

Silverton City Financial Outlay Greater This Year

Silverton—Finances for the coming year's city budget and summer recreational assistance at the municipal swimming pool had an interesting part in the business of the city aldermen, mayor and manager. Favor was expressed in discussing a $150 a month fee for a swimming pool life guard and swimming instructor for the months of summer. This was suggested by Paul Reiling who is willing to assume direction of the classes

Young Women Get Diplomas

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel Normal and Academy will hold its 57th annual commencement exercises Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Diplomas will be presented to 25 young women.

Miss Veronica Duda and Miss Mathilda Semolke, both of Mt. Angel, will receive their normal school diplomas. High school diplomas will be presented to Hildegard Baune, Rosemary Halter, Angela Smith, of Woodburn; Rosemary Domrowsky, Stayton; Agnes Hackett, Bellingham, Wash.; Elizabeth Kastiger and Mary Elizabeth MacNeil, Silverton; Theresa Manning, St. Louis; Mary Studley, Port Orford; Dorothy Bothwell, Coos Bay; Anna Bell, Catherine Deneke, Olivia Duda, Marjorie Ertell, Regina Hoffer, Jeannette Hoffer, Marian Konen, Rose Mary Martin, Jeannette Rehm, Dolores Stenger, Gertrude Weissenfels, Maureen Wellman, Mt. Angel; and Lorraine Brettrager, Portland.

Very Reverend James Koessler, O. S. B., Prior of St. Benedict's Abbey, will present the diplomas. Rev. John J. Walsh, pastor of St. Paul's church, Silverton, will address the graduates.

Academy students broke all class thermometers in their seventh war bond drive by netting $27,635 in bonds and $70.70 in war saving stamps. The junior class led the contest with $12,695 in bonds; the seniors followed with $6390; the sophomores, with $5275; and the freshmen, with $3275.

Minnesota Residents Plan 24th Gathering

Silverton—Members of the Hills Minnesota club are completing arrangements for their annual Sunday picnic and program June 10 at the Evans Valley country school grounds. A basket dinner will be served. Mrs. Arthur Dahl is president and Mrs. Ole Knutson secretary. Miss Hannah Olson is serving as vice president. Former residents of the Minnesota town now of this community will observe the 24th annual gathering this year.

Silverton—Les Oehler, his daughter, Donna Oehler, and her friend, Betty Shinn, both young women of Portland, have returned from a fortnight's stay at Enterprise, the former home of the Oehlers.

Jefferson

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denson arrived in Jefferson from a six weeks' visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William North, at Park Ridge, Ill. They purchased the Edna Allen property before leaving for Illinois, and will move as soon as the house is vacated by the Allman family. They are staying with Mrs. Denson's sister, Mrs. T. O. Kester.

Rev. Milton Faxon, who has served the local Christian church since February, has resigned and with his family will move back to his ranch near Toledo. No one has been secured to fill his place.

B. S. Richardson suffered two fractured ribs Sunday when he fell as his home in south Jefferson. He was taken to a physician in Seio for aid.

Stanley Benge Heads Dallas Student Body

Dallas—At the final meeting of the Dallas high school student body for the year, Stanley Benge was elected president, succeeding Bill Rohrs. Al Dem-bowski was named vice-president, Lillian Fischer, secretary, Doris Stewart, treasurer and Bud McFetridge, sergeant-at-arms. Two girls, Beverly Osuna and Pat Zentz, were chosen cheer leaders winning over Tommy Wilson and Alvin Adolf.

At a previous meeting Vivian Richardson was chosen editor of the school paper and Ronnie Nairn business manager.

Eight baseball letters and four for tennis were awarded at the assembly by Coach O. E. Anderson. Awards in baseball were given to Bill Rohrs, Neil Richardson, Ed Zeisler, Stan Benge, Joe Cochran, Lloyd Hescock, Ronnie Nairn and Bud McFetridge.

Gus King Fined

Silverton—Gus King was fined $2.50 in city police court Tuesday forenoon having been apprehended late Monday evening by Policeman Jesse Barkhurst charged with "being drunk on the streets." King was a guest of the city over night.

Rodeo Offers Tough Stock

St. Paul—Cowboys competing for the thousands of dollars prize money posted by the St. Paul Rodeo association for their show scheduled here July 1 to 4, will ride, bull-dog, and rope some of the west's toughest stock.

President Ray Manegre of the rodeo association, pointed out this week that Harley Tucker, Joseph, will bring his string of bucking horses, black Angus cows and calves, and Brahma bulls to St. Paul a few days before the show.

Manegre announced that Ed Coffield, Amboy, Wash., rancher, will be arena director; Chuck Balda, Roseburg, will be the show's announcer; and Trixie McCormick, trick riding and roping performer, will give fancy riding exhibitions.

Music for the four shows of this tenth annual rodeo will be furnished by the 60-piece Tigard union high school band, directed by LaMar Bell.

Queen-elect Rose Mae Franke, Salem, will receive her crown—a cowgirl's hat—at a colorful ceremony during which Secretary of State Robert S. Farrell will officiate, June 15.

Silverton—A house guest of Mrs. Petra Johnson and her daughter, Miss Olga Johnson, at their South Third street home for the week-end was a niece of Mrs. Johnson, Miss Karen Hvidding of Canby.
