

Locals

The county court has approved sale of lot 16, block 4, Palmer's addition to Mt. Angel, to William and Johanna Bean for $75.

Our insurance service is as close to you as your telephone. Richard G. Severin. Every form of insurance including Life. Constant, dependable service. 212 N. High. Ph. 4016; evenings 8213.

Central Townsend club, No. 6, will meet at 259 Court street, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

For Home Loans see Salem Federal, 130 South Liberty.

Rev. George H. Quigley, retired Methodist minister and supply pastor of the Methodist church in Independence has gone to visit friends in Tacoma, Wash. His pulpit in Independence will be filled on Sunday by Rev. Fred C. Taylor, former pastor of the First Methodist church here.

Experienced Cashier wanted. Price's, 135 N. Liberty.

The Marion county department of health will conduct a clinic in the Brooks gymnasium Tuesday, April 17, from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 3 p.m. There will be immunizations against smallpox, diphtheria and whooping cough for infants and children of pre-school age from the school districts of Brooks, Labish Center, Lake Labish, Clear Lake and Mission Bottom.

To sell that furniture see Russ Bright, Phone 7511.

The burial service will be read by Rev. George H. Swift, rector of Saint Paul's Episcopal church at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The general public is invited to the service which will be held in the main auditorium of the church.

For sale: Potatoes $1.50 sack or 2c lb. You dig. Bring sacks. Phone 23052 or 9623. John J. Roberts & Co.

Hal Hibbard auxiliary, US-WV, in respect to President Roosevelt, has postponed the Pink Carnation sale until a later date.

Frank Doolittle's Master Service station open until 9 o'clock every evening except Sundays.

Regional vice presidents for three districts are being selected through balloting by mail by the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers which holds a regional conference at Eugene, April 19. Mrs. E. F. Barrows, of Monmouth, is a candidate for the office from the seventh district. She recently completed a year as president of the Polk county PTA council.

New "Hearing Lenses." Here is an outstanding war development which helps ears as glasses help and rest eyes. Come in today for absolutely free demonstration or send for free book. Harold F. McDonald, 905 First National Bank Building, Astoria.

William S. Fort, Lane county district attorney, accompanied by Sheriff O. E. Crowe were Eugene business visitors in Salem Thursday.

Rummage sale Thursday, Friday, Saturday, 342 N. Commercial.

The Macleay Grange social night, previously scheduled for Saturday night has been cancelled because of President Roosevelt's death. The next social night will be held the evening of April 28.

Wimpy's Confectionery closed all day Saturdays.

A prepared paper on "Peace in the Pacific" by Charles A. Sprague, former governor, was read over the club woman's half hour on radio station KOAC.

Friday afternoon. The discussion is one of a series being presented during April by prominent Oregonians. Mrs. Lucetta K. Ratcliffe, of Salem, is chairman of international relations for the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs which is sponsoring the programs.

'36 International dump truck. Would like Model A for equity. Call at Signal Station, Liberty and Chemeketa.

Ten Oregon counties, each with an E bond quota in excess of $1 million for the seventh year loan, will contest for the right to launch a ship at Oregon Shipbuilding corporation. The winning county will name the sponsor of the ship, have charge of launching plans and be guests of the Kaiser company at a complimentary luncheon following the ceremonies. Included in the ten, with quotas, are Marion county, $2,270,000 and Linn county $1,163,000.

Painting, decorating. 7532. 93

World famous Akron Modern trusses, correctly fitted. Private fitting room. Capital Drug store.

Dr. A. L. Strand, president of Oregon State college, will speak on the Dumbarton Oaks proposals during the lecturer's hour at a meeting of Marion county Pomona Grange at the Stayton Grange hall next Wednesday. The lecturer's hour is open to the public and anyone wishing to hear Dr. Strand is invited to attend. The program starts at 1 o'clock.

Insurance: Becke, Wadsworth, Hawkins & Roberts, Guardian Bldg.

The annual banquet of the state forestry department was held at the Quelle Thursday night with approximately 100 foresters, private, state and federal employees attending. Speakers were L. W. Webster, Olympia, Wash., for the state of Washington; Charles Henrys, Clatsop county forester and Dean Paul M. Dunn, of the OSC school of forestry. George W. Peavy, dean of the school of forestry for many years, did not give his prepared address but paid tribute to President Roosevelt, speaking of the future of the nation and the responsibilities of its citizens.

Eola Acres, Florist, 5730.

Able to leave the hospital Thursday were Mrs. Charles Druey, Gervais route 1, and infant daughter and Mrs. Harold Moist, 130 Robers avenue, and infant son.

