East Side Bus Service Starts

Scio—For the first time in Scio's incorporated 79-year history, according to the "oldest inhabitant," daily bus connections with Portland were inaugurated March 20. South terminal is Lebanon, north terminal is Scio, with buses passing through Scio at 8:42 a.m. and at 4:43 p.m. daily except Sundays and holidays; south-bound leaving Portland 8:25 p.m., arriving Scio 11:01 p.m.; also leaving Portland 7:40 a.m., arriving Scio 10:16 a.m.

East Side Buses company has been operating out of Portland on highway 99E for some time and this week the schedule was increased to include Scio. Slaves, Sublimity and way points. Scio city council and individuals in this community worked several months in unison for this service. Many believe the schedule will result in material benefit to patrons and operators alike in passenger and commercial transportation linking this community with the state's metropolises.

St. Paul

James McKay of near Caldwell, Idaho, spent several days on a combined business and pleasure trip with relatives in St. Paul. On his return home he was accompanied by Russell Gooding who recently bought property in Idaho and left to make arrangements for his family who will remain in St. Paul until the closing of school in spring when they will join Gooding.

Lightning Strikes Evergreen District

Silverton—Residents of the Evergreen district report an unusual occurrence as the result of the one lightning flash that struck the Silverton area the latter part of the week, and which was followed by a down-pour of rain.

The lightning had apparently used the wire for a safety valve, and ripped from the ground and split and splintered fifty posts in the Von Flu hop yard.

Whether the lightning and wind had anything to do with another unusual happening or not remains to be found out, but a wild goose has been evident in the sections that are slightly wooded and grass grown in the vicinity of Welch and Cherry streets of West Hill. This happens commonly during the early spring. At one time three swans were interested visitors for several days at a home yard on Mill street, and were fed with the chickens by the owner.

State Legion Officials Due

Silverton—Roy Davenport, program chairman, is announcing the general plan of entertainment for state officials in the program of dedication of the new home, the former WOW hall, of Delbert Reeves post, No. 7, American Legion. Mrs. A. J. Titus is arranging the co-operative program for the auxiliary and the past presidents of Delbert Reeves unit, Monday, March 26.

Dr. Penn Crum of Hood River, department commander, and Mrs. Charles E. Lemons, department president, will be accompanied to Silverton by a number of state officers and department chairmen and will be in charge of the formalities of dedication.

The Singing Guardsmen, octet of the state guard, company A, will appear in songs: Mrs. Percy Palfreyman will be vocal soloist and K. V. Hinkley, cellist, will give a group of classical selections.

Serving on the refreshment committee are Mrs. Elsie Patton, Mrs. Carl Haugen, Mrs. H. Madden and Mrs. A. Fitzgerald. In the dining room will be Mrs. Will Bloch and Mrs. Jim Black.

Church Activities Needing More Space

Scio—Preliminary steps looking to providing additional space for church activities were announced this week by Rev. V. L. Loucks, pastor of Scio Baptist church.

A "nest egg" fund of approximately $500 is available through savings by the Sunday school over a period of several years as a starter for a building program, Loucks stated.

He said the Sunday school had outgrown its facilities for proper functioning and that an addition to the present building of at least 30x60 feet seemed imperative.

Concerted, well-directed efforts on the part of members and others interested should provide a fund of $2000 to $2500 by the end of the year. Loucks declared, pleading for serious consideration of the proposal "in the interest of God's great work."

Lyons

A 4-H club sewing meeting was held at the community club house in observance of national 4-H week. After a business meeting there was discussion and inspection of the work. Members present were Patsy West, Jean Pietroke, Ruby Naue, Janice and Janet Huffman and their leader, Mrs. Helen Elmer.

Larry Prichard, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Prichard, has enlisted in the United States navy, has passed his examination and is awaiting his call.
