

Music Programs For Silverton

Silverton—Miss Hannah Olson, general music week chairman, is announcing the week's planned events to which the public is urgently invited.

Practically every church in town observed Sunday evening programs in keeping with the theme of the week.

Tonight the Eugene Field grades are having part in a special program titled, "Liberty's Children."

On Wednesday, May 9, at the Eugene Field auditorium, will be the outstanding program of the week, The Torch of Freedom, dedicated to the men in service of the army, navy, marines and air corps.

The Singing Guardians will appear. Mrs. Tom Anderson will direct a man's choral club and group singing and Mrs. Percy Palfreyman the Girl Scout singers. Rev. S. L. Alm will be narrator and Miss Eddythe Holland will represent Peace.

Frank Wenzel, head of the high school music department, has arranged a Friday evening, May 11, school program.

Silverton Doctor Goes to Sweet Home

Silverton—Dr. A. J. McConnell and Mrs. McConnell have leased their country home, The Two Maples, and left Monday for Sweet Home where they will make their residence and Dr. McConnell will practice his profession in partnership with Dr. Robert Langmack.

For many months after the beginning of the war, Dr. McConnell practiced in Chilquin, then for some time, substituted over the state for regularly located physicians who were away on vacation. At the present time, with so many of the younger physicians in the service, Dr. McConnell felt he could be of more satisfactory service in regular practice.

The A. J. Titus family plan to take up their residence in Sweet Home, May 15, after 23 years in Silverton.

Ramona Club Guest Skaife Residence

Silverton—Mrs. Roy Skaife entertained at her country home for the Ramona club, with a social hour following the business session. Mrs. Clark Bachman and Mrs. Gordon VanCleave assisted Mrs. Skaife in serving refreshments.

Others present were Mrs. R. A. McClanahan, Mrs. L. C. Eastman, Mrs. W. R. Tomison, Mrs. William Scarth, Sr., Mrs. F. E. Sylvester, Mrs. J. E. Stoy, Mrs. R. A. Fish, Mrs. Lloyd Larimer, Mrs. George Barr.

The June meeting will be the last for Ramona club preceding the summer vacation, with the place of meeting to be decided later.

Degrees Conferred By Masonic Lodge

Independence—At a special meeting of Lyon lodge No. 29, at the Masonic temple, the master mason degree was conferred upon Francis Newton. The F. C. degree was also conferred upon a candidate.

Ira Mix, worshipful master of the lodge, presided and was assisted in the M. M. degree by Phil Schweitzer and other members of the lodge. The regular meeting of the lodge will be next Wednesday evening at which time three candidates will receive the E. A. degree.

Mrs. Mulkey Improves

Silverton—Mrs. James Mulkey, severely burned when the family home was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, is making satisfactory improvement and is able to walk down town each day. Both her hands still show the effects of deep burns, though she can now move her fingers to a certain extent. She is at the Fairview home of her son-in-law and daughter, the J. A. Skirvins.

Lodge Members Honor Knights

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight, members of Home Temple No. 21, Pythian Sisters, and Knights of Pythias for many years, were special program guests during the social hour at the last meeting of the group with their fellow members observing the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Knight in a fun re-acting of the original wedding, presenting a gift and serving a banquet.

A musical program by a male quartet was in honor of the couple.

During the business session, Ella Knight, past chief, presided in the absence of Mrs. Josephine Hartman.

A communication from the district deputy informed the lodge that the district convention would be held in Corvallis, Thursday, May 24. Making up the district are temples of Eugene, Corvallis, Independence, Dallas, Lebanon, Scio, Salem and Silverton.

Henrietta Loe of Silverton will serve as grand protector and Irene Roubal, also of Home Temple, will attend as representative and is delegated to give a report of the temple for the past year. Mrs. Josephine Hartman, M.E.C., will serve as alternative to Mrs. Roubal.

A Mothers Day program will be featured at the Thursday, May 17 meeting when mothers real or "borrowed" will be guests of members.

New members were initiated at the Thursday meeting, and prospective members passed on.

Una Temple Observes 45th Anniversary

Aurora—Una temple, No. 26, Pythian Sisters of Aurora, observed its 45th anniversary with the following charter members present: Tillie E. Fry, Tillie Weibert, Emma J. Snyder, Tena Gribble, Gussie Will, Clara Will, J. M. Will and A. M. Fry. Harriet Ehlert and Louis Weibert were unable to be present, due to illness. Gussie Miller of Portland and Anna Scholl of Hubbard also were absent. Cor-sages were presented to the charter members.

A 25-year jewel was presented to Lizzie Fry. The program consisted of baton twirling by Barbara Wettstein; piano solo by Mrs. Lois Dinteman and group singing followed. Lunch was served.

Silverton Friends Honor Mrs. Lund

Silverton—Mrs. Sigrid Lund, for a number of years a local resident, and now making her home in Tigard with her nephew, Ben Gadeholt, has been extensively entertained by former friends during a fortnight's stay at the home of the M. Hollands.

Informal affairs for Mrs. Lund have been at the homes of Mrs. Petra Johnson and her daughter, Miss Olga Johnson; the G. Rustad home; the S. Berglands, the H. Hollands, the Ed Woares, the Andrew Moores, the Ole Lofthuses, the Hans Hansens, all of Silverton, and her sister, Mrs. Marie Brauti of Salem.

Henricksen Honored By Portland Church

Silverton—A special ovation to the memory of her father, the late George Hendricksen, an annual observance in honor of his birthday anniversary, Mrs. Melvin Nelson (Dora Hendricksen) accompanied by her husband of Portland attended Trinity Lutheran church services Sunday and furnished beautiful floral decorations for the services.

The late Rev. Hendricksen was a former pastor of Trinity congregation.

Other members not residing in Silverton present at the Trinity Sunday worship hour were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Geer (Evelyn Olson) and their son, Bobby, of Salem. Mrs. Geer has recently returned from a visit in California with members of her family, formerly of Silverton. Her niece, Miss Pat Stringer, is now with the service of the Wacs stationed in Alabama, and has just returned from a furlough home.

Mrs. Huber Hostess

Lyons—Mrs. Roy Huber was hostess for the meeting of the WACS. Mrs. George Huffman presided over the business meeting and led the devotions. Miss Huber served refreshments to Mrs. Hal Howard, Mrs. James Reed, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Elmer Howard, Mrs. Clyde Bressler, Mrs. Daisy Johnston, Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Paul Smith and Mrs. Stacey McCall.

IS YOUR CHILD SEEING RIGHT?

Sometimes poor eyesight causes children to have an inferiority complex, which makes them shy and backward in their studies. A careful eye examination and correctly fitted glasses will soon eliminate such faults.

If there is a doubt that your child needs glasses, bring him to us. Glasses will not be prescribed unless absolutely necessary.
