, foundress of their order. Earlier in the morning, at the Archbishop's mass, six golden jubilarians solemnly renewed their vows and received the ring and golden crown, symbol of their 50 years in the master's service. The "Jubilant Dec" was sung at the offertory in honor of the jubilarians.

Making their simple perpetual profession were Sister M. Miriam of Roseburg, and Sister M. Alberta of Mt. Angel. The two young women pronouncing their triennial vows were Sister M. Mercedes Schiedler and Sister M. Antoinette Traeger, both of Mt. Angel.

The four young women invested in the benedictine habit

Spanish Play Draws Capacity Audiences

Mt. Angel—A mixed cast of Mt. Angel Academy and Mt. Angel High school students presented the old Spanish play, "Marcheta," to a capacity crowd in the academy auditorium, Sunday afternoon and Monday evening.

In this three-act romantic play, Lorraine Brettraeger, senior from Portland, played the leading feminine role as Marcheta, with Vincent Traeger, senior at Mt. Angel high, as the main masculine character.

Supporting these two characters in the cast were Leroy Obersinner, Ross Hamilton; Jeannette Hoffer, Juanita Montez; Louie Turin, Carlos Cortez and Don Phillips; Mary Elizabeth MacNeill, Isabella; Delbert Diller, Pedro; Angela Smith, Senora Florez; Bette Kastigar, Mrs. Robert Southmore; Regina Hoffer, Mrs. Sheridan; Joe Hauth, Don Montez; Lola, Maureen Wellman. Sister M. Margaret, O.E.B., directed the play. Singing and musical arrangements were provided by the academy glee club and music students.

Farm Demonstration Rickreall Thursday

Dallas—Several Polk county farmers and homemakers will assist in the farm and home labor saving equipment demonstration which will be held at the Rickreall grange hall Thursday at 10 a.m., by showing their own home-made labor-savers and by being in charge of some of the exhibits, according to County Agent W. C. Leth.

The demonstration, sponsored by the state farm labor office in cooperation with the local extension service office, will include many different pieces of farm machinery and home equipment designed to save the time and effort of rural people.

Local women who will assist with the demonstration include Mrs. Leo Buerkle, Rickreall; Mrs. Olay Brown, Independence; Mrs. Fred Kuhn, West Salem; Mrs. Grove Peterson, Independence; Mrs. Anita Chalmers, West Salem; Mrs. Norman Kurland, West Salem; and Mrs. M. J. Wolfe, West Salem.

James Family Moves
Scio—Lloyd James and family were in Scio last week to move their household furniture to their new home in Polk county, three miles north of West Salem, where James is a caretaker of fruit and nut orchards for the Wallace interests. He was employed for two years by the Roaring River logging company near Scio, being at the same time active in official capacities in CIO labor union work.

East Salem Woman Honored Before Joining Red Cross

East Salem, Feb. 12—Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Jones were hosts for a farewell party at their home on Garden Road honoring Miss Ruby West, Miss Marion Thrasher of Swegle district and Miss Jean Hanson of Salem who left Salem Monday for Fort Lewis. They have enrolled as Red Cross army nurse's aides and are the first group to leave Salem for this particular branch of the service. Present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Thrasher, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Dawes, Mr. and Mrs. James Lyke, Mrs. William McKinney and Robert McKinney.

February is one of the busiest months of the school term for Auburn school pupils. This past week the special project was collecting bundles for the Russian War Relief. On Friday, February 16, they will collect salvage paper and bring it to the schoolhouse. The sixth grade is working on the annual flag contest and work on the health posters and American Legion poppy posters has been started in the art classes. There will be no school work for the students Wednesday and Thursday of this week as one of the three language art workshops to be held in Marion county during the week of February 12 to 16 will be at their school on those two days. Between 60 and 70 Marion county teachers are expected to attend. The following ladies will serve hot lunches on both days: Mrs. Glenn Meisner, Mrs. Dale Jefferson.

At the benefit basketball game last week, $34.72 was received for the March of Dimes; and this amount was sent to Al Lightner, sports benefit chairman of Marion county. The honor roll for the seventh and eighth grades are: Eighth grade, Martha Jane Hutchings, Katherine Specht, Shirley Bentley, Teddy McKee, Leighton Weddle, Ellis Hamby; seventh grade, Lucille Bentley, Arlene Cole, Donald Miller, Wanda Workman, Maybelle Ricka, Virjean Altman.

Jefferson School Helps Polio Drive
Jefferson—The Jefferson grade school contributed $43.40 toward the March of Dimes for the infantile paralysis drive. The first and second grades gave $8; third and fourth grades, $6.40; fifth and sixth grades, $15; seventh and eighth grades, $15.

Past Matrons Meet
Woodburn—The February meeting of the Past Matrons of Evergreen chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will be held Thursday evening at the Masonic temple. The hostess committee will include Florence Butterfield, Edna Lytle and Eleanor Vickers.

Marquam Methodists Plan Tamale Supper
Silverton—The Marquam Methodist Ladies' Aid society are yielding to popular demand, and are serving a second home-made tamale supper at the church hall, Thursday, February 22, to be followed by a Washington's birthday program. The annual tamale supper was in November when the society members made 800 chicken tamales and could have disposed of 200 more. The general public will be served at the 6:30 hour. All members of the society help in making these well-known tamales under direction of the officers. Mrs. Barney Thrasher, president; Mrs. Horbert Syhre, vice president; Mrs. Donald Olson, secretary; and Mrs. Christine Pederson, treasurer.

Dallas Counts Bottled Dimes

Dallas—Funds collected locally for the March of Dimes infantile paralysis drive have now reached approximately $750, William Blackley, city treasurer of the drive, stated Monday.

Bottles, placed in various locations in the business district for contributions, were removed Saturday evening, when the drive was officially ended.

Through the medium of bottles and certain miscellaneous contributions received by him, a total of $257.24 was recorded by Blackley.

Clyde Gibbs, Dallas Dime March chairman, had previously reported over $200 turned in, and Mrs. Irene Adam, owner of the Majestic theatre, reported $250 taken in at theatre collections conducted during the January 14-31 period.

The sum exceeds by $150 the amount subscribed locally last year, Blackley said.

Smith to Chairman Boy Scout Campaign

Silverton—Dr. A. L. V. Smith will serve as chairman of the annual Boy Scout drive for Silverton with the goal set at $750 from this community for this year.

Three troops are active, the Methodist, Catholic and Christian church troops.

Serving on the executive committee for Silverton scouts are Earl J. Adams, Wesley Williams, Matt Martin, Ted Hobart, A. W. Woodward, C. B. Anderson, John W. Jordan, A. R. Fish and Jonas Byberg.