Topcoats for spring, expertly tailored. New colors & fabrics. S&N Clothiers, 458 State.

Proceeds from the moving picture "Foreign Correspondent," shown at a pay assembly at Leslie school Thursday afternoon, will be used by the Girls' league, sponsor of the picture, to carry out activities of the organization.

Pioneer Trust Co. Farm and city mortgage loans. Low interest rates. Write or call for information.

An examiner from the office of the secretary of state will be at the Scio city hall Saturday from 10 to 3 o'clock.

Virgin wool blankets for baby. Better Bedding store, 512 State St.

J. N. (Sam) Chambers, member of the planning commission for the Chamber of Commerce, with other members will attend the Tuesday evening dinner of the Independence Chamber of Commerce. He will tell the Independence group how they may benefit from the Salem program. Chambers, retired manager of the Salem Penney store and past president of the chamber, will be introduced by Daniel Schreiber, manager of the Independence store.

We loan you spare tires while yours are being recapped. Gil Ward, 395 N. High.

Mrs. Marvin Hutchings, of Jefferson, donated blood here this week for the eighth time and became a member of the "gallon club." She was accompanied by her daughter, Sara Hutchings, who was a donor for the first time.

In honor of our President and great humanitarian, this office will be closed Saturday, C. H. Sanders, 231 N. High. 5838. 89*

Eighteen residents of Lebanon and vicinity donated blood when the Red Cross mobile unit was here this week. Appointments for trips to Salem are arranged by Mrs. Cora Harden.

Salem Public Market at Union and High streets will close at noon Saturday on account of the late president's funeral. 89*

Congressman James W. Mott, of Salem, left by plane Thursday night for Washington, D. C., after spending the congressional recess at home.

Dr. M. D. Vinyard is seriously ill at his home. His office will be closed until further notice.

Funeral services for Nettie Estelle Wyatt, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Wyatt who died at a convalescent home here Wednesday, will be held from the First United Brethren church at Philomath Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. She was born at Philomath Nov. 26, 1868, and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Alvie M. Henderson, of Philomath. Miss Wyatt received her education in the schools of her home town including Philomath college and was a lifelong member of the United Brethren church.

Pansies, primroses, perennials, shrubs. Boyd Nursery, 2440 State.

The Salem Chamber of Commerce and its long-range planning commission will make every effort, it was said today, to keep the people informed about plans and progress of the commission. Numerous questions are being asked as to how soon the commission will begin to function and its plans being to shape into reality. Members of the board who are soliciting the working fund for employment of technical help and expense of preparing reports on surveys were out again all day Thursday and say that as citizens of the community become more acquainted with the plan they become more responsive in their support.

The farm labor office at 361 Chemeketa street is calling for 250 men, older high school boys and as many women as possible to report Saturday morning for work in the hop yards and for hoeing strawberries. Trucks will be at the office at 7:15 a.m. to take them to the fields.

A hung jury was the result of a trial last Tuesday in justice court at Woodburn in which Edgar Smith, owner of the Zoo Auto court, was charged with operating a slot machine. Jury for another trial will be drawn shortly after May 1, it was said at the sheriff's office.

First aid was given to Lois Green, 19, of 100 Chemeketa street, who got her right hand caught in a clothes wringer. A first aid call was also made to 1335 Cross where Walter Hinkel, ex-soldier, became ill.

Building permits: J. C. Carpenter, to alter a two-story dwelling at 600 Locust, $385. Ida C. Olson, to reroof a one-story dwelling at 1415 Mission, $50. Roy D. Anderson, to alter a 1 1/2-story dwelling at 690 North 14th, $250.

Gross disputed shippers' charges that only 30 percent of Portland's port facilities are being utilized. At times, he said, the number of ships here is lowered because of Siberian ice jams delaying Russian ships.

Oregon's industrial payroll in March totaled $44,656,758, a drop of almost $3,000,000 from the preceding month, but $4,000,000 more than in March, 1944, the state industrial accident commission said today.

Justice Court

A clerical error in the motor vehicle division of the state department caused the arrest in Eugene Thursday of John Bee Tiller and his appearance in Salem justice court on a charge of violating the provisions of the motor vehicle operators' license law, and dismissal of the case after his arrival here. When the warrant was issued against him last February 21 it was suspected he had, toward his driver's license, but a later check showed that the reason the number on his license was the same as that on the license of another person was due to a clerical error in the state office.

