One of the loveliest weddings of the late spring in Oregon's capital was solemnized this afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Virginia Steed, daughter of Mrs. J. Lyman Steed and the late Mr. Steed, became the bride of Lt. Wallace K. Wittwer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman O. Wittwer. The ceremony was read by Rev. Chester Hamblin in the gardens of the Wittwer home in D street. Before the ceremony Miss Elizabeth Steed sang "This Day Is Mine" with Mrs. Ralph Dobbs playing her accompaniment. Miss Kay Ross of Portland played the wedding marches.

The couple exchanged their vows at an altar in the south side of the garden. Tall baskets of pink peonies and blue delphinium were at either side of the altar.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Wallace Steed of Portland. She was lovely in a handsome wedding gown designed with a lace top and chiffon yoke enhanced with seed pearls and a full skirt of chiffon which extended into a full court train. Her fingertip veil was of tulle and caught in a Dutch cap of handmade lace. Her flowers were white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Elizabeth Steed, Spar, who came west from Norfolk, Va., to attend her sister's marriage, was the honor attendant. She wore a gown of ashes of roses with a lace top and net skirt. A cluster of pink ostrich feathers and pink veiling was in her hair and she carried a mixed bouquet of pastel garden flowers.

John L. Sullivan was the best man for Lt. Wittwer.

Mrs. Steed wore a gown of poudre blue silk crepe with a white hat and white accessories for her daughter's marriage and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of gray silk with a pink hat and accessories.

Lt. Wittwer and his bride and their attendants received informally following the ceremony. At the reception Miss Althea Dorman of Portland passed the guest book.

The serving table was appointed in silver and crystal and a bouquet of white peonies. Mrs. Hugh Taylor cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Elsie Bosten presided at the urns. Assisting in serving were Miss Patricia Higgins, Miss Nancy Day and Miss Carol Young, all of Salem. Miss Eleanor Jensen and Miss Peggy Borge, both of Portland.

For traveling the bride chose a gold silk gabardine suit with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids. After a short stay at the Steed summer home at Nelscott Lt. Wittwer and his bride will leave for Fort Benning, Ga., where he will be stationed.

Mrs. Wittwer is a popular member of Salem's younger set. She is a graduate of Salem schools and Oregon State college.

Lt. Wittwer was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point June 5. He is a graduate of Salem schools and attended Fort Scott Preparatory school before entering West Point.

The next regular meeting of The Woman's Relief Corps will be held at the Y.M.C.A., June 15 at 2 o'clock.
