Cannery Collection Response is Good

Silverton—Mrs. Carl Specht, chairman of the community cannery committee on building and equipment, is announcing the results of the Thursday night meeting of the group at the Eugene Field Smith Hughes class rooms when plans were completed for the final individual canvas drive for building funds to close.

Mrs. Specht said the residential district of Silverton yet remained uncannvassed but practically all the rural sections had responded generously.

The week's meeting will be Thursday when it is believed that available funds will have been collected.

Farm Union Juniors Guest Johnson Home

Evans Valley—Daryl and Ardell Johnson entertained members of the Central Howell Farmers' union juniors Wednesday evening at the country home of their parents, the Oscar Johnsons, with a business session and program hour. Late refreshments were served during and informal social hour.

Robert Beutler gave a one-chapter review of the book, "Living by the Way," by Frances W. Butts, explaining the attractions of recreation for younger folk. Daryl Johnson is president of the juniors, and Lloyd Beutler served as secretary in the absence of Ilene Vielniski, regular secretary. Don Steffen is leader of the group and Ardell Johnson is the reporter.

The young people discussed summer recreational plans, leaving the final decision for the next meeting, which will be held at the Central Howell school Wednesday evening, June 20.

Mrs. Rich Welcomed Into 'Galloner' Club

Woodburn—Mrs. Clark Rich went to Salem Tuesday and gave her eighth pint of blood at the Red Cross bloodmobile and is now a "galloner." Mrs. Rich has three sons in the service: Staff Sgt. Melvin Rich in the south Pacific, Pfc. Ira Rich in Germany and Ray Rich who was wounded in Italy and is now in a hospital in Utah.

Polk County Budget Tough Assignment

Dallas—The Polk county budget committee, facing one of the toughest assignments ever given to a county budget drafting group because of decreased valuation, met Friday in the county court room. In addition to Judge Herman Van Well and commissioners Fred Gibson and Harrison Brant, the committee consists of George A. Woods, Dallas; Glen Hogg, West Salem; and R. M. Walker, Independence.

Mobile Blood Bank Will Visit Monmouth

Dallas—The mobile blood bank unit will be in Monmouth on May 25 and Mrs. A. J. Cleveland, secretary of the Polk county Red Cross chapter is advising residents of Dallas and vicinity who wish to donate at Monmouth to register at once at the local headquarters on Mill street. The next visit of the unit to Dallas will be in July.

St. Paul Rodeo Seeks Queen

St. Paul—All Willamette valley equestrienne-minded young women from 16 to 25 years of age are eligible to compete for the role of queen and princess of the tenth annual St. Paul rodeo to be held July 1 to 4, Robin Day, Salem, chairman of the queen's selection committee, announced this week.

Day explained that a queen and her four princesses will be selected Sunday, May 27, at 2 p. m. at the St. Paul rodeo grounds. All participants should appear at the rodeo park in riding attire. If it is not convenient for the contestant to bring her own animal, the rodeo association will furnish one for the afternoon.

Seven judges have been named to select the queen and her court on the basis of riding ability and personality. The girls selected will be given a western-style riding habit for the July celebration.

Winners of the contest will be announced at the queen selection dance planned for the St. Paul community hall on May 29, Chairman Day pointed out. The Salem Top Hatters will furnish the music for this affair.

Mill City

Mill City Woman's club will meet in the home of Mrs. Curtis Cline Tuesday night, May 22, with Miss Sigmund Grimstad assisting. This regular meeting, which was originally scheduled for May 15, was postponed one week because of the high school play on that night.

Mrs. O. C. Gregory was taken to a Salem hospital last week following a stroke.

B. Case is in a serious condition, suffering from a stroke since last mid week. He is at his home on the hill which was formerly the Casda place.

Mrs. Louis Slaton of San Francisco, Calif., is with her father, Charles Porter. Mrs. Slaton visited the world's conference just before leaving for Mill City.

Mrs. William Shepherd and son, Eugene, left last week for South Dakota to be with her parents. Her father is ill.

Mrs. Ralph Downer, who suffered a heart attack and was seriously ill for a week or more is reported to be on the way to recovery.

Evans Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Joe LeRud were honor guests at the regular meeting of the Evans Valley community club at the school auditorium, on the occasion of their silver wedding. The program and supper was significant of the occasion complimentary to the couple. The meeting was the final one for the club year.

Girl Scouters Receive Awards

Silverton—Six young women of the more than 150 Girl Scouters of Silverton won their first class awards at the Court of Awards held Saturday night at the Eugene Field auditorium, for 10 or more proficiency badges which are represented by as many stripes on the sleeve of their uniform. A display of their winning work was on separate tables and included many phases from household carpentry to dainty embroidery.

The six "toppers" are Jeanell Gottenberg, Marjorie Leonard, Louise Hoblitt, Juanita Myers, Betty Myers and Martha Storruste.

Mrs. Alf. O. Nelson arranged the program plans for the evening's program but was unable to be present on account of illness. Miss Hannah Olson of the school faculty, and president of the Girl Scout association presided and served as announcer.

Each troop of Girl Scouts and Cubs put on a skit, demonstration, folk dance, drill, playlet or knot tying, illustrating their accomplishments of the past year. Large groups appeared in vocal choral numbers under direction of Mrs. Percy Palfreyman.

This was the first Court of Awards for Girl Scouts, locally, and will be continued with the next court to be late in the fall of the year.

The Girl Scout camp will be held at Smith Creek in the federal Silver Creek Falls area from August 15 to September 8.

The six young women winning first class awards are continuing their efforts toward the Curved Bar award.

Future Farmers Still Collecting Salvage

Woodburn—The Woodburn Future Farmers of the high school have salvaged 27 tons of waste paper and are asking that residents and country people continue to take their waste paper to the box on front street in front of the Bungalow theater.