Police Court

Violation of the basic speed rule, H. Asfah, route 1 Corvallis, Jonas J. Ryberg, 321 S. Water St., Silverton; bail $1.50. Thomas G. Ford, 286 West Leflore.

Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, John L. Bush, 760 N. Church, fined $100 and driver's license automatically suspended.

Disorderly conduct, T. B. Hayden, San Francisco, bail $25. Edwin J. Ferguson, Salem, fined $50 and sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Marriage Licenses

John Arthur Goffrier, 21, URMCC, 159 Elm St., West Salem, and Geraldine Elizabeth Clark, 23, secretary, 752 N. Winler, Salem.

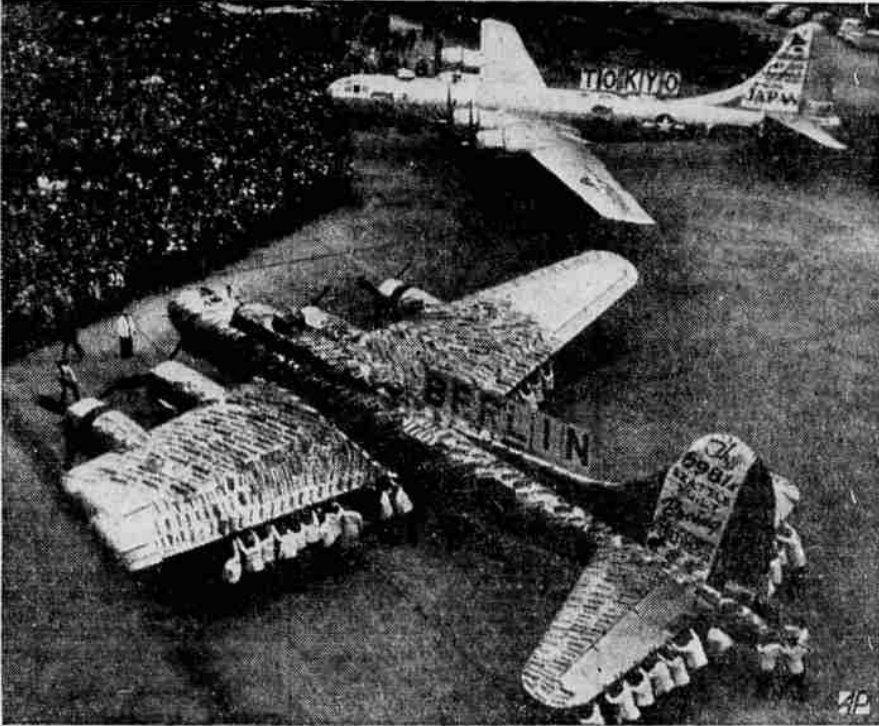

Orval Marlan Moe, 39, naval aviator, 417 Water St., Silverton, and Laura Lee Tule, 25, secretary, 1195 Chemeketa, Salem.

Probate Court

Final account of Lewis Edgar Andol as administrator of the estate of Frederick Andol shows receipts of $1044 and disbursements of $1009.94. Final hearing is set for May 4.

Inheritance tax receipts for $86.76 has been issued to Lee Hawkins as administrator of the estate of Howard Hildebrand.

Petition for sale of real property has been filed in the estate of Philip DeWitt

Flying Fortress Makes Its Bow Out—Crowds watch in Seattle as the 6981st and last Flying Fortress is rolled out of the Boeing plant. Boeing's output is now entirely Superfortresses (background). The B-17 is covered with papers naming towns bombed by the B-17s in Europe.

15 Jap Ships Sunk by Subs

Washington, April 13 (AP)—United States submarines have sunk 15 more enemy ships, including two combatant vessels, in far eastern waters.

A navy communique named the combatant craft as an escort vessel and a converted gunboat.

Non-combatant vessels included two destroyer transports, a large tanker, a naval auxiliary, six medium cargo vessels, a medium tanker, a naval auxiliary, six medium cargo vessels, a medium tanker, and two small cargo vessels.

The announcement raised to 1,088 the total Japanese losses inflicted by United States submarines to date. The total includes 14 combatant ships and 974 non-combatant.

All Pacific Ports To be Utilized

Portland, Ore., April 13 (AP)—The chief of army transportation promised here that all Pacific coast ports will be heavily utilized to ship American and lend-lease supplies abroad.

Here to inspect port facilities, Maj. Gen. Charles P. Gross said yesterday that lend-lease shipments through Portland so far this year were 50 percent higher than during the same period of 1944.

