Polk County Court of Honor For Boy Scouts of District

Dallas—Approximately 100 parents of scouts and friends of scouting were in attendance at the Polk county district court of honor for the Boy Scouts. The court was held in Scout Hall. Sidney Whitworth, advancement chairman for Polk district, was in charge of the court. Other members included Otto Adolf, district chairman; Clyde Gibbs, and J. L. Yeager, troop committee men for Troop 24, Dallas; David Potter of the United States army air force; and Harry Michelson, assistant Scout executive for the Cascade area council.

Monmouth is Host Mission Convention

Silverton—Rev. Russell Myers is announcing the Monday all-day meeting of the Willamette missionary district convention at Monmouth, for Christian church organizations to furnish representatives. Prominent in the various meetings over the western sections of the state from Silverton, are Mrs. John W. Jordan, state secretary, and Rev. Myers, a member of the committee. Rev. Orville F. Mick of Albany is missionary chairman.

Emery Residence Scene for Reunion

Jefferson—The home of C. S. Emery on Third street was the scene of a family gathering. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fuqua, who make their home with Mr. Emery; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haines of Molalla; Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell of Canby; Mrs. Mary McDaniels of Heppner; Charles Bower of the navy and Mrs. Bower of Salem. Charles is a grandson of Mr. Emery, and has been overseas. He was having a 30 day leave. Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell's son, Manley, another grandson of Mr. Emery, has been chosen as one of the guards for the meeting of the United Nations in San Francisco, April 25. He is with the military police. Another daughter of Mr. Emery, Mrs. Bert Bleckman and Mr. Bleckman of Heppner, are expected to arrive here next Monday for a visit. They have been visiting their children in California.

Street Program Held for Drive

Silverton—Dr. A. L. V. Smith, general chairman of the national clothing drive, was master of ceremonies of the street program in front of the receiving center on East Main street Friday. Frank Wenzel, director of music in the schools of Silverton, presented nine members of the school band in a several-number concert, specializing on patriotic airs and a hymn dedicated to the late President Roosevelt.

Speakers introduced by Dr. Smith were George Christenson, mayor of Silverton; Tom Anderson, representing the Rotary club; and Errol Ross, president of the Chamber of Commerce. The talks stressed the need of generous donations for the needy of other countries. Donors may leave materials at the center, or have them on their porches for the Boy Scouts to collect. The principal collection was this afternoon, but the center will be opened to receive clothing for several additional days. Dr. Smith expressed gratitude to all helpers, and the Wiesner loud speaker. A gesture of thanks was given Frank Wenzel and the band.

Community Chest Committee Sought

Dallas—A war film, entitled "Timber to Tokio" was shown at the Friday luncheon meeting of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, with Charles Bolinger of the state industrial accident commission in charge.
