

East Salem School Boards Conduct Annual Meetings

East Salem, June 21—The annual school meetings of all East Salem schools were held at the different schoolhouses Monday night with only a few voters present at each meeting. At Swegle school Cecil Frame, the director, whose term expired, re-elected for a new three-year term. Serving with him will be Homer J. Conklin, as chairman and Menno Dalke. Goldie C. Hartley will be the clerk. The budget at Swegle was adopted as presented with no dissenting vote.

The estimated tax levy for the year will be $5322.50 which exceeds the 6 percent limitation by $4738.75 but with the money to be received by the district from the income tax reserve will be about $2700 as there were 13486½ days attendance reported by the teachers for the last term and this will bring down the assessed levy to over half the amount. There were director taking the place of F. A. Doerfler, the retiring member of the board. Other members will be John Olson, who will be the chairman, and O. E. Palmateer. This district also voted to exceed the 6 percent limitation with a budget of $10,524.89. Major improvements at Auburn this past year have been interior painting, playground equipment and the purchase of 100 chairs.

At Middle Grove Carl Snyder was the retiring director and Theodore Kuenzi was elected for the new three-year term. The budget was approved as presented. Mrs. Lydia Scharf was elected clerk by the board at the meeting following the election. Other members of the board will be Fred Scharf who will be chairman and John Cage.

Portland GI Captured 200

With the 7th Army, Germany, June 21 (AP)—How a 19-year-old Portland soldier captured 200 Germans singlehanded after starting out to visit his grandmother in Bavaria, was a legend in the 45th division today.

Pfc. William Haug, Jr., Portland, asked for permission to visit his relative in a nearby Bavarian town after the division had secured Munich. Two miles from the village he ran into an enemy road block complete with machine guns, riflemen, and bazookas.

Both Haug and the Germans could hear an American armored division rumbling off to the right flank. When a German officer questioned the Portlander, he declared he was an advance scout for the armored column and unless he returned soon the tanks would come and wipe out the nazis.

The officer decided to release

Haug. But that wasn't enough. The boy demanded surrender of all the men, weapons, and equipment—and he got it.