Gross disputed shippers' charges that only 30 percent of Portland's port facilities are being utilized. At times, he said, the number of ships here is lowered because of Siberian ice jams delaying Russian ships.

Oregon's industrial payroll in March totaled $44,656,758, a drop of almost $3,000,000 from the preceding month, but $4,000,000 more than in March, 1944, the state industrial accident commission said today.

Building permits: J. C. Carpenter, to alter a two-story dwelling at 600 Locust, $385. Ida C. Olson, to reroof a one-story dwelling at 1415 Mission, $50. Roy D. Anderson, to alter a 1 1/2-story dwelling at 690 North 14th, $250.

Salem Court News

Both Joseph Earl Roth, minor, of which Dorothy V. Roth is guardian.

Order in the Anna E. Stoen estate discharges release of a bank book to Wilda Stoen, executrix, this having been an exhibit at a recent hearing on the final account.

Justice Court

A clerical error in the motor vehicle division of the state department caused the arrest in Eugene Thursday of John Bee Tiller and his appearance in Salem justice court on a charge of violating the provisions of the motor vehicle operators' license law, and dismissal of the case after his arrival here. When the warrant was issued against him last February 21 it was suspected he had, toward his driver's license, but a later check showed that the reason the number on his license was the same as that on the license of another person was due to a clerical error in the state office.

Police Court

Violation of the basic speed rule, H. Asfah, route 1 Corvallis, Jonas J. Ryberg, 321 S. Water St., Silverton; bail $1.50. Thomas G. Ford, 286 West Leflore.

Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, John L. Bush, 760 N. Church, fined $100 and driver's license automatically suspended.

Disorderly conduct, T. B. Hayden, San Francisco, bail $25. Edwin J. Ferguson, Salem, fined $50 and sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Marriage Licenses

John Arthur Goffrier, 21, URMCC, 159 Elm St., West Salem, and Geraldine Elizabeth Clark, 23, secretary, 752 N. Winler, Salem.

Orval Marlan Moe, 39, naval aviator, 417 Water St., Silverton, and Laura Lee Tule, 25, secretary, 1195 Chemeketa, Salem.

Bombed Yamato—Lt. (j. g.) William Ernest Delaney, carrier pilot, dropped 500-pound bombs on the 45,000 ton Jap battleship Yamato and then was shot down in the midst of the Nipponese task force. He was later rescued, but not before watching the Jap ship take a fatal beating.

Dr. Lowell Talks About Oaks Plan

There is room for constructive criticism but there is none for ignorance or indifference in connection with the forthcoming discussion of the Dumbarton Oaks plan during the San Francisco conference, Dr. R. Ivan Lovell, professor of history at Willamette university, asserted during an address before the Salem Lions club Thursday noon.

He said that he hoped the plan would be amended in detail but he added he expected the proposal would be adopted. He urged backing of all people in the effort to secure some sort of a workable plan for peace of the world.

Dr. Lowell declared that war is now a matter of consideration for the "big five." He added that the same is true in the matter of peace and the absence of one memory of that group would wreck any plan that might be presented. He stated that he felt the other nations should grant any reasonable demands Russia should make in order to keep that country in line. "Russia is still scared that the capitalistic nations will gang up on her," he said.

Gilbert Allen, route 1, reported to police Friday the theft of two hub caps from his automobile while it was parked in the 400 block on North Cottage.

100 Killed in Okie Tornado

Oklahoma City, Okla., April 13 (AP)—An estimated 100 persons were killed and more than 500 others were injured last night when a tornado ripped across southeastern Oklahoma, causing extensive damage and casualties in half a dozen communities.

There were at least 71 known dead and the toll was rising hourly as rescue workers recovered more bodies from the ruins of wrecked homes and buildings.

The greatest loss of life was reported at Antlers, a town of 3,200 population which was almost entirely laid waste by the terrific force of the tornado. At least 60 bodies were recovered and more were being found "every few minutes." More than 200 other persons were reported injured at Antlers.

Nine persons, including five students of the demolished Oklahoma School for the Blind, were killed at Muskogee and more than 200 were injured. Two soldiers were killed and more than 100 persons were injured at Oklahoma City where the wind cut a swath of destruction through the southeastern residential district.

Troops and a medical corps unit were rushed from Camp Maxey, Tex., to aid the residents of Antlers.

Pepin Not Owner Of Antlers Hotel

North Bend, Ore., April 13 (AP)—Arthur R. Pepin, purchaser of a hotel here, said today he no longer owns the Antlers hotel, Ellensburg, Wash.

The Antlers, which an Associated Press dispatch of April 10 said was owned by Pepin, is now owned and managed by Herman Hill, formerly of Seattle.

Experiences as a page during the two-month session of the legislature provided material for a theme in the English work of Marjorie Huff, 14, Oregon City high school girl. Miss Huff, the grand niece of Senator W. H. (Bill) Strayer, of Baker, was assigned to carry messages between members of the press in the senate and the house. She expects to study journalism after she graduates from high school.

The Cherrians, who next Monday sound the go-off gun for Salem's annual Blossom week, will be in charge of the Monday noon lunch meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, and the speaker will be Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette university. The following Sunday will be the annual Blossom day. The council of nobles of the Cherrians will occupy places at the speaker's table Monday and King Bing Sidney McNeil will preside.

Roosevelt Thrice Visited Oregon While President

Portland, Ore., April 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt paid three visits to Portland during his 12 years in office—in 1934, 1937, and 1942. In 1934—first time a president had stopped here since

Linen Plant To be Extended

Announcement was made today by the Miles Linen company, through Bertram Thompson, Salem manager, that it will start construction in about two weeks of an extension to the present plant at 2150 Fairgrounds road that will give the plant one-third more floor space. A building permit issued at the office of City Engineer J. H. Davis gives the estimated cost at $27,000.

The building, of concrete construction, will adjoin the present factory building on the east and will be 50 by 100 feet and one story high. The present plant is 150 by 100.

The company, owned by the Linen Thread company of New York City, operators of a number of factories, is engaged in the manufacture of salmon gill netting and linen shoe thread. The netting equipment has been increased in recent years and the new addition will take care of the salmon netting department exclusively.

The contract has been let to the Austin company of Cleveland. Local labor will be used as far as possible. Priorities were arranged for through the war production board.

He then rode up Mt. Hood to dedicate the $650,000 Timberline Lodge, where he was the first to sign the guest register. Later he again drove through Portland, smiling and waving while the crowds cheered.

His last trip, September 23, 1942, was not generally known until October 1, when he was back in Washington. Stopping at Oregon Shipbuilding Corporation, he saw the launching of the Joseph N. Teal, record-breaking Liberty ship. He rode to the christening platform with Henry and Edgar Kaiser.

Speaking slowly to some 14,000 clamoring day shift workers, Roosevelt said: "I am very much inspired by what I have seen. . . . You are doing a wonderful piece of work for your country and for your nation. With the help of God, we are going to see this thing through to the end."

Jay Morris, 65, of Milton-Freewater, died recently at a hospital in Walla, Walla, Wash. after an illness of several months. He was a brother of Mrs. Minnie Mastratti, of Salem. Morris was born in Pomerooy, Wash, Feb. 8, 1880, and lived in the Milton-Freewater district for 60 years.

Mourning Day

Conditions and directed that the wearing of mourning bands, the draping of colors and firing of salutes be dispensed with "because of war conditions."

Naval ships and stations around the globe were flying the ensign at half mast today on orders from Navy Secretary Forrestal, who similarly designated a 30-day period of mourning for the sea services.

Memorial services shall be held on the day of the funeral at all yards and stations and on board all vessels of the navy, war operations permitting, the navy order read.

Forrestal's order also dispensed with the wearing of mourning bands and firing of salutes. President Truman's proclamation, issued at the state department, formally announced the late president's death.

"But though his voice is silent," the new chief executive said, "his courage is not spent, his faith is not extinguished."

"The courage of great men outlives them to become the courage of their people and the peoples of the world. It lives beyond them and upholds their purposes and brings their hopes to pass."

Mr. Truman recommended that the people of this country assemble tomorrow "in their respective places of divine worship, there to bow down in submission to the will of Almighty God, and to pay out of full hearts their homage of love and reverence to the memory of the great and good man whose death they mourn."

VISION FOR Victory!

Over 20,000 Satisfied Patients

GLASSES On Credit

Brown's

JEWELERS-OPTOMETRISTS

LIBERTY AND COURT STS.

This Funny World

4-13 McNaught Syndicate, Inc.—© Liberty

"Could I interest you in that necklace, madam?"

In Reverence to the Memory of Our Late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt

ALL WARNER BROS. THEATRES WILL BE CLOSED SATURDAY.

Note Change of Time! RADIO BROADCAST "IT'S THE TRUTH!"

Now over KSLM—Every Sunday, 6:15 P.M. (KWJJ, Portland, Sundays at 2:15)

TUNE IN! HEAR THE TRUTH!

Wesley Johnson, Director P. O. Box 8, Portland 7, Oregon